<sup>9</sup>Then Jesus told the people this story: "A man planted a vineyard. The man leased the land to some farmers. Then he went away for a long time. <sup>10</sup>Later, it was time for the grapes to be picked. So the man sent a servant to those farmers to get his share of the grapes. But they beat the servant and sent him away with nothing. <sup>11</sup>Then he sent another servant. They beat this servant too. They showed no respect for him and sent him away with nothing. <sup>12</sup>So the man sent a third servant. The farmers hurt this servant badly and threw him out. <sup>13</sup>The owner of the vineyard said, 'What will I do now? I will send my son whom I love very much. Maybe they will respect him!' <sup>14</sup>When they saw the son, they said to each other, 'This is the owner's son. This vineyard will be his. If we kill him, then it will be ours!' <sup>15</sup>So the farmers threw the son out of the vineyard and killed him.

"What will the owner of this vineyard do? <sup>16</sup>He will come and kill those farmers! Then he will give the vineyard to other farmers."

When the people heard this story, they said, "No! Let this never happen!"

<sup>17</sup>But Jesus looked at them and said, "Then what does this verse mean:

'The stone that the builders did not want became the cornerstone?'<sup>d</sup>

Psalm 118:22

<sup>18</sup>Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken. If that stone falls on you, it will crush you!"

<sup>19</sup>The teachers of the law and the priests heard this story that Jesus told. They knew the story was about them. So they wanted to arrest Jesus at once. But they were afraid of what the people would do.

Jewish Leaders Try to Trap Jesus

<sup>20</sup>So they waited for the right time to get Jesus. They sent some spies who acted as if they were good men. They wanted to trap Jesus in what he said so they could hand him over to the authority and power of the governor. <sup>21</sup>So the spies asked Jesus, "Teacher, we know that what you say and teach is true. You teach the same to all people. You always teach the truth about God's way. <sup>22</sup>Tell us, is it right that we pay taxes to Caesar<sup>d</sup> or not?"

to trick him. He said, <sup>24</sup>"Show me a coin. Whose name is on the coin? And whose picture is on it?"

They said, "Caesar's."

<sup>25</sup>Jesus said to them, "Then give to Caesar the things that are Caesar's. And give to God the things that are God's."

<sup>26</sup>The men were amazed at his answer. They could say nothing. They were not able to trap Jesus in anything he said before the people.

Sadducees Try to Trick Jesus

<sup>27</sup>Some Sadducees<sup>d</sup> came to Jesus. (Sadducees believe that people will not rise from death.) They asked, <sup>28</sup>"Teacher, Moses wrote that a man's brother might die. He leaves a wife but no children. Then that man must marry the widow and have children for his dead brother. <sup>29</sup>One time there were seven brothers. The first brother married, but died. He had no children. <sup>30</sup>Then the second brother married the widow, and he died. <sup>31</sup>And the third brother married the widow, and he died. The same thing happened with all the other brothers. They all died and had no children. <sup>32</sup>The woman was the last to die. <sup>33</sup>But all seven brothers married her. So when people rise from death, whose wife will the woman be?"

<sup>34</sup>Jesus said to the Sadducees, "On earth, people marry each other. <sup>35</sup>But those who will be worthy to be raised from death and live again will not marry. <sup>36</sup>In that life they are like angels and cannot die. They are children of God, because they have been raised from death. <sup>37</sup>Moses clearly showed that the dead are raised to life. When Moses wrote about the burning bush,<sup>n</sup> he said that the Lord is 'the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'<sup>n</sup> <sup>38</sup>God is the God of living people, not dead people. All people are alive to God."

Is the Christ the Son of David?

'The Lord said to my Lord:

Sit by me at my right side,

<sup>44</sup>David calls the Christ 'Lord.' But the Christ is also the son of David. How can both these things be true?"

Jesus Accuses Jewish Leaders

<sup>45</sup>While all the people were listening, Jesus said to his followers, <sup>46</sup>"Be careful of the teachers of the law. They like to walk around wearing clothes that look important. And they love for people to show respect to them in the marketplaces. They love to have the most important seats in the synagogues<sup>d</sup> and at the feasts. <sup>47</sup>But they cheat widows and steal their houses. Then they try to make themselves look good by saying long prayers. God will punish these men very much."

True Giving

21 Jesus saw some rich people putting their gifts into the Temple<sup>d</sup> money box.<sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup>Then Jesus saw a poor widow. She put two small copper coins into the box. <sup>3</sup>He said, "I tell you the truth. This poor widow gave only two small coins. But she really gave more than all those rich people. <sup>4</sup>The rich have plenty; they gave only what they did not need. This woman is very poor, but she gave all she had. And she needed that money to live on."

The Temple Will Be Destroyed

<sup>5</sup>Some of the followers were talking about the Temple<sup>d</sup> and how it was decorated with beautiful stones and gifts offered to God.

<sup>6</sup>But Jesus said, "The time will come when all that you see here will be destroyed. Every stone will be thrown down to the ground. Not one stone will be left on another!"

<sup>7</sup>Some followers asked Jesus, "Teacher, when will these things happen? What will show us that it is time for them to take place?"

<sup>8</sup>Jesus said, "Be careful! Don't be fooled. Many people will come using my name. They will say, 'I am the Christ'<sup>d</sup> and, 'The right time has come!' But don't follow them. <sup>9</sup>When you hear about wars and riots, don't be afraid. These things must happen first. Then the end will come later."

<sup>10</sup>Then he said to them, "Nations will fight against other nations. Kingdoms will fight against other kingdoms. <sup>11</sup>There will be great earthquakes, sicknesses, and other terrible things in many places. In some places there will be no food for the people to eat. Fearful events and great signs will come from heaven.

<sup>12</sup>"But before all these things happen, people will arrest you and treat you cruelly. They will judge you in their synagogues<sup>d</sup> and put you in jail. You will be forced to stand before kings and governors. They will do all these things to you because you follow me. <sup>13</sup>But this will give you an opportunity to tell about me. <sup>14</sup>Don't worry about what you will say. <sup>15</sup>I will give you the wisdom to say things so that none of your enemies will be able to show that you are wrong. <sup>16</sup>Even your parents, brothers, relatives and friends will turn against you. They will kill some of you. <sup>17</sup>All people will hate you because you follow me. <sup>18</sup>But none of these things can really harm you. <sup>19</sup>You will save yourselves by continuing strong in your faith through all these things.

Jerusalem Will Be Destroyed

<sup>20</sup>"When you see armies all around Jerusalem, then you will know that it will soon be destroyed. <sup>21</sup>At that time, the people in Judea should run away to the mountains. The people in Jerusalem must get out. If you are near the city, don't go in! <sup>22</sup>These are the days of punishment to make come true all that is written in the Scriptures.<sup>d</sup> <sup>23</sup>At that time, it will be hard for women who are pregnant or have nursing babies! Great trouble will come upon this land, and God will be angry with these people. <sup>24</sup>Some will be killed by the sword and taken as prisoners to all nations. Jerusalem will be crushed by non-Jewish people until their time is over.

Don't Fear

<sup>25</sup>"Amazing things will happen to the sun, moon, and stars. On earth, nations will be afraid because of the roar and fury of the sea. They will not know what to do. <sup>26</sup>People will be so afraid they will faint. They will wonder what is happening to the whole world. Everything in the sky will be changed. <sup>27</sup>Then people will see the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> coming in a cloud with power and great glory. <sup>28</sup>When these things begin to happen, don't fear. Look up and hold your heads high because the time when God will free you is near!"

Jesus' Words Will Live Forever

appear, you know that summer is near. <sup>31</sup>In the same way, when you see all these things happening, then you will know that God's kingdom is coming very soon.

<sup>32</sup>"I tell you the truth. All these things will happen while the people of this time are still living! <sup>33</sup>The whole world, earth and sky, will be destroyed; but the words I have said will never be destroyed!

Be Ready All the Time

<sup>34</sup>"Be careful! Don't spend your time feasting and drinking. Or don't be too busy with worldly things. If you do that, you will not be able to think straight. And then that day might come when you are not ready. <sup>35</sup>It will close like a trap on all people on earth. <sup>36</sup>So be ready all the time. Pray that you will be strong enough to escape all these things that will happen. And pray that you will be able to stand before the Son of Man."<sup>d</sup>

Plans to Kill Jesus

22 It was almost time for the Jewish Feast<sup>d</sup> of Unleavened Bread, called the Passover<sup>d</sup> Feast. <sup>2</sup>The leading priests and teachers of the law were trying to find a way to kill Jesus. But they were afraid of the people.

Preparation of the Passover Meal

Jesus said to them, <sup>10</sup>"Listen! After you go into the city, you will see a man carrying a jar of water. Follow him into the house that he enters. <sup>11</sup>Tell the person who owns that house,

'The Teacher asks that you please show us the room where he and his followers may eat the Passover meal.' <sup>12</sup>Then he will show you a large room upstairs. This room is ready for you. Prepare the Passover meal there."

<sup>13</sup>So Peter and John left. Everything happened as Jesus had said. So they prepared the Passover meal.

The Lord's Supper

<sup>14</sup>When the time came, Jesus and the apostles<sup>d</sup> were sitting at the table. <sup>15</sup>He said to them, "I wanted very much to eat this Passover<sup>d</sup> meal with you before I die. <sup>16</sup>I will never eat another Passover meal until it is given its true meaning in the kingdom of God."

<sup>19</sup>Then Jesus took some bread. He thanked God for it, broke it, and gave it to the apostles. Then Jesus said, "This bread is my body that I am giving for you. Do this to remember me."<sup>d</sup> <sup>20</sup>In the same way, after supper, Jesus took the cup and said, "This cup shows the new agreement that God makes with his people. This new agreement begins with my blood which is poured out for you."<sup>n</sup>

Who Will Turn Against Jesus?

<sup>21</sup>Jesus said, "One of you will turn against me. His hand is by my hand on the table. <sup>22</sup>The Son of Man<sup>d</sup> will do what God has planned. But how terrible it will be for that man who gives the Son of Man to be killed."

<sup>23</sup>Then the apostles<sup>d</sup> asked each other, "Which one of us would do that to Jesus?"

Be Like a Servant

<sup>24</sup>Then the apostles<sup>d</sup> began to argue about which one of them was the most important. <sup>25</sup>But Jesus said to them, "The kings of the world rule over their people. Men who have authority over others are called 'very important.' <sup>26</sup>But you must not be like that. The greatest among you should be like the youngest, and the leader should be like the servant. <sup>27</sup>Who is more important: the one sitting at the table or the one serving him? You think the one at the table is more important. But I am like a servant among you!

many struggles. <sup>29</sup>My Father has given me the power to rule. I also give you authority to rule with me. <sup>30</sup>You will eat and drink at my table in my kingdom. You will sit on thrones and judge the 12 tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel."

Don't Lose Your Faith!

<sup>31</sup>"Satan has asked to test all of you as a farmer tests his wheat. Simon, Simon, <sup>32</sup>I have prayed that you will not lose your faith! Help your brothers be stronger when you come back to me."

<sup>33</sup>But Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, I am ready to go to prison with you. I will even die with you!"

<sup>34</sup>But Jesus said, "Peter, before the rooster crows tonight, you will say you don't know me. You will say this three times!"

Be Ready for Trouble

<sup>35</sup>Then Jesus said to the apostles,<sup>d</sup> "When I sent you out without money, a bag, or sandals, did you need anything?"

They said, "No."

<sup>36</sup>He said to them, "But now if you have money or a bag, carry that with you. If you don't have a sword, sell your coat and buy one."

<sup>37</sup>The Scripture<sup>d</sup> says, 'He was treated like a criminal.'<sup>n</sup> This scripture must have its full meaning. It was written about me, and it is happening now."

He said to them, "That's enough."

Jesus Prays Alone

<sup>39-40</sup>Jesus left the city and went to the Mount of Olives.<sup>d</sup> His followers went with him. (Jesus went there often.) He said to his followers, "Pray for strength against temptation."

<sup>41</sup>Then Jesus went about a stone's throw away from them. He knelt down and prayed, <sup>42</sup>"Father, if it is what you want, then let me not have this cup<sup>n</sup> of suffering. But do what you want, not what I want." <sup>43</sup>Then an angel from heaven appeared to him to help him. <sup>44</sup>Jesus was full of pain; he prayed even more. Sweat dripped from his face as if he were bleeding. <sup>45</sup>When he finished praying, he went to his followers. They were asleep. (Their sadness had made them very tired.) <sup>46</sup>Jesus said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray for strength against temptation."

<sup>d</sup>cup Jesus is talking about the bad things that will happen to him. Accepting these things will be hard, like drinking a cup of something that tastes very bitter.

Jesus Is Arrested

<sup>47</sup>While Jesus was speaking, a crowd came up. Judas, 1 of the 12 apostles,<sup>d</sup> was leading them. He came close to Jesus so that he could kiss him.

<sup>48</sup>But Jesus said to him, "Judas, are you using the kiss to give the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> to his enemies?"

<sup>51</sup>Jesus said, "Stop!" Then he touched the servant's ear and healed him.

<sup>52</sup>Those who came to arrest Jesus were the leading priests, the soldiers who guarded the Temple,<sup>d</sup> and the older Jewish leaders. Jesus said to them, "Why did you come out here with swords and sticks? Do you think I am a criminal? <sup>53</sup>I was with you every day in the Temple. Why didn't you try to arrest me there? But this is your time—the time when darkness rules."

Peter Says He Doesn't Know Jesus

<sup>54</sup>They arrested Jesus and took him away. They brought him into the house of the high priest. Peter followed them, but he did not go near Jesus. <sup>55</sup>The soldiers started a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat together. Peter sat with them. <sup>56</sup>A servant girl saw Peter sitting there near the light. She looked closely at Peter's face and said, "This man was also with him!"

<sup>57</sup>But Peter said this was not true. He said, "Girl, I don't know him."

<sup>58</sup>A short time later, another person saw Peter and said, "You are also one of them."

But Peter said, "Man, I am not!"

<sup>59</sup>About an hour later, another man insisted, "It is true! This man was with him. He is from Galilee!"

<sup>60</sup>But Peter said, "Man, I don't know what you are talking about!"

Immediately, while Peter was still speaking, a rooster crowed. <sup>61</sup>Then the Lord turned and looked straight at Peter. And Peter remembered what the Lord had said: "Before the rooster crows tonight, you will say three times that you don't know me." <sup>62</sup>Then Peter went outside and cried with much pain in his heart.

The People Laugh at Jesus

<sup>63-64</sup>Some men were guarding Jesus. They made fun of him like this: They covered his eyes so that he could not see them. Then they hit him and said, "Prove that you are a prophet,<sup>d</sup> and tell us who hit you!" <sup>65</sup>The men said many cruel things to Jesus.

Jesus Before the Jewish Leaders

<sup>66</sup>When day came, the older leaders of the people, the leading priests, and the teachers of the law came together. They led Jesus away to their highest court. <sup>67</sup>They said, "If you are the Christ,<sup>d</sup> then tell us that you are!"

Jesus said to them, "If I tell you I am the Christ, you will not believe me. <sup>68</sup>And if I ask you, you will not answer. <sup>69</sup>But beginning now, the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> will sit at the right hand of the powerful God."

<sup>70</sup>They all said, "Then are you the Son of God?"

Jesus said to them, "Yes, you are right when you say that I am."

<sup>71</sup>They said, "Why do we need witnesses now? We ourselves heard him say this!"

Governor Pilate Questions Jesus

23 Then the whole group stood up and led Jesus to Pilate. <sup>a</sup><sup>2</sup>They began to accuse Jesus. They told Pilate, "We caught this man telling things that were confusing our people. He says that we should not pay taxes to Caesar.<sup>d</sup> He calls himself the Christ,<sup>d</sup> a king."

Jesus answered, "Yes, that is right."

<sup>5</sup>They said again and again, "But Jesus is making trouble with the people! He teaches all around Judea. He began in Galilee, and now he is here!"

Pilate Sends Jesus to Herod

<sup>6</sup>Pilate heard this and asked if Jesus was from Galilee. <sup>7</sup>If so, Jesus was under Herod's authority. Herod was in Jerusalem at that time; so Pilate sent Jesus to him. <sup>8</sup>When Herod saw Jesus, he was very glad. He had heard about Jesus and had wanted to meet him for a long time. Herod was hoping to see Jesus work a miracle.<sup>d</sup> <sup>9</sup>Herod asked Jesus many questions, but Jesus said nothing. <sup>10</sup>The leading priests and teachers of the law were standing there. They were shouting things against Jesus. <sup>11</sup>Then Herod and his soldiers made fun of Jesus. They dressed him in a kingly robe and then sent him back to Pilate. <sup>12</sup>In the past, Pilate and Herod had always been enemies. But on that day they became friends.

Jesus Must Die

<sup>13</sup>Pilate called all the people together with the leading priests and the Jewish leaders. <sup>14</sup>He said to them, "You brought this man to me. You said that he was making trouble among the people. But I have questioned him before you all, and I have not found him guilty of the things you say. <sup>15</sup>Also, Herod found nothing wrong with him; he sent him back to us. Look, he has done nothing for which he should die. <sup>16</sup>So, after I punish him, I will let him go free." <sup>17</sup> <sup>a</sup>

<sup>18</sup>But all the people shouted, "Kill him! Let Barabbas go free!" <sup>19</sup>(Barabbas was a man who was in prison because he started a riot in the city. He was guilty of murder.)

<sup>22</sup>A third time Pilate said to them, "Why? What wrong has he done? I can find no reason to kill him. So I will have him punished and set him free."

Jesus Is Killed on a Cross

<sup>26</sup>The soldiers led Jesus away. At that time, there was a man coming into the city from the fields. His name was Simon, and he was from the city of Cyrene. The soldiers forced Simon to carry Jesus' cross and walk behind him.

<sup>27</sup>A large crowd of people was following Jesus. Some of the women were sad and crying. <sup>28</sup>But Jesus turned and said to them, "Women of Jerusalem, don't cry for me. Cry for yourselves and for your children too! <sup>29</sup>The time is coming when people will say, 'Happy are the women who cannot have children! Happy are the women who have no babies to nurse.<sup>30</sup> Then people will say to the mountains, 'Fall on us!' And they will say to the hills, 'Cover us!' <sup>31</sup>If they act like this now when life is good, what will happen when bad times come?"<sup>n</sup>

<sup>32</sup>There were also two criminals led out with Jesus to be killed. <sup>33</sup>Jesus and the two criminals were taken to a place called the Skull. There the soldiers nailed Jesus to his cross. They also nailed the criminals to their crosses, one beside Jesus on the right and the other beside Jesus on the left. <sup>34</sup>Jesus said, "Father, forgive them. I they don't know what they are doing."<sup>n</sup>

The soldiers threw lots<sup>d</sup> to decide who would get his clothes. <sup>35</sup>The people stood there watching. The Jewish leaders made fun of Jesus. They said, "If he is God's Chosen One, the Christ,<sup>d</sup> then let him save himself. He saved other people, didn't he?"

<sup>36</sup>Even the soldiers made fun of him. They came to Jesus and offered him some vinegar. <sup>37</sup>They said, "If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself!" <sup>38</sup>(At the top of the cross these words were written: "THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.")

<sup>39</sup>One of the criminals began to shout insults at Jesus: "Aren't you the Christ? Then save yourself! And save us too!"

<sup>40</sup>But the other criminal stopped him. He said, "You should fear God! You are getting the same punishment as he is. <sup>41</sup>We are punished justly; we should die. But this man has done nothing wrong!" <sup>42</sup>Then this criminal said to Jesus, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom!"

<sup>43</sup>Then Jesus said to him, "Listen! What I say is true: Today you will be with me in Paradise!"<sup>n</sup>

Jesus Dies

<sup>44</sup>It was about noon, and the whole land became dark until three o'clock in the afternoon. <sup>45</sup>There was no sun! The curtain in the Temple<sup>a</sup> was torn into two pieces. <sup>46</sup>Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Father, I give you my life." After Jesus said this, he died.

<sup>47</sup>The army officer there saw what happened. He praised God, saying, "I know this was a good man!"

<sup>48</sup>Many people had gathered there to watch this thing. When they saw what happened, they returned home. They beat their chests because they were so sad. <sup>49</sup>Those who were close friends of Jesus were there. Some were women who had followed Jesus from Galilee. They all stood far away from the cross and watched.

Joseph Takes Jesus' Body

<sup>50</sup><sup>51</sup>A man named Joseph from the Jewish town of Arimathea was there, too. He was a good, religious man. He wanted the kingdom of God to come. Joseph was a member of the Jewish council, but he had not agreed when the other leaders decided to kill Jesus. <sup>52</sup>Joseph went to Pilate to ask for the body of Jesus. <sup>53</sup>So Joseph took the body down from the cross and wrapped it in cloth. Then he put Jesus' body in a tomb that was cut in a wall of rock. This tomb had never been used before. <sup>54</sup>This was late on Preparation<sup>d</sup> Day. When the sun went down, the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day would begin.

<sup>55</sup>The women who had come from Galilee with Jesus followed Joseph. They saw the tomb and saw inside where the body of Jesus was laid. <sup>56</sup>Then the women left to prepare perfumes and spices.

On the Sabbath day they rested, as the law of Moses commanded.

Jesus Rises from Death

24 Very early on the first day of the week, the women came to the tomb where Jesus' body was laid. They brought the spices they had prepared. <sup>2</sup>They found that the stone had been rolled away from the entrance of the tomb. <sup>3</sup>They went in, but they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. <sup>4</sup>While they were wondering about this, two men in shining clothes suddenly stood beside them. <sup>5</sup>The women were very afraid; they bowed their heads to the ground. The men said to the women, "Why are you looking for a living person here? This is a place for the dead. <sup>6</sup>Jesus is not here. He has risen from death! Do you remember what he said in Galilee? <sup>7</sup>He said that the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> must be given to evil men, be killed on a cross, and rise from death on the third day."<sup>n</sup> <sup>8</sup>Then the women remembered what Jesus had said.

other women. The women told the apostles everything that had happened at the tomb. <sup>11</sup>But they did not believe the women. It sounded like nonsense. <sup>12</sup>But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. He looked in, but he saw only the cloth that Jesus' body had been wrapped in. Peter went away to be alone, wondering about what had happened.

Jesus on the Road to Emmaus

<sup>13</sup>That same day two of Jesus' followers were going to a town named Emmaus. It is about seven miles from Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>They were talking about everything that had happened. <sup>15</sup>While they were discussing these things, Jesus himself came near and began walking with them. <sup>16</sup>(They were not allowed to recognize Jesus.) <sup>17</sup>Then he said, "What are these things you are talking about while you walk?"

The two followers stopped. Their faces were very sad. <sup>18</sup>The one named Cleopas answered, "You must be the only one in Jerusalem who does not know what just happened there."

<sup>19</sup>Jesus said to them, "What are you talking about?"

The followers said, "It is about Jesus of Nazareth. He was a prophet<sup>d</sup> from God to all the people. He said and did many powerful things. <sup>20</sup>Our leaders and the leading priests gave him up to be judged and killed. They nailed him to a cross. <sup>21</sup>But we were hoping that he would free the Jews. It is now the third day since this happened. <sup>22</sup>And today some women among us told us some amazing things. Early this morning they went to the tomb, <sup>23</sup>but they did not find his body there. They came and told us that they had seen a vision of angels. The angels said that Jesus was alive! <sup>24</sup>So some of our group went to the tomb, too. They found it just as the women said, but they did not see Jesus."

<sup>25</sup>Then Jesus said to them, "You are foolish and slow to realize what is true. You should believe everything the prophets said. <sup>26</sup>They said that the Christ<sup>d</sup> must suffer these things before he enters his glory." <sup>27</sup>Then Jesus began to explain everything that had been written about himself in the Scriptures.<sup>d</sup> He started with Moses, and then he talked about what all the prophets had said about him.

<sup>28</sup>They came near the town of Emmaus, and Jesus acted as if he did not plan to stop there. <sup>29</sup>But they begged him, "Stay with us. It is late; it is almost night." So he went in to stay with them.

<sup>30</sup>Jesus sat down with them and took some bread. He gave thanks for the food and divided it. Then he gave it to them. <sup>31</sup>And then, they were allowed to recognize Jesus. But when they saw who he was, he disappeared. <sup>32</sup>They said to each other, "When Jesus talked to us on the road, it felt like a fire burning in us. It was exciting when he explained the true meaning of the Scriptures."

<sup>35</sup>Then the two followers told what had happened on the road. They talked about how they recognized Jesus when he divided the bread.

Jesus Appears to His Followers

<sup>36</sup>While the two followers were telling this, Jesus himself stood among those gathered. He said to them, "Peace be with you."

<sup>37</sup>They were fearful and terrified. They thought they were seeing a ghost. <sup>38</sup>But Jesus said, "Why are you troubled? Why do you doubt what you see? <sup>39</sup>Look at my hands and my feet. It is I myself! Touch me. You can see that I have a living body; a ghost does not have a body like this."

<sup>40</sup>After Jesus said this, he showed them his hands and feet. <sup>41</sup>The followers were amazed and very happy. They still could not believe it. Jesus said to them, "Do you have any food here?" <sup>42</sup>They gave him a piece of cooked fish. <sup>43</sup>While the followers watched, Jesus took the fish and ate it.

<sup>44</sup>He said to them, "Remember when I was with you before? I said that everything written about me must happen—everything in the law of Moses, the books of the prophets,<sup>d</sup> and the Psalms."

Jesus Goes Back to Heaven

most to Bethany. He raised his hands and blessed them. <sup>51</sup>While he was blessing them, he was separated from them and carried into heaven. <sup>52</sup>They worshiped him and then went back to the city very happy. <sup>53</sup>They stayed in the Temple<sup>a</sup> all the time, praising God.

JOHN

John Tells About Jesus, the Son of God

Christ Comes to the World

1 Before the world began, there was the Word.<sup>a</sup> The Word was with God, and the Word was God.<sup>2</sup> He was with God in the beginning.<sup>3</sup> All things were made through him. Nothing was made without him.<sup>4</sup> In him there was life. That life was light for the people of the world.<sup>5</sup> The Light shines in the darkness. And the darkness has not overpowered the Light.

<sup>6</sup>There was a man named John<sup>a</sup> who was sent by God.<sup>7</sup> He came to tell people about the Light. Through him all people could hear about the Light and believe.<sup>8</sup> John was not the Light, but he came to tell people about the Light.<sup>9</sup> The true Light was coming into the world. The true Light gives light to all.

<sup>10</sup>The Word was in the world. The world was made through him, but the world did not know him.<sup>11</sup> He came to the world that was his own. But his own people did not accept him.<sup>12</sup> But some people did accept him. They believed in him. To them he gave the right to become children of God.<sup>13</sup> They did not become his children in the human way. They were not born because of the desire or wish of some man. They were born of God.

<sup>14</sup>The Word became a man and lived among us. We saw his glory—the glory that belongs to the only Son of the Father. The Word was full of grace and truth.<sup>15</sup> John told about him. He said, “This is the One I was talking about. I said, ‘The One who comes after me is greater than I am. He was living before me.’”

<sup>16</sup>The Word was full of grace and truth. From him we all received more and more blessings.<sup>17</sup> The law was given through Moses, but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.<sup>18</sup> No man has ever seen God. But God the only Son is very close to the Father.<sup>a</sup> And the Son has shown us what God is like.

John Tells People About Jesus

<sup>19</sup>The Jews in Jerusalem sent some priests and Levites to John<sup>a</sup> to ask him, “Who are you?”

<sup>20</sup>John spoke freely and did not refuse to answer. He said clearly, “I am not the Christ.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>21</sup>So they asked him, “Then who are you? Are you Elijah?”<sup>e</sup>

He answered, “No, I am not Elijah.”

Then they asked, “Are you the Prophet?”<sup>e</sup>

He answered, “No, I am not the Prophet.”

<sup>22</sup>Then they said, “Who are you? Give us an answer to tell those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?”

<sup>23</sup>John told them in the words of the prophet Isaiah:

‘Make the road straight for the Lord.’”

Isaiah 40:3

<sup>24</sup>In the group of Jews who were sent, there were some Pharisees.<sup>d</sup> <sup>25</sup>They said to John: “You say you are not the Christ. You say you are not Elijah or the Prophet. Then why do you baptize people?”

<sup>29</sup>The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him. John said, “Look, the Lamb of God.<sup>a</sup> He takes away the sins of the world!”

<sup>30</sup>This is the One I was talking about. I said, ‘A man will come after me, but he is greater than I am, because he was living before me.’<sup>31</sup> Even I did not know who he was. But I came baptizing with water so that the people of Israel could know who he is.”

<sup>a</sup>Word The Greek word is “logos,” meaning any kind of communication. It could be translated “message.” Here, it means Christ. Christ was the way God told people about himself.

<sup>c</sup>But . . . Father This could be translated, “But the only God is very close to the Father.” Also, some Greek copies say, “But the only Son is very close to the Father.”

<sup>f</sup>Lamb of God Name for Jesus. Jesus is like the lambs that were offered for a sacrifice to God.

<sup>32-33</sup>Then John said, "I did not know who the Christ was. But God sent me to baptize with water. And God told me, 'You will see the Spirit<sup>d</sup> come down and rest on a man. That man is the One who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.'" John said, "I saw the Spirit come down from heaven. The Spirit looked like a dove and rested on him. <sup>34</sup>I have seen this happen. So I tell people: 'He is the Son of God.'"

The First Followers of Jesus

<sup>37</sup>The two followers heard John say this. So they followed Jesus. <sup>38</sup>Jesus turned and saw them following him. He asked, "What do you want?"

They said, "Rabbi, where are you staying?" ("Rabbi" means "Teacher.")

<sup>39</sup>Jesus answered, "Come with me and you will see." So the two men went with Jesus. They saw the place where Jesus was staying and stayed there with him that day. It was then about four o'clock.

<sup>40</sup>These two men followed Jesus after they heard about him from John. One of the men was Andrew. He was Simon Peter's brother. <sup>41</sup>The first thing Andrew did was to find his brother, Simon. He said to Simon, "We have found the Messiah." ("Messiah" means "Christ."<sup>d</sup>)

<sup>42</sup>Then Andrew took Simon to Jesus. Jesus looked at Simon and said, "You are Simon son of John. You will be called Cephas." ("Cephas" means "Peter."<sup>n</sup>)

<sup>43</sup>The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, "Follow me." <sup>44</sup>Philip was from the town of Bethsaida, where Andrew and Peter lived. <sup>45</sup>Philip found Nathanael and told him, "Remember that Moses wrote in the law about a man who was coming, and the prophets<sup>d</sup> also wrote about him. We have found him. He is Jesus, the son of Joseph. He is from Nazareth."

Philip answered, "Come and see."

<sup>47</sup>Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him.

He said, "Here is truly a person of Israel. There is nothing false in him."

<sup>48</sup>Nathanael asked, "How do you know me?"

Jesus answered, "I saw you when you were under the fig tree. That was before Philip told you about me."

<sup>49</sup>Then Nathanael said to Jesus, "Teacher, you are the Son of God. You are the King of Israel."

<sup>50</sup>Jesus said to Nathanael, "You believe in me because I told you I saw you under the fig tree. But you will see greater things than that!"

<sup>51</sup>And Jesus said to them, "I tell you the truth. You will all see heaven open. You will see 'angels of God going up and coming down'<sup>n</sup> on the Son of Man."<sup>d</sup>

The Wedding at Cana

2 Two days later there was a wedding in the town of Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there. <sup>2</sup>Jesus and his followers were also invited to the wedding. <sup>3</sup>When all the wine was gone, Jesus' mother said to him, "They have no more wine."

<sup>4</sup>Jesus answered, "Dear woman, why come to me? My time has not yet come."

<sup>7</sup>Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled the jars to the top.

<sup>8</sup>Then he said to them, "Now take some out and give it to the master of the feast."

So the servants took the water to the master. <sup>9</sup>When he tasted it, the water had become wine. He did not know where the wine came from. But the servants who brought the water knew. The master of the wedding called the bridegroom <sup>10</sup>and said to him, "People always serve the best wine first. Later, after the guests have been drinking a lot, they serve the cheaper wine. But you have saved the best wine till now."

Jesus in the Temple

<sup>20</sup>The Jews answered, "Men worked 46 years to build this Temple! Do you really believe you can build it again in three days?"

<sup>21</sup>(But the temple Jesus meant was his own body. <sup>22</sup>After Jesus was raised from death, his followers remembered that Jesus had said this. Then they believed the Scripture<sup>d</sup> and the words Jesus said.)

<sup>23</sup>Jesus was in Jerusalem for the Passover Feast. Many people believed in him because they saw the miracles he did. <sup>24</sup>But Jesus did not trust himself to them because he knew them all. <sup>25</sup>He did not need anyone to tell him about people. Jesus knew what was in a person's mind.

Nicodemus Comes to Jesus

3 There was a man named Nicodemus who was one of the Pharisees.<sup>d</sup> He was an important Jewish leader. <sup>2</sup>One night Nicodemus came to Jesus. He said, "Teacher, we know that you are a teacher sent from God. No one can do the miracles<sup>d</sup> you do, unless God is with him."

one is born again, he cannot be in God's kingdom."

<sup>4</sup>Nicodemus said, "But if a man is already old, how can he be born again? He cannot enter his mother's body again. So how can he be born a second time?"

<sup>5</sup>But Jesus answered, "I tell you the truth. Unless one is born from water and the Spirit,<sup>d</sup> he cannot enter God's kingdom. <sup>6</sup>A person's body is born from his human parents. But a person's spiritual life is born from the Spirit. <sup>7</sup>Don't be surprised when I tell you, 'You must all be born again.' <sup>8</sup>The wind blows where it wants to go. You hear the wind blow. But you don't know where the wind comes from or where it is going. It is the same with every person who is born from the Spirit."

<sup>10</sup>Jesus said, "You are an important teacher in Israel. But you still don't understand these things? <sup>11</sup>I tell you the truth. We talk about what we know. We tell about what we have seen. But you don't accept what we tell you. <sup>12</sup>I have told you about things here on earth, but you do not believe me. So surely you will not believe me if I tell you about the things of heaven! <sup>13</sup>The only one who has ever gone up to heaven is the One who came down from heaven—the Son of Man.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>14</sup>"Moses lifted up the snake in the desert."<sup>n</sup> It is the same with the Son of Man. The Son of Man must be lifted up too. <sup>15</sup>Then everyone who believes in him can have eternal life.

<sup>16</sup>"For God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son. God gave his Son so that whoever believes in him may not be lost, but have eternal life. <sup>17</sup>God did not send his Son into the world to judge the world guilty, but to save the world through him. <sup>18</sup>He who believes in God's Son is not judged guilty. He who does not believe has already been judged guilty, because he has not believed in God's only Son. <sup>19</sup>People are judged by this fact: I am the Light from God that has come into the world. But men did not want light. They wanted darkness because they were doing evil things. <sup>20</sup>Everyone who does evil hates the light. He will not come to the light because it will show all the evil things he has done. <sup>21</sup>But he who follows the true way comes to the light. Then the light will show that the things he has done were done through God."

<sup>d</sup>"Moses . . . desert" The people of Israel were dying from snake bites. God told Moses to put a brass snake on a pole. The people who looked at the snake were healed (Numbers 21:4-9).

Jesus and John the Baptist

<sup>22</sup>After this, Jesus and his followers went into the area of Judea. There Jesus stayed with his followers and baptized people. <sup>23</sup>John was also baptizing in Aenon, near Salim, because there was plenty of water there. People were going there to be baptized. <sup>24</sup>(This was before John was put into prison.)

<sup>25</sup>Some of John's followers had an argument with a Jew about religious washing. <sup>26</sup>So they came to John and said, "Teacher, remember the man who was with you on the other side of the Jordan River, the one you spoke about? He is baptizing, and everyone is going to him."

The One Who Comes from Heaven

<sup>31</sup>"The One who comes from above is greater than all. He who is from the earth belongs to the earth and talks about things on the earth. But the One who comes from heaven is greater than all. <sup>32</sup>He tells what he has seen and heard, but no one accepts what he says. <sup>33</sup>The person who accepts what he says has proven that God is true. <sup>34</sup>God sent him, and he tells the things that God says. God gives him the Spirit<sup>d</sup> fully. <sup>35</sup>The Father loves the Son and has given him power over everything. <sup>36</sup>He who believes in the Son has eternal life. But he who does not obey the Son will never have that life. God's anger stays with him."

Jesus and a Samaritan Woman

4 The Pharisees<sup>d</sup> heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more followers than John. <sup>2</sup>(But really Jesus himself did not baptize people. His followers did the baptizing.) Jesus knew that the Pharisees had heard about him. <sup>3</sup>So he left Judea and went back to Galilee. <sup>4</sup>On the way he had to go through the country of Samaria.

<sup>5</sup>In Samaria Jesus came to the town called Sychar. This town is near the field that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. <sup>6</sup>Jacob's well was there. Jesus was tired from his long trip. So he sat down beside the well. It was about noon. <sup>7</sup>A Samaritan<sup>d</sup> woman came to the well to get some water. Jesus said to her, "Please give me a drink." <sup>8</sup>(This happened while Jesus' followers were in town buying some food.)

<sup>9</sup>The woman said, "I am surprised that you ask me for a drink. You are a Jew and I am a Samaritan." (Jews are not friends with Samaritans.)

<sup>10</sup>Jesus said, "You don't know what God gives. And you don't know who asked you for a drink. If you knew, you would have asked me, and I would have given you living water."

<sup>11</sup>The woman said, "Sir, where will you get that living water? The well is very deep, and you have nothing to get water with. <sup>12</sup>Are you greater than Jacob, our father? Jacob is the one who gave us this well. He drank from it himself. Also, his sons and flocks drank from this well."

<sup>13</sup>Jesus answered, "Every person who drinks this water will be thirsty again. <sup>14</sup>But whoever drinks the water I give will never be thirsty again. The water I give will become a spring of water flowing inside him. It will give him eternal life."

<sup>15</sup>The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water. Then I will never be thirsty again. And I will not have to come back here to get more water."

Jesus said to her, "You are right to say you have no husband. <sup>18</sup>Really you have had five husbands. But the man you live with now is not your husband. You told the truth."

<sup>19</sup>The woman said, "Sir, I can see that you are a prophet. <sup>20</sup>Our fathers worshiped on this mountain. But you Jews say that Jerusalem is the place where people must worship."

<sup>21</sup>Jesus said, "Believe me, woman. The time is coming when you will not have to be in Jerusalem or on this mountain to worship the Father. <sup>22</sup>You Samaritans worship what you don't understand. We Jews understand what we worship. Salvation comes from the Jews. <sup>23</sup>The time is coming when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth. That time is now here. And these are the kinds of worshippers the Father wants. <sup>24</sup>God is spirit. Those who worship God must worship in spirit and truth."

<sup>25</sup>The woman said, "I know that the Messiah is coming." (Messiah is the One called Christ.) <sup>4</sup>"When the Messiah comes, he will explain everything to us."

<sup>27</sup>Just then his followers came back from town. They were surprised because they saw Jesus talking with a woman. But none of them asked, "What do you want?" or "Why are you talking with her?"

<sup>28</sup>Then the woman left her water jar and went back to town. She said to the people, <sup>29</sup>"A man told me everything I have ever done. Come see him. Maybe he is the Christ!" <sup>30</sup>So the people left the town and went to see Jesus.

<sup>34</sup>Jesus said, "My food is to do what the One who sent me wants me to do. My food is to finish the work that he gave me to do. <sup>35</sup>You say, 'Four more months to wait before we gather the grain.' But I tell you, open your eyes. Look at the fields that are ready for harvesting now. <sup>36</sup>Even now, the one who harvests the crop is being paid. He is gathering crops for eternal life. So now the one who plants can be happy along with the one who harvests. <sup>37</sup>It is true when we say, 'One person plants, but another harvests the crop.' <sup>38</sup>I sent you to harvest a crop that you did not work for. Others did the work, and you get the profit from their work." <sup>a</sup>

<sup>39</sup>Many of the Samaritans in that town believed in Jesus. They believed because of what the woman said: "He told me everything I have ever done." <sup>40</sup>The Samaritans came to Jesus and begged him to stay with them. So he stayed there two days. <sup>41</sup>Many more believed because of the things he said.

<sup>42</sup>They said to the woman, "First we believed in Jesus because of what you told us. But now we believe because we heard him ourselves. We know that this man really is the Savior of the world."

Jesus Heals an Officer's Son

<sup>46</sup>Jesus went to visit Cana in Galilee again. This is where Jesus had changed the water into wine. One of the king's important officers lived in the city of Capernaum. This man's son was sick. <sup>47</sup>The man heard that Jesus had come from Judea and was now in Galilee. So he went to Jesus and begged him to come to Capernaum and heal his son. His son was almost dead.

The man believed what Jesus told him and went home. <sup>51</sup>On the way the man's servants came and met him. They told him, "Your son is well."

They answered, "It was about one o'clock yesterday when the fever left him."

<sup>53</sup>The father knew that one o'clock was the exact time that Jesus had said, "Your son will live." So the man and all the people of his house believed in Jesus.

<sup>54</sup>That was the second miracle that Jesus did after coming from Judea to Galilee.

Jesus Heals a Man at a Pool

5 Later Jesus went to Jerusalem for a special Jewish feast. <sup>2</sup>In Jerusalem there is a pool with five covered porches. In the Jewish language<sup>a</sup> it is called Bethzatha. <sup>a</sup>This pool is near the Sheep Gate. <sup>3</sup>Many sick people were lying on the porches beside the pool. Some were blind, some were crippled, and some were paralyzed. <sup>a</sup><sup>5</sup>There was a man lying there who had been sick for 38 years. <sup>6</sup>Jesus saw the man and knew that he had been sick for a very long

<sup>c</sup>Bethzatha Also called Bethesda or Bethesda, a pool of water north of the Temple in Jerusalem.

<sup>d</sup>Verse 3 Some Greek copies add "and they waited for the water to move." A few later copies add verse 4: "Sometimes an angel of the Lord came down to the pool and stirred up the water. After the angel did this, the first person to go into the pool was healed from any sickness he had."

time. So Jesus asked him, "Do you want to be well?"

<sup>7</sup>The sick man answered, "Sir, there is no one to help me get into the pool when the water starts moving. I try to be the first one into the water. But when I try, someone else always goes in before I can."

<sup>8</sup>Then Jesus said, "Stand up. Pick up your mat and walk." <sup>9</sup>And immediately the man was well. He picked up his mat and began to walk.

The day all this happened was a Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day. <sup>10</sup>So the Jews said to the man who had been healed, "Today is the Sabbath. It is against our law for you to carry your mat on the Sabbath day."

<sup>11</sup>But he answered, "The man who made me well told me, 'Pick up your mat and walk.' "

<sup>12</sup>Then they asked him, "Who is the man who told you to pick up your mat and walk?"

<sup>13</sup>But the man who had been healed did not know who it was. There were many people in that place, and Jesus had left.

<sup>14</sup>Later, Jesus found the man at the Temple.<sup>d</sup> Jesus said to him, "See, you are well now. But stop sinning or something worse may happen to you!"

<sup>15</sup>Then the man left and went back to the Jews. He told them that Jesus was the one who had made him well.

<sup>16</sup>Jesus was doing this on the Sabbath day. So the Jews began to do bad things to him. <sup>17</sup>But Jesus said to them, "My Father never stops working. And so I work, too."

<sup>18</sup>This made the Jews try harder to kill him. They said, "First Jesus was breaking the law about the Sabbath day. Then he said that God is his own Father! He is making himself equal with God!"

Jesus Has God's Authority

<sup>19</sup>But Jesus said, "I tell you the truth. The Son can do nothing alone. The Son does only what he sees his Father doing. The Son does whatever the Father does. <sup>20</sup>The Father loves the Son, and the Father shows the Son all the things he himself does. But the Father will show the Son greater things than this to do. Then you will all be amazed. <sup>21</sup>The Father raises the dead and gives them life. In the same way, the Son gives life to those he wants to. <sup>22</sup>Also, the Father judges no one. But the Father has given the Son power to do all the judging. <sup>23</sup>God did this so that all people will respect the Son the same way they respect the Father. He who does not respect the Son does not respect the Father. The Father is the One who sent the Son.

<sup>24</sup>"I tell you the truth. Whoever hears what I say and believes in the One who sent me has eternal life. He will not be judged guilty. He has already left death and has entered into life. <sup>25</sup>I tell you the truth. The time is coming and is already here when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God. And those who hear will have life. <sup>26</sup>Life comes from the Father himself. So the Father has allowed the Son to give life. <sup>27</sup>And the Father has given the Son the power to judge because he is the Son of Man.<sup>d</sup> <sup>28</sup>Don't be surprised at this. A time is coming when all who are dead and in their graves will hear his voice. <sup>29</sup>Then they will come out of their graves. Those who did good will rise and have life forever. But those who did evil will rise to be judged guilty.

Jesus Is God's Son

<sup>30</sup>"I can do nothing alone. I judge only the way I am told, so my judgment is right. I don't try to please myself. I try to please the One who sent me.

<sup>31</sup>"If I tell people about myself, then they will not accept what I say about myself. <sup>32</sup>But there is another who tells about me. And I know that the things he says about me are true.

<sup>33</sup>"You have sent men to John. And he has told you about the truth. <sup>34</sup>But I don't need a man to tell about me. I tell you this so that you can be saved. <sup>35</sup>John was like a burning and shining lamp. And you were happy to enjoy his light for a while.

<sup>36</sup>"But I have a proof about myself that is greater than that of John. The things I do are my proof. These are the things my Father gave me to do. They show that the Father sent me.

<sup>37</sup>And the Father who sent me has given proof about me himself. You have never heard his voice. You have never seen what he looks like.

<sup>38</sup>His teaching does not live in you because you don't believe in the One that the Father sent.

<sup>39</sup>You carefully study the Scriptures<sup>d</sup> because you think that they give you eternal life. Those are the same Scriptures that tell about me!

<sup>40</sup>But you refuse to come to me to have that life.

<sup>41</sup>"I don't want praise from men. <sup>42</sup>But I know you—I know that you don't have God's love in you. <sup>43</sup>I have come from my Father—I speak for him. But you don't accept me. But when another person comes, speaking only for himself, you will accept him. <sup>44</sup>You like to have praise from each other. But you never try to get the praise that comes from the only God. So how can you believe? <sup>45</sup>Don't think that I will stand before the Father and say that you are wrong. Moses is the one who says that you are wrong. And he is the one that you hoped would save you. <sup>46</sup>If you really believed Moses, you would believe me because Moses wrote about me. <sup>47</sup>But you don't believe what Moses wrote. So how can you believe what I say?"

More than 5,000 People Fed

6 After this, Jesus went across Lake Galilee (or, Lake Tiberias). <sup>2</sup>Many people followed him because they saw the miracles<sup>d</sup> he did to heal the sick. <sup>3</sup>Jesus went up on a hill and there sat down with his followers. <sup>4</sup>It was almost the time for the Jewish Passover<sup>d</sup> Feast.

<sup>5</sup>Jesus looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward him. He said to Philip, "Where can we buy bread for all these people to eat?" <sup>6</sup>(Jesus asked Philip this question to test him. Jesus already knew what he planned to do.)

<sup>7</sup>Philip answered, "We would all have to work a month to buy enough bread for each person here to have only a little piece."

<sup>10</sup>Jesus said, "Tell the people to sit down." This was a very grassy place. There were about 5,000 men who sat down there. <sup>11</sup>Then Jesus took the loaves of bread. He thanked God for the bread and gave it to the people who were sitting there. He did the same with the fish. He gave them as much as they wanted.

<sup>15</sup>Jesus knew that the people planned to come and take him by force and make him their king. So he left and went into the hills alone.

Jesus Walks on the Water

had not yet come to them. The followers got into a boat and started across the lake to Capernaum. <sup>18</sup>By now a strong wind was blowing, and the waves on the lake were getting bigger. <sup>19</sup>They rowed the boat about three or four miles. Then they saw Jesus walking on the water, coming toward the boat. The followers were afraid. <sup>20</sup>But Jesus said to them, "Don't be afraid. It is I." <sup>21</sup>Then they were glad to take him into the boat. At once the boat came to land at the place where they wanted to go.

The People Seek Jesus

<sup>22</sup>The next day came. Some people had stayed on the other side of the lake. They knew that Jesus had not gone in the boat with his followers but that they had left without him. <sup>23</sup>And they knew that only one boat had been there. But then some boats came from Tiberias. They landed near the place where the people had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks. <sup>24</sup>The people saw that Jesus and his followers were not there now. So they got into boats and went to Capernaum to find Jesus.

Jesus, the Bread of Life

<sup>25</sup>The people found Jesus on the other side of the lake. They asked him, "Teacher, when did you come here?"

<sup>26</sup>Jesus answered, "Are you looking for me because you saw me do miracles?<sup>d</sup> No! I tell you the truth. You are looking for me because you ate the bread and were satisfied. <sup>27</sup>Earthly food spoils and ruins. So don't work to get that kind of food. But work to get the food that stays good always and gives you eternal life. The Son of Man<sup>d</sup> will give you that food. God the Father has shown that he is with the Son of Man."

<sup>29</sup>Jesus answered, "The work God wants you to do is this: to believe in the One that God sent."

<sup>30</sup>So the people asked, "What miracle will you do? If we can see a miracle, then we will believe you. What will you do? <sup>31</sup>Our fathers ate the manna<sup>d</sup> in the desert. This is written in the Scriptures:<sup>d</sup> 'God gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"<sup>n</sup>

<sup>32</sup>Jesus said, "I tell you the truth. Moses was not the one who gave you bread from heaven. But my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. <sup>33</sup>God's bread is the One who comes

<sup>35</sup>Then Jesus said, “I am the bread that gives life. He who comes to me will never be hungry. He who believes in me will never be thirsty. <sup>36</sup>But as I told you before, you have seen me, and still you don’t believe. <sup>37</sup>The Father gives me my people. Every one of them will come to me, and I will always accept them. <sup>38</sup>I came down from heaven to do what God wants me to do. I did not come to do what I want to do. <sup>39</sup>I must not lose even one of those that God has given me, but I must raise them up on the last day. This is what the One who sent me wants me to do. <sup>40</sup>Everyone who sees the Son and believes in him has eternal life. I will raise him up on the last day. This is what my Father wants.”

<sup>41</sup>The Jews began to complain about Jesus. They complained because he said, “I am the bread that comes down from heaven.” <sup>42</sup>The Jews said, “This is Jesus. We know his father and mother. He is only Joseph’s son. How can he say, ‘I came down from heaven?’”

<sup>43</sup>But Jesus answered, “Stop complaining to each other. <sup>44</sup>The Father is the One who sent me. No one can come to me unless the Father draws him to me. And I will raise him up on the last day. <sup>45</sup>It is written in the prophets, ‘God will teach all the people.’<sup>a</sup> Everyone who listens to the Father and learns from him comes to me. <sup>46</sup>No one has seen the Father except the One who is from God. Only he has seen the Father. <sup>47</sup>I tell you the truth. He who believes has eternal life. <sup>48</sup>I am the bread that gives life. <sup>49</sup>Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert. But still they died. <sup>50</sup>Here is the bread that comes down from heaven. If anyone eats this bread, he will never die. <sup>51</sup>I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats this bread, he will live forever. This bread is my flesh. I will give my flesh so that the people in the world may have life.”

<sup>52</sup>Then the Jews began to argue among themselves. They said, “How can this man give us his flesh to eat?”

<sup>53</sup>Jesus said, “I tell you the truth. You must eat the flesh of the Son of Man. And you must drink his blood. If you don’t do this, then you won’t have real life in you. <sup>54</sup>He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life. I will raise him up on the last day. <sup>55</sup>My flesh is true food. My blood is true drink. <sup>56</sup>Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me, and I live in him. <sup>57</sup>The Father sent me. The Father lives, and I live because of the Father. So he who eats me will live because of me. <sup>58</sup>I am not like the bread our ancestors ate. They ate that bread, but still they died. I am the bread that came down from heaven. He who eats this bread will live forever.” <sup>59</sup>Jesus said all these things while he was teaching in the synagogue<sup>d</sup> in Capernaum.

The Words of Eternal Life

<sup>60</sup>When the followers of Jesus heard this, many of them said, “This teaching is hard. Who can accept it?”

<sup>61</sup>Jesus knew that his followers were complaining about this. So he said, “Does this teaching bother you? <sup>62</sup>Then will it also bother you to see the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> going back to the place where he came from? <sup>63</sup>It is not the flesh that gives a person life. It is the spirit that gives life. The words I told you are spirit, and so they give life. <sup>64</sup>But some of you don’t believe.” (Jesus knew who did not believe. He knew this from the beginning. And he knew who would turn against him.) <sup>65</sup>Jesus said, “That is the reason I said, ‘If the Father does not let a person come to me, then he cannot come.’”

<sup>68</sup>Simon Peter answered Jesus, “Lord, where would we go? You have the words that give eternal life. <sup>69</sup>We believe in you. We know that you are the Holy One from God.”

<sup>70</sup>Then Jesus answered, “I chose all 12 of you. But 1 of you is a devil.”

<sup>71</sup>Jesus was talking about Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. Judas was 1 of the 12. But later he was going to turn against Jesus.

Jesus’ Brothers Don’t Believe

7 After this, Jesus traveled around Galilee. He did not want to travel in Judea, because the Jews there wanted to kill him. <sup>2</sup>It was time for the Jewish Feast<sup>d</sup> of Shelters. <sup>3</sup>So Jesus’ brothers said to him, “You should leave here and go to Judea. Then your followers there can see the miracles<sup>d</sup> you do. <sup>4</sup>Anyone who wants to be well known does not hide what he does. If you are doing these things, show yourself to the world.” <sup>5</sup>(Even Jesus’ brothers did not believe in him.)

for you. <sup>7</sup>The world cannot hate you. But it hates me, because I tell about the evil things it does. <sup>8</sup>So you go to the feast. I will not go now. The right time for me has not yet come.” <sup>9</sup>After saying this, Jesus stayed in Galilee.

<sup>10</sup>So Jesus’ brothers left to go to the feast. When they had gone, Jesus went, too. But he did not let people see him. <sup>11</sup>At the feast the Jews were looking for him. They said, “Where is that man?”

<sup>12</sup>There was a large crowd of people there. Many of them were whispering to each other about Jesus. Some said, “He is a good man.”

Others said, “No, he fools the people.” <sup>13</sup>But no one was brave enough to talk about Jesus openly. They were afraid of the Jews.

Jesus Teaches at the Feast

<sup>14</sup>The feast was about half over. Then Jesus went to the Temple<sup>d</sup> and began to teach. <sup>15</sup>The Jews were amazed. They said, “This man has never studied in school. How did he learn so much?”

<sup>16</sup>Jesus answered, “The things I teach are not my own. My teaching comes from him who sent me. <sup>17</sup>If anyone chooses to do what God wants, then he will know that my teaching comes from God. He will know that this teaching is not my own. <sup>18</sup>He who teaches his own ideas is trying to get honor for himself. But he who tries to bring honor to the one who sent him—that person speaks the truth. There is nothing false in him. <sup>19</sup>Moses gave you the law,<sup>n</sup> but none of you obey that law. Why are you trying to kill me?”

Is Jesus the Christ?

<sup>25</sup>Then some of the people who lived in Jerusalem said, “This is the man they are trying to kill. <sup>26</sup>But he is teaching where everyone can see and hear him. And no one is trying to stop him. Maybe the leaders have decided that he really is the Christ.<sup>d</sup> <sup>27</sup>But we know where this man is from. And when the real Christ comes, no one will know where he comes from.”

<sup>28</sup>Jesus was still teaching in the Temple.<sup>d</sup> He cried out, “Yes, you know me, and you know where I am from. But I have not come by my own authority. I was sent by the One who is true. You don’t know him. <sup>29</sup>But I know him because I am from him, and he sent me.”

<sup>30</sup>When Jesus said this, the people tried to take him. But no one was able to touch him. It was not yet the right time. <sup>31</sup>But many of the people believed in Jesus. They said, “When the Christ comes, will he do more miracles<sup>d</sup> than this man has done?”

The Jews Try to Arrest Jesus

<sup>32</sup>The Pharisees<sup>d</sup> heard the crowd whispering these things about Jesus. So the leading priests and the Pharisees sent some Temple<sup>d</sup> guards to arrest him. <sup>33</sup>Then Jesus said, “I will be with you a little while longer. Then I will go back to the One who sent me. <sup>34</sup>You will look for me, but you will not find me. And you cannot come where I am.”

<sup>35</sup>The Jews said to each other, “Where will this man go so we cannot find him? Will he go to the Greek cities where our people live? Will he teach the Greek people there? <sup>36</sup>This man says, ‘You will look for me but you will not find me.’ He also says, ‘You cannot come where I am.’ What does this mean?”

Jesus Talks About the Spirit

<sup>37</sup>The last and most important day of the feast came. On that day Jesus stood up and said in a loud voice, “If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink. <sup>38</sup>If a person believes in me, rivers of living water will flow out from his heart. This is what the Scripture<sup>d</sup> says.” <sup>39</sup>Jesus was talking about the Holy Spirit.<sup>d</sup> The Spirit had not yet been given because Jesus had not yet been raised to glory. But later, those who believed in Jesus would receive the Spirit.

The People Argue About Jesus

<sup>40</sup>The people heard these things that Jesus said. Some of them said, “This man really is the Prophet.”<sup>n</sup>

Still others said, “The Christ will not come from Galilee. <sup>42</sup>The Scripture<sup>d</sup> says that the Christ will come from David’s family. And the <sup>n</sup>law Moses gave God’s people the law that God gave him on Mount Sinai (Exodus 34:29-32).

Scripture says that the Christ will come from Bethlehem, the town where David lived.”<sup>43</sup>So the people did not agree with each other about Jesus.<sup>44</sup>Some of them wanted to arrest him, but no one was able to touch him.

Jewish Leaders Won't Believe

<sup>47</sup>The Pharisees answered, “So Jesus has fooled you too! <sup>48</sup>Have any of the leaders or the Pharisees believed in him? No! <sup>49</sup>But those people, who know nothing about the law, are under God’s curse!”

<sup>50</sup>But Nicodemus was there in that group. He was the one who had gone to see Jesus before. <sup>n</sup> Nicodemus said, <sup>51</sup>“Our law does not judge a man without hearing him. We cannot judge him until we know what he has done.”

The Woman Caught in Adultery

8 Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.<sup>d</sup> <sup>2</sup>But early in the morning he went back to the Temple.<sup>d</sup> All the people came to Jesus, and he sat and taught them. <sup>3</sup>The teachers of the law and the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> brought a woman there. She had been caught in adultery.<sup>d</sup> They forced the woman to stand before the people. <sup>4</sup>They said to Jesus, “Teacher, this woman was caught having sexual relations with a man who is not her husband. <sup>5</sup>The law of Moses commands that we kill with stones every woman who does this. What do you say we should do?” <sup>6</sup>They were asking this to trick Jesus so that they could have some charge against him.

But Jesus knelt down and started writing on the ground with his finger. <sup>7</sup>They continued to ask Jesus their question. So he stood up and said, “Is there anyone here who has never sinned? The person without sin can throw the first stone at this woman.” <sup>8</sup>Then Jesus knelt down again and wrote on the ground.

woman. She was standing before him. <sup>10</sup>Jesus stood up again and asked her, “Woman, all of those people have gone. Has no one judged you guilty?”

Then Jesus said, “So I also don’t judge you. You may go now, but don’t sin again.”

Jesus Is the Light of the World

<sup>12</sup>Later, Jesus talked to the people again. He said, “I am the light of the world. The person who follows me will never live in darkness. He will have the light that gives life.”

<sup>13</sup>But the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> said to Jesus, “When you talk about yourself, you are the only one to say these things are true. We cannot accept these things you say.”

<sup>14</sup>Jesus answered, “Yes, I am saying these things about myself, but they are true. I know where I came from. And I know where I am going. You don’t know where I came from or where I am going. <sup>15</sup>You judge me the way you would judge any man. I don’t judge anyone. <sup>16</sup>But if I judge, my judging is true. When I judge, I am not alone. The Father who sent me is with me. <sup>17</sup>Your own law says that when two witnesses say the same thing, then you must accept what they say. <sup>18</sup>I am one of the witnesses who speaks about myself. And the Father who sent me is my other witness.”

Jesus answered, “You don’t know me or my Father. But if you knew me, then you would know my Father, too.” <sup>20</sup>Jesus said these things while he was teaching in the Temple.<sup>d</sup> He was near the place where the money that the people give is kept. But no one arrested him. The right time for Jesus had not yet come.

The Jews Misunderstand Jesus

<sup>21</sup>Again, Jesus said to the people, “I will leave you. You will look for me, but you will die in your sins. You cannot come where I am going.”

<sup>22</sup>So the Jews asked, “Will Jesus kill himself? Is that why he said, ‘You cannot come where I am going?’”

<sup>23</sup>But Jesus said, “You people are from here below. But I am from above. You belong to this world, but I don’t belong to this world. <sup>24</sup>So I told you that you would die in your sins. Yes, you will die in your sins if you don’t believe that I am he.”

Jesus answered, "I am what I have told you from the beginning. <sup>26</sup>I have many things to say about you and to judge you for. But I tell people only the things I have heard from the One who sent me. And he speaks the truth."

<sup>27</sup>The people did not understand that Jesus was talking to them about the Father. <sup>28</sup>So Jesus said to them, "You will lift up the Son of Man. <sup>4</sup> Then you will know that I am he. You will know that these things I do are not by my own authority. You will know that I say only what the Father has taught me. <sup>29</sup>The One who sent me is with me. I always do what is pleasing to him. So he has not left me alone." <sup>30</sup>While Jesus was saying these things, many people believed in him.

Freedom from Sin

<sup>31</sup>So Jesus said to the Jews who believed in him, "If you continue to obey my teaching, you are truly my followers. <sup>32</sup>Then you will know the truth. And the truth will make you free."

<sup>33</sup>The Jews answered, "We are Abraham's children. And we have never been slaves. So why do you say that we will be free?"

<sup>34</sup>Jesus answered, "I tell you the truth. Everyone who lives in sin is a slave to sin. <sup>35</sup>A slave does not stay with a family forever, but a son belongs to the family forever. <sup>36</sup>So if the Son makes you free, then you will be truly free. <sup>37</sup>I know you are Abraham's children. But you want to kill me because you don't accept my teaching. <sup>38</sup>I am telling you what my Father has shown me. But you do what your father has told you."

Jesus said, "If you were really Abraham's children, you would do the things that Abraham did. <sup>40</sup>I am a man who has told you the truth which I heard from God. But you are trying to kill me. Abraham did nothing like that. <sup>41</sup>So you are doing the things that your own father did."

But the Jews said, "We are not like children who never knew who their father was. God is our Father. He is the only Father we have."

<sup>42</sup>Jesus said to them, "If God were really your Father, you would love me. I came from God and now I am here. I did not come by my own authority. God sent me. <sup>43</sup>You don't understand what I say because you cannot accept my teaching. <sup>44</sup>Your father is the devil. You belong to him and want to do what he wants. He was a murderer from the beginning. He was against the truth, because there is no truth in him. He is a liar, and he is like the lies he tells.

He is the father of lies. <sup>45</sup>But I speak the truth. That is why you don't believe me. <sup>46</sup>Can any of you prove that I am guilty of sin? If I am telling the truth, why don't you believe me? <sup>47</sup>He who belongs to God accepts what God says. But you don't accept what God says, because you don't belong to God."

Jesus Is Greater than Abraham

<sup>48</sup>The Jews answered, "We say you are a Samaritan! <sup>d</sup> We say a demon <sup>d</sup> has come into you. Are we not right?"

<sup>49</sup>Jesus answered, "I have no demon in me. I give honor to my Father, but you dishonor me. <sup>50</sup>I am not trying to get honor for myself. There is One who wants this honor for me, and he is the judge. <sup>51</sup>I tell you the truth. If anyone obeys my teaching, he will never die."

<sup>52</sup>The Jews said to Jesus, "Now we know that you have a demon in you! Even Abraham and the prophets <sup>d</sup> died. But you say, 'Whoever obeys my teaching will never die.' <sup>53</sup>Do you think that you are greater than our father Abraham? Abraham died. And the prophets died, too. Who do you think you are?"

<sup>54</sup>Jesus answered, "If I give honor to myself, that honor is worth nothing. The One who gives me honor is my Father. And you say that he is your God. <sup>55</sup>But you don't really know him. I know him. If I said I did not know him, then I would be a liar as you are liars. But I do know him, and I obey what he says. <sup>56</sup>Your father Abraham was very happy that he would see my day. He saw that day and was glad."

<sup>57</sup>The Jews said to him, "What? You have never seen Abraham! You are not even 50 years old!"

<sup>58</sup>Jesus answered, "I tell you the truth. Before Abraham was born, I am!" <sup>59</sup>When Jesus said this, the people picked up stones to throw at him. But Jesus hid himself, and then he left the Temple. <sup>d</sup>

Jesus Heals a Man Born Blind

9 As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man who had been born blind. <sup>2</sup>His followers asked him, "Teacher, whose sin caused this man to be born blind—his own sin or his parents' sin?"

<sup>3</sup>Jesus answered, "It is not this man's sin or his parents' sin that made him be blind. This man was born blind so that God's power could be shown in him. <sup>4</sup>While it is daytime, we must continue doing the work of the One who sent me. The night is coming. And no one can work at night. <sup>5</sup>While I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

<sup>6</sup>After Jesus said this, he spit on the ground and made some mud with it. He put the mud on the man's eyes. <sup>7</sup>Then he told the man, "Go and wash in the pool Siloam." (Siloam means Sent.) So the man went to the pool and washed. When he came back, he was able to see.

<sup>8</sup>Some people had seen this man begging before. They and the man's neighbors said, "Look! Is this the same man who always sits and begs?"

<sup>9</sup>Some said, "Yes! He is the one." But others said, "No, he's not the same man. He only looks like him."

So the man himself said, "I am the man."

<sup>11</sup>He answered, "The man named Jesus made some mud and put it on my eyes. Then he told me to go to Siloam and wash. So I went and washed and then I could see."

The man answered, "I don't know."

Pharisees Question the Healing

<sup>13</sup>Then the people took to the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> the man who had been blind. <sup>14</sup>The day Jesus had made mud and healed his eyes was a Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day. <sup>15</sup>So now the Pharisees asked the man, "How did you get your sight?"

He answered, "He put mud on my eyes. I washed, and now I can see."

<sup>16</sup>Some of the Pharisees were saying, "This man does not keep the Sabbath day. He is not from God!"

Others said, "But a man who is a sinner can't do miracles<sup>d</sup> like these." So they could not agree with each other.

<sup>17</sup>They asked the man again, "What do you say about him? It was your eyes he opened."

The man answered, "He is a prophet."<sup>d</sup>

<sup>18</sup>The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and could now see again. So they sent for the man's parents <sup>19</sup>and asked them, "Is this your son? You say that he was born blind. Then how does he see now?"

<sup>20</sup>His parents answered, "We know that this is our son, and we know that he was born blind. <sup>21</sup>But we don't know how he can see now. We don't know who opened his eyes. Ask him. He is old enough to answer for himself." <sup>22</sup>His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews. The Jews had already decided that anyone who said that Jesus was the Christ<sup>d</sup> would be put out of the synagogue.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>24</sup>So for the second time, the Jewish leaders called the man who had been blind. They said, "You should give God the glory by telling the truth. We know that this man is a sinner."

<sup>25</sup>He answered, "I don't know if he is a sinner. But one thing I do know. I was blind, and now I can see."

<sup>26</sup>The Jewish leaders asked, "What did he do to you? How did he make you see again?"

<sup>27</sup>He answered, "I have already told you that. But you would not listen to me. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you want to become his followers, too?"

<sup>28</sup>Then they insulted him and said, "You are his follower. We are followers of Moses. <sup>29</sup>We know that God spoke to Moses. But we don't even know where this man comes from!"

<sup>30</sup>The man answered, "This is a very strange thing. You don't know where he comes from, and yet he opened my eyes. <sup>31</sup>We all know that God does not listen to sinners. But God listens to anyone who worships and obeys him. <sup>32</sup>Nobody has ever heard of anyone giving sight to a man born blind. <sup>33</sup>If this man were not from God, he could do nothing."

<sup>34</sup>They answered, "You were born full of sin! Are you trying to teach us?" And they threw the man out.

Spiritual Blindness

<sup>35</sup>Jesus heard that they had thrown him out. So Jesus found him and said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?"<sup>d</sup>

<sup>36</sup>He asked, "Who is the Son of Man, sir? Tell me, so I can believe in him!"

<sup>37</sup>Jesus said to him, "You have already seen him. The Son of Man is the one talking with you now."

<sup>38</sup>He said, "Yes, Lord, I believe!" Then the man bowed and worshiped Jesus.

<sup>39</sup>Jesus said, "I came into this world so that the world could be judged. I came so that the blind<sup>a</sup> could see and so that those who see will become blind."

<sup>40</sup>Some of the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> were near Jesus. When they heard him say this, they asked, "What? Are you saying that we are blind, too?"

<sup>41</sup>Jesus said, "If you were really blind, you would not be guilty of sin. But now that you say you can see, your guilt remains."

<sup>a</sup>blind Jesus is talking about people who are spiritually blind, not physically blind.

The Shepherd and His Sheep

10 Jesus said, “I tell you the truth. The man who does not enter the sheepfold by the door, but climbs in some other way, is a thief and a robber. <sup>2</sup>The one who enters by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. <sup>3</sup>The man who guards the door opens it for him. And the sheep listen to the voice of the shepherd. He calls his own sheep, using their names, and he leads them out. <sup>4</sup>He brings all of his sheep out. Then he goes ahead of them and leads them. They follow him because they know his voice. <sup>5</sup>But they will never follow a stranger. They will run away from him because they don’t know his voice.” <sup>6</sup>Jesus told the people this story, but they did not understand what it meant.

Jesus Is the Good Shepherd

<sup>7</sup>So Jesus said again, “I tell you the truth. I am the door for the sheep. <sup>8</sup>All the people who came before me were thieves and robbers. The sheep did not listen to them. <sup>9</sup>I am the door. The person who enters through me will be saved. He will be able to come in and go out and find pasture. <sup>10</sup>A thief comes to steal and kill and destroy. But I came to give life—life in all its fullness.

<sup>11</sup>“I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives his life for the sheep. <sup>12</sup>The worker who is paid to keep the sheep is different from the shepherd who owns them. So when the worker sees a wolf coming, he runs away and leaves the sheep alone. Then the wolf attacks the sheep and scatters them. <sup>13</sup>The man runs away because he is only a paid worker. He does not really care for the sheep.

<sup>14-15</sup>“I am the good shepherd. I know my sheep, as the Father knows me. And my sheep know me, as I know the Father. I give my life for the sheep. <sup>16</sup>I have other sheep that are not in this flock here. I must bring them also. They will listen to my voice, and there will be one flock and one shepherd. <sup>17</sup>The Father loves me because I give my life. I give my life so that I can take it back again. <sup>18</sup>No one takes it away from me. I give my own life freely. I have the right to give my life, and I have the right to take it back. This is what my Father commanded me to do.”

<sup>19</sup>Again the Jews did not agree with each other because of these words Jesus said. <sup>20</sup>Many of them said, “A demon<sup>d</sup> has come into him and made him crazy. Why listen to him?”

The Jews Are Against Jesus

<sup>25</sup>Jesus answered, “I told you already, but you did not believe. I do miracles<sup>d</sup> in my Father’s name. Those miracles show who I am. <sup>26</sup>But you don’t believe because you are not my sheep. <sup>27</sup>My sheep listen to my voice. I know them, and they follow me. <sup>28</sup>I give them eternal life, and they will never die. And no person can steal them out of my hand. <sup>29</sup>My Father gave my sheep to me. He is greater than all, and no person can steal my sheep out of my Father’s hand. <sup>30</sup>The Father and I are one.”

<sup>31</sup>Again the Jews picked up stones to kill Jesus. <sup>32</sup>But Jesus said to them, “I have done many good works from the Father. Which of these good works are you killing me for?”

<sup>33</sup>The Jews answered, “We are not killing you for any good work you did. But you say things that are against God. You are only a man, but you say you are the same as God!”

<sup>40</sup>Then Jesus went back across the Jordan River to the place where John had first baptized. Jesus stayed there, <sup>41</sup>and many people came to him. They said, “John never did a miracle. But everything John said about this man is true.” <sup>42</sup>And in that place many believed in Jesus.

The Death of Lazarus

11 There was a man named Lazarus who was sick. He lived in the town of Bethany, where Mary and her sister Martha lived. <sup>2</sup>Mary is the woman who later put perfume on the Lord and wiped his feet with her hair. Mary's brother was Lazarus, the man who was now sick. <sup>3</sup>So Mary and Martha sent someone to tell Jesus, "Lord, the one you love is sick."

<sup>4</sup>When Jesus heard this he said, "This sickness will not end in death. It is for the glory of God. This has happened to bring glory to the Son of God." <sup>5</sup>Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. <sup>6</sup>But when he heard that Lazarus was sick, he stayed where he was for two more days. <sup>7</sup>Then Jesus said to his followers, "Let us go back to Judea."

<sup>8</sup>The followers said, "But Teacher, the Jews there tried to kill you with stones. That was only a short time ago. Now you want to go back there?"

<sup>9</sup>Jesus answered, "Are there not 12 hours in the day? If anyone walks in the daylight, he will not stumble because he can see by this world's light. <sup>10</sup>But if anyone walks at night he stumbles because there is no light to help him see."

<sup>11</sup>After Jesus said this, he added, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep. But I am going there to wake him."

<sup>12</sup>The followers said, "But Lord, if he can sleep, he will get well."

<sup>13</sup>Jesus meant that Lazarus was dead. But Jesus' followers thought that he meant Lazarus was really sleeping. <sup>14</sup>So then Jesus said plainly, "Lazarus is dead. <sup>15</sup>And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there so that you may believe. But let us go to him now."

<sup>16</sup>Then Thomas (the one called Didymus) said to the other followers, "Let us go, too. We will die with him."

Jesus in Bethany

<sup>17</sup>Jesus arrived in Bethany. There he learned that Lazarus had already been dead and in the tomb for four days. <sup>18</sup>Bethany was about two miles from Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup>Many Jews had come there to comfort Martha and Mary about their brother.

<sup>20</sup>Martha heard that Jesus was coming, and she went out to meet him. But Mary stayed at home. <sup>21</sup>Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. <sup>22</sup>But I know that even now God will give you anything you ask."

<sup>23</sup>Jesus said, "Your brother will rise and live again."

<sup>24</sup>Martha answered, "I know that he will rise and live again in the resurrection<sup>a</sup> on the last day."

<sup>25</sup>Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will have life even if he dies. <sup>26</sup>And he who lives and believes in me will never die. Martha, do you believe this?"

<sup>27</sup>Martha answered, "Yes, Lord. I believe that you are the Christ,<sup>a</sup> the Son of God. You are the One who was coming to the world."

Jesus Cries

<sup>28</sup>After Martha said this, she went back and talked to her sister Mary alone. Martha said, "The Teacher is here and he is asking for you."

<sup>29</sup>When Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to Jesus. <sup>30</sup>Jesus had not yet come into the town. He was still at the place where Martha had met him. <sup>31</sup>The Jews were with Mary in the house, comforting her. When they saw her stand and leave quickly, they followed her. They thought she was going to the tomb to cry there. <sup>32</sup>But Mary went to the place where Jesus was. When she saw him, she fell at his feet and said, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."

<sup>33</sup>Jesus saw that Mary was crying and that the Jews who came with her were crying, too. Jesus felt very sad in his heart and was deeply troubled. <sup>34</sup>He asked, "Where did you bury him?"

"Come and see, Lord," they said.

<sup>37</sup>But some of them said, "If Jesus healed the eyes of the blind man, why didn't he keep Lazarus from dying?"

Jesus Raises Lazarus

<sup>38</sup>Again feeling very sad in his heart, Jesus came to the tomb. The tomb was a cave with a large stone covering the entrance. <sup>39</sup>Jesus said, "Move the stone away."

Martha said, "But, Lord, it has been four days since he died. There will be a bad smell." Martha was the sister of the dead man.

<sup>40</sup>Then Jesus said to her, "Didn't I tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?"

<sup>41</sup>So they moved the stone away from the entrance. Then Jesus looked up and said, "Father, I thank you that you heard me. <sup>42</sup>I know that you always hear me. But I said these things because of the people here around me. I want them to believe that you sent me.” <sup>43</sup>After Jesus said this, he cried out in a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!” <sup>44</sup>The dead man came out. His hands and feet were wrapped with pieces of cloth, and he had a cloth around his face.

Jesus said to them, “Take the cloth off of him and let him go.”

The Leaders Plan to Kill Jesus

<sup>45</sup>Many of the Jews who had come to visit Mary saw what Jesus did. And many of them believed in him. <sup>46</sup>But some of the Jews went to the Pharisees. <sup>47</sup>They told the Pharisees what Jesus had done. <sup>48</sup>Then the leading priests and Pharisees called a meeting of the Jewish council. They asked, “What should we do? This man is doing many miracles. <sup>49</sup>If we let him continue doing these things, everyone will believe in him. Then the Romans will come and take away our Temple<sup>d</sup> and our nation.”

<sup>49</sup>One of the men there was Caiaphas. He was the high priest that year. Caiaphas said, “You people know nothing! <sup>50</sup>It is better for one man to die for the people than for the whole nation to be destroyed. But you don’t realize this.”

<sup>51</sup>Caiaphas did not think of this himself. He was high priest that year. So he was really prophesying<sup>d</sup> that Jesus would die for the Jewish nation <sup>52</sup>and for God’s scattered children. This would bring them all together and make them one.

<sup>53</sup>That day the Jewish leaders started planning to kill Jesus. <sup>54</sup>So Jesus no longer traveled openly among the Jews. He left there and went to a place near the desert. He went to a town called Ephraim and stayed there with his followers.

<sup>55</sup>It was almost time for the Jewish Passover<sup>d</sup> Feast. Many from the country went up to Jerusalem before the Passover. They went to do the special things to make themselves pure. <sup>56</sup>The people looked for Jesus. They stood in the Temple and were asking each other, “Is he coming to the Feast? What do you think?” <sup>57</sup>But the leading priests and the Pharisees had given orders about Jesus. They said that if anyone knew where Jesus was, he must tell them. Then they could arrest Jesus.

<sup>d</sup>Praise Literally, “Hosanna,” a Hebrew word used at first in praying to God for help, but at this time it was probably a shout of joy used in praising God or his Messiah.

Jesus with Friends in Bethany

12 Six days before the Passover<sup>d</sup> Feast, Jesus went to Bethany, where Lazarus lived. (Lazarus is the man Jesus raised from death.) <sup>2</sup>There they had a dinner for Jesus. Martha served the food. Lazarus was one of the people eating with Jesus. <sup>3</sup>Mary brought in a pint of very expensive perfume made from pure nard. <sup>4</sup>She poured the perfume on Jesus’ feet, and then she wiped his feet with her hair. And the sweet smell from the perfume filled the whole house.

<sup>4</sup>Judas Iscariot, one of Jesus’ followers, was there. (He was the one who would later turn against Jesus.) Judas said, <sup>5</sup>“This perfume was worth 300 silver coins. <sup>6</sup>It should have been sold and the money given to the poor.” <sup>7</sup>But Judas did not really care about the poor. He said this because he was a thief. He was the one who kept the money box, and he often stole money from it.

<sup>7</sup>Jesus answered, “Let her alone. It was right for her to save this perfume for today—the day for me to be prepared for burial. <sup>8</sup>The poor will always be with you, but you will not always have me.”

The Plot Against Lazarus

<sup>9</sup>A large crowd of Jews heard that Jesus was in Bethany. So they went there to see not only Jesus but also Lazarus. Lazarus was the one Jesus raised from death. <sup>10</sup>So the leading priests made plans to kill Lazarus, too. <sup>11</sup>Because of Lazarus many Jews were leaving them and believing in Jesus.

Jesus Enters Jerusalem

<sup>12</sup>The next day a great crowd in Jerusalem heard that Jesus was coming there. These were the people who had come to the Passover<sup>d</sup> Feast. <sup>13</sup>They took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Jesus. They shouted, “Praise<sup>n</sup> God!

God bless the One who comes in the name of the Lord!

God bless the King of Israel!”

Psalms 118:25-26

<sup>14</sup>Jesus found a colt and sat on it. This was as the Scripture<sup>d</sup> says,

Your king is coming.

He is sitting on the colt of a donkey.”

Zechariah 9:9

this at first. But after Jesus was raised to glory, they remembered that this had been written about him. And they remembered that they had done these things to him.

People Tell About Jesus

<sup>17</sup>There had been many people with Jesus when he raised Lazarus from death and told him to come out of the tomb. Now they were telling others about what Jesus did. <sup>18</sup>Many people went out to meet Jesus, because they had heard about this miracle. <sup>19</sup>So the Pharisees<sup>d</sup> said to each other, "You can see that nothing is going right for us. Look! The whole world is following him."

Jesus Talks About His Death

<sup>20</sup>There were some Greek people, too, who came to Jerusalem to worship at the Passover<sup>d</sup> Feast. <sup>21</sup>They went to Philip. (Philip was from Bethsaida, in Galilee.) They said, "Sir, we would like to see Jesus." <sup>22</sup>Philip told Andrew. Then Andrew and Philip told Jesus.

<sup>23</sup>Jesus said to them, "The time has come for the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> to receive his glory. <sup>24</sup>I tell you the truth. A grain of wheat must fall to the ground and die. Then it makes many seeds. But if it never dies, it remains only a single seed.

<sup>25</sup>The person who loves his life will give up true life. But the person who hates his life in this world will keep true life forever. <sup>26</sup>Whoever serves me must follow me. Then my servant will be with me everywhere I am. My Father will honor anyone who serves me.

<sup>27</sup>"Now I am very troubled. What should I say? Should I say, 'Father, save me from this time'? No, I came to this time so that I could suffer. <sup>28</sup>Father, bring glory to your name!"

Then a voice came from heaven, "I have brought glory to it, and I will do it again."

<sup>29</sup>The crowd standing there heard the voice. They said it was thunder.

But others said, "An angel has spoken to him."

<sup>30</sup>Jesus said, "That voice was for you, not for me. <sup>31</sup>Now is the time for the world to be judged. Now the ruler of this world will be thrown down. <sup>32</sup>I will be lifted up from the earth. And when this happens, I will draw all people toward me." <sup>33</sup>Jesus said this to show how he would die.

<sup>34</sup>The crowd said, "We have heard from the law that the Christ<sup>d</sup> will live forever. So why do you say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'? Who is this 'Son of Man'?"

<sup>35</sup>Then Jesus said, "The light will be with you for a little longer. So walk while you have the light. Then the darkness will not catch you. He who walks in the darkness does not know where he is going. <sup>36</sup>So believe in the light while you still have it. Then you will become sons of light." When Jesus had said this, he left and hid himself from them.

Jews Won't Believe in Jesus

<sup>37</sup>Though Jesus had done many miracles<sup>d</sup> before the people, they still did not believe in him. <sup>38</sup>This was to make clear the full meaning of what Isaiah the prophet<sup>d</sup> said:

"Lord, who believed the things we told them?

Who has seen the Lord's power?" Isaiah 53:1

<sup>39</sup>This is why the people could not believe: Isaiah also said, <sup>40</sup>"He has blinded their eyes.

He has closed their minds.

This is so that they will not see with their eyes nor understand in their minds.

This is so they will not come back to me and be forgiven." Isaiah 6:10

<sup>41</sup>Isaiah said this because he saw Jesus' glory and spoke about him.

<sup>42</sup>But many people believed in Jesus, even many of the Jewish leaders. But because of the Pharisees,<sup>d</sup> they did not say that they believed in him. They were afraid that they would be put out of the synagogue.<sup>d</sup> <sup>43</sup>They loved praise from men more than praise from God.

<sup>44</sup>Then Jesus cried out, "He who believes in me is really believing in the One who sent me.

<sup>45</sup>He who sees me sees the One who sent me. <sup>46</sup>I have come as light into the world. I came so that whoever believes in me would not stay in darkness.

<sup>47</sup>"If anyone hears my words and does not obey them, I do not judge him. For I did not come to judge the world, but to save the world. <sup>48</sup>There is a judge for the one who refuses to believe in me and does not accept my words. The word I have taught will be his judge on the last day. <sup>49</sup>The things I taught were not from myself. The Father who sent me told me what to say and what to teach. <sup>50</sup>And I know that eternal life comes from what the Father commands. So whatever I say is what the Father told me to say."

Jesus Washes His Followers' Feet

13 It was almost time for the Jewish Passover<sup>d</sup> Feast. Jesus knew that it was time for him to leave this world and go back to the Father. He had always loved those who were his own in the world, and he loved them all the way to the end.

<sup>2</sup>Jesus and his followers were at the evening meal. The devil had already persuaded Judas Iscariot to turn against Jesus. (Judas was the son of Simon.) <sup>3</sup>Jesus knew that the Father had given him power over everything. He also knew that he had come from God and was going back to God. <sup>4</sup>So during the meal Jesus stood up and took off his outer clothing. Taking a towel, he wrapped it around his waist. <sup>5</sup>Then he poured water into a bowl and began to wash the followers' feet. He dried them with the towel that was wrapped around him.

<sup>6</sup>Jesus came to Simon Peter. But Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

<sup>7</sup>Jesus answered, "You don't understand what I am doing now. But you will understand later."

<sup>8</sup>Peter said, "No! You will never wash my feet."

Jesus answered, "If I don't wash your feet, then you are not one of my people."

<sup>9</sup>Simon Peter answered, "Lord, after you wash my feet, wash my hands and my head, too!"

<sup>10</sup>Jesus said, "After a person has had a bath, his whole body is clean. He needs only to wash his feet. And you men are clean,<sup>a</sup> but not all of you." <sup>11</sup>Jesus knew who would turn against him. That is why Jesus said, "Not all of you are clean."

<sup>12</sup>When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and sat down again. Jesus asked, "Do you understand what I have just done for you?" <sup>13</sup>You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord.' And this is right, because that is what I am. <sup>14</sup>I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet. So you also should wash each other's feet. <sup>15</sup>I did this as an example for you. So you should do as I have done for you. <sup>16</sup>I tell you the truth. A servant is not greater than his master. A messenger is not greater than the one who sent him. <sup>17</sup>If you know these things, you will be happy if you do them.

<sup>18</sup>"I am not talking about all of you. I know those I have chosen. But what the Scripture<sup>a</sup> said must happen: 'The man who ate at my table has now turned against me.'<sup>a</sup> <sup>19</sup>I am telling you this now before it happens. Then when it happens you will believe that I am he. <sup>20</sup>I tell you the truth. Whoever accepts anyone I send also accepts me. And whoever accepts me also accepts the One who sent me."

Jesus Talks About His Death

<sup>21</sup>After Jesus said this, he was very troubled. He said openly, "I tell you the truth. One of you will turn against me."

<sup>22</sup>The followers all looked at each other. They did not know whom Jesus was talking about. <sup>23</sup>One of the followers was sitting<sup>a</sup> next to Jesus. This was the follower Jesus loved. <sup>24</sup>Simon Peter made signs to him to ask Jesus who it was that he was talking about.

<sup>25</sup>That follower leaned closer to Jesus and asked, "Lord, who is it that will turn against you?"

<sup>26</sup>Jesus answered, "I will dip this bread into the dish. The man I give it to is the man who will turn against me." So Jesus took a piece of bread. He dipped it and gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. <sup>27</sup>As soon as Judas took the bread, Satan entered him. Jesus said to Judas, "The thing that you will do—do it quickly!" <sup>28</sup>None of the men at the table understood why Jesus said this to Judas. <sup>29</sup>He was the one who kept the money box. So some of the followers thought that Jesus was telling Judas to buy what was needed for the feast. Or they thought that Jesus wanted Judas to give something to the poor.

<sup>30</sup>Judas accepted the bread Jesus gave him and immediately went out. It was night.

<sup>31</sup>When Judas was gone, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> receives his glory. And God receives glory through him. <sup>32</sup>If God receives glory through him, then God will give glory to the Son through himself. And God will give him glory quickly."

<sup>33</sup>Jesus said, "My children, I will be with you only a little longer. You will look for me. And what I told the Jews, I tell you now: Where I am going you cannot come.

<sup>34</sup>"I give you a new command: Love each other. You must love each other as I have loved you. <sup>35</sup>All people will know that you are my followers if you love each other."

Peter Will Say He Doesn't Know Jesus

Jesus answered, "Where I am going you cannot follow now. But you will follow later."

<sup>37</sup>Peter asked, "Lord, why can't I follow you now? I am ready to die for you!"

<sup>38</sup>Jesus answered, "Will you really die for me? I tell you the truth. Before the rooster crows, you will say three times that you don't know me."

Jesus Comforts His Followers

14 Jesus said, "Don't let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God. And trust in me. <sup>2</sup>There are many rooms in my Father's house. I would not tell you this if it were not true. I am going there to prepare a place for you. <sup>3</sup>After I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back. Then I will take you to be with me so that you may be where I am. <sup>4</sup>You know the way to the place where I am going."

<sup>5</sup>Thomas said to Jesus, "Lord, we don't know where you are going. So how can we know the way?"

<sup>6</sup>Jesus answered, "I am the way. And I am the truth and the life. The only way to the Father is through me. <sup>7</sup>If you really knew me, then you would know my Father, too. But now you do know him, and you have seen him."

<sup>8</sup>Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father. That is all we need."

<sup>9</sup>Jesus answered, "I have been with you a long time now. Do you still not know me, Philip? He who has seen me has seen the Father. So why do you say, 'Show us the Father'? <sup>10</sup>Don't you believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words I say to you don't come from me. The Father lives in me, and he is doing his own work. <sup>11</sup>Believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me. Or believe because of the miracles<sup>d</sup> I have done. <sup>12</sup>I tell you the truth. He who believes in me will do the same things that I do. He will do even greater things than these because I am going to the Father. <sup>13</sup>And if you ask for anything in my name, I will do it for you. Then the Father's glory will be shown through the Son. <sup>14</sup>If you ask me for anything in my name, I will do it.

The Promise of the Holy Spirit

<sup>15</sup>"If you love me, you will do the things I command. <sup>16</sup>I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper. <sup>17</sup>He will give you this Helper to be with you forever. <sup>18</sup>The Helper is the Spirit<sup>d</sup> of truth. The world cannot accept him because it does not see him or know him. But you know him. He lives with you and he will be in you.

<sup>19</sup>"I will not leave you all alone like orphans. I will come back to you. <sup>20</sup>In a little while the world will not see me anymore, but you will see me. Because I live, you will live, too. <sup>21</sup>On that day you will know that I am in my Father. You will know that you are in me and I am in you. <sup>22</sup>He who knows my commands and obeys them is the one who loves me. And my Father will love him who loves me. I will love him and will show myself to him."

<sup>23</sup>Then Judas (not Judas Iscariot) said, "But, Lord, why do you plan to show yourself to us, but not to the world?"

<sup>24</sup>Jesus answered, "If anyone loves me, then he will obey my teaching. My Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. <sup>25</sup>He who does not love me does not obey my teaching. This teaching that you hear is not really mine. It is from my Father, who sent me.

<sup>26</sup>"I have told you all these things while I am with you. <sup>27</sup>But the Helper will teach you everything. He will cause you to remember all the things I told you. This Helper is the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name.

<sup>28</sup>"I leave you peace. My peace I give you. I do not give it to you as the world does. So don't let your hearts be troubled. Don't be afraid. <sup>29</sup>You heard me say to you, 'I am going, but I am coming back to you.' If you loved me, you should be happy that I am going back to the Father because he is greater than I am. <sup>30</sup>I have told you this now, before it happens. Then when it happens, you will believe. <sup>31</sup>I will not talk with you much longer because the ruler of this world is coming. He has no power over me. <sup>32</sup>But the world must know that I love the Father. So I do exactly what the Father told me to do.

"Come now, let us go.

Jesus Is Like a Vine

15 "I am the true vine; my Father is the gardener. <sup>2</sup>He cuts off every branch of mine that does not produce fruit. And he trims and cleans every branch that produces fruit so that it will produce even more fruit. <sup>3</sup>You are already clean<sup>d</sup> because of the words I have spoken to you. <sup>4</sup>Remain in me, and I will remain in you. No branch can produce fruit alone. It must remain in the vine. It is the same with you. You cannot produce fruit alone. You must remain in me.

<sup>5</sup>"I am the vine, and you are the branches. If a person remains in me and I remain in him, then he produces much fruit. But without me he can do nothing. <sup>6</sup>If anyone does not remain in me, then he is like a branch that is thrown away. That branch dies. People pick up dead branches, throw them into the fire, and burn them. <sup>7</sup>Remain in me and follow my teachings. If you do this, then you can ask for anything you want, and it will be given to you. <sup>8</sup>You should produce much fruit and show that you are my followers. This brings glory to my Father. <sup>9</sup>I loved you as the Father loved me. Now remain in my love. <sup>10</sup>I have obeyed my Father's commands, and I remain in his love. In the same way, if you obey my commands, you will remain in my love. <sup>11</sup>I have told you these things so that you can have the same joy I have. I want your joy to be the fullest joy.

<sup>12</sup>This is my command: Love each other as I have loved you. <sup>13</sup>The greatest love a person can show is to die for his friends. <sup>14</sup>You are my friends if you do what I command you. <sup>15</sup>I don't call you servants now. A servant does not know what his master is doing. But now I call you friends because I have made known to you everything I heard from my Father. <sup>16</sup>You did not choose me; I chose you. And I gave you this work, to go and produce fruit. I want you to produce fruit that will last. Then the Father will give you anything you ask for in my name. <sup>17</sup>This is my command: Love each other.

Jesus Warns His Followers

<sup>18</sup>"If the world hates you, remember that it hated me first. <sup>19</sup>If you belonged to the world, then it would love you as it loves its own. But I have chosen you out of the world. So you don't belong to it. That is why the world hates you. <sup>20</sup>Remember what I told you: A servant is not greater than his master. If people did wrong to me, they will do wrong to you, too. And if they obeyed my teaching, they will obey yours, too. <sup>21</sup>They will do all this to you because of me. They don't know the One who sent me. <sup>22</sup>If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not be guilty of sin. But now they have no excuse for their sin. <sup>23</sup>He who hates me also hates my Father. <sup>24</sup>I did works among them that no one else has ever done. If I had not done those works, they would not be guilty of sin. But now they have seen what I did, and yet they have hated both me and my Father. <sup>25</sup>But this happened so that what is written in their law would be true: 'They hated me for no reason.' <sup>a</sup>

<sup>26</sup>"I will send you the Helper<sup>n</sup> from the Father. He is the Spirit of truth who comes from the Father. When he comes, he will tell about me. <sup>27</sup>And you also must tell people about me because you have been with me from the beginning.

16 "I have told you these things to keep you out of their synagogues. <sup>2</sup>People will put you out of their synagogues. <sup>3</sup>Yes, the time is coming when whoever kills you will think that he is offering service to God. <sup>4</sup>They will do this because they have not known the Father and they have not known me. <sup>5</sup>I have told you these things now. So when the time comes, you will remember that I warned you.

The Work of the Holy Spirit

"I did not tell you these things at the beginning, because I was with you then. <sup>5</sup>Now I am going back to the One who sent me. But none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' <sup>6</sup>Your hearts are filled with sadness because I have told you these things. <sup>7</sup>But I tell you the truth. It is better for you that I go away. When I go away I will send the Helper<sup>n</sup> to you. If I do not go away, then the Helper will not come. <sup>8</sup>When the Helper comes, he will prove to the people of the world the truth about sin, about being right with God, and about judgment. <sup>9</sup>He will prove to them about sin, because they don't believe in me. <sup>10</sup>He will prove to them that I am right with God, because I am going to the Father. You will not see me anymore. <sup>11</sup>And the Helper will prove to them the truth about judgment, because the ruler of this world is already judged.

<sup>12</sup>"I have many more things to say to you, but they are too much for you now. <sup>13</sup>But when the Spirit<sup>d</sup> of truth comes he will lead you into all truth. He will not speak his own words. He will speak only what he hears and will tell you what is to come. <sup>14</sup>The Spirit of truth will bring glory to me. He will take what I have to say and tell it to you. <sup>15</sup>All that the Father has is mine. That is why I said that the Spirit will take what I have to say and tell it to you.

Sadness Will Become Happiness

<sup>16</sup>"After a little while you will not see me. And then after a little while you will see me again."

<sup>17</sup>Some of the followers said to each other, "What does Jesus mean when he says, 'After a little while you will not see me, and then after a little while you will see me again'? And what does he mean when he says, 'Because I am going to the Father'?" <sup>18</sup>They also asked, <sup>a</sup>They . . . reason. These words could be from Psalm 35:19 or Psalm 69:4.

“What does he mean by ‘a little while’? We don’t understand what he is saying.”

<sup>19</sup>Jesus saw that the followers wanted to ask him about this. So Jesus said to the followers, “Are you asking each other what I meant when I said, ‘After a little while you will not see me. And then after a little while you will see me again’? <sup>20</sup>I tell you the truth. You will cry and be sad, but the world will be happy. You will be sad, but your sadness will become joy. <sup>21</sup>When a woman gives birth to a baby, she has pain, because her time has come. But when her baby is born, she forgets the pain. She forgets because she is so happy that a child has been born into the world. <sup>22</sup>It is the same with you. Now you are sad. But I will see you again and you will be happy. And no one will take away your joy. <sup>23</sup>In that day you will not ask me for anything. I tell you the truth. My Father will give you anything you ask for in my name. <sup>24</sup>Until now you have not asked for anything in my name. Ask and you will receive. And your joy will be the fullest joy.

Victory over the World

<sup>25</sup>“I have told you these things, using words that hide the meaning. But the time will come when I will not use words like that to tell you things. I will speak to you in plain words about the Father. <sup>26</sup>In that day you will ask the Father for things in my name. I am saying that I will not need to ask the Father for you. <sup>27</sup>No! The Father himself loves you. He loves you because you have loved me. And he loves you because you have believed that I came from God. <sup>28</sup>I came from the Father into the world. Now I am leaving the world and going back to the Father.”

<sup>29</sup>Then the followers of Jesus said, “You are speaking clearly to us now. You are not using words that are hard to understand. <sup>30</sup>We can see now that you know all things. You can answer a person’s question even before he asks it. This makes us believe that you came from God.”

<sup>31</sup>Jesus answered, “So now you believe? <sup>32</sup>Listen to me. A time is coming when you will be scattered. Each of you will be scattered to his own home. That time is now here. You will leave me alone. But I am never really alone, because the Father is with me.

<sup>33</sup>“I told you these things so that you can have peace in me. In this world you will have trouble. But be brave! I have defeated the world!”

Jesus Prays for His Followers

17 After Jesus said these things, he looked toward heaven. Jesus prayed, “Father, the time has come. Give glory to your Son so that the Son can give glory to you. <sup>2</sup>You gave the Son power over all people so that the Son could give eternal life to all those people you have given to him. <sup>3</sup>And this is eternal life: that men can know you, the only true God, and that men can know Jesus Christ, the One you sent. <sup>4</sup>I finished the work you gave me to do. I brought you glory on earth. <sup>5</sup>And now, Father, give me glory with you. Give me the glory I had with you before the world was made.

<sup>6</sup>“You gave me some men from the world. I have shown them what you are like. Those men belonged to you, and you gave them to me. They have obeyed your teaching. <sup>7</sup>Now they know that everything you gave me comes from you. <sup>8</sup>I gave these men the teachings that you gave me, and they accepted those teachings. They know that I truly came from you. <sup>9</sup>I pray for them now. I am not praying for the people in the world. But I am praying for those men you gave me, because they are yours. <sup>10</sup>All I have is yours, and all you have is mine. And my glory is shown through these men. <sup>11</sup>Now I am coming to you. I will not stay in the world now. But these men are still in the world. Holy Father, keep them safe by the power of your name (the name you gave me), so that they will be one, the same as you and I are one. <sup>12</sup>While I was with them, I kept them safe by the power of your name—the name you gave me. I protected them. And only one of them, the one who is going to hell, was lost. He was lost so that what was said in the Scripture<sup>d</sup> would happen.

<sup>13</sup>“I am coming to you now. But I pray these things while I am still in the world. I say these things so that these men can have all of my joy within them. <sup>14</sup>I have given them your teaching. And the world has hated these men, because they don’t belong to the world, the same as I don’t belong to the world. <sup>15</sup>I am not asking you to take them out of the world. But I am asking that you keep them safe from the Evil One. <sup>16</sup>They don’t belong to the world, the same as I don’t belong to the world. <sup>17</sup>Make them ready for your service through your truth. Your teaching is truth. <sup>18</sup>I have sent them into the world, the same as you sent me into the world. <sup>19</sup>I am making myself ready to serve. I do this for them so that they can truly be ready for your service.

ing for all people who will believe in me because of the teaching of these men. <sup>21</sup>Father, I pray that all people who believe in me can be one. You are in me and I am in you. I pray that these people can also be one in us, so that the world will believe that you sent me. <sup>22</sup>I have given these people the glory that you gave me. I gave them this glory so that they can be one, the same as you and I are one. <sup>23</sup>I will be in them and you will be in me. So they will be completely one. Then the world will know that you sent me. And the world will know that you loved these people the same as you loved me.

<sup>24</sup>"Father, I want these people that you have given me to be with me in every place I am. I want them to see my glory. This is the glory you gave me because you loved me before the world was made. <sup>25</sup>Father, you are the One who is good. The world does not know you, but I know you. And these people know that you sent me. <sup>26</sup>I showed them what you are like. And again I will show them what you are like. Then they will have the same love that you have for me. And I will live in them."

Jesus Is Arrested

18 When Jesus finished praying, he left with his followers. They went across the Kidron Valley. On the other side there was a garden of olive trees. Jesus and his followers went there.

<sup>2</sup>Judas knew where this place was, because Jesus met there often with his followers. Judas was the one who turned against Jesus. <sup>3</sup>So Judas led a group of soldiers to the garden. He also brought some guards from the leading priests and the Pharisees. <sup>4</sup>They were carrying torches, lanterns, and weapons.

<sup>4</sup>Jesus knew everything that would happen to him. He went out and asked, "Who is it you are looking for?"

Jesus said, "I am Jesus." (Judas, the one who turned against Jesus, was standing there with them.) <sup>6</sup>When Jesus said, "I am Jesus," the men moved back and fell to the ground.

<sup>7</sup>Jesus asked them again, "Who is it you are looking for?"

They said, "Jesus of Nazareth."

<sup>8</sup>Jesus said, "I told you that I am he. So if you are looking for me, then let these other men go." <sup>9</sup>This happened so that the words Jesus said before might come true: "I have not lost any of the men you gave me."

<sup>a</sup>cup Jesus is talking about the bad things that will happen to him. Accepting these things will be very hard, like drinking a cup of something that tastes very bitter.

<sup>10</sup>Simon Peter had a sword. He took out the sword and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his right ear. (The servant's name was Malchus.) <sup>11</sup>Jesus said to Peter, "Put your sword back. Shall I not drink of the cup" the Father has given me?"

Jesus Is Brought Before Annas

<sup>12</sup>Then the soldiers with their commander and the Jewish guards arrested Jesus. They tied him <sup>13</sup>and led him first to Annas. Annas was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year. <sup>14</sup>Caiaphas was the one who had told the Jews that it would be better if one man died for all the people.

Peter Says He Doesn't Know Jesus

<sup>15</sup>Simon Peter and another one of Jesus' followers went along after Jesus. This follower knew the high priest. So he went with Jesus into the high priest's courtyard. <sup>16</sup>But Peter waited outside near the door. The follower who knew the high priest came back outside. He spoke to the girl at the door and brought Peter inside. <sup>17</sup>The girl at the door said to Peter, "Aren't you also one of that man's followers?"

Peter answered, "No, I am not!"

<sup>18</sup>It was cold, so the servants and guards had built a fire. They were standing around it and warming themselves. Peter was standing with them, warming himself.

The High Priest Questions Jesus

<sup>19</sup>The high priest asked Jesus questions about his followers and his teaching. <sup>20</sup>Jesus answered, "I have spoken openly to everyone. I have always taught in synagogues<sup>a</sup> and in the Temple,<sup>a</sup> where all the Jews come together. I never said anything in secret. <sup>21</sup>So why do you question me? Ask the people who heard my teaching. They know what I said."

<sup>22</sup>When Jesus said this, one of the guards standing there hit him. The guard said, "Is that the way you answer the high priest?"

<sup>23</sup>Jesus answered him, "If I said something wrong, then say what was wrong. But if what I said is true, why do you hit me?"

<sup>24</sup>Then Annas sent Jesus to Caiaphas, the high priest. Jesus was still tied.

Peter Says Again He Doesn't Know Jesus

<sup>25</sup>Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said to him, "Aren't you one of that man's followers?"

Peter denied it and said, "No, I am not."

<sup>26</sup>One of the servants of the high priest was there. This servant was a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off. The servant said, "Didn't I see you with him in the garden?"

<sup>27</sup>Again Peter said it wasn't true. Just then a rooster crowed.

Jesus Is Brought Before Pilate

<sup>28</sup>Then the Jews led Jesus from Caiaphas' house to the Roman governor's palace. It was early in the morning. The Jews would not go inside the palace. They did not want to make themselves unclean,<sup>a</sup> because they wanted to eat the Passover<sup>d</sup> meal. <sup>29</sup>So Pilate went outside to them. He asked, "What charges do you bring against this man?"

<sup>30</sup>They answered, "He is a criminal. That is why we brought him to you."

<sup>31</sup>Pilate said to the Jews, "Take him yourselves and judge him by your own law."

They answered, "But we are not allowed to put anyone to death."<sup>32</sup>(This happened so that what Jesus had said about how he would die would come true.)

<sup>33</sup>Then Pilate went back inside the palace. He called Jesus to him and asked, "Are you the king of the Jews?"

<sup>34</sup>Jesus said, "Is that your own question, or did others tell you about me?"

<sup>35</sup>Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew. It was your own people and their leading priests who brought you before me. What have you done wrong?"

<sup>36</sup>Jesus said, "My kingdom does not belong to this world. If it belonged to this world, my servants would fight so that I would not be given over to the Jews. But my kingdom is from another place."

<sup>37</sup>Pilate said, "So you are a king!"

Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. That is true. I was born for this: to tell people about the truth. That is why I came into the world. And everyone who belongs to the truth listens to me."

<sup>38</sup>Pilate said, "What is truth?" After he said this, he went out to the Jews again. He said to them, "I can find nothing to charge against this man. <sup>39</sup>But it is your custom that I free one prisoner to you at the time of the Passover. Do you want me to free this 'king of the Jews'?"

<sup>40</sup>They shouted back, "No, not him! Let Barabbas go free!" (Barabbas was a robber.)

19 Then Pilate ordered that Jesus be taken away and whipped. <sup>2</sup>The soldiers used some thorny branches to make a crown. They put this crown on Jesus' head and put a purple robe around him. <sup>3</sup>Then they came to Jesus many times and said, "Hail, King of the Jews!" They hit Jesus in the face.

<sup>4</sup>Again Pilate came out and said to the Jews, "Look! I am bringing Jesus out to you. I want you to know that I find nothing I can charge against him." <sup>5</sup>Then Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to the Jews, "Here is the man!"

<sup>6</sup>When the leading priests and the Jewish guards saw Jesus they shouted, "Kill him on a cross! Kill him on a cross!"

But Pilate answered, "Take him and nail him to a cross yourselves. I find nothing I can charge against him."

<sup>7</sup>The Jews answered, "We have a law that says he should die, because he said he is the Son of God."

<sup>8</sup>When Pilate heard this, he was even more afraid. <sup>9</sup>He went back inside the palace and asked Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus did not answer him. <sup>10</sup>Pilate said, "You refuse to speak to me? Don't you know that I have power to set you free and power to have you killed on a cross?"

<sup>11</sup>Jesus answered, "The only power you have over me is the power given to you by God. The man who gave me to you is guilty of a greater sin."

<sup>12</sup>After this, Pilate tried to let Jesus go free. But the Jews cried out, "Anyone who makes himself king is against Caesar. If you let this man go free, you are not Caesar's friend."

<sup>13</sup>Pilate heard what the Jews were saying. So he brought Jesus out to the place called The Stone Pavement. (In the Jewish language<sup>a</sup> the name is Gabbatha.) Pilate sat down on the judge's seat there. <sup>14</sup>It was about six o'clock in the morning on Preparation<sup>d</sup> Day of Passover<sup>d</sup> week. Pilate said to the Jews, "Here is your king!"

Pilate asked them, "Do you want me to kill your king on a cross?"

The leading priests answered, "The only king we have is Caesar!"

Jesus Is Killed on a Cross

The soldiers took charge of Jesus. <sup>17</sup>Carrying his own cross, Jesus went out to a place called The Place of the Skull. (In the Jewish language <sup>n</sup> this place is called Golgotha.) <sup>18</sup>There they nailed Jesus to the cross. They also put two other men on crosses, one on each side of Jesus with Jesus in the middle. <sup>19</sup>Pilate wrote a sign and put it on the cross. It read: "JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS." <sup>20</sup>The sign was written in the Jewish language, in Latin, and in Greek. Many of the Jews read the sign, because this place where they killed Jesus was near the city. <sup>21</sup>The leading Jewish priests said to Pilate, "Don't write, 'The King of the Jews.' But write, 'This man said, I am the King of the Jews.'"

<sup>23</sup>After the soldiers nailed Jesus to the cross, they took his clothes. They divided them into four parts. Each soldier got one part. They also took his long shirt. It was all one piece of cloth, woven from top to bottom. <sup>24</sup>So the soldiers said to each other, "We should not tear this into parts. We should throw lots<sup>d</sup> to see who will get it." This happened to give full meaning to the Scripture:<sup>d</sup>

"They divided my clothes among them.
And they threw lots<sup>d</sup> for my clothing."

Psalms 22:18

So the soldiers did this.

<sup>25</sup>Jesus' mother stood near his cross. His mother's sister was also standing there, with Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. <sup>26</sup>Jesus saw his mother. He also saw the follower he loved standing there. He said to his mother, "Dear woman, here is your son." <sup>27</sup>Then he said to the follower, "Here is your mother." From that time on, this follower took her to live in his home.

Jesus Dies

<sup>28</sup>After this, Jesus knew that everything had been done. To make the Scripture<sup>d</sup> come true, he said, "I am thirsty."<sup>n</sup> <sup>29</sup>There was a jar full of vinegar there, so the soldiers soaked a sponge in it. Then they put the sponge on a branch of a hyssop plant and lifted it to Jesus' mouth. <sup>30</sup>Jesus tasted the vinegar. Then he said, "It is finished." He bowed his head and died.

<sup>31</sup>This day was Preparation<sup>d</sup> Day. The next day was a special Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day. The Jews did not want the bodies to stay on the cross on the Sabbath day. So they asked Pilate to order that the legs of the men be broken<sup>n</sup> and the bodies be taken away. <sup>32</sup>So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man on the cross beside Jesus. Then they broke the legs of the man on the other cross beside Jesus. <sup>33</sup>But when the soldiers came to Jesus, they saw that he was already dead. So they did not break his legs. <sup>34</sup>But one of the soldiers stuck his spear into Jesus' side. At once blood and water came out. <sup>35</sup>(The one who saw this happen has told about it. The things he says are true. He knows that he tells the truth. He told about it so that you also can believe.) <sup>36</sup>These things happened to make the Scripture come true: "Not one of his bones will be broken."<sup>n</sup> <sup>37</sup>And another Scripture said, "They will look at the one they have stabbed."<sup>n</sup>

Jesus Is Buried

<sup>38</sup>Later, a man named Joseph from Arimathea asked Pilate if he could take the body of Jesus. (Joseph was a secret follower of Jesus, because he was afraid of the Jews.) Pilate gave his permission. So Joseph came and took Jesus' body away. <sup>39</sup>Nicodemus went with Joseph. Nicodemus was the man who earlier had come to Jesus at night. He brought about 75 pounds of spices. This was a mixture of myrrh<sup>d</sup> and aloes.<sup>d</sup> <sup>40</sup>These two men took Jesus' body and wrapped it with the spices in pieces of linen cloth. (This is how the Jews bury people.) <sup>41</sup>In the place where Jesus was killed, there was a garden. In the garden was a new tomb where no one had ever been buried. <sup>42</sup>The men laid Jesus in that tomb because it was near, and the Jews were preparing to start their Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day.

Jesus' Tomb Is Empty

20 Early on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb. It was still dark. Mary saw that the large stone had been moved away from the tomb. <sup>2</sup>So Mary ran to Simon Peter and the other follower (the one Jesus loved). Mary said, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb. We don't know where they have put him."

<sup>3</sup>So Peter and the other follower started for the tomb. <sup>4</sup>They were both running, but the other follower ran faster than Peter. So the other follower reached the tomb first. <sup>5</sup>He bent down and looked in. He saw the strips of linen cloth lying there, but he did not go in. <sup>6</sup>Then following him came Simon Peter. He went into the tomb and saw the strips of linen lying there. <sup>7</sup>He also saw the cloth that had been around Jesus' head. The cloth was folded up and laid in a different place from the strips of linen. <sup>8</sup>Then the other follower, who had reached the tomb first, also went in. He saw and believed. <sup>9</sup>(These followers did not yet understand from the Scriptures<sup>d</sup> that Jesus must rise from death.)

Jesus Appears to Mary Magdalene

<sup>10</sup>Then the followers went back home. <sup>11</sup>But Mary stood outside the tomb, crying. While she was still crying, she bent down and looked inside the tomb. <sup>12</sup>She saw two angels dressed in white. They were sitting where Jesus' body had been, one at the head and one at the feet.

<sup>13</sup>They asked her, "Woman, why are you crying?"

She answered, "They have taken away my Lord. I don't know where they have put him." <sup>14</sup>When Mary said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there. But she did not know that it was Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>Jesus asked her, "Woman, why are you crying? Whom are you looking for?"

Mary thought he was the gardener. So she said to him, "Did you take him away, sir? Tell me where you put him, and I will get him."

Mary turned toward Jesus and said in the Jewish language,<sup>a</sup> "Rabboni." (This means Teacher.)

<sup>17</sup>Jesus said to her, "Don't hold me. I have not yet gone up to the Father. But go to my brothers and tell them this: 'I am going back to my Father and your Father. I am going back to my God and your God.'"

<sup>18</sup>Mary Magdalene went and said to the followers, "I saw the Lord!" And she told them what Jesus had said to her.

Jesus Appears to His Followers

<sup>19</sup>It was the first day of the week. That evening the followers were together. The doors were locked, because they were afraid of the Jews. Then Jesus came and stood among them. He said, "Peace be with you!" <sup>20</sup>After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The followers were very happy when they saw the Lord.

<sup>21</sup>Then Jesus said again, "Peace be with you! As the Father sent me, I now send you." <sup>22</sup>After he said this, he breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit."<sup>d</sup> <sup>23</sup>If you forgive anyone his sins, they are forgiven. If you don't forgive them, they are not forgiven."

Jesus Appears to Thomas

<sup>24</sup>Thomas (called Didymus) was not with the followers when Jesus came. Thomas was 1 of the 12. <sup>25</sup>The other followers told Thomas, "We saw the Lord."

But Thomas said, "I will not believe it until I see the nail marks in his hands. And I will not believe until I put my finger where the nails were and put my hand into his side."

<sup>26</sup>A week later the followers were in the house again, and Thomas was with them. The doors were locked, but Jesus came in and stood among them. He said, "Peace be with you!" <sup>27</sup>Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here. Look at my hands. Put your hand here in my side. Stop doubting and believe."

<sup>28</sup>Thomas said to him, "My Lord and my God!"

<sup>29</sup>Then Jesus told him, "You believe because you see me. Those who believe without seeing me will be truly happy."

Why John Wrote This Book

<sup>30</sup>Jesus did many other miracles<sup>d</sup> before his followers that are not written in this book. <sup>31</sup>But these are written so that you can believe that Jesus is the Christ,<sup>d</sup> the Son of God. Then, by believing, you can have life through his name.

Jesus Appears to Seven Followers

21 Later, Jesus showed himself to his followers by Lake Galilee.<sup>a</sup> This is how it happened: <sup>2</sup>Some of the followers were together. They were Simon Peter, Thomas (called Didymus), Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the two sons of Zebedee, and two other followers. <sup>3</sup>Simon Peter said, "I am going out to fish."

The other followers said, "We will go with you." So they went out and got into the boat. They fished that night but caught nothing.

<sup>4</sup>Early the next morning Jesus stood on the shore. But the followers did not know that it was Jesus. <sup>5</sup>Then he said to them, "Friends, have you caught any fish?"

They answered, "No."

<sup>6</sup>He said, "Throw your net into the water on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they did this. They caught so many fish that they could not pull the net back into the boat.

<sup>7</sup>The follower whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Peter heard him say this, he wrapped his coat around himself. (Peter had taken his clothes off.) Then he jumped into the water. <sup>8</sup>The other followers went to shore in the boat, dragging the net full of fish. They were not very far from shore, only about 100 yards. <sup>9</sup>When the followers stepped out of the boat and onto the shore, they saw a fire of hot coals. There were fish on the fire, and there was bread.

<sup>10</sup>Then Jesus said, "Bring some of the fish that you caught."

<sup>11</sup>Simon Peter went into the boat and pulled the net to the shore. It was full of big fish. There were 153. Even though there were so many, the net did not tear. <sup>12</sup>Jesus said to them, "Come and eat." None of the followers dared ask him, "Who are you?" They knew it was the Lord. <sup>13</sup>Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them. He also gave them the fish.

<sup>14</sup>This was now the third time Jesus showed himself to his followers after he was raised from death.

Jesus Talks to Peter

<sup>15</sup>When they finished eating, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John do you love me more than these?"

He answered, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you."

Jesus said, "Take care of my lambs."

<sup>16</sup>Again Jesus said, "Simon son of John do you love me?"

He answered, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you."

Jesus said, "Take care of my sheep."

<sup>17</sup>A third time he said, "Simon son of John do you love me?"

Peter was hurt because Jesus asked him the third time, "Do you love me?" Peter said, "Lord, you know everything. You know that I love you!"

He said to him, "Take care of my sheep. <sup>18</sup>I tell you the truth. When you were younger, you tied your own belt and went where you wanted. But when you are old, you will put out your hands and someone else will tie them. They will take you where you don't want to go." <sup>19</sup>(Jesus said this to show how Peter would die to give glory to God.) Then Jesus said to Peter, "Follow me!"

<sup>20</sup>Peter turned and saw that the follower Jesus loved was walking behind them. (This was the follower who had leaned against Jesus at the supper and had said, "Lord, who will turn against you?") <sup>21</sup>When Peter saw him behind them he asked Jesus, "Lord, what about him?"

<sup>22</sup>Jesus answered, "Perhaps I want him to live until I come back. That should not be important to you. You follow me!"

<sup>23</sup>So a story spread among the brothers that this follower would not die. But Jesus did not say that he would not die. He only said, "Perhaps I want him to live until I come back. That should not be important to you."

<sup>24</sup>That follower is the one who is telling these things. He is the one who has now written them down. We know that what he says is true.

<sup>25</sup>There are many other things that Jesus did. If every one of them were written down, I think the whole world would not be big enough for all the books that would be written.

The Good News of Jesus Spreads

Luke Writes Another Book

1 To Theophilus,
The first book I wrote was about everything that Jesus did and taught. <sup>2</sup>I wrote about the whole life of Jesus, from the beginning until the day he was taken up into heaven. Before this, Jesus talked to the apostles<sup>d</sup> he had chosen. With the help of the Holy Spirit,<sup>d</sup> Jesus told them what they should do. <sup>3</sup>After his death, he showed himself to them and proved in many ways that he was alive. The apostles saw Jesus during the 40 days after he was raised from death. He spoke to them about the kingdom of God. <sup>4</sup>Once when he was eating with them, he told them not to leave Jerusalem. He said, "The Father has made you a promise which I told you about before. Wait here to receive this promise. <sup>5</sup>John baptized people with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit."

Jesus Is Taken Up into Heaven

<sup>6</sup>The apostles<sup>d</sup> were all together. They asked Jesus, "Lord, are you at this time going to give the kingdom back to Israel?"

<sup>7</sup>Jesus said to them, "The Father is the only One who has the authority to decide dates and times. These things are not for you to know. <sup>8</sup>But the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> will come to you. Then you will receive power. You will be my witnesses—in Jerusalem, in all of Judea, in Samaria, and in every part of the world."

<sup>9</sup>After he said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up. A cloud hid him from their sight. <sup>10</sup>As he was going, they were looking into the sky. Suddenly, two men wearing white clothes stood beside them. <sup>11</sup>They said, "Men of Galilee, why are you standing here looking into the sky? You saw Jesus taken away from you into heaven. He will come back in the same way you saw him go."

A New Apostle Is Chosen

<sup>12</sup>Then they went back to Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives.<sup>d</sup> (This mountain is about half a mile from Jerusalem.) <sup>13</sup>When they entered the city, they went to the upstairs room where they were staying. Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James son of Alphaeus, Simon (known as the Zealot<sup>d</sup>), and Judas son of James were there. <sup>14</sup>They all continued praying together. Some women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, and Jesus' brothers were also there with the apostles.

<sup>15</sup>During this time there was a meeting of the believers. (There were about 120 of them.) Peter stood up and said, <sup>16-17</sup>"Brothers, in the Scriptures<sup>d</sup> the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> said through David that something must happen. The Spirit was talking about Judas, one of our own group, who served together with us. The Spirit said that Judas would lead men to arrest Jesus. <sup>18</sup>Judas bought a field with the money he got for his evil act. (But Judas fell to his death, his body burst open, and all his intestines poured out.) <sup>19</sup>Everyone in Jerusalem learned about this. This is why they named the field Akeldama. (In their language Akeldama means "field of blood.") <sup>20</sup>In the book of Psalms, this is written:

'May his place be empty.

Leave no one to live in it.'

Psalm 69:25

And it is also written:

'Let another man replace him as leader.'

Psalm 109:8

<sup>21-22</sup>"So now a man must join us and become a witness of Jesus' being raised from death. He must be one of the men who were part of our group during all the time the Lord Jesus was with us. He must have been with us from the time John began to baptize people until the day when Jesus was taken up from us to heaven."

<sup>23</sup>They put the names of two men before the group. One was Joseph Barsabbas, who was also called Justus. The other was Matthias. <sup>24-25</sup>The apostles prayed, "Lord, you know the minds of everyone. Show us which one of these two you have chosen to do this work. Judas turned away from it and went where he belongs. Lord, show us which one should take his place as an apostle!"<sup>d</sup> <sup>26</sup>Then they used lots<sup>d</sup> to choose between them, and the lots showed that Matthias was the one. So he became an apostle with the other 11.

The Coming of the Holy Spirit

2 When the day of Pentecost<sup>d</sup> came, they were all together in one place. <sup>2</sup>Suddenly a noise came from heaven. It sounded like a strong wind blowing. This noise filled the whole house where they were sitting. <sup>3</sup>They saw something that looked like flames of fire. The flames were separated and stood over each person there. <sup>4</sup>They were all filled with the Holy Spirit,<sup>d</sup> and they began to speak different languages. The Holy Spirit was giving them the power to speak these languages.

<sup>5</sup>There were some religious Jews staying in Jerusalem who were from every country in the world. <sup>6</sup>When they heard this noise, a crowd came together. They were all surprised, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. <sup>7</sup>They were completely amazed at this. They said, "Look! Aren't all these men that we hear speaking from Galilee?"<sup>a</sup> <sup>8</sup>But each of us hears them in his own language. How is this possible? We are from different places: <sup>9</sup>Parthia, Media, Elam, Mesopotamia, Judea, Cappadocia, Pontus, Asia, <sup>10</sup>Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt, the areas of Libya near Cyrene, Rome <sup>11</sup>(both Jews and those who had become Jews), Crete and Arabia. But we hear these men telling in our own languages about the great things God has done!" <sup>12</sup>They were all amazed and confused. They asked each other, "What does this mean?"

Peter Speaks to the People

<sup>14</sup>But Peter stood up with the 11 apostles.<sup>d</sup> In a loud voice he spoke to the crowd: "My fellow Jews, and all of you who are in Jerusalem, listen to me. Pay attention to what I have to say. <sup>15</sup>These men are not drunk, as you think; it is only nine o'clock in the morning! <sup>16</sup>But Joel the prophet<sup>d</sup> wrote about what is happening here today:

<sup>17</sup>God says: In the last days

I will give my Spirit<sup>d</sup> freely to all kinds of people.

Your sons and daughters will prophesy.<sup>d</sup>

Your old men will dream dreams.

Your young men will see visions.

<sup>18</sup>At that time I will give my Spirit even to my servants, both men and women.

And they will prophesy.

The moon will become red as blood.

And then the great and glorious day of the Lord will come.

<sup>21</sup>Then anyone who asks the Lord for help will be saved.'

Joel 2:28-32

<sup>22</sup>"Men of Israel, listen to these words: Jesus from Nazareth was a very special man. God clearly showed this to you by the miracles,<sup>d</sup> wonders, and signs God did through him. You all know this, because it happened right here among you. <sup>23</sup>Jesus was given to you, and you killed him. With the help of evil men you nailed him to a cross. But God knew all this would happen. This was God's plan which he had made long ago. <sup>24</sup>God raised Jesus from death. God set him free from the pain of death. Death could not hold him. <sup>25</sup>For David said this about him:

'I keep the Lord before me always.

Because he is close by my side,

I will not be hurt.

<sup>26</sup>So I am glad, and I rejoice.

Even my body has hope

<sup>27</sup>because you will not leave me in the grave.

You will not let your Holy One rot.

<sup>28</sup>You will teach me God's way to live.

Being with you will fill me with joy.'

Psalm 16:8-11

<sup>29</sup>"Brothers, I can tell you truly about David, our ancestor. He died and was buried. His grave is still here with us today. <sup>30</sup>David was a prophet<sup>d</sup> and knew what God had said. God had promised David that he would make a person from David's family a king just as he was."<sup>a</sup> <sup>31</sup>David knew this before it happened. That is why he said:

'He was not left in the grave.

His body did not rot.'

David was talking about the Christ<sup>d</sup> rising from death. <sup>32</sup>So Jesus is the One who God raised from death! And we are all witnesses to this.

<sup>33</sup>Jesus was lifted up to heaven and is now at God's right side. The Father has given the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> to Jesus as he promised. So now Jesus has poured out that Spirit. This is what you see and hear. <sup>34</sup>David was not the one who was lifted up to heaven. But he said:

'The Lord said to my Lord:

Sit by me at my right side,

Psalm 110:1

<sup>36</sup>"So, all the people of Israel should know

this truly: God has made Jesus both Lord and Christ. He is the man you nailed to the cross!"

<sup>37</sup>When the people heard this, they were sick at heart. They asked Peter and the other apostles, "What shall we do?"

<sup>38</sup>Peter said to them, "Change your hearts and lives and be baptized, each one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. <sup>39</sup>This promise is for you. It is also for your children and for all who are far away. It is for everyone the Lord our God calls to himself."

<sup>40</sup>Peter warned them with many other words. He begged them, "Save yourselves from the evil of today's people!" <sup>41</sup>Then those people who accepted what Peter said were baptized. About 3,000 people were added to the number of believers that day. <sup>42</sup>They spent their time learning the apostles' teaching. And they continued to share, to break bread,<sup>a</sup> and to pray together.

The Believers Share

Peter Heals a Crippled Man

3 One day Peter and John went to the Temple.<sup>d</sup> It was three o'clock in the afternoon. This was the time for the daily prayer service. <sup>2</sup>There, at the Temple gate called Beautiful Gate, was a man who had been crippled all his life. Every day he was carried to this gate to beg. He would ask for money from the people going into the Temple. <sup>3</sup>The man saw Peter and John going into the Temple and asked them for money. <sup>4</sup>Peter and John looked straight at him and said, "Look at us!" <sup>5</sup>The man looked at them; he thought they were going to give him some money. <sup>6</sup>But Peter said, "I don't have any silver or gold, but I do have something else I can give you: By the power of Jesus Christ from Nazareth—stand up and walk!" <sup>7</sup>Then Peter took the man's right hand and lifted him up. Immediately the man's feet and ankles became strong. <sup>8</sup>He jumped up, stood on his feet, and began to walk. He went into the Temple with them, walking and jumping, and praising God. <sup>9,10</sup>All the people recognized him. They knew he was the crippled man who always sat by the Beautiful Gate begging for money. Now they saw this same man walking and praising God. The people were amazed. They could not understand how this could happen.

Peter Speaks to the People

<sup>11</sup>The man was holding on to Peter and John. All the people were amazed and ran to Peter and John at Solomon's Porch.<sup>d</sup> <sup>12</sup>When Peter saw this, he said to them, "Men of Israel, why are you surprised? You are looking at us as if it were our own power that made this man walk. Do you think this happened because we are good? No! <sup>13</sup>The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our ancestors, gave glory to Jesus, his servant. But you gave him up to be killed. Pilate decided to let him go free. But you told Pilate you did not want Jesus. <sup>14</sup>He was pure and good, but you said you did not want him. You told Pilate to give you a murderer<sup>a</sup> instead of Jesus. <sup>15</sup>And so you killed the One who gives life! But God raised him from death. We are witnesses to this. <sup>16</sup>It was the power of Jesus that made this crippled man well. This happened because we trusted in the power of Jesus. You can see this man, and you know him. He was made completely well because of trust in Jesus. You all saw it happen!

<sup>17</sup>"Brothers, I know you did those things to Jesus because you did not understand what you were doing. Your leaders did not understand either. <sup>18</sup>God said this would happen. He said through the prophets<sup>d</sup> that his Christ<sup>d</sup> would suffer and die. And now God has made these things come true in this way. <sup>19</sup>So you must change your hearts and lives! Come back to God, and he will forgive your sins. <sup>20</sup>Then the Lord will give you times of spiritual rest. He will give you Jesus, the One he chose to be the Christ. <sup>21</sup>But Jesus must stay in heaven until the time comes when all things will be made right again. God told about this time long ago when he spoke through his holy prophets. <sup>22</sup>Moses said, 'The Lord your God will give you a prophet like me. He will be one of your own people. You must obey everything he tells you. <sup>23</sup>Anyone who does not obey him will die, separated from God's people.' <sup>24</sup>Samuel, and all the other prophets who spoke for God after Samuel, told about this time now. <sup>25</sup>You have received what the prophets talked about. You have received the agreement God made with your ancestors. He said to your father Abraham, 'Through your descendants<sup>d</sup> all the nations on the earth will be blessed.'<sup>n</sup> <sup>26</sup>God has raised up his servant and sent him to you first. He sent Jesus to bless you by turning each of you away from doing evil things."

<sup>a</sup>murderer Barabbas, the man the Jews asked Pilate to let go free instead of Jesus (Luke 23:18).

Peter and John at the Council

4 While Peter and John were speaking to the people, a group of men came up to them. There were Jewish priests, the captain of the soldiers that guarded the Temple,<sup>d</sup> and some Sadducees.<sup>d</sup> <sup>2</sup>They were upset because the two apostles<sup>d</sup> were teaching the people. Peter and John were preaching that people will rise from death through the power of Jesus. <sup>3</sup>The Jewish leaders grabbed Peter and John and put them in jail. It was already night, so they kept them in jail until the next day. <sup>4</sup>But many of those who heard Peter and John preach believed the things they said. There were now about 5,000 men in the group of believers.

<sup>5</sup>The next day the Jewish leaders, the older Jewish leaders, and the teachers of the law met in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup>Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander were there. Everyone from the high priest's family was there. <sup>7</sup>They made Peter and John stand before them. The Jewish leaders asked them: "By what power or authority did you do this?"

<sup>8</sup>Then Peter was filled with the Holy Spirit.<sup>d</sup> He said to them, "Rulers of the people and you older leaders, <sup>9</sup>are you questioning us about a good thing that was done to a crippled man? Are you asking us who made him well? <sup>10</sup>We want all of you and all the Jewish people to know that this man was made well by the power of Jesus Christ from Nazareth! You nailed him to a cross, but God raised him from death. This man was crippled, but he is now well and able to stand here before you because of the power of Jesus! <sup>11</sup>Jesus is 'the stone<sup>n</sup> that you builders did not want.

<sup>12</sup>Jesus is the only One who can save people. His name is the only power in the world that has been given to save people. And we must be saved through him!"

<sup>13</sup>The Jewish leaders saw that Peter and John were not afraid to speak. They understood that these men had no special training or education. So they were amazed. Then they realized that Peter and John had been with Jesus. <sup>14</sup>They saw the crippled man standing there beside the two apostles. They saw that the man was healed. So they could say nothing against them. <sup>15</sup>The Jewish leaders told them to leave the meeting. Then the leaders talked to each other about what they should do. <sup>16</sup>They said, "What shall we do with these men? Everyone in Jerusalem knows that they have done a great miracle!<sup>d</sup> We cannot say it is not true. <sup>17</sup>But we must warn them not to talk to people anymore using that name. Then this thing will not spread among the people."

<sup>18</sup>So they called Peter and John in again. They told them not to speak or to teach at all in the name of Jesus. <sup>19</sup>But Peter and John answered them, "What do you think is right? What would God want? Should we obey you or God? <sup>20</sup>We cannot keep quiet. We must speak about what we have seen and heard."<sup>21</sup> <sup>22</sup>The Jewish leaders could not find a way to punish them because all the people were praising God for what had been done. (This miracle was a proof from God. The man who was healed was more than 40 years old!) So the Jewish leaders warned the apostles again and let them go free.

The Believers' Prayer

<sup>23</sup>Peter and John left the meeting of Jewish leaders and went to their own group. They told them everything that the leading priests and the older Jewish leaders had said to them. <sup>24</sup>When the believers heard this, they prayed to God with one purpose. They prayed, "Lord, you are the One who made the sky, the earth, the sea, and everything in the world. <sup>25</sup>Our father David was your servant. With the help of the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> he said:

'Why are the nations so angry?

Why are the people making useless plans?

<sup>26</sup>The kings of the earth prepare to fight. Their leaders make plans together against the Lord and against his Christ.<sup>d</sup>

Psalm 2:1-2

<sup>27</sup>These things really happened when Herod, Pontius Pilate, the non-Jewish people, and the Jewish people all came together against Jesus here in Jerusalem. Jesus is your holy Servant. He is the One you made to be the Christ. <sup>28</sup>These people made your plan happen; it happened because of your power and your will. <sup>29</sup>And now, Lord, listen to what they are saying. They are trying to make us afraid! Lord, we are your servants. Help us to speak your word without fear. <sup>30</sup>Help us to be brave by showing us your power; make sick people well, give proofs, and make miracles<sup>d</sup> happen by the power of Jesus, your holy servant."

<sup>31</sup>After they had prayed, the place where they were meeting was shaken. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit,<sup>d</sup> and they spoke God's word without fear.

The Believers Share

<sup>32</sup>The group of believers were joined in their hearts, and they had the same spirit. No person in the group said that the things he had were his own. Instead, they shared everything. <sup>33</sup>With great power the apostles<sup>d</sup> were telling people that the Lord Jesus was truly raised from death. And God blessed all the believers very much. <sup>34</sup>They all received the things they needed. Everyone that owned fields or houses sold them. They brought the money <sup>35</sup>and gave it to the apostles. Then each person was given the things he needed.

<sup>36</sup>One of the believers was named Joseph. The apostles called him Barnabas. (This name means "one who encourages.") He was a Levite, born in Cyprus. <sup>37</sup>Joseph owned a field. He sold it, brought the money, and gave it to the apostles.

Ananias and Sapphira Die

5 A man named Ananias and his wife Sapphira sold some land. <sup>2</sup>But he gave only part of the money to the apostles.<sup>d</sup> He secretly kept some of it for himself. His wife knew about this, and she agreed to it. <sup>3</sup>Peter said, "Ananias, why did you let Satan rule your heart? You lied to the Holy Spirit.<sup>d</sup> Why did you keep for yourself part of the money you received for the land? <sup>4</sup>Before you sold the land, it belonged to you. And even after you sold it, you could have used the money any way you wanted. Why did you think of doing this? You lied to God, not to men!" <sup>5</sup><sup>6</sup>When Ananias heard this, he fell down and died. Some young men came in, wrapped up his body, carried it out, and buried it. And everyone who heard about this was filled with fear.

<sup>7</sup>About three hours later his wife came in. She did not know what had happened. <sup>8</sup>Peter said to her, "Tell me how much money you got for your field. Was it this much?"

Sapphira answered, "Yes, that was the price."

<sup>9</sup>Peter said to her, "Why did you and your husband agree to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look! The men who buried your husband are at the door! They will carry you out." <sup>10</sup>At that moment Sapphira fell down by his feet and died. The young men came in and saw that she was dead. They carried her out and buried her beside her husband. <sup>11</sup>The whole church and all the others who heard about these things were filled with fear.

Proofs from God

Jews Try to Stop the Apostles

The high priest and his friends arrived. They called a meeting of the Jewish leaders and all the important older men of the Jews. They sent some men to the jail to bring the apostles to them. <sup>22</sup>When the men went to the jail, they could not find the apostles. So they went back and told the Jewish leaders about this. <sup>23</sup>They said, "The jail was closed and locked. The guards were standing at the doors. But when we opened the doors, the jail was empty!" <sup>24</sup>Hearing this, the captain of the Temple guards and the leading priests were confused. They wondered, "What will happen because of this?"

<sup>25</sup>Then someone came and told them, "Listen! The men you put in jail are standing in the Temple. They are teaching the people!" <sup>26</sup>Then the captain and his men went out and brought the apostles back. But the soldiers did not use force, because they were afraid that the people would kill them with stones.

<sup>27</sup>The soldiers brought the apostles to the meeting and made them stand before the Jewish leaders. The high priest questioned them. <sup>28</sup>He said, "We gave you strict orders not to go on teaching in that name. But look what you have done! You have filled Jerusalem with your teaching. You are trying to make us responsible for this man's death."

<sup>29</sup>Peter and the other apostles answered, "We must obey God, not men! <sup>30</sup>You killed Jesus. You hung him on a cross. But God, the same God our ancestors had, raised Jesus up from death! <sup>31</sup>Jesus is the One whom God raised to be on his right side. God made Jesus our Leader and Savior. God did this so that all Jews could change their hearts and lives and have their sins forgiven. <sup>32</sup>We saw all these things happen. The Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> also proves that these things are true. God has given the Spirit to all who obey him."

<sup>33</sup>When the Jewish leaders heard this, they became very angry and wanted to kill them. <sup>34</sup>A Pharisee<sup>d</sup> named Gamaliel stood up in the meeting. He was a teacher of the law, and all the people respected him. He ordered the apostles to leave the meeting for a little while. <sup>35</sup>Then he said to them, "Men of Israel, be careful of what you are planning to do to these men! <sup>36</sup>Remember when Theudas appeared? He said that he was a great man, and about 400 men joined him. But he was killed. And all his followers were scattered. They were able to do nothing. <sup>37</sup>Later, a man named Judas came from Galilee at the time of the registration. <sup>a</sup>He led a group of followers, too. He was also killed, and all his followers were scattered. <sup>38</sup>And so now I tell you: Stay away from these men. Leave them alone. If their plan comes from men, it will fail. <sup>39</sup>But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop them. You might even be fighting against God himself!"

The Jewish leaders agreed with what Gamaliel said. <sup>40</sup>They called the apostles in again.

They beat the apostles and told them not to speak in the name of Jesus again. Then they let them go free. <sup>41</sup>The apostles left the meeting full of joy because they were given the honor of suffering disgrace for Jesus. <sup>42</sup>The apostles did not stop teaching people. Every day in the Temple and in people's homes they continued to tell the Good News—that Jesus is the Christ.<sup>d</sup>

Seven Men Are Chosen

6 More and more people were becoming followers of Jesus. But during this same time, the Greek-speaking followers had an argument with the other Jewish followers. The Greek-speaking Jews said that their widows were not getting their share of the food that was given out every day. <sup>2</sup>The 12 apostles<sup>d</sup> called the whole group of followers together. They said, "It is not right for us to stop our work of teaching God's word in order to serve tables. <sup>3</sup>So, brothers, choose seven of your own men. They must be men who are good. They must be full of wisdom and full of the Spirit.<sup>d</sup> <sup>4</sup>We will put them in charge of this work. <sup>4</sup>Then we can use all our time to pray and to teach the word of God."

<sup>7</sup>The word of God was reaching more and more people. The group of followers in Jerusalem became larger and larger. A great number of the Jewish priests believed and obeyed.

The Jews Against Stephen

<sup>8</sup>Stephen was richly blessed by God. God gave him the power to do great miracles<sup>d</sup> and signs among the people. <sup>9</sup>But some Jews were against him. They belonged to a synagogue<sup>d</sup> of Free Men<sup>a</sup> (as it was called). (This synagogue was also for Jews from Cyrene and from Alexandria.) Jews from Cilicia and Asia were also with them. They all came and argued with Stephen.

<sup>10</sup>But the Spirit<sup>d</sup> was helping him to speak with wisdom. His words were so strong that the Jews could not argue with him. <sup>11</sup>So they paid some men to say, "We heard him say things against Moses and against God!"

<sup>12</sup>This upset the people, the older Jewish leaders, and the teachers of the law. They came to Stephen, grabbed him and brought him to a meeting of the Jewish leaders. <sup>13</sup>They brought in some men to tell lies about Stephen. They said, "This man is always saying things against this holy place and the law of Moses. <sup>14</sup>We heard him say that Jesus from Nazareth will destroy this place. He also said that Jesus will change the things that Moses told us to do." <sup>15</sup>All the people in the meeting were watching Stephen closely. His face looked like the face of an angel.

Stephen's Speech

7 The high priest said to Stephen, "Are these things true?"

<sup>2</sup>Stephen answered, "Brothers and fathers, listen to me. Our glorious God appeared to Abraham, our ancestor. Abraham was in Mesopotamia before he lived in Haran. <sup>3</sup>God said to Abraham, 'Leave your country and your relatives. Go to the land I will show you.' <sup>4</sup>So Abraham left the country of Chaldea and went to live in Haran. After Abraham's father died, God sent him to this place where you now live. <sup>5</sup>God did not give Abraham any of this land, not even a foot of it. But God promised that he would give him and his descendants <sup>6</sup>this land. (This was before Abraham had any descendants.) <sup>6</sup>This is what God said to him: 'Your descendants will be strangers in a land they don't own. The people there will make them slaves. And they will do cruel things to them for 400 years. <sup>7</sup>But I will punish the nation where they are slaves. Then your descendants will leave that land. Then they will worship me in this place.' <sup>8</sup>God made an agreement with Abraham; the sign for this agreement was circumcision. <sup>9</sup>And so when Abraham had his son Isaac, Abraham circumcised him when he was eight days old. Isaac also circumcised his son Jacob. And Jacob did the same for his sons, the 12 ancestors <sup>10</sup>of our people.

<sup>11</sup>These sons became jealous of Joseph. They sold him to be a slave in Egypt. But God was with him. <sup>12</sup>Joseph had many troubles there, but God saved him from all those troubles. The king of Egypt liked Joseph and respected him because of the wisdom that God gave him. The king made him governor of Egypt. He put Joseph in charge of all the people in his palace.

<sup>13</sup>"Then all the land of Egypt and of Canaan became so dry that nothing would grow there. This made the people suffer very much. The sons could not find anything to eat. <sup>14</sup>But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent his sons, our ancestors, there. This was their first trip to Egypt. <sup>15</sup>Then they went there a second time. This time, Joseph told his brothers who he was. And the king learned about Joseph's family. <sup>16</sup>Then Joseph sent some men to invite Jacob, his father, to come to Egypt. He also invited all his relatives (75 persons altogether). <sup>17</sup>So Jacob went down to Egypt, where he and his sons died. <sup>18</sup>Later their bodies were moved to Shechem and put in a grave there. (It was the same grave that Abraham had bought in Shechem from the sons of Hamor for a sum of money.)

<sup>19</sup>"The number of people in Egypt grew large. There were more and more of our people there. (The promise that God made to Abraham was soon to come true.) <sup>20</sup>Then a new king began to rule Egypt. He did not know who Joseph was. <sup>21</sup>This king tricked our people and was cruel to our ancestors. He forced them to put their babies outside to die. <sup>22</sup>This was the time when Moses was born. He was a fine child. For three months Moses was cared for in his father's house. <sup>23</sup>When they put Moses outside, the king's daughter took him. She raised him as if he were her own son. <sup>24</sup>The Egyptians taught Moses all the things they knew. He was a powerful man in the things he said and did.

<sup>25</sup>"When Moses was about 40 years old, he thought it would be good to visit his brothers, the people of Israel. <sup>26</sup>Moses saw an Egyptian doing wrong to a Jew. So he defended the Jew and punished the Egyptian for hurting him. Moses killed the Egyptian. <sup>27</sup>Moses thought that his fellow Jews would understand that God was using him to save them. But they did not understand. <sup>28</sup>The next day, Moses saw two Jewish men fighting. He tried to make peace between them. He said, 'Men, you are brothers! Why are you hurting each other?' <sup>29</sup>The man who was hurting the other man pushed Moses away. He said, 'Who made you our ruler and judge? <sup>30</sup>Are you going to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?' <sup>31</sup>When Moses heard him say this, he left Egypt. He went to live in the land of Midian where he was a stranger. While Moses lived in Midian, he had two sons.

<sup>30</sup>“After 40 years Moses was in the desert near Mount Sinai. An angel appeared to him in the flames of a burning bush. <sup>31</sup>When Moses saw this, he was amazed. He went near to look closer at it. Moses heard the Lord’s voice. <sup>32</sup>The Lord said, ‘I am the God of your ancestors. I am the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.’ <sup>n</sup> Moses began to shake with fear and was afraid to look. <sup>33</sup>The Lord said to him, ‘Take off your sandals. You are standing on holy ground. <sup>34</sup>I have seen the troubles my people have suffered in Egypt. I have heard their cries. I have come down to save them. And now, Moses, I am sending you back to Egypt.’ <sup>n</sup> <sup>35</sup>“This Moses was the same man the Jews said they did not want. They had said to him, ‘Who made you our ruler and judge?’ <sup>n</sup> Moses is the same man God sent to be a ruler and savior, with the help of an angel. This was the angel Moses saw in the burning bush. <sup>36</sup>So Moses led the people out of Egypt. He worked miracles<sup>d</sup> and signs in Egypt, at the Red Sea,<sup>d</sup> and then in the desert for 40 years. <sup>37</sup>This is the same Moses that said to the Jewish people: ‘God will give you a prophet<sup>d</sup> like me. He will be one of your own people.’ <sup>n</sup> <sup>38</sup>This is the same Moses who was with the gathering of the Jews in the desert. He was with the angel that spoke to him at Mount Sinai, and he was with our ancestors. He received commands from God that give life, and he gave those commands to us.

<sup>39</sup>“But our fathers did not want to obey Moses. They rejected him. They wanted to go back to Egypt again. <sup>40</sup>They said to Aaron, ‘Moses led us out of Egypt. But we don’t know what has happened to him. So make us gods who will lead us.’ <sup>n</sup> <sup>41</sup>So the people made an idol that looked like a calf. Then they brought sacrifices to it. The people were proud of what they had made with their own hands! <sup>42</sup>But God turned against them. He did not try to stop them from worshiping the sun, moon and stars. This is what is written in the book of the prophets: God says, the tent to worship the false god Molech<sup>d</sup> and the idols of the star god Rephan that you made to worship.

‘People of Israel, you did not bring me sacrifices and offerings while you traveled in the desert for 40 years.

This is because I will send you away beyond Babylon.’

Amos 5:25-27

<sup>44</sup>“The Holy Tent<sup>d</sup> where God spoke to our fathers was with the Jews in the desert. God told Moses how to make this Tent. He made it like the plan God showed him. <sup>45</sup>Later, Joshua led our fathers to capture the lands of the other nations. Our people went in, and God drove the other people out. When our people went into this new land, they took with them this same Tent. They received this Tent from their fathers and kept it until the time of David. <sup>46</sup>God was very pleased with David. He asked God to let him build a house for him, the God of Jacob. <sup>47</sup>But Solomon was the one who built the Temple.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>49</sup>‘Heaven is my throne.

The earth is my footstool.

So do you think you can build a house for me? says the Lord.

There is no place where I need to rest.

Isaiah 66:1-2

Stephen Is Killed

<sup>54</sup>When the Jewish leaders heard Stephen saying all these things, they became very angry. They were so mad that they were grinding their teeth at Stephen. <sup>55</sup>But Stephen was full of the Holy Spirit.<sup>d</sup> He looked up to heaven and saw the glory of God. He saw Jesus standing at God’s right side. <sup>56</sup>He said, “Look! I see heaven open. And I see the Son of Man<sup>d</sup> standing at God's right side!"

8 Saul agreed that the killing of Stephen was a good thing.

Trouble for the Believers

<sup>23</sup>Some religious men buried Stephen and cried very loudly for him. On that day the Jews began trying to hurt the church in Jerusalem. The Jews made them suffer very much. Saul was also trying to destroy the church. He went from house to house. He dragged out men and women and put them in jail. All the believers, except the apostles,<sup>d</sup> went to different places in Judea and Samaria. <sup>4</sup>And everywhere they were scattered, they told people the Good News.<sup>d</sup>

Philip Preaches in Samaria

<sup>5</sup>Philip<sup>a</sup> went to the city of Samaria and preached about the Christ.<sup>d</sup> <sup>6</sup>The people there heard Philip and saw the miracles<sup>d</sup> he was doing. They all listened carefully to the things he said. <sup>7</sup>Many of these people had evil spirits in them. But Philip made the evil spirits leave them. The spirits made a loud noise when they came out. There were also many weak and crippled people there. Philip healed them, too. <sup>8</sup>So the people in that city were very happy.

<sup>9</sup>But there was a man named Simon in that city. Before Philip came there, Simon had practiced magic. He amazed all the people of Samaria with his magic. He bragged and called himself a great man. <sup>10</sup>All the people—the least important and the most important—paid attention to what Simon said. They said, "This man has the power of God, called 'the Great Power!'" <sup>11</sup>Simon had amazed them with his magic tricks so long that the people became his followers. <sup>12</sup>But Philip told them the Good News<sup>d</sup> about the kingdom of God and the power of Jesus Christ. Men and women believed Philip and were baptized. <sup>13</sup>Simon himself believed and was baptized. He stayed very close to Philip. When he saw the miracles and the very powerful things that Philip did, Simon was amazed.

<sup>14</sup>The apostles<sup>d</sup> were still in Jerusalem. They heard that the people of Samaria had accepted the word of God. So they sent Peter and John to them. <sup>15</sup>When Peter and John arrived, they prayed that the Samaritan believers might receive the Holy Spirit.<sup>d</sup> <sup>16</sup>These people had been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. But the Holy Spirit had not yet entered any of them. <sup>17</sup>Then, when the two apostles began laying their hands on<sup>n</sup> the people, they received the Holy Spirit.

<sup>18</sup>Simon saw that the Spirit was given to people when the apostles laid their hands on them. So he offered the apostles money. <sup>19</sup>He said, "Give me also this power so that when I lay my hands on a person, he will receive the Holy Spirit."

<sup>20</sup>Peter said to him, "You and your money should both be destroyed! You thought you could buy God's gift with money. <sup>21</sup>You cannot share with us in this work. Your heart is not right before God. <sup>22</sup>Change your heart! Turn away from this evil thing you have done. Pray to the Lord. Maybe he will forgive you for thinking this. <sup>23</sup>I see that you are full of bitter jealousy and ruled by sin."

<sup>24</sup>Simon answered, "Both of you pray for me to the Lord. Pray that the things you have said will not happen to me!"

<sup>25</sup>Then the two apostles told the people the things they had seen Jesus do. And after the apostles had given the message of the Lord, they went back to Jerusalem. On the way, they went through many Samaritan towns and preached the Good News to the people.

Philip Teaches an Ethiopian

<sup>30</sup>So Philip ran toward the chariot. He heard the man reading from Isaiah, the prophet. Philip asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

<sup>31</sup>He answered, "How can I understand? I need someone to explain it to me!" Then he invited Philip to climb in and sit with him.

<sup>32</sup>The verse of Scripture<sup>d</sup> that he was reading was this:

"He was like a sheep being led to be killed.

He was quiet, as a sheep is quiet while its wool is being cut.

He said nothing.

<sup>33</sup> He was shamed and was treated unfairly.

He died without children to continue his family.

His life on earth has ended." Isaiah 53:7-8

<sup>34</sup>The officer said to Philip, "Please tell me, who is the prophet talking about? Is he talking about himself or about someone else?" <sup>35</sup>Philip began to speak. He started with this same Scripture and told the man the Good News<sup>d</sup> about Jesus.

<sup>36</sup>While they were traveling down the road, they came to some water. The officer said, "Look! Here is water! What is stopping me from being baptized?" <sup>37</sup> <sup>a</sup> <sup>38</sup>Then the officer commanded the chariot to stop. Both Philip and the officer went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. <sup>39</sup>When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord took Philip away; the officer never saw him again. The officer continued on his way home, full of joy. <sup>40</sup>But Philip appeared in a city called Azotus and preached the Good News in all the towns on the way from Azotus to Caesarea.

Saul Is Converted

9 In Jerusalem Saul was still trying to frighten the followers of the Lord by saying he would kill them. So he went to the high priest<sup>2</sup> and asked him to write letters to the synagogues<sup>d</sup> in the city of Damascus. Saul wanted the high priest to give him the authority to find people in Damascus who were followers of Christ's Way. If he found any there, men or women, he would arrest them and bring them back to Jerusalem.

<sup>3</sup>So Saul went to Damascus. As he came near the city, a bright light from heaven suddenly flashed around him. <sup>4</sup>Saul fell to the ground.

He heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul! Why are you doing things against me?"

<sup>5</sup>Saul said, "Who are you, Lord?"

The voice answered, "I am Jesus. I am the One you are trying to hurt. <sup>6</sup>Get up now and go into the city. Someone there will tell you what you must do."

<sup>7</sup>The men traveling with Saul stood there, but they said nothing. They heard the voice, but they saw no one. <sup>8</sup>Saul got up from the ground. He opened his eyes, but he could not see. So the men with Saul took his hand and led him into Damascus. <sup>9</sup>For three days Saul could not see, and he did not eat or drink.

<sup>10</sup>There was a follower of Jesus in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord spoke to Ananias in a vision, "Ananias!"

Ananias answered, "Here I am, Lord."

<sup>11</sup>The Lord said to him, "Get up and go to the street called Straight Street. Find the house of Judas. <sup>a</sup> Ask for a man named Saul from the city of Tarsus. He is there now, praying. <sup>12</sup>Saul has seen a vision. In it a man named Ananias comes to him and lays his hands on him. Then he sees again."

<sup>13</sup>But Ananias answered, "Lord, many people have told me about this man and the terrible things he did to your people in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup>Now he has come here to Damascus. The leading priests have given him the power to arrest everyone who worships you."

<sup>15</sup>But the Lord said to Ananias, "Go! I have chosen Saul for an important work. He must tell about me to non-Jews, to kings, and to the people of Israel. <sup>16</sup>I will show him how much he must suffer for my name."

<sup>17</sup>So Ananias went to the house of Judas. He laid his hands on Saul and said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus sent me. He is the one you saw on the road on your way here. He sent me so that you can see again and be filled with the Holy Spirit."<sup>d</sup> <sup>18</sup>Immediately, something that looked like fish scales fell from Saul's eyes. He was able to see again! Then Saul got up and was baptized. <sup>19</sup>After eating some food, his strength returned.

Saul Preaches in Damascus

Saul stayed with the followers of Jesus in Damascus for a few days. <sup>20</sup>Soon he began to preach about Jesus in the synagogues,<sup>d</sup> saying, "Jesus is the Son of God!"

<sup>21</sup>All the people who heard him were

<sup>d</sup>Verse 37 Some late copies of Acts add verse 37: "Philip answered, 'If you believe with all your heart, you can.' The officer said, 'I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.'" amazed. They said, "This is the man who was in Jerusalem. He was trying to destroy those who trust in this name! He came here to do the same thing. He came here to arrest the followers of Jesus and take them back to the leading priests."

<sup>22</sup>But Saul became more and more powerful. His proofs that Jesus is the Christ<sup>d</sup> were so strong that the Jews in Damascus could not argue with him.

Saul Escapes from the Jews

<sup>23</sup>After many days, the Jews made plans to kill Saul. <sup>24</sup>They were watching the city gates day and night. They wanted to kill him, but Saul learned about their plan. <sup>25</sup>One night some followers of Saul helped him leave the city. They lowered him in a basket through an opening in the city wall.

Saul Preaches in Jerusalem

<sup>26</sup>Then Saul went to Jerusalem. He tried to join the group of followers, but they were all afraid of him. They did not believe that he was really a follower. <sup>27</sup>But Barnabas accepted Saul and took him to the apostles.<sup>d</sup> Barnabas told them that Saul had seen the Lord on the road. He explained how the Lord had spoken to Saul. Then he told them how boldly Saul had preached in the name of Jesus in Damascus.

<sup>28</sup>And so Saul stayed with the followers. He went everywhere in Jerusalem, preaching boldly in the name of Jesus. <sup>29</sup>He would often talk and argue with the Jews who spoke Greek. But they were trying to kill him. <sup>30</sup>When the brothers learned about this, they took Saul to Caesarea. From there they sent him to Tarsus.

<sup>31</sup>The church everywhere in Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had a time of peace. With the help of the Holy Spirit,<sup>d</sup> the group became stronger. The believers showed that they respected the Lord by the way they lived. Because of this, the group of believers grew larger and larger.

Peter Heals Aeneas

<sup>32</sup>As Peter was traveling through all the area, he visited God's people who lived in Lydda. <sup>33</sup>There he met a paralyzed man named Aeneas. Aeneas had not been able to leave his bed for the past eight years. <sup>34</sup>Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Stand up and make your bed!" Aeneas stood up immediately. <sup>35</sup>All the people living in Lydda and on the Plain of Sharon saw him. These people turned to the Lord.

Peter Heals Tabitha

<sup>36</sup>In the city of Joppa there was a follower named Tabitha. (Her Greek name, Dorcas, means "a deer.") She was always doing good and helping the poor. <sup>37</sup>While Peter was in Lydda, Tabitha became sick and died. Her body was washed and put in a room upstairs. <sup>38</sup>The followers in Joppa heard that Peter was in Lydda. (Lydda is near Joppa.) So they sent two men to Peter. They begged him, "Hurry, please come to us!" <sup>39</sup>Peter got ready and went with them. When he arrived, they took him to the upstairs room. All the widows stood around Peter, crying. They showed him the shirts and coats that Tabitha had made when she was still alive. <sup>40</sup>Peter sent everyone out of the room. He kneeled and prayed. Then he turned to the body and said, "Tabitha, stand up!" She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up. <sup>41</sup>He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then he called the saints<sup>d</sup> and the widows into the room. He showed them Tabitha; she was alive! <sup>42</sup>People everywhere in Joppa learned about this, and many believed in the Lord. <sup>43</sup>Peter stayed in Joppa for many days with a man named Simon who was a leather-worker.

Peter Teaches Cornelius

10 At Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius. He was an officer in the Italian group of the Roman army. <sup>2</sup>Cornelius was a religious man. He and all the other people who lived in his house worshiped the true God. He gave much of his money to the poor and prayed to God often. <sup>3</sup>One afternoon about three o'clock, Cornelius saw a vision clearly. In the vision an angel of God came to him and said, "Cornelius!"

The angel said, "God has heard your prayers. He has seen what you give to the poor. And God remembers you. <sup>5</sup>Send some men now to Joppa to bring back a man named Simon. Simon is also called Peter. <sup>6</sup>Simon is staying with a man, also named Simon, who is a leatherworker. He has a house beside the sea." <sup>7</sup>Then the angel who spoke to Cornelius left. Cornelius called two of his servants and a soldier. The soldier was a religious man who worked for Cornelius. <sup>8</sup>Cornelius explained everything to these three men and sent them to Joppa.

ter was going up to the roof<sup>a</sup> to pray. It was about noon. <sup>10</sup>Peter was hungry and wanted to eat. But while the food was being prepared, he had a vision. <sup>11</sup>He saw heaven opened and something coming down. It looked like a big sheet being lowered to earth by its four corners. <sup>12</sup>In it were all kinds of animals, reptiles, and birds. <sup>13</sup>Then a voice said to Peter, “Get up, Peter; kill and eat.”

<sup>19</sup>Peter was still thinking about the vision. But the Spirit<sup>d</sup> said to him, “Listen! Three men are looking for you. <sup>20</sup>Get up and go downstairs. Go with them and don’t ask questions. I have sent them to you.”

<sup>21</sup>So Peter went down to the men. He said, “I am the man you are looking for. Why did you come here?”

<sup>22</sup>They said, “A holy angel spoke to Cornelius, an army officer. He is a good man; he worships God. All the Jewish people respect him. The angel told Cornelius to ask you to come to his house so that he can hear what you have to say.” <sup>23</sup>So Peter asked the men to come in and spend the night.

The next day Peter got ready and went with them. Some of the brothers from Joppa joined him. <sup>24</sup>On the following day they came to Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them. He had called together his relatives and close friends. <sup>25</sup>When Peter entered, Cornelius met him. He fell at Peter’s feet and worshiped him. <sup>26</sup>But Peter helped him up, saying, “Stand up! I too am only a man.” <sup>27</sup>Peter went on talking with Cornelius as they went inside. There Peter saw many people together. <sup>28</sup>He said, “You people understand that it is against our Jewish law for a Jew to associate with or visit anyone who is not a Jew. But God has shown me that I should not call any person ‘unhol<sup>y</sup>’ or ‘unclean.’” <sup>29</sup>That is why I did not argue when I was asked to come here. Now, please tell me why you sent for me.”

ing in my house. It was at this same time—three o’clock in the afternoon. Suddenly, there was a man standing before me wearing shining clothes. <sup>31</sup>He said, ‘Cornelius! God has heard your prayer. He has seen what you give to the poor. And God remembers you. <sup>32</sup>So send some men to Joppa and ask Simon Peter to come. Peter is staying in the house of a man, also named Simon, who is a leatherworker. His house is beside the sea.’ <sup>33</sup>So I sent for you immediately, and it was very good of you to come. Now we are all here before God to hear everything the Lord has commanded you to tell us.”

Peter’s Speech

<sup>34</sup>Peter began to speak: “I really understand now that to God every person is the same. <sup>35</sup>God accepts anyone who worships him and does what is right. It is not important what country a person comes from. <sup>36</sup>You know that God has sent his message to the people of Israel. That message is the Good News<sup>d</sup> that peace has come through Jesus Christ. Jesus is the Lord of all people! <sup>37</sup>You know what has happened all over Judea. It began in Galilee after John<sup>a</sup> preached to the people about baptism. <sup>38</sup>You know about Jesus from Nazareth. God made him the Christ<sup>d</sup> by giving him the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> and power. You know how Jesus went everywhere doing good. He healed those who were ruled by the devil, because God was with Jesus. <sup>39</sup>We saw all the things that Jesus did in Judea and in Jerusalem. But they killed him by nailing him to a cross. <sup>40</sup>Yet, on the third day, God raised Jesus to life and caused him to be seen. <sup>41</sup>But he was not seen by all the people. Only the witnesses that God had already chosen saw him, and we are those witnesses. We ate and drank with him after he was raised from death. <sup>42</sup>He told us to preach to the people and to tell them that he is the one whom God chose to be the judge of the living and the dead. <sup>43</sup>Everyone who believes in Jesus will be forgiven. God will forgive his sins through Jesus. All the prophets<sup>d</sup> say this is true.”

Non-Jews Receive the Holy Spirit

<sup>44</sup>While Peter was still saying this, the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> came down on all those who were listening. <sup>45</sup>The Jewish believers who came with Peter were amazed that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been given even to the non-Jewish people. <sup>46</sup>These Jewish believers heard them speaking in different languages and praising God. Then Peter said, <sup>47</sup>"Can anyone keep these people from being baptized with water? They have received the Holy Spirit just as we did!" <sup>48</sup>So Peter ordered that they be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked Peter to stay with them for a few days.

Peter Returns to Jerusalem

11 The apostles<sup>a</sup> and the believers in Judea heard that non-Jewish people had accepted God's teaching too. <sup>2</sup>But when Peter came to Jerusalem, some Jewish believers argued with him. <sup>3</sup>They said, "You went into the homes of people who are not Jews and are not circumcised!<sup>d</sup> You even ate with them!"

<sup>4</sup>So Peter explained the whole story to them. <sup>5</sup>He said, "I was in the city of Joppa. While I was praying, I had a vision. In the vision, I saw something which looked like a big sheet coming down from heaven. It was being lowered to earth by its four corners. It came down very close to me, and <sup>6</sup>I looked inside it. I saw animals, wild beasts, reptiles, and birds. <sup>7</sup>I heard a voice say to me, 'Get up, Peter. Kill and eat.' <sup>8</sup>But I said, 'No, Lord! I have never eaten anything that is unholy or unclean.'<sup>d</sup> <sup>9</sup>But the voice from heaven answered again, 'God has made these things clean. Don't call them unholy!' <sup>10</sup>This happened three times. Then the whole thing was taken back to heaven. <sup>11</sup>Right then three men came to the house where I was staying. They were sent to me from Caesarea. <sup>12</sup>The Spirit<sup>a</sup> told me to go with them without doubting. These six believers here also went with me. We went to the house of Cornelius. <sup>13</sup>He told us about the angel he saw standing in his house. The angel said to him, 'Send some men to Joppa and invite Simon Peter to come. <sup>14</sup>He will speak to you. The things he will say will save you and all your family.' <sup>15</sup>When I began my speech, the Holy Spirit came on them just as he came on us at the beginning. <sup>16</sup>Then I remembered the words of the Lord. He said, 'John baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit!' <sup>17</sup>God gave to them the same gift that he gave to us who believed in the Lord Jesus Christ. So could I stop the work of God? No!"

<sup>18</sup>When the Jewish believers heard this, they stopped arguing. They praised God and said, "So God is allowing the non-Jewish people also to turn to him and live."

The Good News Comes to Antioch

the terrible things that happened after Stephen was killed. Some of them went to places as far away as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch. They were telling the message to others, but only to Jews. <sup>20</sup>Some of these believers were men from Cyprus and Cyrene. When they came to Antioch, they spoke also to Greeks, telling them the Good News<sup>a</sup> about the Lord Jesus. <sup>21</sup>The Lord was helping the believers. And a large group of people believed and turned to the Lord.

<sup>22</sup>The church in Jerusalem heard about all of this, so they sent Barnabas to Antioch. <sup>23-24</sup>Barnabas was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit<sup>a</sup> and full of faith. When he reached Antioch and saw how God had blessed the people, he was glad. He encouraged all the believers in Antioch. He told them, "Never lose your faith. Always obey the Lord with all your hearts." Many people became followers of the Lord.

<sup>25</sup>Then Barnabas went to the city of Tarsus to look for Saul. <sup>26</sup>When he found Saul, he brought him to Antioch. And for a whole year Saul and Barnabas met with the church. They taught many people there. In Antioch the followers were called Christians for the first time.

<sup>27</sup>About that time some prophets<sup>a</sup> came from Jerusalem to Antioch. <sup>28</sup>One of them was named Agabus. He stood up and spoke with the help of the Holy Spirit. He said, "A very hard time is coming to the whole world. There will be no food for people to eat." (This happened when Claudius ruled.) <sup>29</sup>The followers all decided to help their brothers who lived in Judea. Each one planned to send them as much as he could. <sup>30</sup>They gathered the money and gave it to Barnabas and Saul, who brought it to the elders<sup>a</sup> in Judea.

Herod Agrippa Hurts the Church

12 During that same time King Herod began to do terrible things to some who belonged to the church. <sup>2</sup>He ordered James, the brother of John, to be killed by the sword. <sup>3</sup>Herod saw that the Jews liked this, so he decided to arrest Peter, too. (This happened during the time of the Feast<sup>a</sup> of Unleavened Bread.)

<sup>4</sup>After Herod arrested Peter, he put him in jail and handed him over to be guarded by 16 soldiers. Herod planned to bring Peter before the people for trial after the Passover<sup>a</sup> Feast. <sup>5</sup>So Peter was kept in jail. But the church kept on praying to God for him.

Peter Leaves the Jail

<sup>6</sup>The night before Herod was to bring him to trial, Peter was sleeping. He was between two soldiers, bound with two chains. Other soldiers were guarding the door of the jail. <sup>7</sup>Suddenly, an angel of the Lord stood there. A light shined in the room. The angel touched Peter on the side and woke him up. The angel said, "Hurry! Get up!" And the chains fell off Peter's hands. <sup>8</sup>The angel said to him, "Get dressed and put on your sandals." And so Peter did this. Then the angel said, "Put on your coat and follow me." <sup>9</sup>So the angel went out, and Peter followed him. Peter did not know if what the angel was doing was real. He thought he might be seeing a vision. <sup>10</sup>They went past the first and the second guard. They came to the iron gate that separated them from the city. The gate opened itself for them. They went through the gate and walked down a street. And the angel suddenly left him.

<sup>11</sup>Then Peter realized what had happened. He thought, "Now I know that the Lord really sent his angel to me. He rescued me from Herod and from all the things the Jewish people thought would happen."

<sup>12</sup>When he realized this, he went to the home of Mary. She was the mother of John. (John was also called Mark.) Many people were gathered there, praying. <sup>13</sup>Peter knocked on the outside door. A servant girl named Rhoda came to answer it. <sup>14</sup>When she recognized Peter's voice, she was so happy she forgot to open the door. She ran inside and told the group, "Peter is at the door!"

<sup>15</sup>They said to her, "You are crazy!" But she kept on saying that it was true. So they said, "It must be Peter's angel."

<sup>16</sup>Peter continued to knock. When they opened the door, they saw him and were amazed. <sup>17</sup>Peter made a sign with his hand to tell them to be quiet. He explained how the Lord led him out of the jail. And he said, "Tell James and the other believers what happened." Then he left to go to another place.

<sup>18</sup>The next day the soldiers were very upset. They wondered what had happened to Peter. <sup>19</sup>Herod looked everywhere for Peter but could not find him. So he questioned the guards and ordered that they be killed.

The Death of Herod Agrippa

Later Herod moved from Judea and went to the city of Caesarea, where he stayed for a while. <sup>20</sup>Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. But the people of those cities all came in a group to Herod. They were able to get Blastus, the king's personal servant, on their side. They asked Herod for peace because their country got its food from his country.

Barnabas and Saul Are Chosen

13 In the church at Antioch there were these prophets<sup>d</sup> and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon (also called Niger), Lucius (from the city of Cyrene), Manaen (who had grown up with Herod, the ruler) and Saul. <sup>2</sup>They were all worshiping the Lord and giving up eating.<sup>a</sup> The Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> said to them, "Give Barnabas and Saul to me to do a special work. I have chosen them for it."

<sup>3</sup>So they gave up eating and prayed. They laid their hands on<sup>a</sup> Barnabas and Saul and sent them out.

Barnabas and Saul in Cyprus

<sup>4</sup>Barnabas and Saul were sent out by the Holy Spirit.<sup>d</sup> They went to the city of Seleucia. From there they sailed to the island of Cyprus. <sup>5</sup>When they came to Salamis, they preached the Good News<sup>d</sup> of God in the Jewish synagogues.<sup>d</sup> John Mark was with them to help.

<sup>6</sup>They went across the whole island to Paphos. In Paphos they met a Jew who was a magician. His name was Bar-Jesus. He was a false prophet,<sup>d</sup> <sup>7</sup>who always stayed close to Sergius Paulus, the governor. Sergius Paulus was a smart man. He asked Barnabas and Saul to come to him, because he wanted to hear the message of God. <sup>8</sup>But Elymas, the magician, was against them. (Elymas is the name for Bar-Jesus in the Greek language.) He tried to stop the governor from believing in Jesus. <sup>9</sup>But Saul was filled with the Holy Spirit. (Saul's other name was Paul.) He looked straight at Elymas <sup>10</sup>and said, "You son of the devil! You are an enemy of everything that is right! You are full of evil tricks and lies. You are always trying to change the Lord's truths into lies! <sup>11</sup>Now the Lord will touch you, and you will be blind. For a time you will not be able to see anything—not even the light from the sun."

<sup>a</sup>giving up eating This is called "fasting." The people would give up eating for a special time of prayer and worship to God. It was also done to show sadness.

<sup>a</sup>laid their hands on Here, this was a sign to show that these men were given a special work of God.

Then everything became dark for Elymas. He walked around, trying to find someone to lead him by the hand. <sup>12</sup>When the governor saw this, he believed. He was amazed at the teaching about the Lord.

Paul and Barnabas Leave Cyprus

<sup>16</sup>Paul stood up. He raised his hand and said, "Men of Israel and you other people who worship God, please listen! <sup>17</sup>The God of the people of Israel chose our ancestors. He made the people great during the time they lived in Egypt. He brought them out of that country with great power. <sup>18</sup>And he was patient with them for 40 years in the desert. <sup>19</sup>God destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan and gave the land to his people. <sup>20</sup>All this happened in about 450 years.

"After this, God gave them judges until the time of Samuel the prophet. <sup>21</sup>Then the people asked for a king, God gave them Saul son of Kish. Saul was from the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Benjamin. He was king for 40 years. <sup>22</sup>After God took him away, God made David their king. This is what God said about him: 'I have found David son of Jesse. He is the kind of man I want. He will do all that I want him to do.' <sup>23</sup>So God has brought one of David's descendants<sup>d</sup> to Israel to be their Savior.<sup>d</sup> That descendant is Jesus. And God promised to do this. <sup>24</sup>Before Jesus came, John<sup>n</sup> preached to all the people of Israel. He told them about a baptism of changed hearts and lives. <sup>25</sup>When he was finishing his work, he said, 'Who do you think I am? I am not the Christ.<sup>d</sup> He is coming later. I am not worthy to untie his sandals.'

and you non-Jews who worship God, listen! The news about this salvation has been sent to us. <sup>27</sup>Those who live in Jerusalem and their leaders did not realize that Jesus was the Savior. They did not understand the words that the prophets wrote, which are read every Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day. But they made them come true when they said Jesus was guilty. <sup>28</sup>They could not find any real reason for Jesus to die, but they asked Pilate to have him killed. <sup>29</sup>They did to him all that the Scriptures<sup>d</sup> had said. Then they took him down from the cross and laid him in a tomb. <sup>30</sup>But God raised him up from death! <sup>31</sup>After this, for many days, the people who had gone with Jesus from Galilee to Jerusalem saw him. They are now his witnesses to the people. <sup>32</sup>We tell you the Good News<sup>d</sup> about the promise God made to our ancestors. <sup>33</sup>We are their children, and God has made this promise come true for us. God did this by raising Jesus from death. We read about this also in Psalm 2:

'You are my Son.

Today I have become your Father.' Psalm 2:7

<sup>34</sup>God raised Jesus from death. He will never go back to the grave and become dust. So God said:

'I will give you the holy and sure blessings that I promised to David.'

Isaiah 55:3

<sup>35</sup>But in another place God says:

'You will not let your Holy One rot in the grave.'

Psalm 16:10

<sup>36</sup>David did God's will during his lifetime. Then he died and was buried with his fathers. And his body did rot in the grave! <sup>37</sup>But the One God raised from death did not rot in the grave.

<sup>38-39</sup>Brothers, you must understand what we are telling you: You can have forgiveness of your sins through Jesus. The law of Moses could not free you from your sins. But everyone who believes is free from all sins through him. <sup>40</sup>Be careful! Don't let what the prophets said happen to you:

You can wonder, and then die.

I will do something in your lifetime that will amaze you.

You won't believe it even when you are told about it! "

Habakkuk 1:5

<sup>42</sup>While Paul and Barnabas were leaving the synagogue, the people asked them to tell them more about these things on the next Sabbath.

<sup>43</sup>After the meeting, many Jews followed Paul and Barnabas from that place. With the Jews there were many who had changed to the Jewish religion and worshiped God. Paul and Barnabas were persuading them to continue trusting in God's kindness.

<sup>44</sup>On the next Sabbath day, almost all the people in the city came to hear the word of the Lord. <sup>45</sup>Seeing the crowd, the Jews became very jealous. They said insulting things and argued against what Paul said. <sup>46</sup>But Paul and Barnabas spoke very boldly. They said, "We must speak the message of God to you first. But you refuse to listen. You are judging yourselves not worthy of having eternal life! So we will now go to the people of other nations! <sup>47</sup>This is what the Lord told us to do. The Lord said: 'I have made you a light for the non-Jewish nations.

You will show people all over the world the way to be saved.' "

<sup>48</sup>When the non-Jewish people heard Paul say this, they were happy. They gave honor to the message of the Lord. And many of the people believed the message. They were the ones chosen to have life forever.

<sup>49</sup>And so the message of the Lord was spreading through the whole country. <sup>50</sup>But the Jews stirred up some of the important religious women and the leaders of the city against Paul and Barnabas. They started trouble against Paul and Barnabas and drove them out of their area. <sup>51</sup>So Paul and Barnabas shook the dust off their feet<sup>a</sup> and went to Iconium. <sup>52</sup>But the followers were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.<sup>d</sup>

Paul and Barnabas in Iconium

14 In Iconium, Paul and Barnabas went as usual to the Jewish synagogue.<sup>d</sup> They spoke so well that a great many Jews and Greeks believed. <sup>2</sup>But some of the Jews who did not believe excited the non-Jewish people and turned them against the believers. <sup>3</sup>But Paul and Barnabas stayed in Iconium a long time and spoke bravely for the Lord. The Lord showed that their message about his grace was true by giving them the power to work miracles<sup>d</sup> and signs. <sup>4</sup>But some of the people in the city agreed with the Jews. Others believed the apostles.<sup>d</sup> So the city was divided.

<sup>5</sup>Some non-Jewish people, some Jews, and some of their rulers wanted to harm Paul and Barnabas by killing them with stones. <sup>6</sup>When Paul and Barnabas learned about this, they went to Lystra and Derbe, cities in Lycaonia, and to the areas around those cities. <sup>7</sup>They announced the Good News<sup>d</sup> there, too.

Paul in Lystra and Derbe

<sup>8</sup>In Lystra there sat a man who had been born crippled; he had never walked. <sup>9</sup>This man was listening to Paul speak. Paul looked straight at him and saw that the man believed God could heal him. <sup>10</sup>So he cried out, "Stand up on your feet!" The man jumped up and began walking around. <sup>11</sup>When the crowds saw what Paul did, they shouted in their own Lycaonian language. They said, "The gods have become like men! They have come down to us!" <sup>12</sup>And the people began to call Barnabas "Zeus."<sup>n</sup> They called Paul "Hermes,"<sup>n</sup> because he was the main speaker. <sup>13</sup>The temple of Zeus was near the city. The priest of this temple brought some bulls and flowers to the city gates. The priest and the people wanted to offer a sacrifice to Paul and Barnabas. <sup>14</sup>But when the apostles,<sup>d</sup> Barnabas and Paul, understood what they were about to do, they tore their clothes in anger. Then they ran in among the people and shouted, <sup>15</sup>"Men, why are you doing these things? We are only men, human beings like you! We are bringing you the Good News.<sup>d</sup> We are telling you to turn away from these worthless things and turn to the true living God. He is the One who made the sky, the earth, the sea, and everything that is in them. <sup>16</sup>In the past, God let all the nations do what they wanted. <sup>17</sup>Yet he did things to prove he is real: He shows kindness to you. He gives you rain from heaven and crops at the right times. He gives you food and fills your hearts with joy." <sup>18</sup>Even with these words, they were barely able to keep the crowd from offering sacrifices to them.

<sup>19</sup>Then some Jews came from Antioch and Iconium. They persuaded the people to turn against Paul. And so they threw stones at Paul and dragged him out of town. They thought that they had killed him. <sup>20</sup>But the followers gathered around him, and he got up and went back into the town. The next day, he and Barnabas left and went to the city of Derbe.

The Return to Antioch in Syria

of Jesus stronger. They helped them to stay in the faith. They said, "We must suffer many things to enter God's kingdom."<sup>23</sup> They chose elders<sup>d</sup> for each church, by praying and giving up eating.<sup>n</sup> These elders were men who had trusted the Lord. So Paul and Barnabas put them in the Lord's care.

<sup>24</sup>Then they went through Pisidia and came to Pamphylia. <sup>25</sup>They preached the message in Perga, and then they went down to Attalia. <sup>26</sup>And from there they sailed away to Antioch. This is where the believers had put them into God's care and had sent them out to do this work. And now they had finished the work.

<sup>27</sup>When they arrived in Antioch, they gathered the church together. Paul and Barnabas told them all about what God had done with them. They told how God had made it possible for the non-Jews to believe!<sup>28</sup> And they stayed there a long time with the followers.

The Meeting at Jerusalem

15 Then some men came to Antioch from Judea. They began teaching the non-Jewish brothers: "You cannot be saved if you are not circumcised.<sup>d</sup> Moses taught us to do this." <sup>2</sup>Paul and Barnabas were against this teaching and argued with the men about it. So the group decided to send Paul, Barnabas, and some other men to Jerusalem. There they could talk more about this with the apostles<sup>d</sup> and elders.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>3</sup>The church helped the men leave on the trip. They went through the countries of Phoenicia and Samaria, telling all about how the non-Jewish people had turned to God. This made all the believers very happy. <sup>4</sup>When they arrived in Jerusalem, the apostles, the elders, and the church welcomed them. Paul, Barnabas, and the others told about all the things that God had done with them. <sup>5</sup>But some of the believers who had belonged to the Pharisee<sup>d</sup> group came forward. They said, "The non-Jewish believers must be circumcised. We must tell them to obey the law of Moses!"

<sup>6</sup>The apostles and the elders gathered to study this problem. <sup>7</sup>There was a long debate. Then Peter stood up and said to them, "Brothers, you know what happened in the early days. God chose me from among you to preach the Good News<sup>d</sup> to the non-Jewish people. They heard the Good News from me, and they believed. <sup>8</sup>God, who knows the thoughts of all men, accepted them. He showed this to us by giving them the Holy Spirit,<sup>d</sup> just as he did to us. <sup>9</sup>To God, those people are not different from us. When they believed, he made their hearts pure. <sup>10</sup>So now why are you testing God? You are putting a heavy load around the necks of the non-Jewish brothers. It is a load that neither we nor our fathers were able to carry. <sup>11</sup>But we believe that we and they too will be saved by the grace of the Lord Jesus!"

<sup>12</sup>Then the whole group became quiet. They listened to Paul and Barnabas speak. Paul and Barnabas told about all the miracles<sup>d</sup> and signs that God did through them among the non-Jewish people. <sup>13</sup>After they finished speaking, James spoke. He said, "Brothers, listen to me. <sup>14</sup>Simon has told us how God showed his love for the non-Jewish people. For the first time he has accepted them and made them his people. <sup>15</sup>The words of the prophets<sup>d</sup> agree with this too:

The kingdom of David is like a fallen tent.

But I will rebuild it.

And I will again build its ruins.

And I will set it up.

<sup>17</sup>Then those people who are left alive may ask the Lord for help.

And all people from other nations may worship me, says the Lord.

And he will make it happen.

<sup>19</sup>"So I think we should not bother the non-Jewish brothers who have turned to God.

<sup>20</sup>Instead, we should write a letter to them. We should tell them these things: Do not eat food that has been offered to idols. (This makes the food unclean.<sup>d</sup>) Do not take part in any kind of sexual sin. Do not taste blood. Do not eat animals that have been strangled. <sup>21</sup>They should not do these things, because there are still men in every city who teach the law of Moses. For a long time the words of Moses have been read in the synagogue<sup>d</sup> every Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day."

Letter to Non-Jewish Believers

<sup>22</sup>The apostles,<sup>d</sup> the elders,<sup>d</sup> and the whole church decided to send some of their men with Paul and Barnabas to Antioch. They chose Judas Barsabbas and Silas, who were respected by the believers. <sup>23</sup>They sent the following letter with them:

<sup>n</sup>giving up eating This is called "fasting." The people would give up eating for a special time of prayer and worship to God. It was also done to show sadness.

From the apostles and elders, your brothers.
To all the non-Jewish brothers in Antioch,
Syria and Cilicia:

Dear Brothers,

<sup>24</sup>We have heard that some of our men have come to you and said things that trouble and upset you. But we did not tell them to do this! <sup>25</sup>We have all agreed to choose some men and send them to you. They will be with our dear friends Barnabas and Paul— <sup>26</sup>men who have given their lives to serve our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>27</sup>So we have sent Judas and Silas with them. They will tell you the same things. <sup>28</sup>It has pleased the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> that you should not have a heavy load to carry, and we agree. You need to do only these things: <sup>29</sup>Do not eat any food that has been offered to idols. Do not taste blood. Do not eat any animals that have been strangled. Do not take part in any kind of sexual sin. If you stay away from these things, you will do well.

Good-bye.

<sup>30</sup>So the men left Jerusalem and went to Antioch. There they gathered the church and gave them the letter. <sup>31</sup>When they read it, they were very happy because of the encouraging letter. <sup>32</sup>Judas and Silas were also prophets,<sup>d</sup> who said many things to encourage the believers and make them stronger. <sup>33</sup>After some time Judas and Silas were sent off in peace by the believers. They went back to those who had sent them. <sup>34</sup> <sup>n</sup>

Paul and Barnabas Separate

<sup>36</sup>After some time, Paul said to Barnabas, "We preached the message of the Lord in many towns. We should go back to all those towns to visit the believers and see how they are doing."

<sup>37</sup>Barnabas wanted to take John Mark with them too. <sup>38</sup>But John Mark had left them at Pamphylia; he did not continue with them in the work. So Paul did not think it was a good idea to take him. <sup>39</sup>Paul and Barnabas had a serious argument about this. They separated and went different ways. Barnabas sailed to Cyprus and took Mark with him. <sup>40</sup>But Paul chose Silas and left. The believers in Antioch put Paul into the Lord's care. <sup>41</sup>And he went through Syria and Cilicia, giving strength to the churches.

Timothy Goes with Paul and Silas

16 Paul came to Derbe and Lystra. A follower named Timothy was there. Timothy's mother was Jewish and a believer. His father was a Greek.

<sup>2</sup>The brothers in Lystra and Iconium respected Timothy and said good things about him. <sup>3</sup>Paul wanted Timothy to travel with him. But all the Jews living in that area knew that Timothy's father was Greek. So Paul circumcised<sup>d</sup> Timothy to please the Jews. <sup>4</sup>Paul and the men with him traveled from town to town. They gave the decisions made by the apostles<sup>d</sup> and elders<sup>d</sup> in Jerusalem for the people to obey. <sup>5</sup>So the churches became stronger in the faith and grew larger every day.

Paul Is Called Out of Asia

<sup>6</sup>Paul and the men with him went through the areas of Phrygia and Galatia. The Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> did not let them preach the Good News<sup>d</sup> in the country of Asia. <sup>7</sup>When they came near the country of Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia. But the Spirit of Jesus did not let them. <sup>8</sup>So they passed by Mysia and went to Troas. <sup>9</sup>That night Paul had a vision. In the vision, a man from Macedonia came to him. The man stood there and begged, "Come over to Macedonia. Help us!" <sup>10</sup>After Paul had seen the vision, we immediately prepared to leave for Macedonia. We understood that God had called us to tell the Good News to those people.

Lydia Becomes a Christian

<sup>11</sup>We left Troas in a ship, and we sailed straight to the island of Samothrace. The next day we sailed to Neapolis. <sup>n</sup> <sup>12</sup>Then we went by land to Philippi, the leading city in that part of Macedonia. It is also a Roman colony. <sup>n</sup> We stayed there for several days.

<sup>13</sup>On the Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day we went outside the city gate to the river. There we thought we would find a special place for prayer. Some women had gathered there, so we sat down and talked with them. <sup>14</sup>There was a woman named Lydia from the city of Thyatira. Her job was selling purple cloth. She worshiped the true God. The Lord opened her mind to pay attention to what Paul was saying. <sup>15</sup>She and all the people in her house were baptized. Then

Lydia invited us to her home. She said, "If you think I am truly a believer in the Lord, then come stay in my house." And she persuaded us to stay with her.

Paul and Silas in Jail

<sup>16</sup>Once, while we were going to the place for prayer, a servant girl met us. She had a special spirit<sup>a</sup> in her. She earned a lot of money for her owners by telling fortunes. <sup>17</sup>This girl followed Paul and us. She said loudly, "These men are servants of the Most High God! They are telling you how you can be saved!"

<sup>18</sup>She kept this up for many days. This bothered Paul, so he turned and said to the spirit, "By the power of Jesus Christ, I command you to come out of her!" Immediately, the spirit came out.

<sup>19</sup>The owners of the servant girl saw this. These men knew that now they could not use her to make money. So they grabbed Paul and Silas and dragged them before the city rulers in the marketplace. <sup>20</sup>Here they brought Paul and Silas to the Roman rulers and said, "These men are Jews and are making trouble in our city. <sup>21</sup>They are teaching things that are not right for us as Romans to do." <sup>22</sup>The crowd joined the attack against them. The Roman officers tore the clothes of Paul and Silas and had them beaten with rods again and again. <sup>23</sup>Then Paul and Silas were thrown into jail. The jailer was ordered to guard them carefully. <sup>24</sup>When he heard this order, he put them far inside the jail. He pinned down their feet between large blocks of wood.

<sup>25</sup>About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing songs to God. The other prisoners were listening to them. <sup>26</sup>Suddenly, there was a big earthquake. It was so strong that it shook the foundation of the jail. Then all the doors of the jail broke open. All the prisoners were freed from their chains. <sup>27</sup>The jailer woke up and saw that the jail doors were open. He thought that the prisoners had already escaped. So he got his sword and was about to kill himself.<sup>a</sup> <sup>28</sup>But Paul shouted, "Don't hurt yourself! We are all here!"

<sup>29</sup>The jailer told someone to bring a light. Then he ran inside. Shaking with fear, he fell down before Paul and Silas. <sup>30</sup>Then he brought them outside and said, "Men, what must I do to be saved?"

<sup>31</sup>They said to him, "Believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved—you and all the people in your house." <sup>32</sup>So Paul and Silas told the message of the Lord to the jailer and all the people in his house. <sup>33</sup>At that hour of the night the jailer took Paul and Silas and washed their wounds. Then he and all his people were baptized immediately. <sup>34</sup>After this the jailer took Paul and Silas home and gave them food. He and his family were very happy because they now believed in God.

<sup>35</sup>The next morning, the Roman officers sent the police to tell the jailer, "Let these men go free!"

<sup>36</sup>The jailer said to Paul, "The officers have sent an order to let you go free. You can leave now. Go in peace."

<sup>37</sup>But Paul said to the police, "They beat us in public without a trial, even though we are Roman citizens.<sup>a</sup> And they threw us in jail. Now they want to make us go away quietly. No! Let them come themselves and bring us out!"

<sup>38</sup>The police told the Roman officers what Paul said. When the officers heard that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens, they were afraid. <sup>39</sup>So they came and told Paul and Silas they were sorry. They took Paul and Silas out of jail and asked them to leave the city. <sup>40</sup>So when they came out of the jail, they went to Lydia's house. There they saw some of the believers and encouraged them. Then they left.

Paul and Silas in Thessalonica

17 Paul and Silas traveled through Amphipolis and Apollonia and came to Thessalonica. In that city there was a Jewish synagogue.<sup>d</sup> <sup>2</sup>Paul went into the synagogue as he always did. On each Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day for three weeks, Paul talked with the Jews about the Scriptures.<sup>d</sup> <sup>3</sup>He explained and proved that the Christ<sup>d</sup> must die and then rise from death. He said, "This Jesus I am telling you about is the Christ." <sup>4</sup>Some of the Jews were convinced and joined Paul and Silas. Many of the Greeks who worshiped the true God and many of the important women joined them.

<sup>5</sup>But the Jews became jealous. They got some evil men from the marketplace, formed a mob and started a riot. They ran to Jason's house, looking for Paul and Silas. The men wanted to bring Paul and Silas out to the people. <sup>6</sup>But they did not find them. So they dragged Jason and some other believers to the leaders of the city. The people were yelling, "These men have made trouble everywhere in the world. And now they have come here too! Jason is keeping them in his house. All of them do things against the laws of Caesar." They say that there is another king called Jesus."

<sup>8</sup>When the people and the leaders of the city heard these things, they became very upset. <sup>9</sup>They made Jason and the others put up a sum of money. Then they let the believers go free.

Paul and Silas Go to Berea

<sup>10</sup>That same night the believers sent Paul and Silas to Berea. There Paul and Silas went to the Jewish synagogue. <sup>11</sup>These Jews were better than the Jews in Thessalonica. They were eager to hear the things Paul and Silas said. These Jews in Berea studied the Scriptures<sup>d</sup> every day to find out if these things were true. <sup>12</sup>So, many of them believed. Many important Greek men and women also believed. <sup>13</sup>But when the Jews in Thessalonica learned that Paul was preaching the word of God in Berea, they came there, too. They upset the people and made trouble. <sup>14</sup>So the believers quickly sent Paul away to the coast. But Silas and Timothy stayed in Berea. <sup>15</sup>The men who took Paul went with him to Athens. Then they carried a message from Paul back to Silas and Timothy. It said, "Come to me as soon as you can."

Paul Preaches in Athens

<sup>16</sup>Paul was waiting for Silas and Timothy in Athens. He was troubled because he saw that the city was full of idols. <sup>17</sup>In the synagogue,<sup>d</sup> he talked with the Jews and the Greeks who worshiped the true God. He also talked every day with people in the marketplace.

<sup>18</sup>Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers<sup>a</sup> argued with him. Some of them said, "This man doesn't know what he is talking about. What is he trying to say?" Paul was telling them the Good News<sup>d</sup> of Jesus' rising from death. They said, "He seems to be telling us about some other gods." <sup>19</sup>They got Paul and took him to a meeting of the Areopagus.<sup>e</sup> They said, "Please explain to us this new idea that you have been teaching. <sup>20</sup>The things you are saying are new to us. We want to know what this teaching means." <sup>21</sup>(All the people of Athens and those from other countries always used their time talking about all the newest ideas.)

<sup>a</sup>Epicurean and Stoic philosophers Philosophers were those who searched for truth. Epicureans believed that pleasure, especially pleasures of the mind, were the goal of life. Stoics believed that life should be without feelings of joy or grief.

<sup>22</sup>Then Paul stood before the meeting of the Areopagus. He said, "Men of Athens, I can see that you are very religious in all things. <sup>23</sup>I was going through your city, and I saw the things you worship. I found an altar that had these words written on it: "TO THE GOD WHO IS NOT KNOWN." You worship a god that you don't know. This is the God I am telling you about! <sup>24</sup>He is the God who made the whole world and everything in it. He is the Lord of the land and the sky. He does not live in temples that men build! <sup>25</sup>This God is the One who gives life, breath, and everything else to people. He does not need any help from them. He has everything he needs. <sup>26</sup>God began by making one man. From him came all the different people who live everywhere in the world. He decided exactly when and where they must live. <sup>27</sup>God wanted them to look for him and perhaps search all around for him and find him. But he is not far from any of us: <sup>28</sup>'We live in him. We walk in him. We are in him.' Some of your own poets have said: 'For we are his children.' <sup>29</sup>We are God's children. So, you must not think that God is like something that people imagine or make. He is not like gold, silver, or rock. <sup>30</sup>In the past, people did not understand God, but God ignored this. But now, God tells everyone in the world to change his heart and life. <sup>31</sup>God has decided on a day that he will judge all the world. He will be fair. He will use a man to do this. God chose that man long ago. And God has proved this to everyone by raising that man from death!"

<sup>32</sup>When the people heard about Jesus being raised from death, some of them laughed. They said, "We will hear more about this from you later." <sup>33</sup>So Paul went away from them. <sup>34</sup>But some of the people believed Paul and joined him. One of those who believed was Dionysius, a member of the Areopagus. Also a woman named Damaris and some others believed.

Paul in Corinth

18 Later, Paul left Athens and went to Corinth. <sup>2</sup>Here he met a Jew named Aquila. Aquila was born in the country of Pontus. But Aquila and his wife, Priscilla, had recently moved to Corinth from Italy. They left Italy because Claudius<sup>a</sup> commanded that all Jews must leave Rome. Paul went to visit Aquila and Priscilla. <sup>3</sup>They were tentmakers, just as he was. He stayed with them and worked with them. <sup>4</sup>Every Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day he talked with the Jews and Greeks in the synagogue.<sup>d</sup> Paul tried to persuade these people to believe in Jesus.

<sup>5</sup>Silas and Timothy came from Macedonia and joined Paul in Corinth. After this, Paul used all his time telling people the Good News.<sup>d</sup> He showed the Jews that Jesus is the Christ.<sup>d</sup> <sup>6</sup>But they would not accept Paul's teaching and said some evil things. So he shook off the dust from his clothes.<sup>a</sup> He said to them, "If you are not saved, it will be your own fault! I have done all I can do! After this, I will go only to non-Jewish people!" <sup>7</sup>Paul left the synagogue and moved into the home of Titius Justus. It was next to the synagogue. This man worshiped the true God.<sup>8</sup> Crispus was the leader of that synagogue. He and all the people living in his house believed in the Lord. Many others in Corinth also listened to Paul. They too believed and were baptized.

<sup>9</sup>During the night, Paul had a vision. The Lord said to him, "Don't be afraid! Continue talking to people and don't be quiet! <sup>10</sup>I am with you. No one will hurt you because many of my people are in this city." <sup>11</sup>Paul stayed there for a year and a half, teaching God's word to the people.

Paul Is Brought Before Gallio

<sup>12</sup>Gallio became the governor of the country of Southern Greece. At that time, some of the Jews came together against Paul and took him to the court. <sup>13</sup>They said to Gallio, "This man is teaching people to worship God in a way that is against our law!"

<sup>14</sup>Paul was about to say something, but Gallio spoke to the Jews. Gallio said, "I would listen to you Jews if you were complaining about a crime or some wrong. <sup>15</sup>But the things you are saying are only questions about words and names—arguments about your own law. So you must solve this problem yourselves. I don't want to be a judge of these things!" <sup>16</sup>Then Gallio made them leave the court.

<sup>17</sup>Then they all grabbed Sosthenes. (Sosthenes was now the leader of the synagogue.<sup>d</sup>) They beat him there before the court. But this did not bother Gallio.

Paul Returns to Antioch

<sup>18</sup>Paul stayed with the believers for many more days. Then he left and sailed for Syria. Priscilla and Aquila went with him. At Cenchrea, Paul cut off his hair.<sup>a</sup> This showed that he had made a promise to God. <sup>19</sup>Then they went to Ephesus, where Paul left Priscilla and Aquila. While Paul was there, he went into the synagogue<sup>d</sup> and talked with the Jews. <sup>20</sup>When they asked him to stay with them longer, he refused. <sup>21</sup>He left them, but he said, "I will come back to you again if God wants me to." And so he sailed away from Ephesus.

<sup>22</sup>Paul landed at Caesarea. Then he went and gave greetings to the church in Jerusalem. After that, Paul went to Antioch. <sup>23</sup>He stayed there for a while and then left and went through the countries of Galatia and Phrygia. He traveled from town to town in these countries, giving strength to all the followers.

Apollos in Ephesus and Corinth

<sup>24</sup>A Jew named Apollos came to Ephesus. He was born in the city of Alexandria. He was an educated man who knew the Scriptures<sup>d</sup> well. <sup>25</sup>He had been taught about the Lord. He was always very excited when he spoke and taught the truth about Jesus. But the only baptism that Apollos knew about was the baptism that John<sup>n</sup> taught. <sup>26</sup>Apollos began to speak very boldly in the synagogue,<sup>d</sup> and Priscilla and Aquila heard him. So they took him to their home and helped him better understand the way of God. <sup>27</sup>Now Apollos wanted to go to the country of Southern Greece, so the believers helped him. They wrote a letter to the followers there, asking them to accept him. These followers had believed in Jesus because of God's grace. When Apollos went there, he helped them very much. <sup>28</sup>He argued very strongly with the Jews before all the people. Apollos clearly proved that the Jews were wrong. Using the Scriptures, he proved that Jesus is the Christ.<sup>d</sup>

Paul in Ephesus

19 While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul was visiting some places on the way to Ephesus. There he found some followers. <sup>2</sup>Paul asked them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> when you believed?"

They said, "We have never even heard of a Holy Spirit!"

<sup>3</sup>So he asked, "What kind of baptism did you have?"

They said, "It was the baptism that John<sup>n</sup> taught."

<sup>4</sup>Paul said, "John's baptism was a baptism of

<sup>c</sup>cut . . . hair Jews did this to show that the time of a special promise to God was finished.

changed hearts and lives. He told people to believe in the One who would come after him. That One is Jesus.”

<sup>5</sup>When they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>6</sup>Then Paul laid his hands on them, <sup>a</sup> and the Holy Spirit came upon them. They began speaking different languages and prophesying. <sup>d</sup> <sup>7</sup>There were about 12 men in this group.

<sup>8</sup>Paul went into the synagogue <sup>d</sup> and spoke out boldly for three months. He talked with the Jews and persuaded them to accept the things he said about the kingdom of God. <sup>9</sup>But some of the Jews became stubborn and refused to believe. These Jews said evil things about the Way of Jesus. All the people heard these things. So Paul left them and took the followers with him. He went to a place where a man named Tyrannus had a school. There Paul talked with people every day <sup>10</sup>for two years. Because of his work, every Jew and Greek in the country of Asia heard the word of the Lord.

The Sons of Sceva

<sup>13-14</sup>But some Jews also were traveling around and making evil spirits go out of people. The seven sons of Sceva were doing this. (Sceva was a leading Jewish priest.) These Jews tried to use the name of the Lord Jesus to force the evil spirits out. They would say, “By the same Jesus that Paul talks about, I order you to come out!”

<sup>15</sup>But one time an evil spirit said to these Jews, “I know Jesus, and I know about Paul, but who are you?”

<sup>16</sup>Then the man, who had the evil spirit in him, jumped on these Jews. He was much stronger than all of them. He beat them and tore their clothes off, so they ran away from the house. <sup>17</sup>All the people in Ephesus, Jews and Greeks, learned about this. They were filled with fear. And the people gave great honor to the Lord Jesus. <sup>18</sup>Many of the believers began to confess openly and tell all the evil things they had done. <sup>19</sup>Some of them had used magic. These believers brought their magic books and burned them before everyone. Those books were worth about 50,000 silver coins. <sup>n</sup>

<sup>20</sup>So in a powerful way the word of the Lord kept spreading and growing.

Paul Plans a Trip

<sup>21</sup>After these things, Paul made plans to go to Jerusalem. He planned to go through the countries of Macedonia and Southern Greece, and then on to Jerusalem. He said, “After I have been to Jerusalem, I must also visit Rome.”

Trouble in Ephesus

<sup>23</sup>But during that time, there was some serious trouble in Ephesus about the Way of Jesus.

<sup>24</sup>There was a man named Demetrius, who worked with silver. He made little silver models that looked like the temple of the goddess Artemis. <sup>n</sup> The men who did this work made much money. <sup>25</sup>Demetrius had a meeting with these men and some others who did the same kind of work. He told them, “Men, you know that we make a lot of money from our business.

<sup>26</sup>But look at what this man Paul is doing! He has convinced and turned away many people in Ephesus and in almost all of Asia! He says the gods that men make are not real. <sup>27</sup>There is a danger that our business will lose its good name. But there is also another danger: People will begin to think that the temple of the great goddess Artemis is not important! Her greatness will be destroyed. And Artemis is the goddess that everyone in Asia and the whole world worships.”

<sup>28</sup>When the men heard this, they became very angry. They shouted, “Artemis, the goddess of Ephesus, is great!” <sup>29</sup>The whole city became confused. The people grabbed Gaius and Aristarchus. (These two men were from Macedonia and were traveling with Paul.) Then all the people ran to the theater. <sup>30</sup>Paul wanted to go in and talk to the crowd, but the followers did not let him. <sup>31</sup>Also, some leaders of Asia were friends of Paul. They sent him a message, begging him not to go into the theater. <sup>32</sup>Some people were shouting one thing, and some were shouting another. The meeting was completely confused. Most of the people did not know why they had come together. <sup>33</sup>The Jews put a man named Alexander in front of the people. Some of them had told him what to do. Alexander waved his hand because he wanted to explain things to the people. <sup>34</sup>But when they saw that Alexander was a Jew, they all began shouting the same thing. They continued shouting for two hours: "Great is Artemis of Ephesus!"

<sup>n</sup>50,000 silver coins Probably drachmas. One coin was enough to pay a man for working one day.

<sup>35</sup>Then the city clerk made the crowd be quiet. He said, "Men of Ephesus, everyone knows that Ephesus is the city that keeps the temple of the great goddess Artemis. All people know that we also keep her holy stone<sup>a</sup> that fell from heaven. <sup>36</sup>No one can say that this is not true. So you should be quiet. You must stop and think before you do anything. <sup>37</sup>You brought these men here, but they have not said anything evil against our goddess. They have not stolen anything from her temple. <sup>38</sup>We have courts of law, and there are judges. Do Demetrius and the men who work with him have a charge against anyone? They should go to the courts! That is where they can argue with each other! <sup>39</sup>Is there something else you want to talk about? It can be decided at the regular town meeting of the people. <sup>40</sup>I say this because some people might see this trouble today and say that we are rioting. We could not explain this because there is no real reason for this meeting." <sup>41</sup>After the city clerk said these things, he told the people to go home.

Paul In Macedonia and Greece

20 When the trouble stopped, Paul sent for the followers to come to him. He encouraged them and then told them goodbye. Paul left and went to the country of Macedonia. <sup>2</sup>He said many things to strengthen the followers in the different places on his way through Macedonia. Then he went to Southern Greece. <sup>3</sup>He stayed there three months. He was ready to sail for Syria, but some Jews were planning something against him. So Paul decided to go back through Macedonia to Syria. <sup>4</sup>Some men went with him. They were Sopater son of Pyrrhus, from the city of Berea; Aristarchus and Secundus, from the city of Thessalonica; Gaius, from Derbe; and Timothy; and Tychicus and Trophimus, two men from the country of Asia. <sup>5</sup>These men went first, ahead of Paul, and waited for us at Troas. <sup>6</sup>We sailed from Philippi after the Feast<sup>d</sup> of Unleavened Bread and we met them in Troas five days later. We stayed there seven days.

Paul's Last Visit to Troas

<sup>7</sup>On the first day of the week,<sup>a</sup> we all met together to break bread.<sup>n</sup> Paul spoke to the group. Because he was planning to leave the next day, he kept on talking till midnight. <sup>8</sup>We were all together in a room upstairs, and there were many lamps in the room. <sup>9</sup>A young man named Eutychus was sitting in the window. As Paul continued talking, Eutychus was falling into a deep sleep. Finally, he went sound asleep and fell to the ground from the third floor. When they picked him up, he was dead. <sup>10</sup>Paul went down to Eutychus. He knelt down and put his arms around him. He said, "Don't worry. He is alive now."<sup>11</sup> Then Paul went upstairs again, broke bread, and ate. He spoke to them a long time, until it was early morning. Then he left. <sup>12</sup>They took the young man home alive and were greatly comforted.

The Trip from Troas to Miletus

<sup>13</sup>We sailed for the city of Assos. We went first, ahead of Paul. He wanted to join us on the ship there. Paul planned it this way because he wanted to go to Assos by land. <sup>14</sup>When he met us at Assos, we took him aboard and went to Mitylene. <sup>15</sup>The next day, we sailed from Mitylene and came to a place near Chios. The next day, we sailed to Samos. A day later, we reached Miletus. <sup>16</sup>Paul had already decided not to stop at Ephesus. He did not want to stay too long in the country of Asia. He was hurrying to be in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost,<sup>d</sup> if that was possible.

The Elders from Ephesus

<sup>17</sup>Now from Miletus Paul sent to Ephesus and called for the elders<sup>d</sup> of the church. <sup>18</sup>When they came to him, he said, "You know about my life from the first day I came to Asia. You know the way I lived all the time I was with you. <sup>19</sup>The Jews made plans against me. This troubled me very much. But you know that I always served the Lord. I never thought of myself first, and I often cried. <sup>20</sup>You know I preached to you, and I did not hold back anything that would help you. You know that I taught you in public and in your homes. <sup>21</sup>I warned both Jews and Greeks to change their lives and turn to God. And I told them all to believe in our Lord Jesus. <sup>22</sup>But now I must obey the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> and go to Jerusalem. I don't know what will happen to me there. <sup>23</sup>I know only that in every city the Holy Spirit tells me that troubles and even jail wait for me. <sup>24</sup>I don't care about my own life. The most important thing is that I complete my mission. I want to finish the work that the Lord Jesus gave me—to tell people the Good News<sup>d</sup> about God's grace.

<sup>a</sup>holy stone Probably a meteorite or stone that the people thought looked like Artemis.

<sup>n</sup>first day of the week Sunday, which for the Jews began at sunset on our Saturday. But if in this part of Asia a different system of time was used, then the meeting was on our Sunday night.

<sup>25</sup>“And now, I know that none of you will ever see me again. All the time I was with you, I was preaching the kingdom of God. <sup>26</sup>So today I can tell you one thing that I am sure of: If any of you should be lost, I am not responsible. <sup>27</sup>This is because I have told you everything God wants you to know. <sup>28</sup>Be careful for yourselves and for all the people God has given you. The Holy Spirit gave you the work of caring for this flock. You must be like shepherds to the church of God.<sup>a</sup> This is the church that God bought with his own death. <sup>29</sup>I know that after I leave, some men will come like wild wolves and try to destroy the flock. <sup>30</sup>Also, men from your own group will rise up and twist the truth. They will lead away followers after them. <sup>31</sup>So be careful! Always remember this: For three years I never stopped warning each of you. I taught you night and day. I often cried over you.

<sup>32</sup>“Now I am putting you in the care of God and the message about his grace. That message is able to give you strength, and it will give you the blessings that God has for all his holy people. <sup>33</sup>When I was with you, I never wanted anyone's money or fine clothes. <sup>34</sup>You know that I always worked to take care of my own needs and the needs of those who were with me. <sup>35</sup>I showed you in all things that you should work as I did and help the weak. I taught you to remember the words of Jesus. He said, ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’”

<sup>36</sup>When Paul had said this, he knelt down with all of them and prayed. <sup>37-38</sup>And they all cried because Paul had said that they would never see him again. They put their arms around him and kissed him. Then they went with him to the ship.

Paul Goes to Jerusalem

21 We all said good-bye to them and left. We sailed straight to Cos island. The next day, we reached Rhodes, and from Rhodes we went to Patara. <sup>2</sup>There we found a ship that was going to Phoenicia. We went aboard and sailed away. <sup>3</sup>We sailed near the island of Cyprus. We could see it to the north, but we sailed on to Syria. We stopped at Tyre because the ship needed to unload its cargo there. <sup>4</sup>We found some followers in Tyre, and we stayed with them for seven days. Through the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> they warned Paul not to go to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>When we finished our visit, we left and continued our trip. All the followers, even the women and children, came outside the city with us. We all knelt down on the beach and prayed. <sup>6</sup>Then we said good-bye and got on the ship. The followers went back home.

<sup>7</sup>We continued our trip from Tyre and arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the believers there and stayed with them for a day. <sup>8</sup>We left Ptolemais and went to the city of Caesarea. There we went into the home of Philip and stayed with him. Philip had the work of telling the Good News.<sup>d</sup> He was one of the seven helpers.<sup>a</sup> <sup>9</sup>He had four unmarried daughters who had the gift of prophesying.<sup>d</sup> <sup>10</sup>After we had been there for some time, a prophet named Agabus arrived from Judea. <sup>11</sup>He came to us and borrowed Paul's belt. Then he used the belt to tie his own hands and feet. He said, “The Holy Spirit says, ‘This is how the Jews in Jerusalem will tie up the man who wears this belt. Then they will give him to the non-Jewish people.’”

<sup>12</sup>We all heard these words. So we and the people there begged Paul not to go to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup>But he said, “Why are you crying and making me so sad? I am ready to be tied up in Jerusalem. And I am ready to die for the Lord Jesus!”

<sup>14</sup>We could not persuade him to stay away from Jerusalem. So we stopped begging him and said, “We pray that what the Lord wants will be done.”

<sup>15</sup>After this, we got ready and started on our way to Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup>Some of the followers from Caesarea went with us. They took us to the home of Mnason, a man from Cyprus. Mnason was one of the first followers. They took us to his home so that we could stay with him.

Paul Visits James

<sup>17</sup>In Jerusalem the believers were glad to see us. <sup>18</sup>The next day, Paul went with us to visit James. All the elders<sup>d</sup> were there, too. <sup>19</sup>Paul greeted them and told them everything that God had done among the non-Jewish people through him. <sup>20</sup>When they heard this, they praised God. Then they said to Paul, "Brother, you can see that many thousands of Jews have become believers. But they think it is very important to obey the law of Moses.<sup>21</sup> These Jews have heard about your teaching. They heard that you tell the Jews who live among non-Jews to leave the law of Moses. They heard that you tell them not to circumcise<sup>d</sup> their children and not to obey Jewish customs.<sup>22</sup> What should we do? The Jewish believers here will learn that you have come.<sup>23</sup> So we will tell you what to do: Four of our men have made a promise to God.<sup>24</sup> Take these men with you and share in their cleansing ceremony.<sup>n</sup> Pay their expenses. Then they can shave their heads.<sup>n</sup> Do this and it will prove to everyone that what they have heard about you is not true. They will see that you follow the law of Moses in your own life.<sup>25</sup> We have already sent a letter to the non-Jewish believers. The letter said: 'Do not eat food that has been offered to idols. Do not taste blood. Do not eat animals that have been strangled. Do not take part in any kind of sexual sin.'<sup>26</sup>

<sup>26</sup>Then Paul took the four men with him. The next day, he shared in the cleansing ceremony. Then he went to the Temple.<sup>d</sup> Paul announced the time when the days of the cleansing ceremony would be finished. On the last day an offering would be given for each of the men.

<sup>27</sup>The seven days were almost over. But some Jews from Asia saw Paul at the Temple. They caused all the people to be upset, and they grabbed Paul.<sup>28</sup> They shouted, "Men of Israel, help us! This is the man who goes everywhere teaching things that are against the law of Moses, against our people, and against this Temple. And now he has brought some Greek men into the Temple. He has made this holy place unclean!"<sup>d</sup> <sup>29</sup>(The Jews said this because they had seen Trophimus with Paul in Jerusalem. Trophimus was a man from Ephesus. The Jews thought that Paul had brought him into the Temple.)

<sup>30</sup>All the people in Jerusalem became very upset. They ran and took Paul and dragged him out of the Temple. The Temple doors were closed immediately.<sup>31</sup> The people were about to kill Paul. Now the commander of the Roman army in Jerusalem learned that there was trouble in the whole city.<sup>32</sup> Immediately he ran to the place where the crowd was gathered. He brought officers and soldiers with him. When the people saw them, they stopped beating Paul.<sup>33</sup> The commander went to Paul and arrested him. He told his soldiers to tie Paul with two chains. Then he asked, "Who is this man? What has he done wrong?"<sup>34</sup> Some in the crowd were yelling one thing, and some were yelling another. Because of all this confusion and shouting, the commander could not learn what had happened. So he ordered the soldiers to take Paul to the army building.<sup>35-36</sup> The whole mob was following them. When Paul came to the steps, the soldiers had to carry him because the people were ready to hurt him. They were shouting, "Kill him!"

<sup>37</sup>The soldiers were about to take Paul into the army building. But he spoke to the commander, "May I say something to you?"

The commander said, "Do you speak Greek?<sup>38</sup> I thought you were the Egyptian who started some trouble against the government not long ago. He led 4,000 killers out to the desert."

<sup>39</sup>Paul said, "No, I am a Jew from Tarsus in the country of Cilicia. I am a citizen of that important city. Please, let me speak to the people."

<sup>40</sup>The commander gave permission, so Paul stood on the steps. He waved with his hand so that the people would be quiet. When there was silence, Paul spoke to them in the Jewish language.<sup>n</sup>

Paul Speaks to the People

22 Paul said, "Brothers and fathers, listen to me! I will make my defense to you."<sup>2</sup> When the Jews heard him speaking the Jewish language,<sup>n</sup> they became very quiet. Paul said, <sup>3</sup>"I am a Jew. I was born in Tarsus in the country of Cilicia. I grew up in this city. I was a student of Gamaliel.<sup>n</sup> He carefully taught me everything about the law of our ancestors. I was very serious about serving God, just as are all of you here today. <sup>4</sup>I hurt the people who followed the Way of Jesus. Some of them were even killed. I arrested men and women and put them in jail. <sup>5</sup>The high priest and the whole council of older Jewish leaders can tell you that this is true. These leaders gave me letters to the Jewish brothers in Damascus. So I was going there to arrest these people and bring them back to Jerusalem to be punished.

<sup>6</sup>"About noon when I came near Damascus, suddenly a bright light from heaven flashed all around me. <sup>7</sup>I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying, 'Saul, Saul, why are you doing things against me?' <sup>8</sup>I asked, 'Who are you, Lord?' The voice said, 'I am Jesus from Nazareth. I am the One you are trying to hurt.' <sup>9</sup>The men who were with me did not understand the voice. But they saw the light. <sup>10</sup>I said, 'What shall I do, Lord?' The Lord answered, 'Get up and go to Damascus. There you will be told about all the things I have planned for you to do.' <sup>11</sup>I could not see, because the bright light had made me blind. So the men led me into Damascus.

<sup>12</sup>"There a man named Ananias came to me. He was a religious man; he obeyed the law of Moses. All the Jews who lived there respected him. <sup>13</sup>Ananias came to me, stood by me, and said, 'Brother Saul, see again!' Immediately I was able to see him. <sup>14</sup>Ananias told me, 'The God of our fathers chose you long ago. He chose you to know his plan. He chose you to see the Righteous One and to hear words from him. <sup>15</sup>You will be his witness to all people. You will tell them about the things you have seen and heard. <sup>16</sup>Now, why wait any longer? Get up, be baptized, and wash your sins away. Do this, trusting in him to save you.'

<sup>22</sup>The crowd listened to Paul until he said this. Then they began shouting, "Kill him! Get him out of the world! A man like this should not be allowed to live!" <sup>23</sup>They shouted and threw off their coats.<sup>a</sup> They threw dust into the air.<sup>n</sup>

<sup>24</sup>Then the commander ordered the soldiers to take Paul into the army building and beat him. The commander wanted to make Paul tell why the people were shouting against him like this. <sup>25</sup>So the soldiers were tying him up, preparing to beat him. But Paul said to an officer there, "Do you have the right to beat a Roman citizen<sup>n</sup> who has not been proven guilty?"

<sup>26</sup>When the officer heard this, he went to the commander and told him about it. The officer said, "Do you know what you are doing? This man is a Roman citizen!"

<sup>27</sup>The commander came to Paul and said, "Tell me, are you really a Roman citizen?" He answered, "Yes."

<sup>28</sup>The commander said, "I paid a lot of money to become a Roman citizen."

But Paul said, "I was born a citizen."

<sup>29</sup>The men who were preparing to question Paul moved away from him immediately. The commander was frightened because he had already tied Paul, and Paul was a Roman citizen.

Paul Speaks to Jewish Leaders

<sup>30</sup>The next day the commander decided to learn why the Jews were accusing Paul. So he ordered the leading priests and the Jewish council to meet. The commander took Paul's chains off. Then he brought Paul out and stood him before their meeting.

23 Paul looked at the Jewish council and said, "Brothers, I have lived my life in a good way before God up to this day." <sup>2</sup>Ananias,<sup>n</sup> the high priest, heard this and told the men who were standing near Paul to hit him on his mouth. <sup>3</sup>Paul said to Ananias, "God will hit you too! You are like a wall that has been painted white! You sit there and judge me, using the law of Moses. But you are telling them to hit me, and that is against the law."

<sup>4</sup>The men standing near Paul said to him, "You cannot talk like that to God's high priest! You are insulting him!"

<sup>5</sup>Paul said, "Brothers, I did not know this man was the high priest. It is written in the Scriptures,<sup>d</sup> 'You must not curse a leader of your people.'"<sup>n</sup>

<sup>6</sup>Some of the men in the meeting were Sadducees,<sup>d</sup> and others were Pharisees.<sup>d</sup> So Paul shouted to them, "My brothers, I am a Pharisee and my father was a Pharisee! I am on trial here because I hope that people will rise from death!"

<sup>7</sup>When Paul said this, there was an argument between the Pharisees and the Sadducees. The group was divided. <sup>8</sup>(The Sadducees believe that after people die, they cannot live again. The Sadducees also teach that there are no angels or spirits. But the Pharisees believe in them all.)<sup>9</sup> So there was a great uproar. Some of the teachers of the law, who were Pharisees, stood up and argued, "We find nothing wrong with this man! Maybe an angel or a spirit did speak to him."

<sup>10</sup>The argument was beginning to turn into a fight. The commander was afraid that the Jews would tear Paul to pieces. So the commander told the soldiers to go down and take Paul away and put him in the army building.

<sup>11</sup>The next night the Lord came and stood by Paul. He said, "Be brave! You have told people in Jerusalem about me. You must do the same in Rome also."

<sup>12</sup>In the morning some of the Jews made a plan to kill Paul. They made a promise that they would not eat or drink anything until they had killed him.<sup>13</sup> There were more than 40 Jews who made this plan.<sup>14</sup> They went and talked to the leading priests and the older Jewish leaders. They said, "We have made a promise to ourselves that we will not eat or drink until we have killed Paul!<sup>15</sup> So this is what we want you to do: Send a message to the commander to bring Paul out to you. Tell him you want to ask Paul more questions. We will be waiting to kill him while he is on the way here."

<sup>16</sup>But Paul's nephew heard about this plan. He went to the army building and told Paul about it.<sup>17</sup> Then Paul called one of the officers and said, "Take this young man to the commander. He has a message for him."

<sup>18</sup>So the officer brought Paul's nephew to the commander. The officer said, "The prisoner, Paul, asked me to bring this young man to you. He wants to tell you something."

<sup>19</sup>The commander led the young man to a place where they could be alone. The commander asked, "What do you want to tell me?"

<sup>20</sup>The young man said, "The Jews have decided to ask you to bring Paul down to their council meeting tomorrow. They want you to think that they are going to ask him more questions.<sup>21</sup> But don't believe them! There are more than 40 men who are hiding and waiting to kill Paul. They have all made a promise not to eat or drink until they have killed him! Now they are waiting for you to agree."

<sup>22</sup>The commander sent the young man away. He said to him, "Don't tell anyone that you have told me about their plan."

Paul Is Sent to Caesarea

<sup>23</sup>Then the commander called two officers.

He said to them, "I need some men to go to Caesarea. Get 200 soldiers ready. Also, get 70 horsemen and 200 men with spears. Be ready to leave at nine o'clock tonight.<sup>24</sup> Get some horses for Paul to ride. He must be taken to Governor Felix safely."<sup>25</sup> And he wrote a letter that said:

To the Most Excellent Governor Felix: Greetings.

<sup>27</sup>The Jews had taken this man, and they planned to kill him. But I learned that he is a Roman citizen, so I went with my soldiers and saved him.<sup>28</sup> I wanted to know why they were accusing him. So I brought him before their council meeting.<sup>29</sup> I learned that the Jews said Paul did some things that were wrong. But these charges were about their own laws. And no charge was worthy of jail or death.<sup>30</sup> I was told that some of the Jews were planning to kill Paul. So I sent him to you at once. I also told those Jews to tell you what they have against him.

<sup>31</sup>So the soldiers did what they were told. They took Paul and brought him to the city of Antipatris that night.<sup>32</sup> The next day the horsemen went with Paul to Caesarea. But the other soldiers went back to the army building in Jerusalem.<sup>33</sup> The horsemen came to Caesarea and gave the letter to the governor. Then they turned Paul over to him.<sup>34</sup> The governor read the letter. Then he asked Paul, "What area are you from?" He learned that Paul was from Cilicia.<sup>35</sup> He said, "I will hear your case when those who are against you come here too." Then the governor gave orders for Paul to be kept under guard in the palace. (This building had been built by Herod.)

The Jews Accuse Paul

24 Five days later Ananias, the high priest, went to the city of Caesarea. With him were some of the older Jewish leaders and a lawyer named Tertullus. They had come to make charges against Paul before the governor.<sup>2</sup> Paul was called into the meeting, and Tertullus began to accuse him, saying: "Most Excellent Felix! Our people enjoy much peace because of you, and many wrong things in our country are being made right through your wise help.<sup>3</sup> We accept these things always and in every place. And we are thankful for them.<sup>4</sup> But I do not want to take any more of your time. I beg you to be kind and listen to our few words.<sup>5</sup> This man is a troublemaker. He makes trouble among the Jews everywhere in the world. He is a leader of the Nazarene<sup>a</sup> group.

<sup>9</sup>Also, he was trying to make the Temple<sup>d</sup> unclean,<sup>d</sup> but we stopped him. <sup>8</sup>You can decide if all these things are true. Ask him some questions yourself.” <sup>9</sup>The other Jews agreed and said that all of this was true.

<sup>10</sup>The governor made a sign for Paul to speak. So Paul said, “Governor Felix, I know that you have been a judge over this nation for a long time. So I am happy to defend myself before you. <sup>11</sup>I went to worship in Jerusalem only 12 days ago. You can learn for yourself that this is true. <sup>12</sup>Those who are accusing me did not find me arguing with anyone in the Temple. I was not stirring up the people. And I was not making trouble in the Temple or in the synagogues<sup>d</sup> or in the city. <sup>13</sup>They cannot prove the things they are saying against me now. <sup>14</sup>But I will tell you this: I worship the God of our ancestors as a follower of the Way of Jesus. The Jews say that the Way of Jesus is not the right way. But I believe everything that is taught in the law of Moses and that is written in the books of the Prophets.<sup>d</sup> <sup>15</sup>I have the same hope in God that they have—the hope that all people, good and bad, will be raised from death. <sup>16</sup>This is why I always try to do what I believe is right before God and men.

<sup>17</sup>“I was away from Jerusalem for several years. I went back there to bring money to my people and to offer sacrifices. <sup>18</sup>I was doing this when they found me in the Temple. I had finished the cleansing ceremony. I had not made any trouble; no people were gathering around me. <sup>19</sup>But some Jews from the country of Asia were there. They should be here, standing before you. If I have really done anything wrong, they are the ones who should accuse me. <sup>20</sup>Or ask these Jews here if they found any wrong in me when I stood before the Jewish council in Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup>But I did say one thing when I stood before them: ‘You are judging me today because I believe that people will rise from death!’”

<sup>22</sup>Felix already understood much about the Way of Jesus. He stopped the trial and said, “When commander Lysias comes here, I will decide about your case.” <sup>23</sup>Felix told the officer to keep Paul guarded. But he told the officer to give Paul some freedom and to let his friends bring what he needed.

Paul Speaks to Felix and His Wife

<sup>24</sup>After some days Felix came with his wife, Drusilla, who was a Jew. He asked for Paul to be brought to him. He listened to Paul talk about believing in Christ Jesus. <sup>25</sup>But Felix became afraid when Paul spoke about things like right living, self-control, and the time when God will judge the world. He said, “Go away now. When I have more time, I will call for you.” <sup>26</sup>At the same time Felix hoped that Paul would give him some money. So he sent for Paul often and talked with him.

<sup>27</sup>But after two years, Porcius Festus became governor. Felix was no longer governor, but he had left Paul in prison to please the Jews.

Paul Asks to See Caesar

25 Three days after Festus became governor, he went from Caesarea to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup>There the leading priests and the important Jewish leaders made charges against Paul before Festus. <sup>3</sup>They asked Festus to do something for them; they wanted him to send Paul back to Jerusalem. (They had a plan to kill Paul on the way.) <sup>4</sup>But Festus answered, “No! Paul will be kept in Caesarea. I will return there soon myself. <sup>5</sup>Some of your leaders should go with me. They can accuse the man there in Caesarea, if he has really done something wrong.”

<sup>6</sup>Festus stayed in Jerusalem another eight or ten days. Then he went back to Caesarea. The next day he told the soldiers to bring Paul before him. Festus was seated on the judge’s seat <sup>7</sup>when Paul came into the room. The Jews who had come from Jerusalem stood around him. They started making serious charges against Paul. But they could not prove any of them. <sup>8</sup>This is what Paul said to defend himself: “I have done nothing wrong against the Jewish law, against the Temple,<sup>d</sup> or against Caesar!”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>9</sup>But Festus wanted to please the Jews. So he asked Paul, “Do you want to go to Jerusalem? Do you want me to judge you there on these charges?”

<sup>10</sup>Paul said, “I am standing at Caesar’s judgment seat now. This is where I should be judged! I have done nothing wrong to the Jews; you know this is true. <sup>11</sup>If I have done something wrong and the law says I must die, I do not ask to be saved from death. But if these charges are not true, then no one can give me to them. No! I want Caesar to hear my case!”

<sup>12</sup>Festus talked about this with the people who advised him. Then he said, “You have asked to see Caesar; so you will go to Caesar!”

<sup>d</sup>Verse 6 Some Greek copies add 6b-8a: “And we wanted to judge him by our own law. <sup>7</sup>But the officer Lysias came and used much force to take him from us. <sup>8</sup>And Lysias commanded his people to come to you to accuse us.”

Paul Before King Agrippa

<sup>13</sup>A few days later King Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea to visit Festus. <sup>14</sup>They stayed there for some time, and Festus told the king about Paul's case. Festus said, "There is a man that Felix left in prison. <sup>15</sup>When I went to Jerusalem, the leading priests and the older Jewish leaders there made charges against him. They wanted me to sentence him to death.

<sup>16</sup>"But I answered, 'When a man is accused of a crime, Romans do not hand him over just to please someone. The man must be allowed to face his accusers and defend himself against their charges.' <sup>17</sup>So these Jews came here to Caesarea for the trial. And I did not waste time. The next day I sat on the judge's seat and commanded that the man be brought in. <sup>18</sup>The Jews stood up and accused him. But they did not accuse him of any serious crime as I thought they would. <sup>19</sup>The things they said were about their own religion and about a man named Jesus. Jesus died, but Paul said that he is still alive. <sup>20</sup>I did not know much about these things; so I did not ask questions. But I asked Paul, 'Do you want to go to Jerusalem and be judged there?' <sup>21</sup>But he asked to be kept in Caesarea. He wants a decision from the Emperor.<sup>a</sup> So I ordered that Paul be held until I could send him to Caesar<sup>d</sup> in Rome."

Festus said, "Tomorrow you will hear him!"

<sup>23</sup>The next day Agrippa and Bernice appeared. They dressed and acted like very important people. Agrippa and Bernice, the army leaders, and the important men of Caesarea went into the judgment room. Then Festus ordered the soldiers to bring Paul in. <sup>24</sup>Festus said, "King Agrippa and all who are gathered here with us, you see this man. All the Jewish people, here and in Jerusalem, have complained to me about him. They shout that he should not live any longer. <sup>25</sup>When I judged him, I could find nothing wrong. I found no reason to order his death. But he asked to be judged by Caesar. So I decided to send him. <sup>26</sup>But I have nothing definite to write the Emperor about him. So I have brought him before all of you—especially you, King Agrippa. I hope that you can question him and give me something to write. <sup>27</sup>I think it is foolish to send a prisoner to Caesar without telling what the charges are against him."

Paul Defends Himself

26 Agrippa said to Paul, "You may now speak to defend yourself."

Then Paul raised his hand and began to speak. <sup>2</sup>He said, "King Agrippa, I will answer all the charges that the Jews make against me. I think it is a blessing that I can stand here before you today. <sup>3</sup>I am very happy to talk to you, because you know so much about all the Jewish customs and the things that the Jews argue about. Please listen to me patiently.

<sup>4</sup>"All the Jews know about my whole life. They know the way I lived from the beginning in my own country and later in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup>They have known me for a long time. If they want to, they can tell you that I was a good Pharisee.<sup>d</sup> And the Pharisees obey the laws of the Jewish religion more carefully than any other group of Jewish people. <sup>6</sup>Now I am on trial because I hope for the promise that God made to our ancestors. <sup>7</sup>This is the promise that the 12 tribes<sup>d</sup> of our people hope to receive. For this hope the Jews serve God day and night. My king, the Jews have accused me because I hope for this same promise! <sup>8</sup>Why do any of you people think it is impossible for God to raise people from death?

<sup>9</sup>"I too thought I ought to do many things against Jesus from Nazareth. <sup>10</sup>And in Jerusalem I did many things against God's people. The leading priests gave me the power to put many of them in jail. When they were being killed, I agreed that it was a good thing. <sup>11</sup>In every synagogue,<sup>d</sup> I often punished them. I tried to make them say evil things against Jesus. I was so angry against them that I even went to other cities to find them and punish them.

<sup>12</sup>"One time the leading priests gave me permission and the power to go to Damascus. <sup>13</sup>On the way there, at noon, I saw a light from heaven. The light was brighter than the sun. It flashed all around me and the men who were traveling with me. <sup>14</sup>We all fell to the ground. Then I heard a voice speaking to me in the Jewish language.<sup>a</sup> The voice said, 'Saul, Saul, why are you doing things against me? You are only hurting yourself by fighting me.' <sup>15</sup>I said, 'Who are you, Lord?' The Lord said, 'I am Jesus. I am the One you are trying to hurt. <sup>16</sup>Stand up! I have chosen you to be my servant. You will be my witness—you will tell people the things that you have seen and the things that I will show you. This is why I have come to you today. <sup>17</sup>I will not let your own people hurt you. And I will keep you safe from the non-Jewish people too. These are the people I am sending you to. <sup>18</sup>I send you to open their eyes that they may turn away from darkness to the light. I send you that they may turn away from the power of Satan and turn to God. Then their sins can be forgiven and they can have a place with those people who have been made holy by believing in me.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>19</sup>“King Agrippa, after I had this vision from heaven, I obeyed it. <sup>20</sup>I began telling people that they should change their hearts and lives and turn to God. I told them to do things to show that they really had changed. I told this first to those in Damascus, then in Jerusalem and in every part of Judea, and also to the non-Jewish people. <sup>21</sup>This is why the Jews took me and were trying to kill me in the Temple.<sup>2</sup> <sup>22</sup>But God helped me and is still helping me today. With God’s help I am standing here today and telling all people what I have seen. But I am saying nothing new. I am saying what Moses and the prophets<sup>3</sup> said would happen. <sup>23</sup>They said that the Christ<sup>4</sup> would die and be the first to rise from death. They said that the Christ would bring light to the Jewish and non-Jewish people.”

Paul Tries to Persuade Agrippa

<sup>24</sup>While Paul was saying these things to defend himself, Festus said loudly, “Paul, you are out of your mind! Too much study has driven you crazy!”

<sup>25</sup>Paul said, “Most Excellent Festus, I am not crazy. My words are true. They are not the words of a foolish man. <sup>26</sup>King Agrippa knows about these things. I can speak freely to him. I know that he has heard about all of these things. They did not happen off in a corner. <sup>27</sup>King Agrippa, do you believe what the prophets<sup>5</sup> wrote? I know you believe!”

<sup>28</sup>King Agrippa said to Paul, “Do you think you can persuade me to become a Christian in such a short time?”

<sup>29</sup>Paul said, “Whether it is a short or a long time, I pray to God that not only you but every person listening to me today would be saved and be like me—except for these chains I have!”

each other. They said, “There is no reason why this man should die or be put in jail.” <sup>32</sup>And Agrippa said to Festus, “We could let this man go free, but he has asked Caesar<sup>6</sup> to hear his case.”

Paul Sails for Rome

27 It was decided that we would sail for Italy. An officer named Julius, who served in the Emperor’s<sup>7</sup> army, guarded Paul and some other prisoners. <sup>2</sup>We got on a ship and left. The ship was from the city of Adramyttium and was about to sail to different ports in the country of Asia. Aristarchus, a man from the city of Thessalonica in Macedonia, went with us. <sup>3</sup>The next day we came to Sidon. Julius was very good to Paul. He gave Paul freedom to go visit his friends, who took care of his needs. <sup>4</sup>We left Sidon and sailed close to the island of Cyprus because the wind was blowing against us. <sup>5</sup>We went across the sea by Cilicia and Pamphylia. Then we came to the city of Myra, in Lycia. <sup>6</sup>There the officer found a ship from Alexandria that was going to Italy. So he put us on it.

<sup>7</sup>We sailed slowly for many days. We had a hard time reaching Cnidus because the wind was blowing against us. We could not go any farther that way. So we sailed by the south side of the island of Crete near Salmone. <sup>8</sup>We sailed along the coast, but the sailing was hard. Then we came to a place called Safe Harbors, near the city of Lasea.

<sup>9</sup>But we had lost much time. It was now dangerous to sail, because it was already after the Day of Cleansing.<sup>8</sup> So Paul warned them, <sup>10</sup>“Men, I can see there will be a lot of trouble on this trip. The ship and the things in the ship will be lost. Even our lives may be lost!” <sup>11</sup>But the captain and the owner of the ship did not agree with Paul. So the officer did not believe Paul. Instead, the officer believed what the captain and owner of the ship said. <sup>12</sup>And that harbor was not a good place for the ship to stay for the winter. So most of the men decided that the ship should leave. The men hoped we could go to Phoenix. The ship could stay there for the winter. (Phoenix was a city on the island of Crete. It had a harbor which faced southwest and northwest.)

The Storm

south. The men on the ship thought, "This is the wind we wanted, and now we have it!" So they pulled up the anchor. We sailed very close to the island of Crete. <sup>14</sup>But then a very strong wind named the "Northeaster" came from the island. <sup>15</sup>This wind took the ship and carried it away. The ship could not sail against it. So we stopped trying and let the wind blow us. <sup>16</sup>We went below a small island named Cauda. Then we were able to bring in the lifeboat, but it was very hard to do. <sup>17</sup>After the men took the lifeboat in, they tied ropes around the ship to hold it together. The men were afraid that the ship would hit the sandbanks of Syrtis.<sup>a</sup> So they lowered the sail and let the wind carry the ship. <sup>18</sup>The next day the storm was blowing us so hard that the men threw out some of the cargo. <sup>19</sup>A day later they threw out the ship's equipment. <sup>20</sup>For many days we could not see the sun or the stars. The storm was very bad. We lost all hope of staying alive—we thought we would die.

<sup>21</sup>The men had gone without food for a long time. Then one day Paul stood up before them and said, "Men, I told you not to leave Crete. You should have listened to me. Then you would not have all this trouble and loss. <sup>22</sup>But now I tell you to cheer up. None of you will die! But the ship will be lost. <sup>23</sup>Last night an angel from God came to me. This is the God I worship, and I am his. <sup>24</sup>God's angel said, 'Paul, do not be afraid! You must stand before Caesar.'<sup>d</sup> And God has given you this promise: He will save the lives of all those men sailing with you.' <sup>25</sup>So men, be cheerful! I trust in God. Everything will happen as I angel told me. <sup>26</sup>But we will crash on an island."

be saved!" <sup>32</sup>So the soldiers cut the ropes and let the lifeboat fall into the water.

<sup>33</sup>Just before dawn Paul began persuading all the people to eat something. He said, "For the past 14 days you have been waiting and watching. You have not eaten. <sup>34</sup>Now I beg you to eat something. You need it to stay alive. None of you will lose even one hair off your heads." <sup>35</sup>After he said this, Paul took some bread and thanked God for it before all of them. He broke off a piece and began eating. <sup>36</sup>All the men felt better and started eating too. <sup>37</sup>(There were 276 people on the ship.) <sup>38</sup>We ate all we wanted. Then we began making the ship lighter by throwing the grain into the sea.

The Ship Is Destroyed

<sup>39</sup>When daylight came, the sailors saw land. They did not know what land it was, but they saw a bay with a beach. They wanted to sail the ship to the beach, if they could. <sup>40</sup>So they cut the ropes to the anchors and left the anchors in the sea. At the same time, they untied the ropes that were holding the rudders. Then they raised the front sail into the wind and sailed toward the beach. <sup>41</sup>But the ship hit a sandbank. The front of the ship stuck there and could not move. Then the big waves began to break the back of the ship to pieces.

<sup>42</sup>The soldiers decided to kill the prisoners so that none of them could swim away and escape. <sup>43</sup>But Julius, the officer, wanted to let Paul live. He did not allow the soldiers to kill the prisoners. Instead he ordered everyone who could swim to jump into the water and swim to land. <sup>44</sup>The rest used wooden boards or pieces of the ship. And this is how all the people made it safely to land.

Paul on the Island of Malta

28 When we were safe on land, we learned that the island was called Malta. <sup>2</sup>It was raining and very cold. But the people who lived there were very good to us. They made us a fire and welcomed all of us. <sup>3</sup>Paul gathered a pile of sticks for the fire. He was putting them on the fire when a poisonous snake came out because of the heat and bit him on the hand. <sup>4</sup>The people living on the island saw the snake hanging from Paul's hand. They said to each other, "This man must be a murderer! He did not die in the sea, but Justice<sup>n</sup> does not want him to live." <sup>5</sup>But Paul shook the snake off into the fire. He was not hurt. <sup>6</sup>The people thought that Paul would swell up or fall down dead. The people waited and watched him for a long time, but nothing bad happened to him. So they changed their minds about Paul. Now they said, "He is a god!"

<sup>7</sup>There were some fields around there owned by a very important man on the island. His name was Publius. He welcomed us into his home and was very good to us. We stayed in his house for three days. <sup>8</sup>Publius' father was very sick with a fever and dysentery. <sup>a</sup>But Paul went to him and prayed. Then he put his hands on the man and healed him. <sup>9</sup>After this, all the other sick people on the island came to Paul, and he healed them, too. <sup>10-11</sup>The people on the island gave us many honors. We stayed there three months. When we were ready to leave, they gave us the things we needed.

Paul Goes to Rome

We got on a ship from Alexandria. The ship had stayed on the island during the winter. On the front of the ship was the sign of the twin gods. <sup>a</sup><sup>12</sup>We stopped at Syracuse for three days and then left. <sup>13</sup>From there we sailed to Rhegium. The next day a wind began to blow from the southwest, so we were able to leave. A day later we came to Puteoli. <sup>14</sup>We found some believers there, and they asked us to stay with them for a week. Finally, we came to Rome. <sup>15</sup>The believers in Rome heard that we were there. They came out as far as the Market of Appius <sup>a</sup> and the Three Inns <sup>a</sup> to meet us. When Paul saw them, he was encouraged and thanked God.

Paul in Rome

<sup>16</sup>Then we arrived at Rome. There, Paul was allowed to live alone. But a soldier stayed with him to guard him.

<sup>17</sup>Three days later Paul sent for the Jewish leaders there. When they came together, he said, "Brothers, I have done nothing against our people. I have done nothing against the customs of our fathers. But I was arrested in Jerusalem and given to the Romans. <sup>18</sup>The Romans asked me many questions. But they could find no reason why I should be killed. They wanted to let me go free, <sup>19</sup>but the Jews there did not want that. So I had to ask to come to Rome to have my trial before Caesar. <sup>d</sup>But I have no charge to bring against my own people. <sup>20</sup>That is why I wanted to see you and talk with you. I am bound with this chain because I believe in the hope of Israel."

<sup>21</sup>The Jews answered Paul, "We have received no letters from Judea about you. None of our Jewish brothers who have come from there brought news about you or told us anything bad about you. <sup>22</sup>We want to hear your ideas. We know that people everywhere are speaking against this religious group."

<sup>23</sup>Paul and the Jews chose a day for a meeting. On that day many more of the Jews met with Paul at the place he was staying. Paul spoke to them all day long, explaining the kingdom of God to them. He tried to persuade them to believe these things about Jesus. He used the law of Moses and the writings of the prophets <sup>d</sup> to do this. <sup>24</sup>Some of the Jews believed what Paul said, but others did not. <sup>25</sup>So they argued, and the Jews were ready to leave. But Paul said one more thing to them: "The Holy Spirit <sup>d</sup> spoke the truth to your fathers through Isaiah the prophet. He said, <sup>26</sup>Go to this people and say:

You will listen and listen, but you will not understand.

You will look and look, but you will not learn.

<sup>27</sup>For these people have become stubborn.

They don't hear with their ears.

And they have closed their eyes.

Otherwise, they might really understand what they see with their eyes and hear with their ears.

They might really understand in their minds.

If they did this, they would come back to me and be forgiven.' Isaiah 6:9-10

<sup>28</sup>"I want you Jews to know that God has also sent his salvation to the non-Jewish people. They will listen!" <sup>29</sup> <sup>a</sup>

<sup>30</sup>Paul stayed two full years in his own rented house. He welcomed all people who came and visited him. <sup>31</sup>He preached about the kingdom of God and taught about the Lord Jesus Christ. He was very bold, and no one tried to stop him from speaking.

God's Plan to Save Us

1 From Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus. God called me to be an apostle<sup>d</sup> and chose me to tell the Good News.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>7</sup>This letter is to all of you in Rome whom God loves and has called to be his holy people.

May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ show you kindness and give you peace.

A Prayer of Thanks

<sup>8</sup>First I want to say that I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you. I thank God because people everywhere in the world are talking about your great faith. <sup>9,10</sup>God knows that every time I pray I always mention you. God is the One I serve with my whole heart by telling the Good News<sup>d</sup> about his Son. I pray that I will be allowed to come to you, and this will happen if God wants it. <sup>11</sup>I want very much to see you, to give you some spiritual gift to make you strong. <sup>12</sup>I mean that I want us to help each other with the faith that we have. Your faith will help me, and my faith will help you. <sup>13</sup>Brothers, I want you to know that I planned many times to come to you. But this has not been possible. I wanted to come so that I could help you grow spiritually. I wanted to help you as I have helped the other non-Jewish people.

<sup>14</sup>I must serve all people—Greeks and non-Greeks, the wise and the foolish. <sup>15</sup>That is why I want so much to preach the Good News to you in Rome.

<sup>16</sup>I am proud of the Good News. It is the power God uses to save everyone who believes—to save the Jews first, and also to save the non-Jews. <sup>17</sup>The Good News shows how God makes people right with himself. God's way of making people right with him begins and ends with faith. As the Scripture<sup>d</sup> says, "The person who is made right with God by faith will live forever."<sup>a</sup>

All People Have Done Wrong

<sup>18</sup>God's anger is shown from heaven against all the evil and wrong things that people do. By their own evil lives they hide the truth. <sup>19</sup>God shows his anger because everything that may be known about God has been made clear. Yes, God has clearly shown them everything that may be known about him. <sup>20</sup>There are things about God that people cannot see—his eternal power and all the things that make him God. But since the beginning of the world those things have been easy to understand. They are made clear by what God has made. So people have no excuse for the bad things they do. <sup>21</sup>They knew God. But they did not give glory to God, and they did not thank him. Their thinking became useless. Their foolish minds were filled with darkness. <sup>22</sup>They said they were wise, but they became fools. <sup>23</sup>They gave up the glory of God who lives forever. They traded that glory for the worship of idols made to look like earthly people. They traded God's glory for things that look like birds, animals, and snakes.

<sup>24</sup>People were full of sin, wanting only to do evil. So God let them go their sinful way. They became full of sexual sin, using their bodies wrongly with each other. <sup>25</sup>They traded the truth of God for a lie and worshiped and served things that were made by man. But they did not worship and serve the God who made those things. God should be praised forever. Amen.

<sup>28</sup>People did not think it was important to have a true knowledge of God. So God left them and allowed them to have their own worthless thinking. And so those people do the things that they should not do. <sup>29</sup>They are filled with every kind of sin, evil, selfishness, and hatred. They are full of jealousy, murder, fighting, lying, and thinking the worst about each other. They gossip <sup>30</sup>and say evil things about each other. They hate God. They are rude and conceited and brag about themselves. They invent ways of doing evil. They do not obey their parents. <sup>31</sup>They are foolish, they do not keep their promises, and they show no kindness or mercy to other people. <sup>32</sup>They know God's law says that those who live like this should die. But they continue to do these evil things. And they also feel that those who do these things are doing right.

You People Also Are Sinful

2 If you think that you can judge others, then you are wrong. You too are guilty of sin. You judge people, but you do the same bad things they do. So when you judge them, you are really judging yourself guilty. <sup>2</sup>God judges those who do wrong things. And we know that God's judging is right. <sup>3</sup>You judge those who do wrong, but you do wrong yourselves. Do you think you will be able to escape the judgment of God? <sup>4</sup>God has been very kind to you, and he has been patient with you. God has been waiting for you to change. But you think nothing of his kindness. Perhaps you do not understand that God is kind to you so that you will change your hearts and lives. <sup>5</sup>But you are hard and stubborn and refuse to change. So you are making your own punishment greater and greater on the day God shows his anger. On that day all people will see God's right judgments. <sup>6</sup>God will reward or punish every person for what he has done. <sup>7</sup>Some people live for God's glory, for honor, and for life that has no end. They live for those things by always continuing to do good. God will give life forever to them. <sup>8</sup>But other people are selfish and refuse to follow truth. They follow evil. God will give them his punishment and anger. <sup>9</sup>He will give trouble and suffering to everyone who does evil—to the Jews first and also to the non-Jews. <sup>10</sup>But God will give glory, honor, and peace to everyone who does good—to the Jews first and also to the non-Jews. <sup>11</sup>For God judges all people in the same way.

<sup>12</sup>People who have God's law and those who have never heard of the law are all the same when they sin. Those who do not have the law and are sinners will be lost. And, in the same way, people who have the law and are sinners will be judged by the law. <sup>13</sup>Hearing the law does not make people right with God. The law makes people right with God only if they obey what the law says. <sup>14</sup>(The non-Jews do not have the law. But when they freely do things that the law commands, then they are the law for themselves. This is true even though they do not have the law. <sup>15</sup>They show that in their hearts they know what is right and wrong, just as the law commands. And they also show this by the way they feel about right and wrong. Sometimes their thoughts tell them they did wrong. And sometimes their thoughts tell them they did right.) <sup>16</sup>All these things will happen on the day when God will judge the secret thoughts of people's hearts. The Good News<sup>d</sup> that I preach says that God will judge everyone through Christ Jesus.

The Jews and the Law

<sup>17</sup>What about you? You call yourself a Jew. You trust in the law of Moses and brag that you are close to God. <sup>18</sup>You know what God wants you to do. And you know the things that are important because you have learned the law. <sup>19</sup>You think you are a guide for the blind and a light for those who are in darkness. <sup>20</sup>You think you can show foolish people what is right and teach those who know nothing. You have the law; so you think you know everything and have all truth. <sup>21</sup>You teach other people. So why don't you teach yourself? You tell others not to steal. But you steal. <sup>22</sup>You say that others must not take part in adultery.<sup>d</sup> But you are guilty of that sin. You hate idols. But you steal from temples. <sup>23</sup>You brag about having God's law. But you bring shame to God by breaking his law. <sup>24</sup>It is written in the Scriptures:<sup>d</sup> "The non-Jews speak against God's name because of you Jews."<sup>n</sup>

<sup>25</sup>If you follow the law, then your circumcision<sup>d</sup> has meaning. But if you break the law, then it is as if you were never circumcised. <sup>26</sup>The non-Jews are not circumcised. But if they do what the law says, then it is as if they were circumcised. <sup>27</sup>You Jews have the written law and circumcision, but you break the law. So those who are not circumcised in their bodies, but still obey the law, will show that you are guilty.

Jew in his physical body. True circumcision is not only on the outside of the body. <sup>29</sup>A person is a true Jew only if he is a Jew inside. True circumcision is done in the heart by the Spirit,<sup>4</sup> not by the written law. Such a person gets praise from God, not from other people.

3 So, do Jews have anything that other people do not have? Is there anything special about being circumcised? <sup>2</sup>Yes, of course, there is in every way. The most important thing is this: God trusted the Jews with his teachings. <sup>3</sup>It is true that some Jews were not faithful to God. But will that stop God from doing what he promised? <sup>4</sup>No! God will continue to be true even when every person is false. As the Scriptures<sup>d</sup> say:

“So your words may be shown to be right. You are fair when you judge me.” Psalm 51:4

<sup>5</sup>When we do wrong, that shows more clearly that God is right. So can we say that God is wrong to punish us? (I am talking as men might talk.) <sup>6</sup>No! If God could not punish us, then God could not judge the world.

<sup>7</sup>A person might say, “When I lie, it really gives God glory, because my lie shows God’s truth. So why am I judged a sinner?” <sup>8</sup>It would be the same to say, “We should do evil so that good will come.” Some people find fault with us and say that we teach this. Those who say such things about us are wrong, and they should be punished.

All People Are Guilty

<sup>9</sup>So are we Jews better than others? No! We have already said that Jews and non-Jews are the same. They are all guilty of sin. <sup>10</sup>As the Scriptures<sup>d</sup> say:

“There is no one without sin. None!

<sup>11</sup> There is no one who understands.

There is no one who looks to God for help.

<sup>12</sup>All have turned away,

Together, everyone has become evil.

None of them does anything good.” Psalm 14:1-3

They use their tongues for telling lies.”

Psalm 5:9

“Their words are like snake’s poison.”

Psalm 140:3

<sup>14</sup> “Their mouths are full of cursing and hate.”

<sup>16</sup> Everywhere they go they cause ruin and misery.

Isaiah 59:7-8

<sup>18</sup> “They have no fear of or respect for God.”

Psalm 36:1

<sup>19</sup>The law commands many things. We know that those commands are for those who are under the law. This stops all excuses and brings the whole world under God’s judgment, <sup>20</sup>because no one can be made right with God by following the law. The law only shows us our sin.

How God Makes People Right

<sup>21</sup>But God has a way to make people right with him without the law. And God has now shown us that way which the law and the prophets<sup>d</sup> told us about. <sup>22</sup>God makes people right with himself through their faith in Jesus Christ. This is true for all who believe in Christ, because all are the same. <sup>23</sup>All people have sinned and are not good enough for God’s glory. <sup>24</sup>People are made right with God by his grace, which is a free gift. They are made right with God by being made free from sin through Jesus Christ. <sup>25</sup>God gave Jesus as a way to forgive sin through faith. And all of this is because of the blood of Jesus’ death. This showed that God always does what is right and fair. God was right in the past when he was patient and did not punish people for their sins. <sup>26</sup>And God gave Jesus to show today that God does what is right. God did this so that he could judge rightly and also make right any person who has faith in Jesus.

<sup>27</sup>So do we have a reason to brag about ourselves? No! And why not? It is the way of faith that stops all bragging, not the way of following the law. <sup>28</sup>A person is made right with God through faith, not through what he does to follow the law. <sup>29</sup>Is God only the God of the Jews? Is he not also the God of the non-Jews? <sup>30</sup>Of course he is, for there is only one God. He will make Jews right with him by their faith. And he will also make non-Jews right with him through their faith. <sup>31</sup>So do we destroy the law by following the way of faith? No! Faith causes us to be what the law truly wants.

The Example of Abraham

4 So what can we say about Abraham,<sup>a</sup> the father of our people? What did he learn about faith? <sup>2</sup>If Abraham was made right by the things he did, then he had a reason to brag. But he could not brag before God. <sup>3</sup>The Scripture<sup>d</sup> says, "Abraham believed God. And that faith made him right with God."<sup>n</sup> <sup>4</sup>When a person works, his pay is not given to him as a gift. He earns the pay he gets. <sup>5</sup>But a person cannot do any work that will make him right with God. So he must trust in God. Then God accepts his faith, and that makes him right with God. God is the One who can make even those who are evil right in his sight. <sup>6</sup>David said the same thing. He said that a person is truly blessed when God does not look at what he has done but accepts him as good: <sup>7</sup>"Happy are they whose sins are forgiven, whose wrongs are pardoned.

<sup>8</sup>Happy is the person whom the Lord does not consider guilty."

Psalm 32:1-2

<sup>9</sup>Is this blessing only for those who are circumcised?<sup>d</sup> Or is it also for those who are not circumcised? We have already said that God accepted Abraham's faith, and that faith made him right with God. <sup>10</sup>So how did this happen? Did God accept Abraham before or after he was circumcised? God accepted him before his circumcision. <sup>11</sup>Abraham was circumcised later to show that God accepted him. His circumcision was proof that he was right with God through faith before he was circumcised. So Abraham is the father of all those who believe but are not circumcised. He is the father of all believers who are accepted as being right with God. <sup>12</sup>And Abraham is also the father of those who have been circumcised. But it is not their circumcision that makes him their father. He is their father only if they live following the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

God Keeps His Promise

<sup>13</sup>Abraham<sup>n</sup> and his descendants<sup>d</sup> received the promise that they would get the whole world. But Abraham did not receive that promise through the law. He received it because he was right with God through his faith. <sup>14</sup>If people could receive what God promised by following the law, then faith is worthless. And God's promise to Abraham is worthless, <sup>15</sup>because the law can only bring God's anger. But if there is no law, then there is nothing to disobey.

<sup>16</sup>So people receive God's promise by having faith. This happens so that the promise can be a free gift. And if the promise is a free gift, then all of Abraham's children can have that promise. The promise is not only for those people that live under the law of Moses. It is for anyone who lives with faith like Abraham. He is the father of us all. <sup>17</sup>As it is written in the Scriptures:<sup>d</sup> "I am making you a father of many nations."<sup>n</sup> This is true before God. Abraham believed in God—the God who gives life to the dead and decides that things will happen that have not yet happened.

<sup>18</sup>There was no hope that Abraham would have children. But Abraham believed God and continued hoping. And that is why he became the father of many nations. As God told him, "Your descendants will also be too many to count."<sup>n</sup> <sup>19</sup>Abraham was almost 100 years old, much past the age for having children. Also, Sarah could not have children. Abraham thought about all this. But his faith in God did not become weak. <sup>20</sup>He never doubted that God would keep his promise. Abraham never stopped believing. He grew stronger in his faith and gave praise to God. <sup>21</sup>Abraham felt sure that God was able to do the thing that God promised. <sup>22</sup>So, "God accepted Abraham's faith, and that made him right with God."<sup>n</sup> <sup>23</sup>Those words ["God accepted Abraham's faith"] were written not only for Abraham. <sup>24</sup>They were written also for us. God will accept us also because we believe. We believe in the One who raised Jesus our Lord from death. <sup>25</sup>Jesus was given to die for our sins. And he was raised from death to make us right with God.

Right with God

5 We have been made right with God because of our faith. So we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>2</sup>Through our faith, Christ has brought us into that blessing of God's grace that we now enjoy. And we are happy because of the hope we have of sharing God's glory. <sup>3</sup>And we also have joy with our troubles because we know that these troubles produce patience. <sup>4</sup>And patience produces character, and character produces hope. <sup>5</sup>And this hope will never disappoint us, because God has poured out his love to fill our hearts. God gave us his love through the Holy Spirit,<sup>d</sup> whom God has given to us.

<sup>6</sup>Christ died for us while we were still weak. We were living against God, but at the right time, Christ died for us. <sup>7</sup>Very few people will die to save the life of someone else. Although perhaps for a good man someone might possibly die. <sup>8</sup>But Christ died for us while we were still sinners. In this way God shows his great love for us.

<sup>9</sup>We have been made right with God by the blood of Christ's death. So through Christ we will surely be saved from God's anger. <sup>10</sup>I mean that while we were God's enemies, God made friends with us through the death of his Son. Surely, now that we are God's friends, God will save us through his Son's life. <sup>11</sup>And not only that, but now we are also very happy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through Jesus we are now God's friends again.

Adam and Christ Compared

<sup>12</sup>Sin came into the world because of what one man did. And with sin came death. And this is why all men must die—because all men sinned. <sup>13</sup>Sin was in the world before the law of Moses. But God does not judge people guilty of sin if there is no law. <sup>14</sup>But from the time of Adam to the time of Moses, everyone had to die. Adam died because he sinned by not obeying God's command. But even those who did not sin in the same way had to die.

Adam was like the One who was coming in the future. <sup>15</sup>But God's free gift is not like Adam's sin. Many people died because of the sin of that one man. But the grace that they received from God was much greater. Many people received God's gift of life by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ. <sup>16</sup>After Adam sinned once, he was judged guilty. But the gift of God is different. God's free gift came after many sins. And the gift makes people right with God. <sup>17</sup>One man sinned, and so death ruled all people because of that one man. But now some people accept God's full grace and the great gift of being made right with him. They will surely have true life and rule through the one man, Jesus Christ.

<sup>18</sup>So one sin of Adam brought the punishment of death to all people. But in the same way, one good act that Christ did makes all people right with God. And that brings true life for all. <sup>19</sup>One man disobeyed God, and many became sinners. But in the same way, one man obeyed God, and many will be made right. <sup>20</sup>The law came to make people have more sin. But when people had more sin, God gave them more of his grace. <sup>21</sup>Sin once used death to rule us. But God gave people more of his grace so that grace could rule by making people right with him. And this brings life forever through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Dead to Sin but Alive in Christ

6 So do you think that we should continue sinning so that God will give us more and more grace? <sup>2</sup>No! We died to our old sinful lives. So how can we continue living with sin? <sup>3</sup>Did you forget that all of us became part of Christ when we were baptized? We shared his death in our baptism. <sup>4</sup>So when we were baptized, we were buried with Christ and shared his death. We were buried with him so that we could live a new life, just as Christ was raised from death by the wonderful power of the Father.

<sup>5</sup>Christ died, and we have been joined with Christ by dying too. So we will also be joined with him by rising from death as he did. <sup>6</sup>We know that our old life died with Christ on the cross. This was so that our sinful selves would have no power over us, and we would not be slaves to sin. <sup>7</sup>Anyone who has died is made free from sin's control.

<sup>8</sup>If we died with Christ, we know that we will also live with him. <sup>9</sup>Christ was raised from death. And we know that he cannot die again. Death has no power over him now. <sup>10</sup>Yes, when Christ died, he died to defeat the power of sin one time—enough for all time. He now has a new life, and his new life is with God. <sup>11</sup>In the same way, you should see yourselves as being dead to the power of sin and alive with God through Christ Jesus.

<sup>12</sup>So, do not let sin control you in your life here on earth. You must not be ruled by the things your sinful self makes you want to do. <sup>13</sup>Do not offer the parts of your body to serve sin. Do not use your bodies as things to do evil with, but offer yourselves to God. Be like people who have died and now live. Offer the parts of your body to God to be used for doing good. <sup>14</sup>Sin will not be your master, because you are not under law but under God's grace.

Be Slaves of Righteousness

<sup>15</sup>So what should we do? Should we sin because we are under grace and not under law? No! <sup>16</sup>Surely you know that when you give yourselves like slaves to obey someone, then you are really slaves of that person. The person you obey is your master. You can follow sin, or obey God. Sin brings spiritual death. But obeying God makes you right with him. <sup>17</sup>In the past you were slaves to sin—sin controlled you. But thank God, you fully obeyed the things that were taught to you. <sup>18</sup>You were made free from sin, and now you are slaves to goodness. <sup>19</sup>I use this example because this is hard for you to understand. In the past you offered the parts of your body to be slaves to sin and evil. You lived only for evil. In the same way now you must give yourselves to be slaves of goodness. Then you will live only for God.

<sup>20</sup>In the past you were slaves to sin, and goodness did not control you. <sup>21</sup>You did evil things, and now you are ashamed of them. Those things only bring death. <sup>22</sup>But now you are free from sin and have become slaves of God. This brings you a life that is only for God. And this gives you life forever. <sup>23</sup>When someone sins, he earns what sin pays—death. But God gives us a free gift—life forever in Christ Jesus our Lord.

An Example from Marriage

7 Brothers, all of you understand the law of Moses. So surely you know that the law rules over a person only while he is alive. <sup>2</sup>For example, a woman must stay married to her husband as long as he is alive. But if her husband dies, then she is free from the law of marriage. <sup>3</sup>But if she marries another man while her husband is still alive, the law says she is guilty of adultery. <sup>4</sup>But if her husband dies, then the woman is free from the law of marriage. So if she marries another man after her husband dies, she is not guilty of adultery.

<sup>4</sup>In the same way, my brothers, your old selves died, and you became free from the law through the body of Christ. Now you belong to someone else. You belong to the One who was raised from death. We belong to Christ so that we can be used in service to God. <sup>5</sup>In the past, we were ruled by our sinful selves. The law made us want to do sinful things. And those sinful things we wanted to do controlled our bodies, so that the things we did were only bringing us death. <sup>6</sup>In the past, the law held us like prisoners. But our old selves died, and we were made free from the law. So now we serve God in a new way, not in the old way with written rules. Now we serve God in the new way, with the Spirit. <sup>4</sup>

Our Fight Against Sin

<sup>7</sup>You might think that I am saying that sin and the law are the same thing. That is not true. But the law was the only way I could learn what sin meant. I would never have known what it means to want something wrong if the law had not said, “You must not want to take your neighbor’s things.” <sup>7</sup> <sup>8</sup>And sin found a way to use that command and cause me to want every kind of wrong thing. So sin came to me because of that command. But without the law, sin has no power. <sup>9</sup>I was alive without the law before I knew the law. But when the law’s command came to me, then sin began to live. <sup>10</sup>And I died because of sin. The command was meant to bring life, but for me that command brought death. <sup>11</sup>Sin found a way to fool me by using the command. Sin used the command to make me die.

<sup>12</sup>So the law is holy, and the command is holy and right and good. <sup>13</sup>Does this mean that something that is good brought death to me? No! Sin used something that is good to bring death to me. This happened so that I could see what sin is really like. The command was used to show that sin is something very evil.

The War Within Man

<sup>14</sup>We know that the law is spiritual. But I am not spiritual. Sin rules me as if I were its slave. <sup>15</sup>I do not understand the things I do. I do not do the good things I want to do. And I do the bad things I hate to do. <sup>16</sup>And if I do not want to do the hated things I do, then that means I agree that the law is good. <sup>17</sup>But I am not really the one who is doing these hated things. It is sin living in me that does these things. <sup>18</sup>Yes, I know that nothing good lives in me—I mean nothing good lives in the part of me that is earthly and sinful. I want to do the things that are good. But I do not do them. <sup>19</sup>I do not do the good things that I want to do. I do the bad things that I do not want to do. <sup>20</sup>So if I do things I do not want to do, then I am not the one doing those things. It is sin living in me that does those bad things.

<sup>21</sup>So I have learned this rule: When I want to do good, evil is there with me. <sup>22</sup>In my mind, I am happy with God’s law. <sup>23</sup>But I see another law working in my body. That law makes war against the law that my mind accepts. That other law working in my body is the law of sin, and that law makes me its prisoner. <sup>24</sup>What a miserable man I am! Who will save me from this body that brings me death? <sup>25</sup>God will. I thank him for saving me through Jesus Christ our Lord!

So in my mind I am a slave to God’s law. But in my sinful self I am a slave to the law of sin.

Be Ruled by the Spirit

8 So now, those who are in Christ Jesus are not judged guilty. <sup>2</sup>I am not judged guilty because in Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit<sup>a</sup> that brings life made me free. It made me free from the law that brings sin and death. <sup>3</sup>The law was without power, because the law was made weak by our sinful selves. But God did what the law could not do. He sent his own Son to earth with the same human life that others use for sin. He sent his Son to be an offering to pay for sin. So God used a human life to destroy sin. <sup>4</sup>He did this so that we could be right as the law said we must be. Now we do not live following our sinful selves, but we live following the Spirit.

<sup>5</sup>Those who live following their sinful selves think only about things that their sinful selves want. But those who live following the Spirit are thinking about the things that the Spirit wants them to do. <sup>6</sup>If a person's thinking is controlled by his sinful self, then there is death. But if his thinking is controlled by the Spirit, then there is life and peace. <sup>7</sup>This is true because if a person's thinking is controlled by his sinful self, then he is against God. He refuses to obey God's law. And really he is not able to obey God's law. <sup>8</sup>Those people who are ruled by their sinful selves cannot please God.

<sup>9</sup>But you are not ruled by your sinful selves. You are ruled by the Spirit, if that Spirit of God really lives in you. But if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, then he does not belong to Christ. <sup>10</sup>Your body will always be dead because of sin. But if Christ is in you, then the Spirit gives you life, because Christ made you right with God. <sup>11</sup>God raised Jesus from death. And if God's Spirit is living in you, then he will also give life to your bodies that die. God is the One who raised Christ from death. And he will give life through his Spirit that lives in you.

<sup>12</sup>So, my brothers, we must not be ruled by our sinful selves. We must not live the way our sinful selves want. <sup>13</sup>If you use your lives to do the wrong things your sinful selves want, then you will die spiritually. But if you use the Spirit's help to stop doing the wrong things you do with your body, then you will have true life.

<sup>14</sup>The true children of God are those who let God's Spirit lead them. <sup>15</sup>The Spirit that we received is not a spirit that makes us slaves again to fear. The Spirit that we have makes us children of God. And with that Spirit we say, "Father, dear Father."<sup>a</sup> <sup>16</sup>And the Spirit himself joins with our spirits to say that we are God's children. <sup>17</sup>If we are God's children, then we will receive the blessings God has for us. We will receive these things from God together with Christ. But we must suffer as Christ suffered, and then we will have glory as Christ has glory.

Our Future Glory

<sup>18</sup>We have sufferings now. But the sufferings we have now are nothing compared to the great glory that will be given to us. <sup>19</sup>Everything that God made is waiting with excitement for the time when God will show the world who his children are. The whole world wants very much for that to happen. <sup>20</sup>Everything that God made was changed to become useless. This was not by its own wish. It happened because God wanted it. But there was this hope: <sup>21</sup>that everything God made would be set free from ruin. There was hope that everything God made would have the freedom and glory that belong to God's children.

<sup>22</sup>We know that everything God made has been waiting until now in pain, like a woman ready to give birth. <sup>23</sup>Not only the world, but we also have been waiting with pain inside us. We have the Spirit<sup>a</sup> as the first part of God's promise. So we are waiting for God to finish making us his own children. I mean we are waiting for our bodies to be made free. <sup>24</sup>We were saved, and we have this hope. If we see what we are waiting for, then that is not really hope. People do not hope for something they already have. <sup>25</sup>But we are hoping for something that we do not have yet. We are waiting for it patiently.

<sup>26</sup>Also, the Spirit helps us. We are very weak, but the Spirit helps us with our weakness. We do not know how to pray as we should. But the Spirit himself speaks to God for us, even begs God for us. The Spirit speaks to God with deep feelings that words cannot explain. <sup>27</sup>God can see what is in people's hearts. And he knows what is in the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit speaks to God for his people in the way that God wants.

<sup>28</sup>We know that in everything God works for the good of those who love him. They are the people God called, because that was his plan. <sup>29</sup>God knew them before he made the world. And God decided that they would be like his Son. Then Jesus would be the firstborn<sup>a</sup> of many brothers. <sup>30</sup>God planned for them to be like his Son. And those he planned to be like his Son, he also called. And those he called, he also made right with him. And those he made right, he also glorified.

God's Love in Christ Jesus

<sup>31</sup>So what should we say about this? If God is with us, then no one can defeat us. <sup>32</sup>God let even his own Son suffer for us. God gave his Son for us all. So with Jesus, God will surely give us all things. <sup>33</sup>Who can accuse the people that God has chosen? No one! God is the One who makes them right. <sup>34</sup>Who can say that God's people are guilty? No one! Christ Jesus died, but that is not all. He was also raised from death. And now he is on God's right side and is begging God for us. <sup>35</sup>Can anything separate us from the love Christ has for us? Can troubles or problems or sufferings? If we have no food or clothes, if we are in danger, or even if death comes—can any of these things separate us from Christ's love? <sup>36</sup>As it is written in the Scriptures:<sup>d</sup>

"For you we are in danger of death all the time.

People think we are worth no more than sheep to be killed."

Psalms 44:22

<sup>37</sup>But in all these things we have full victory through God who showed his love for us. <sup>38-39</sup>Yes, I am sure that nothing can separate us from the love God has for us. Not death, not life, not angels, not ruling spirits, nothing now, nothing in the future, no powers, nothing above us, nothing below us, or anything else in the whole world will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

God and the Jewish People

9 I am in Christ, and I am telling you the truth. I do not lie. My feelings are ruled by the Holy Spirit,<sup>d</sup> and they tell me that I am not lying. <sup>2</sup>I have great sorrow and always feel much sadness for the Jewish people. <sup>3</sup>I wish I could help my Jewish brothers, my people. I would even wish that I were cursed and cut off from Christ if that would help them. <sup>4</sup>They are the people of Israel. They were God's chosen children. They have the glory of God and the agreements that God made between himself and his people. God gave them the law of Moses and the right way of worship. And God gave his promises to them. <sup>5</sup>They are the descendants<sup>d</sup> of our great ancestors, and they are the earthly family of Christ. Christ is God over all. Praise him forever!<sup>n</sup> Amen.

<sup>6</sup>I do not mean that God failed to keep his promise to them. But only some of the people of Israel are truly God's people.<sup>n</sup> <sup>7</sup>And only some of Abraham's<sup>n</sup> descendants are true children of Abraham. But God said to Abraham: "The descendants I promised you will be from Isaac."<sup>n</sup> <sup>8</sup>This means that not all of Abraham's descendants are God's true children. Abraham's true children are those who become God's children because of the promise God made to Abraham. <sup>9</sup>God's promise to Abraham was this: "At the right time I will return, and Sarah will have a son."<sup>n</sup> <sup>10</sup>And that is not all. Rebekah also had sons. And those sons had the same father, our father Isaac. <sup>11-12</sup>But before the two boys were born, God told Rebekah, "The older will serve the younger."<sup>n</sup> This was before the boys had done anything good or bad. God said this before they were born so that the one chosen would be chosen because of God's own plan. He was chosen because he was the one God wanted to call, not because of anything he did. <sup>13</sup>As the Scripture<sup>d</sup> says, "I loved Jacob, but I hated Esau."<sup>n</sup>

<sup>14</sup>So what should we say about this? Is God unfair? In no way. <sup>15</sup>God said to Moses, "I will show kindness to anyone I want to show kindness. I will show mercy to anyone I want to show mercy."<sup>n</sup> <sup>16</sup>So God will choose the one he decides to show mercy to. And his choice does not depend on what people want or try to do. <sup>17</sup>The Scripture says to the king of Egypt: "I made you king so I might show my power in you. In this way my name will be talked about in all the earth."<sup>n</sup> <sup>18</sup>So God shows mercy where he wants to show mercy. And he makes stubborn the people he wants to make stubborn.

<sup>19</sup>So one of you will ask me: "If God controls the things we do, then why does he blame us for our sins? Who can fight his will?" <sup>20</sup>Do not ask that. You are only human. And human be-

<sup>d</sup>Christ ... forever! This can also mean, "May God, who rules over all things, be praised forever!"

ings have no right to question God. An object cannot tell the person who made it, "Why did you make me like this?" <sup>21</sup>The man who makes a jar can make anything he wants to make. He can use the same clay to make different things. He can make one thing for special use and another thing for daily use.

<sup>22</sup>It is the same way with what God has done. God wanted to show his anger and to let people see his power. But God patiently stayed with those people he was angry with—people who were ready to be destroyed. <sup>23</sup>God waited with patience so that he could make known his rich glory. He wanted to give that glory to the people who receive his mercy. He has prepared these people to have his glory, and <sup>24</sup>we are those people whom God called. He called us from the Jews and from the non-Jews. <sup>25</sup>As the Scripture says in Hosea:

"I will say, 'You are my people' to those I had called 'not my people.'

And I will show my love to those people I did not love." Hosea 2:1,23

<sup>26</sup>"Now it is said to Israel,
'You are not my people.'
But later they will be called
'children of the living God.' " Hosea 1:10

<sup>27</sup>And Isaiah cries out about Israel:
"There are so many people of Israel.
They are like the grains of sand by the sea.

But only a few of them will be saved.

<sup>28</sup> For the Lord will quickly and completely punish the people on the earth."

Isaiah 10:22-23

<sup>29</sup>It is as Isaiah said:

"The Lord of heaven's armies allowed a few of our descendants to live.
Otherwise we would have been completely destroyed like the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah." <sup>n</sup>

Isaiah 1:9

<sup>30</sup>So what does all this mean? It means this: the non-Jews were not trying to make themselves right with God. But they were made right with God because of their faith. <sup>31</sup>And the people of Israel tried to follow a law to make themselves right with God. But they did not succeed, <sup>32</sup>because they tried to make themselves right by the things they did. They did not trust in God to make them right. They fell over the stone that causes people to fall. <sup>33</sup>As it is written in the Scripture:

"I will put in Jerusalem a stone that causes people to stumble.

It is a rock that makes them fall.

Anyone who trusts in him will not be disappointed."

Isaiah 8:14, 28:16

10 Brothers, the thing I want most is for all the Jews to be saved. That is my prayer to God. <sup>21</sup>I can say this about them: They really try to follow God. But they do not know the right way. <sup>3</sup>They did not know the way that God makes people right with him. And they tried to make themselves right in their own way. So they did not accept God's way of making people right. <sup>4</sup>Christ ended the law, so that everyone who believes in him may be right with God.

<sup>5</sup>Moses writes about being made right by following the law. He says, "A person who does these things will have life forever because of them." <sup>n</sup> <sup>6</sup>But this is what the Scripture says about being made right through faith: "Don't say to yourself, 'Who will go up into heaven?' " (That means, "Who will go up to heaven to get Christ and bring him down to earth?") <sup>7</sup>"And do not say, 'Who will go down into the world below?' " (That means, "Who will go down to get Christ and bring him up from death?") <sup>8</sup>This is what the Scripture says: "God's teaching is near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart." <sup>n</sup> That is the teaching of faith that we tell. <sup>9</sup>If you use your mouth to say, "Jesus is Lord," and if you believe in your heart that God raised Jesus from death, then you will be saved. <sup>10</sup>We believe with our hearts, and so we are made right with God. And we use our mouths to say that we believe, and so we are saved. <sup>11</sup>As the Scripture says, "Anyone who trusts in him will never be disappointed." <sup>n</sup> <sup>12</sup>That Scripture says "anyone" because there is no difference between Jew and non-Jew. The same Lord is the Lord of all and gives many blessings to all who trust in him. <sup>13</sup>The Scripture says, "Anyone who asks the Lord for help will be saved." <sup>n</sup>

<sup>14</sup>But before people can trust in the Lord for help, they must believe in him. And before they can believe in the Lord, they must hear about him. And for them to hear about the Lord, someone must tell them. <sup>15</sup>And before someone can go and tell them, he must be sent. It is written, "How beautiful is the person who comes to bring good news."<sup>a</sup>

It goes everywhere on earth."<sup>a</sup> Psalms 19:4

<sup>19</sup>Again I ask: Didn't the people of Israel understand? Yes, they did understand. First, Moses says:

"I will use those who are not a nation to make you jealous.

I will use a nation that does not understand to make you angry."

Deuteronomy 32:21

<sup>20</sup>Then Isaiah is bold enough to say:

"I was found by those who were not asking me for help.

I made myself known to people who were not looking for me."<sup>a</sup> Isaiah 65:1

<sup>21</sup>But about Israel God says,

"All day long I stood ready to accept people who disobey and are stubborn."

Isaiah 65:2

God Shows Mercy to All People

11 So I ask: Did God throw out his people? No! I myself am an Israelite. I am from the family of Abraham, from the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Benjamin. <sup>2</sup>God chose the Israelites to be his people before they were born. And God did not leave his people. Surely you know what the Scripture<sup>d</sup> says about Elijah, how he prayed to God against the people of Israel. Elijah said, <sup>3</sup>"They have killed your prophets,<sup>d</sup> and they have destroyed your altars. I am the only prophet left. And now they are trying to kill me, too."<sup>a</sup> <sup>4</sup>But what answer did God give Elijah? He said, "But I have left 7,000 people in Israel. Those 7,000 have never bowed down before Baal."<sup>a</sup> <sup>5</sup>It is the same now. There are a few people that God has chosen by his grace. <sup>6</sup>And if God chose them by grace, then it is not for the things they have done. If they could be made God's people by what they did, then God's gift of grace would not really be a gift.

<sup>7</sup>So this is what has happened: The people of Israel tried to be right with God. But they did not succeed. But the ones God chose did become right with him. The others became hard and refused to listen to God. <sup>8</sup>As it is written in the Scriptures:<sup>d</sup>

"God gave the people a dull mind so they could not understand."<sup>a</sup> Isaiah 29:10

"God closed their eyes so they could not see, and God closed their ears so they could not hear.

This continues until today."<sup>a</sup> Deuteronomy 29:4

<sup>9</sup>And David says:

"Let their own feasts trap them and cause their ruin.

Let their feasts cause them to sin and be paid back.

<sup>10</sup>Let their eyes be closed so they cannot see. Let their backs be forever weak from troubles."<sup>a</sup> Psalms 69:22-23

<sup>11</sup>So I ask: When the Jews fell, did that fall destroy them? No! But their mistake brought salvation to the non-Jews. This took place to cause the Jews to be jealous. <sup>12</sup>The Jews' mistake brought rich blessings for the world. And what the Jews lost brought rich blessings for the non-Jewish people. So surely the world will get much richer blessings when enough Jews become the kind of people God wants.

<sup>13</sup>Now I am speaking to you who are not Jews. I am an apostle<sup>d</sup> to the non-Jews. So while I have that work, I will do the best I can. <sup>14</sup>I hope I can make my own people jealous. That way, maybe I can help some of them to be saved. <sup>15</sup>God turned away from the Jews. When that happened, God became friends with the other people in the world. So when God accepts the Jews, then surely that will bring to them life after death.

<sup>16</sup>If the first piece of bread is offered to God, then the whole loaf is made holy. If the roots of a tree are holy, then the tree's branches are holy too.

<sup>17</sup>Some of the branches from an olive tree have been broken off, and the branch of a wild olive tree has been joined to that first tree. You non-Jews are the same as that wild branch, and you now share the strength and life of the first tree, the Jews. <sup>18</sup>So do not brag about those branches that were broken off. You have no reason to brag. Why? You do not give life to the root. The root gives life to you. <sup>19</sup>You will say, "Branches were broken off so that I could be joined to their tree."<sup>a</sup> <sup>20</sup>That is true. But those

branches were broken off because they did not believe. And you continue to be part of the tree only because you believe. Do not be proud, but be afraid. <sup>21</sup>If God did not let the natural branches of that tree stay, then he will not let you stay if you don't believe.

<sup>22</sup>So you see that God is kind, but he can also be very strict. God punishes those who stop following him. But God is kind to you, if you continue following in his kindness. If you do not continue following him, you will be cut off from the tree. <sup>23</sup>And if the Jews will believe in God again, then God will accept the Jews back again. God is able to put them back where they were. <sup>24</sup>It is not natural for a wild branch to be part of a good tree. But you non-Jews are like a branch cut from a wild olive tree. And you were joined to a good olive tree. But those Jews are like a branch that grew from the good tree. So surely they can be joined to their own tree again.

<sup>25</sup>I want you to understand this secret truth, brothers. This truth will help you understand that you do not know everything. The truth is this: Part of Israel has been made stubborn. But that will change when many non-Jews have come to God. <sup>26</sup>And that is how all Israel will be saved. It is written in the Scriptures:

“The Savior will come from Jerusalem; he will take away all evil from the family of Jacob.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>27</sup>And I will make this agreement with those people when I take away their sins.”

Isaiah 59:20 21; 27:9

<sup>28</sup>The Jews refuse to accept the Good News,<sup>d</sup> so they are God's enemies. This has happened to help you non-Jews. But the Jews are still God's chosen people, and God loves them very much. He loves them because of the promises he made to their ancestors. <sup>29</sup>God never changes his mind about the people he calls and the things he gives them. <sup>30</sup>At one time you refused to obey God. But now you have received mercy, because those people refused to obey. <sup>31</sup>And now the Jews refuse to obey, because God showed mercy to you. But this happened so that they also can receive mercy from God. <sup>32</sup>All people have refused to obey God. God has given them all over to their stubborn ways, so that God can show mercy to all.

Praise to God

<sup>33</sup>Yes, God's riches are very great! God's wisdom and knowledge have no end! No one can explain the things God decides. No one can understand God's ways. <sup>34</sup>As the Scripture<sup>d</sup> says, “Who has known the mind of the Lord?

Who has been able to give the Lord advice?”

Isaiah 40:13

<sup>35</sup>“No one has ever given God anything that he must pay back.”

Job 41:11

<sup>36</sup>Yes, God made all things. And everything continues through God and for God. To God be the glory forever! Amen.

Give Your Lives to God

12 So brothers, since God has shown us great mercy, I beg you to offer your lives as a living sacrifice to him. Your offering must be only for God and pleasing to him. This is the spiritual way for you to worship. <sup>2</sup>Do not change yourselves to be like the people of this world. But be changed within by a new way of thinking. Then you will be able to decide what God wants for you. And you will be able to know what is good and pleasing to God and what is perfect. <sup>3</sup>God has given me a special gift. That is why I have something to say to everyone among you. Do not think that you are better than you are. You must see yourself as you really are. Decide what you are by the amount of faith God has given you. <sup>4</sup>Each one of us has a body, and that body has many parts. These parts all have different uses. <sup>5</sup>In the same way, we are many, but in Christ we are all one body. Each one is a part of that body. And each part belongs to all the other parts. <sup>6</sup>We all have different gifts. Each gift came because of the grace that God gave us. If one has the gift of prophecy,<sup>d</sup> he should use that gift with the faith he has. <sup>7</sup>If one has the gift of serving, he should serve. If one has the gift of teaching, he should teach. <sup>8</sup>If one has the gift of encouraging others, he should encourage. If one has the gift of giving to others, he should give freely. If one has the gift of being a leader, he should try hard when he leads. If one has the gift of showing kindness to others, that person should do so with joy.

<sup>9</sup>Your love must be real. Hate what is evil. Hold on to what is good. <sup>10</sup>Love each other like brothers and sisters. Give your brothers and sisters more honor than you want for yourselves. <sup>11</sup>Do not be lazy but work hard. Serve the Lord with all your heart. <sup>12</sup>Be joyful because you have hope. Be patient when trouble comes. Pray at all times. <sup>13</sup>Share with God's people who need help. Bring strangers in need into your homes.

<sup>17</sup>If someone does wrong to you, do not pay him back by doing wrong to him. Try to do what everyone thinks is right. <sup>18</sup>Do your best to live in peace with everyone. <sup>19</sup>My friends, do not try to punish others when they wrong you. Wait for God to punish them with his anger. It is written: "I am the One who punishes; I will pay people back,"<sup>a</sup> says the Lord. <sup>20</sup>But you should do this:

"If your enemy is hungry, feed him;
if your enemy is thirsty, give him a drink.
Doing this will be like pouring burning coals on his head."<sup>b</sup>

Proverbs 25:21-22

Christians Should Obey the Law

13 All of you must obey the government rulers. No one rules unless God has given him the power to rule. And no one rules now without that power from God. <sup>2</sup>So if anyone is against the government, he is really against what God has commanded. And so he brings punishment on himself. <sup>3</sup>Those who do right do not have to fear the rulers. But people who do wrong must fear them. Do you want to be unafraid of the rulers? Then do what is right, and the ruler will praise you. <sup>4</sup>He is God's servant to help you. But if you do wrong, then be afraid. The ruler has the power to punish; he is God's servant to punish those who do wrong. <sup>5</sup>So you must obey the government. You must obey not only because you might be punished, but because you know it is the right thing to do.

<sup>6</sup>And this is also why you pay taxes. Rulers are working for God and give their time to their work. <sup>7</sup>Pay everyone, then, what you owe him. If you owe any kind of tax, pay it. Show respect and honor to them all.

<sup>e</sup>"day" This is used as a symbol of the good time that is coming, when we will be with God.

<sup>f</sup>all ... food The Jewish law said there were some foods Jews should not eat. When Jews became Christians, some of them did not understand they could now eat all foods.

Loving Others

<sup>8</sup>Do not owe people anything. But you will always owe love to each other. The person who loves others has obeyed all the law. <sup>9</sup>The law says, "You must not be guilty of adultery."<sup>d</sup> You must not murder anyone. You must not steal. You must not want to take your neighbor's things."<sup>e</sup> All these commands and all others are really only one rule: "Love your neighbor as you love yourself."<sup>f</sup> <sup>10</sup>Love never hurts a neighbor. So loving is obeying all the law.

<sup>11</sup>I say this because we live in an important time. Yes, it is now time for you to wake up from your sleep. Our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. <sup>12</sup>The "night"<sup>g</sup> is almost finished. The "day"<sup>h</sup> is almost here. So we should stop doing things that belong to darkness and take up the weapons used for fighting in the light. <sup>13</sup>Let us live in a right way, like people who belong to the day. We should not have wild parties or get drunk. There should be no sexual sins of any kind, no fighting or jealousy. <sup>14</sup>But clothe yourselves with the Lord Jesus Christ. Forget about satisfying your sinful self.

Do Not Criticize Other People

14 Do not refuse to accept into your group someone who is weak in faith. And do not argue with him about opinions. <sup>2</sup>One person believes that he can eat all kinds of food.<sup>a</sup> But if another man's faith is weak, then he believes he can eat only vegetables. <sup>3</sup>The one who knows that he can eat any kind of food must not feel that he is better than the one who eats only vegetables. And the person who eats only vegetables must not think that the one who eats all foods is wrong. God has accepted him. <sup>4</sup>You cannot judge another man's servant. His own master decides if he is doing well or not. And the Lord's servant will do well because the Lord helps him do well.

<sup>5</sup>One person thinks that one day is more important than another. And someone else thinks that every day is the same. Each one should be sure in his own mind. <sup>6</sup>The person who thinks one day is more important than other days is doing that for the Lord. And the one who eats all kinds of food is doing that for the Lord. Yes, he gives thanks to God for that food. And the man who refuses to eat some foods does that for the Lord, and he gives thanks to God. <sup>7</sup>For we do not live or die for ourselves. <sup>8</sup>If we live, we are living for the Lord. And if we die, we are dying for the Lord. So living or dying, we belong to the Lord.

<sup>9</sup>That is why Christ died and rose from death to live again. He did this so that he would be Lord over both the dead and the living. <sup>10</sup>So why do you judge your brother in Christ? And why do you think that you are better than he is? We will all stand before God, and he will judge us all. <sup>11</sup>Yes, it is written in the Scriptures:<sup>d</sup>

“Everyone will bow before me;
everyone will say that I am God.

As surely as I live, these things will happen, says the Lord.” Isaiah 45:23

<sup>12</sup>So each of us will have to answer to God for what he has done.

Do Not Cause Others to Sin

<sup>13</sup>So we should stop judging each other. We must make up our minds not to do anything that will make a Christian brother sin. <sup>14</sup>I am in the Lord Jesus, and I know that there is no food that is wrong to eat. But if a person believes that something is wrong, then that thing is wrong for him. <sup>15</sup>If you hurt your brother's faith because of something you eat, then you are not really following the way of love. Do not destroy his faith by eating food that he thinks is wrong. Christ died for him. <sup>16</sup>Do not allow what you think is good to become what others say is evil. <sup>17</sup>In the kingdom of God, eating and drinking are not important. The important things are living right with God, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit.<sup>d</sup> <sup>18</sup>Anyone who serves Christ by living this way is pleasing God and will be accepted by other people.

<sup>19</sup>So let us try to do what makes peace and helps one another. <sup>20</sup>Do not let the eating of food destroy the work of God. All foods are all right to eat, but it is wrong to eat food that causes someone else to sin. <sup>21</sup>It is better not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that will cause your brother to sin.

<sup>22</sup>Your beliefs about these things should be kept secret between you and God. A person is blessed if he can do what he thinks is right without feeling guilty. <sup>23</sup>But if he eats something without being sure that it is right, then he is wrong because he did not believe that it was right. And if he does anything without believing that it is right, then it is a sin.

15 We who are strong in faith should help those who are weak. We should help them with their weaknesses, and not please only ourselves. <sup>2</sup>Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, to help him be stronger in faith. <sup>3</sup>Even Christ did not live to please himself. It was as the Scriptures<sup>d</sup> said: “When people insult you, it hurts me.”<sup>a</sup> <sup>4</sup>Everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that we could have hope. That hope comes from the patience and encouragement that the Scriptures give us. <sup>5</sup>Patience and encouragement come from God. And I pray that God will help you all agree with each other the way Christ Jesus wants. <sup>6</sup>Then you will all be joined together, and you will give glory to God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>7</sup>Christ accepted you, so you should accept each other. This will bring glory to God. <sup>8</sup>I tell you that Christ became a servant of the Jews. This was to show that God's promises to the Jewish ancestors are true. <sup>9</sup>And he also did this so that the non-Jews could give glory to God for the mercy he gives to them. It is written in the Scriptures:

“So I will praise you among the non-Jewish people.

I will sing praises to your name.” Psalms 18:40

<sup>10</sup>The Scripture also says,

“Be happy, you non-Jews, together with God's people.” Deuteronomy 32:43

<sup>11</sup>Again the Scripture says,

“All you non-Jews, praise the Lord.
All you people, sing praises to him.”

Psalms 117:1

<sup>12</sup>And Isaiah says,

“A new king will come from Jesse's family.”

He will come to rule over the non-Jews; and the non-Jews will have hope because of him.” Isaiah 11:10

<sup>13</sup>I pray that the God who gives hope will fill you with much joy and peace while you trust in him. Then your hope will overflow by the power of the Holy Spirit.<sup>d</sup>

Paul Talks About His Work

<sup>14</sup>My brothers, I am sure that you are full of goodness. I know that you have all the knowledge you need and that you are able to teach each other. <sup>15</sup>But I have written to you very openly about some things that I wanted you to remember. I did this because God gave me this special gift: <sup>16</sup>to be a minister of Christ Jesus to the non-Jewish people. I served God by teaching his Good News,<sup>d</sup> so that the non-Jewish people could be an offering that God would accept—an offering made holy by the Holy Spirit.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>17</sup>So I am proud of what I have done for God in Christ Jesus. <sup>18</sup>I will not talk about anything I did myself. I will talk only about what Christ has done through me in leading the non-Jewish people to obey God. They have obeyed God because of what I have said and done. <sup>19</sup>And they have obeyed God because of the power of miracles<sup>d</sup> and the great things they saw, and the power of the Holy Spirit. I preached the Good News from Jerusalem all the way around to Illyricum. And so I have finished that part of my work. <sup>20</sup>I always want to preach the Good News in places where people have never heard of Christ. I do this because I do not want to build on the work that someone else has already started. <sup>21</sup>But it is written in the Scriptures:<sup>d</sup>

“Those who were not told about him will see, and those who have not heard about him will understand.”

Isaiah 52:15

Paul's Plan to Visit Rome

<sup>22</sup>That is why many times I was stopped from coming to you. <sup>23</sup>Now I have finished my work here. Since for many years I have wanted to come to you, <sup>24</sup>I hope to visit you on my way to Spain. I will enjoy being with you, and you can help me on my trip. <sup>25</sup>Now I am going to Jerusalem to help God's people. <sup>26</sup>The believers in Macedonia and Southern Greece were happy to give their money to help the poor among God's people at Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup>They were happy to do this, and really they owe it to them. These non-Jews have shared in the Jews' spiritual blessings. So they should use their material possessions to help the Jews. <sup>28</sup>I must be sure that the poor in Jerusalem get the money that has been given for them. After I do this, I will leave for Spain and stop and visit you. <sup>29</sup>I know that when I come to you, I will bring Christ's full blessing.

<sup>30</sup>Brothers, I beg you to help me in my work by praying for me to God. Do this because of our Lord Jesus and the love that the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> gives us. <sup>31</sup>Pray that I will be saved from the non-believers in Judea. And pray that this help I bring to Jerusalem will please God's people there. <sup>32</sup>Then, if God wants me to, I will come to you. I will come with joy, and together you and I will have a time of rest. <sup>33</sup>The God who gives peace be with you all. Amen.

Greetings to the Christians

16 I recommend to you our sister Phoebe. She is a helper<sup>a</sup> in the church in Cenchrea. <sup>21</sup>ask you to accept her in the Lord in the way God's people should. Help her with anything she needs because she has helped me and many other people too.

<sup>3</sup>Give my greetings to Priscilla and Aquila, who work together with me in Christ Jesus. <sup>4</sup>They risked their own lives to save my life. I am thankful to them, and all the non-Jewish churches are thankful to them as well. <sup>5</sup>Also, greet for me the church that meets at their house.

Greetings to my dear friend Epenetus. He was the first person in the country of Asia to follow Christ. <sup>6</sup>Greetings to Mary, who worked very hard for you. <sup>7</sup>Greetings to Andronicus and Junias, my relatives, who were in prison with me. The apostles feel they are very important. They were believers in Christ before I was. <sup>8</sup>Greetings to Ampliatius, my dear friend in the Lord. <sup>9</sup>Greetings to Urbanus. He is a worker together with me for Christ. And greetings to my dear friend Stachys. <sup>10</sup>Greetings to Appelles. He was tested and proved that he truly loves Christ. Greetings to all those who are in the family of Aristobulus. <sup>11</sup>Greetings to Herodion, my relative. Greetings to all those in the family of Narcissus who belong to the Lord. <sup>12</sup>Greetings to Tryphena and Tryphosa. Those women work very hard for the Lord. Greetings to my dear friend Persis. She also has worked very hard for the Lord. <sup>13</sup>Greetings to Rufus who is a special person in the Lord. Greetings to his mother, who has been a mother to me also. <sup>14</sup>Greetings to Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and all the brothers who are with them. <sup>15</sup>Greetings to Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympos. And greetings to all God's people with them. <sup>16</sup>Greet each other with a holy kiss. All of Christ's churches send greetings to you.

<sup>17</sup>Brothers, I ask you to look out for those who cause people to be against each other and who upset other people's faith. They are against the true teaching you learned. Stay away from them. <sup>18</sup>For such people are not serving our Lord Christ. They are only doing what pleases themselves. They use fancy talk and fine words to fool the minds of those who do not know about evil. <sup>19</sup>All the believers have heard that you obey. So I am very happy because of you. But I want you to be wise in what is good and innocent in what is evil.

<sup>20</sup>The God who brings peace will soon defeat Satan and give you power over him.

The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you.

<sup>21</sup>Timothy, a worker together with me, sends greetings, as well as Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my relatives.

<sup>22</sup>I am Tertius, and I am writing this letter from Paul. I send greetings to you in the Lord.

<sup>23</sup>Gaius is letting me and the whole church here use his home. He also sends greetings to you, as do Erastus and our brother Quartus. Erastus is the city treasurer here. <sup>24</sup> <sup>a</sup>

<sup>25</sup>Glory to God! God is the One who can make you strong in faith by the Good News<sup>a</sup> that I tell people and by the message about Jesus Christ. The message about Christ is the secret truth that was hidden for long ages past, but is now made known. <sup>26</sup>It has been made clear through the writings of the prophets.<sup>a</sup> And by the command of the eternal God it is made known to all nations, that they might believe and obey.

Help for a Church with Problems

1 From Paul. I was called to be an apostle<sup>d</sup> of Christ Jesus because that is what God wanted. Also from Sosthenes, our brother in Christ.

<sup>2</sup>To the church of God in Corinth, to those people who have been made holy in Christ Jesus. You were called to be God's holy people with all people everywhere who trust in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ—their Lord and ours:

<sup>3</sup>Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Paul Gives Thanks to God

<sup>4</sup>I always thank my God for you because of the grace that God has given you in Christ Jesus. <sup>5</sup>In Jesus you have been blessed in every way, in all your speaking and in all your knowledge. <sup>6</sup>The truth about Christ has been proved in you. <sup>7</sup>So you have every gift from God while you wait for our Lord Jesus Christ to come again. <sup>8</sup>Jesus will keep you strong until the end. He will keep you strong, so that there will be no wrong in you on the day our Lord Jesus Christ comes again. <sup>9</sup>God is faithful. He is the One who has called you to share life with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Problems in the Church

<sup>10</sup>I beg you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. I beg that all of you agree with each other, so that you will not be divided into groups. I beg that you be completely joined together by having the same kind of thinking and the same purpose. <sup>11</sup>My brothers, some people from Chloe's family have told me that there are arguments among you. <sup>12</sup>This is what I mean: One of you says, "I follow Paul"; another says, "I follow Apollos"; another says, "I follow Peter"; and another says, "I follow Christ." <sup>13</sup>Christ cannot be divided into different groups! Did Paul die on the cross for you? No! Were you baptized in the name of Paul? No! <sup>14</sup>I am thankful that I did not baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius. <sup>15</sup>I am thankful, because now no one can say that you were baptized in my name. <sup>16</sup>[I also baptized the family of Stephanas. But I do not remember that I myself baptized any others.] <sup>17</sup>Christ did not give me the work of baptizing people. He gave me the work of preaching the Good News,<sup>d</sup> and he sent me to preach the Good News without using words of worldly wisdom. If I used worldly wisdom to tell the Good News, the cross<sup>n</sup> of Christ would lose its power.

Christ Is God's Power and Wisdom

<sup>18</sup>The teaching about the cross seems foolish to those who are lost. But to us who are being saved it is the power of God. <sup>19</sup>It is written in the Scriptures:<sup>d</sup>

"I will cause the wise men to lose their wisdom.

I will make the wise men unable to understand."

Isaiah 29:14

<sup>20</sup>Where is the wise person? Where is the educated person? Where is the philosopher<sup>n</sup> of our times? God has made the wisdom of the world foolish. <sup>21</sup>The world did not know God through its own wisdom. So God chose to use the message that sounds foolish to save those who believe it. <sup>22</sup>The Jews ask for miracles<sup>d</sup> as proofs. The Greeks want wisdom. <sup>23</sup>But we preach Christ on the cross. This is a big problem to the Jews. And it seems foolish to the non-Jews. <sup>24</sup>But Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God to those people God has called—Jews and Greeks. <sup>25</sup>Even the foolishness of God is wiser than men. Even the weakness of God is stronger than men.

<sup>26</sup>Brothers, look at what you were when God called you. Not many of you were wise in the way the world judges wisdom. Not many of you had great influence. Not many of you came from important families. <sup>27</sup>But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise. He chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. <sup>28</sup>And he chose what the world thinks is not important. He chose what the world hates and thinks is nothing. He chose these to destroy what the world thinks is important. <sup>29</sup>God did this so that no man can brag before him. <sup>30</sup>It is God who has made you part of Christ Jesus. Christ has become wisdom for us from God. Christ is the reason we are right with God and have freedom from sin; Christ is the reason we are holy. <sup>31</sup>So, as the Scripture<sup>d</sup> says, "If a person brags, he should brag only about the Lord."<sup>a</sup>

The Message of Christ's Death

2 Dear brothers, when I came to you, I did not come as a proud man. I preached God's truth, but not with fancy words or a show of great learning. <sup>2</sup>I decided that while I was with you I would forget about everything except Jesus Christ and his death on the cross. <sup>3</sup>When I came to you, I was weak and shook with fear. <sup>4</sup>My teaching and my speaking were not with wise words that persuade people. But the proof of my teaching was the power that the Spirit<sup>d</sup> gives. <sup>5</sup>I did this so that your faith would be in God's power, not in the wisdom of a man.

God's Wisdom

<sup>6</sup>Yet I speak wisdom to those who are mature. But this wisdom is not from this world or of the rulers of this world. (These rulers are losing their power.) <sup>7</sup>But I speak God's secret wisdom, which he has kept hidden. God planned this wisdom for our glory, before the world began. <sup>8</sup>None of the rulers of this world understood it. If they had, they would not have killed the Lord of glory on a cross. <sup>9</sup>But as it is written in the Scriptures:<sup>d</sup>

"No one has ever seen this.

No one has ever heard about it.

No one has ever imagined what God has prepared for those who love him."<sup>a</sup>

The Spirit knows all things, even the deep secrets of God. <sup>11</sup>It is like this: No one knows the thoughts that another person has. Only a person's spirit that lives in him knows his thoughts. It is the same with God. No one knows the thoughts of God. Only the Spirit of God knows God's thoughts. <sup>12</sup>We did not receive the spirit of the world, but we received the Spirit that is from God. We received this Spirit so that we can know all that God has given us. <sup>13</sup>When we speak, we do not use words taught to us by the wisdom that men have. We use words taught to us by the Spirit. We use spiritual words to explain spiritual things. <sup>14</sup>A person who is not spiritual does not accept the gifts that come from the Spirit of God. That person thinks they are foolish. He cannot understand the Spirit's gifts, because they can only be judged spiritually. <sup>15</sup>But the spiritual person is able to judge all things. Yet no one can judge him. The Scripture says:

<sup>16</sup>"Who has known the mind of the Lord?
Who has been able to teach him?"<sup>a</sup>

Isaiah 40:13

But we have the mind of Christ.

Following Men Is Wrong

3 Brothers, in the past I could not talk to you as I talk to spiritual people. I had to talk to you as I would to people of the world—babies in Christ. <sup>2</sup>The teaching I gave you was like milk, not solid food. I did this because you were not ready for solid food. And even now you are not ready. <sup>3</sup>You are still not spiritual. You have jealousy and arguing among you. This shows that you are not spiritual. You are acting like people of the world. <sup>4</sup>One of you says, "I follow Paul," and another says, "I follow Apollos." When you say things like this, you are acting like worldly people.

<sup>5</sup>Is Apollos important? No! Is Paul important? No! We are only servants of God who helped you believe. Each one of us did the work God gave us to do. <sup>6</sup>I planted the seed of the teaching in you, and Apollos watered it. But God is the One who made the seed grow. <sup>7</sup>So the one who plants is not important, and the one who waters is not important. Only God is important, because he is the One who makes things grow. <sup>8</sup>The one who plants and the one who waters have the same purpose. And each will be rewarded for his own work. <sup>9</sup>We are workers together for God. And you are like a farm that belongs to God.

And you are a house that belongs to God. <sup>10</sup>Like an expert builder I built the foundation of that house. I used the gift that God gave me to do this. Others are building on that foundation. But everyone should be careful how he builds. <sup>11</sup>The foundation has already been built. No one can build any other foundation. The foundation that has already been laid is Jesus Christ. <sup>12</sup>Anyone can build on that foundation, using gold, silver, jewels, wood, grass, or straw. <sup>13</sup>But the work that each person does will be clearly seen, because the Day<sup>a</sup> will make it plain. That Day will appear with fire, and the fire will test every man's work. <sup>14</sup>If the building that a man puts on the foundation still stands, he will get his reward. <sup>15</sup>But if his building is burned up, he will suffer loss. The man will be saved, but it will be as if he escaped from a fire.

<sup>16</sup>You should know that you yourselves are God's temple. God's Spirit<sup>d</sup> lives in you. <sup>17</sup>If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy him, because God's temple is holy. You yourselves are God's temple.

<sup>18</sup>Do not fool yourselves. If anyone among you thinks he is wise in this world, he should become a fool. Then he can become truly wise, <sup>19</sup>because the wisdom of this world is foolishness to God. It is written in the Scriptures,<sup>d</sup> "He catches wise men in their own clever traps."<sup>a</sup> <sup>20</sup>It is also written in the Scriptures, "The Lord knows what people think. He knows they are just a puff of wind."<sup>a</sup> <sup>21</sup>So you should not brag about men. All things are yours: <sup>22</sup>Paul, Apollos and Peter; the world, life, death, the present, and the future—all these things are yours. <sup>23</sup>And you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

Apostles Are Servants of Christ

4 This is what people should think about us: We are servants of Christ. We are the ones God has trusted with his secret truths. <sup>2</sup>A person who is trusted with something must show that he is worthy of that trust. <sup>3</sup>I do not care if I am judged by you or if I am judged by any human court. I do not even judge myself. <sup>4</sup>I know of no wrong that I have done. But this does not make me innocent. The Lord is the One who judges me. <sup>5</sup>So do not judge before the right time; wait until the Lord comes. He will bring to light things that are now hidden in darkness. He will make known the secret purposes of people's hearts. Then God will give everyone the praise he should get.

<sup>6</sup>Brothers, I have used Apollos and myself as examples. I did this so that you could learn from us the meaning of the words, "Follow only what is written in the Scriptures."<sup>d</sup> Then you will not be proud of one man and hate another. <sup>7</sup>Who says that you are better than others? Everything you have was given to you. And if this is so, why do you brag as if you got these things by your own power?

<sup>8</sup>You think you have everything you need. You think you are rich. You think you have become kings without us. I wish you really were kings! Then we could be kings together with you. <sup>9</sup>But it seems to me that God has given me and the other apostles<sup>d</sup> the last place. We are like men sentenced to die. We are like a show for the whole world to see—angels and people. <sup>10</sup>We are fools for Christ's sake. But you think you are very wise in Christ. We are weak, but you think you are strong. You receive honor, but we are hated. <sup>11</sup>Even now we still do not have enough to eat or drink or enough clothes. We are often beaten. We have no homes. <sup>12</sup>We work hard with our own hands for our food. People curse us, but we bless them. They hurt us, and we accept it. <sup>13</sup>They say evil things against us, but we say only kind things to them. Even today, we are treated as though we are the garbage of the world—the dirt of the earth.

<sup>14</sup>I am not trying to make you feel ashamed. I am writing this to give you a warning as if you were my own dear children. <sup>15</sup>For though you may have 10,000 teachers in Christ, you do not have many fathers. Through the Good News<sup>d</sup> I became your father in Christ Jesus. <sup>16</sup>So I beg you, please be like me. <sup>17</sup>That is why I am sending Timothy to you. He is my son in the Lord. I love Timothy, and he is faithful. He will help you remember the way I live in Christ Jesus. This way of life is what I teach in all the churches everywhere.

<sup>18</sup>Some of you have become proud, thinking that I will not come to you again. <sup>19</sup>But I will come very soon if the Lord wants me to. Then I will see what those who are proud can do, not what they say. <sup>20</sup>I want to see this because the kingdom of God is not talk but power. <sup>21</sup>Which do you want: that I come to you with punishment, or that I come with love and gentleness?

Wickedness in the Church

5 Now, it is actually being said that there is sexual sin among you. And it is of such a bad kind that it does not happen even among those who do not know God. A man there has his father's wife. <sup>2</sup>And still you are proud of yourselves! You should have been filled with sadness. And the man who did that sin should be put out of your group. <sup>3</sup>My body is not there with you, but I am with you in spirit. And I have already judged the man who did that sin. I judged him just as I would if I were really there. <sup>4</sup>Meet together as the people of our Lord

Jesus. I will be with you in spirit, and you will have the power of our Lord Jesus with you. <sup>5</sup>Then give this man to Satan, so that his sinful self<sup>a</sup> will be destroyed. And then his spirit can be saved on the day of the Lord.

<sup>6</sup>Your bragging is not good. You know the saying, "Just a little yeast makes the whole batch of dough rise." <sup>7</sup>Take out all the old yeast so that you will be a new batch of dough. And you really are new dough without yeast. For Christ, our Passover<sup>d</sup> lamb, was killed to cleanse us. <sup>8</sup>So let us continue our feast, but not with the bread that has the old yeast. That old yeast is the yeast of sin and wickedness. But let us eat the bread that has no yeast. This is the bread of goodness and truth.

<sup>9</sup>I wrote to you in my letter that you should not associate with those who take part in sexual sin. <sup>10</sup>But I did not mean that you should not associate with the sinful people of this world. People of the world do take part in sexual sin, or they are selfish and they cheat each other, or they worship idols. But to get away from them you would have to leave this world. <sup>11</sup>I am writing to tell you that the person you must not associate with is this: anyone who calls himself a brother in Christ but who takes part in sexual sin, or is selfish, or worships idols, or lies about others, or gets drunk, or cheats people. Do not even eat with someone like that.

<sup>12</sup><sup>13</sup>It is not my business to judge those who are not part of the church. God will judge them. But you must judge the people who are part of the church. The Scripture<sup>d</sup> says, "You must get rid of the evil person among you."<sup>a</sup>

Judging Problems Among Christians

6 When one of you has something against a brother in Christ, why do you go to the judges in the law courts? Those people are not right with God. So why do you let them decide who is right? You should be ashamed! Why do you not let God's people decide who is right? <sup>2</sup>Surely you know that God's people will judge the world. So if you are to judge the world, then surely you are able to judge small things as well. <sup>3</sup>You know that in the future we will judge angels. So surely we can judge things in this life. <sup>4</sup>So if you have disagreements that must be judged, why do you take them to those who are not part of the church? They mean nothing to the church. <sup>5</sup>I say this to shame you. Surely there is someone among you wise enough to judge a complaint between two brothers in Christ. <sup>6</sup>But now one brother goes to court against another brother. And you let men who are not believers judge their case!

<sup>7</sup>The lawsuits that you have against each other show that you are already defeated. It would be better for you to let someone wrong you! It would be better for you to let someone cheat you! <sup>8</sup>But you yourselves do wrong and cheat! And you do this to your own brothers in Christ!

<sup>9</sup><sup>10</sup>Surely you know that the people who do wrong will not receive God's kingdom. Do not be fooled. These people will not receive God's kingdom: those who sin sexually, or worship idols, or take part in adultery,<sup>d</sup> or men who have sexual relations with other men, or steal, or are selfish, or get drunk, or lie about others, or cheat. <sup>11</sup>In the past, some of you were like that. But you were washed clean. You were made holy. And you were made right with God in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

Use Your Bodies for God's Glory

<sup>12</sup>"I am allowed to do all things." But all things are not good for me to do. "I am allowed to do all things." But I must not do those things that will make me their slave. <sup>13</sup>"Food is for the stomach, and the stomach for food." Yes. But God will destroy them both. The body is not for sexual sin. The body is for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body. <sup>14</sup>By God's power God raised the Lord Jesus from death. And God will also raise us from death. <sup>15</sup>Surely you know that your bodies are parts of Christ himself. So I must never take parts of Christ and join them to a prostitute!<sup>d</sup> <sup>16</sup>It is written in the Scriptures,<sup>d</sup> "The two people will become one body."<sup>a</sup> So you should know that a man who joins himself with a prostitute becomes one with her in body. <sup>17</sup>But the one who joins himself with the Lord is one with the Lord in spirit.

<sup>18</sup>So run away from sexual sin. Every other sin that a man does is outside his body. But the one who sins sexually sins against his own body. <sup>19</sup>You should know that your body is a temple for the Holy Spirit.<sup>d</sup> The Holy Spirit is in you. You have received the Holy Spirit from God. You do not own yourselves. <sup>20</sup>You were bought by God for a price. So honor God with your bodies.

About Marriage

7 Now I will discuss the things you wrote to me about. It is good for a man not to marry. <sup>2</sup>But sexual sin is a danger. So each man should have his own wife. And each woman should have her own husband. <sup>3</sup>The husband should give his wife all that she should have as his wife. And the wife should give her husband all that he should have as her husband. <sup>4</sup>The wife does not have power over her own body. Her husband has the power over her body. And the husband does not have power over his own body. His wife has the power over his body. <sup>5</sup>Do not refuse to give your bodies to each other. But you might both agree to stay away from sexual relations for a time. You might do this so that you can give your time to prayer. Then come together again. This is so that Satan cannot tempt you in your weakness. <sup>6</sup>I say this to give you permission. It is not a command. <sup>7</sup>I wish everyone were like me. But each person has his own gift from God. One has one gift, another has another gift.

<sup>8</sup>Now for those who are not married and for the widows I say this: It is good for them to stay single as I am. <sup>9</sup>But if they cannot control their bodies, then they should marry. It is better to marry than to burn with sexual desire.

<sup>10</sup>Now I give this command for the married people. (The command is not from me; it is from the Lord.) A wife should not leave her husband. <sup>11</sup>But if she does leave, she must not marry again. Or she should go back to her husband. Also the husband should not divorce his wife.

<sup>12</sup>For all the others I say this (I am saying this, not the Lord): A brother in Christ might have a wife who is not a believer. If she will live with him, he must not divorce her. <sup>13</sup>And a woman might have a husband who is not a believer. If he will live with her, she must not divorce him. <sup>14</sup>The husband who is not a believer is made holy through his believing wife. And the wife who is not a believer is made holy through her believing husband. If this were not true, then your children would not be clean. <sup>4</sup> But now your children are holy.

<sup>15</sup>But if the person who is not a believer decides to leave, let him leave. When this happens, the brother or sister in Christ is free. God called us to a life of peace. <sup>16</sup>Wives, maybe you will save your husband; and husbands, maybe you will save your wife. You do not know now what will happen later.

Live as God Called You

<sup>17</sup>But each one should continue to live the way God has given him to live—the way he was when God called him. This is a rule I make in all the churches. <sup>18</sup>If a man was already circumcised<sup>4</sup> when he was called, he should not change his circumcision. If a man was without circumcision when he was called, he should not be circumcised. <sup>19</sup>It is not important if a man is circumcised or not circumcised. The important thing is obeying God's commands. <sup>20</sup>Each one should stay the way he was when God called him. <sup>21</sup>If you were a slave when God called you, do not let that bother you. But if you can be free, then become free. <sup>22</sup>The person who was a slave when the Lord called him is free in the Lord. He belongs to the Lord. In the same way, the one who was free when he was called is now Christ's slave. <sup>23</sup>You all were bought for a price. So do not become slaves of men. <sup>24</sup>Brothers, in your new life with God each one of you should continue the way you were when you were called.

Questions About Getting Married

<sup>25</sup>Now I write about people who are not married. I have no command from the Lord about this, but I give my opinion. And I can be trusted, because the Lord has given me mercy. <sup>26</sup>This is a time of trouble. So I think that it is good for you to stay the way you are. <sup>27</sup>If you have a wife, then do not try to become free from her. If you are not married, then do not try to find a wife. <sup>28</sup>But if you decide to marry, this is not a sin. And it is not a sin for a girl who has never married to get married. But those who marry will have trouble in this life. And I want you to be free from this trouble.

<sup>29</sup>Brothers, this is what I mean: We do not have much time left. So starting now, those who have wives should use their time to serve the Lord as if they had no wives. <sup>30</sup>Those who are sad should live as if they are not sad. Those who are happy should live as if they are not happy. Those who buy things should live as if they own nothing. <sup>31</sup>Those who use the things of the world should live as if those things are not important to them. You should live like this, because this world, the way it is now, will soon be gone.

<sup>32</sup>I want you to be free from worry. A man who is not married is busy with the Lord's work. He is trying to please the Lord. <sup>33</sup>But a man who is married is busy with things of the world. He is trying to please his wife. <sup>34</sup>He must think about two things—pleasing his wife and pleasing the Lord. A woman who is not married or a girl who has never married is busy with the Lord's work. She wants to give herself fully—body and soul—to the Lord. But a married woman is busy with things of the world. She is trying to please her husband. <sup>35</sup>I am saying this to help you. I am not trying to limit you. But I want you to live in the right way. And I want you to give yourselves fully to the Lord without giving your time to other things.

<sup>36</sup>A man might think that he is not doing the right thing with the girl he is engaged to. The girl might be almost past the best age to marry. So he might feel that he should marry her. He should do what he wants. They should get married. It is no sin. <sup>37</sup>But another man might be more sure in his mind. There may be no need for marriage, so he is free to do what he wants. If he has decided in his own heart not to marry, he is doing the right thing. <sup>38</sup>So the man who marries his girl does right. And the man who does not marry does even better.

<sup>39</sup>A woman must stay with her husband as long as he lives. If the husband dies, she is free to marry any man she wants. But she must marry in the Lord. <sup>40</sup>The woman is happier if she does not marry again. This is my opinion, and I believe that I have God's Spirit.

About Food Offered to Idols

8 Now I will write about meat that is sacrificed to idols. We know that "we all have knowledge." Knowledge puffs you up with pride, but love builds up. <sup>2</sup>Whoever thinks he knows something does not yet know anything as he should. <sup>3</sup>But he who loves God is known by God.

<sup>4</sup>So this is what I say about eating meat sacrificed to idols: We know that an idol is really nothing in the world. And we know that there is only one God. <sup>5</sup>It is really not important if there are things called gods, in heaven or on earth. (And there are many things that people call "gods" and "lords.") <sup>6</sup>But for us there is only one God. He is our Father. All things came from him, and we live for him. And there is only one Lord—Jesus Christ. All things were made through Jesus, and we also have life through him.

<sup>7</sup>But not all people know this. Until now, some people have had the habit of worshiping idols. So now when they eat meat, they still feel as if it belongs to an idol. They are not sure that it is right to eat this meat. When they eat it, they feel guilty. <sup>8</sup>But food will not make us closer to God. Refusing to eat does not make us less pleasing to God. And eating does not make us better in God's sight.

<sup>9</sup>But be careful with your freedom. Your freedom may cause those who are weak in faith to fall into sin. <sup>10</sup>You have "knowledge," so you might eat in an idol's temple. <sup>11</sup>Someone who is weak in faith might see you eating there. This would encourage him to eat meat sacrificed to idols. But he really thinks it is wrong. <sup>12</sup>When you sin against your brothers in Christ like this and cause them to do what they feel is wrong, you are also sinning against Christ. <sup>13</sup>So if the food I eat makes my brother fall into sin, I will never eat meat again. I will stop eating meat, so that I will not cause my brother to sin.

Paul Is like the Other Apostles

9 I am a free man. I am an apostle. <sup>1</sup>I have seen Jesus our Lord. You people are all an example of my work in the Lord. <sup>2</sup>Others may not accept me as an apostle, but surely you accept me. You are proof that I am an apostle in the Lord.

<sup>3</sup>Some people want to judge me. So this is the answer I give them: <sup>4</sup>Do we not have the right to eat and drink? <sup>5</sup>Do we not have the right to bring a believing wife with us when we travel? The other apostles, the Lord's brothers, and Peter all do this. <sup>6</sup>And are Barnabas and I the only ones who must work to earn our living? <sup>7</sup>No soldier ever serves in the army and pays his own salary. No one ever plants a vineyard without eating some of the grapes himself. No person takes care of a flock of sheep without drinking some of the milk himself.

the right to get something from you. So surely we have this right, too. But we do not use this right. No, we put up with everything ourselves so that we will not stop anyone from obeying the Good News<sup>d</sup> of Christ. <sup>13</sup>Surely you know that those who work at the Temple<sup>d</sup> get their food from the Temple. And those who serve at the altar get part of what is offered at the altar. <sup>14</sup>It is the same with those who tell the Good News. The Lord has commanded that those who tell the Good News should get their living from this work.

<sup>15</sup>But I have not used any of these rights. And I am not writing this now to get anything from you. I would rather die than to have my reason for bragging taken away. <sup>16</sup>Telling the Good News is not my reason for bragging. Telling the Good News is my duty—something I must do. And how bad it will be for me if I do not tell the Good News. <sup>17</sup>If I preach because it is my own choice, I should get a reward. But I have no choice. I must tell the Good News. I am only doing the duty that was given to me. <sup>18</sup>So what reward do I get? This is my reward: that when I tell the Good News I can offer it freely. In this way I do not use my right to be paid in my work for the Good News.

<sup>19</sup>I am free. I belong to no man. But I make myself a slave to all people. I do this to help save as many people as I can. <sup>20</sup>To the Jews I became like a Jew. I did this to help save the Jews. I myself am not ruled by the law. But to those who are ruled by the law I became like a person who is ruled by the law. I did this to help save those who are ruled by the law. <sup>21</sup>To those who are without the law I became like a person who is without the law. I did this to help save those people who are without the law. (But really, I am not without God's law—I am ruled by Christ's law.) <sup>22</sup>To those who are weak, I became weak so that I could help save them. I have become all things to all people. I did this so that I could save some of them in any way possible. <sup>23</sup>I do all this because of the Good News. I do it so that I can share in the blessings of the Good News.

<sup>24</sup>You know that in a race all the runners run. But only one gets the prize. So run like that. Run to win! <sup>25</sup>All those who compete in the games use strict training. They do this so that they can win a crown. That crown is an earthly thing that lasts only a short time. But our crown will continue forever. <sup>26</sup>So I do not run without a goal. I fight like a boxer who is hitting something—not just the air. <sup>27</sup>It is my own body that I hit. I make it my slave. I do this so that I myself will not be rejected after I have preached to others.

Don't Be like the Jews

10 Brothers, I want you to know what happened to our ancestors who followed Moses. They were all under the cloud, and they all went through the sea. <sup>2</sup>They were all baptized as followers of Moses in the cloud and in the sea. <sup>3</sup>They all ate the same spiritual food. <sup>4</sup>And they all drank the same spiritual drink. They drank from that spiritual rock that was with them. That rock was Christ. <sup>5</sup>But God was not pleased with most of them. They died in the desert.

<sup>6</sup>And these things that happened are examples for us. They should stop us from wanting evil things as those people did. <sup>7</sup>Do not worship idols, as some of them did. It is written in the Scriptures:<sup>a</sup> “The people sat down to eat and drink. Then they got up and sinned sexually.”<sup>n</sup> <sup>8</sup>We should not take part in sexual sins, as some of them did. In one day 23,000 of them died because of their sins. <sup>9</sup>We should not test the Lord as some of them did. They were killed by snakes. <sup>10</sup>And do not complain as some of them did. They were killed by the angel that destroys.

<sup>11</sup>The things that happened to those people are examples. And they were written down to be warnings for us. For we live in a time when all these things of the past have reached their goal. <sup>12</sup>So anyone who thinks he is standing strong should be careful not to fall. <sup>13</sup>The only temptations that you have are the temptations that all people have. But you can trust God. He will not let you be tempted more than you can stand. But when you are tempted, God will also give you a way to escape that temptation. Then you will be able to stand it.

<sup>14</sup>So, my dear friends, stay away from worshipping idols. <sup>15</sup>I am speaking to you, as to intelligent people; judge for yourselves what I say. <sup>16</sup>We give thanks for the cup of blessing.<sup>n</sup> It is a sharing in the blood of Christ's death. And the bread that we break is a sharing in the body of Christ. <sup>17</sup>There is one loaf of bread. And we are many people. But we all share from that one loaf. So we are really one body.

idol is something important. And I do not mean that an idol is anything at all. <sup>20</sup>But I say that what is sacrificed to idols is offered to demons,<sup>d</sup> not to God. And I do not want you to share anything with demons. <sup>21</sup>You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons, too. You cannot share in the Lord's table and the table of demons, too. <sup>22</sup>Do we want to make the Lord jealous? We are not stronger than he is, are we?

How to Use Christian Freedom

<sup>23</sup>"We are allowed to do all things." Yes. But all things are not good for us to do. "We are allowed to do all things." Yes. But not all things help others grow stronger. <sup>24</sup>No one should try to do what will help only himself. He should try to do what is good for others.

<sup>25</sup>Eat any meat that is sold in the meat market. Do not ask questions about the meat to see if it is something you think is wrong to eat. <sup>26</sup>You can eat it, "because the earth and everything on it belong to the Lord."<sup>n</sup>

<sup>27</sup>Someone who is not a believer may invite you to eat with him. If you want to go, eat anything that is put before you. Do not ask questions to see if it is something you think might be wrong to eat. <sup>28</sup>But if anyone says to you, "That food was offered to idols," then do not eat it. Do not eat it because of that person who told you and because eating it would be something that might be thought wrong. <sup>29</sup>I don't mean that you think it is wrong. But the other person might think it is wrong. My own freedom should not be judged by what someone else thinks. <sup>30</sup>I eat the meal with thankfulness. And I do not want to be criticized because of something I thank God for.

<sup>31</sup>So if you eat, or if you drink, or if you do anything, do everything for the glory of God. <sup>32</sup>Never do anything that might make others do wrong—Jews, Greeks, or God's church. <sup>33</sup>I do the same thing. I try to please everybody in every way. I am not trying to do what is good for me. I try to do what is good for the most people. I do this so that they can be saved.

11 Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ.

Being Under Authority

<sup>2</sup>I praise you because you remember me in everything. You follow closely the teachings that I gave you. <sup>3</sup>But I want you to understand this: The head of every man is Christ. And the head of a woman is the man.<sup>a</sup> And the head of Christ is God. <sup>4</sup>Every man who prophesies<sup>d</sup> or prays with his head covered brings shame to his head. <sup>5</sup>But every woman who prays or prophesies should have her head covered. If her head is not covered, she brings shame to her head. She is the same as a woman who has her head shaved. <sup>6</sup>If a woman does not cover her head, it is the same as cutting off all her hair. But it is shameful for a woman to cut off her hair or to shave her head. So she should cover her head. <sup>7</sup>But a man should not cover his head, because he is made like God and is God's glory. But woman is man's glory. <sup>8</sup>Man did not come from woman, but woman came from man. <sup>9</sup>And man was not made for woman. Woman was made for man. <sup>10</sup>So that is why a woman should have her head covered with something to show that she is under authority. And also she should do this because of the angels.

<sup>11</sup>But in the Lord the woman is important to the man, and the man is important to the woman. <sup>12</sup>This is true because woman came from man, but also man is born from woman. Really, everything comes from God. <sup>13</sup>Decide this for yourselves: Is it right for a woman to pray to God without something on her head? <sup>14</sup>Even nature itself teaches you that wearing long hair is shameful for a man. <sup>15</sup>But wearing long hair is a woman's honor. Long hair is given to the woman to cover her head. <sup>16</sup>Some people may still want to argue about this. But I would add that neither we nor the churches of God accept any other practice.

The Lord's Supper

<sup>17</sup>In the things I tell you now I do not praise you. Your meetings hurt you more than they help you. <sup>18</sup>First, I hear that when you meet together as a church you are divided. And I believe some of this. <sup>19</sup>(It is necessary for there to be differences among you. That is the way to make it clear which of you are really doing right.) <sup>20</sup>When you all come together, you are not really eating the Lord's Supper.<sup>a</sup> <sup>21</sup>This is because when you eat, each person eats without waiting for the others. Some people do not get enough to eat, while others have too much to drink. <sup>22</sup>You can eat and drink in your own homes! It seems that you think God's church is not important. You embarrass those who are poor. What should I tell you? Should I praise you for doing this? I do not praise you.

<sup>23</sup>The teaching that I gave you is the same teaching that I received from the Lord: On the night when Jesus was handed over to be killed, he took bread <sup>24</sup>and gave thanks for it. Then he broke the bread and said, "This is my body; it is for you. Do this to remember me." <sup>25</sup>In the same way, after they ate, Jesus took the cup. He said, "This cup shows the new agreement from God to his people. This new agreement begins with the blood of my death. When you drink this, do it to remember me." <sup>26</sup>Every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you show others about the Lord's death until he comes.

<sup>27</sup>So a person should not eat the bread or drink the cup of the Lord in a way that is not worthy of it. If he does he is sinning against the body and the blood of the Lord. <sup>28</sup>Everyone should look into his own heart before he eats the bread and drinks the cup. <sup>29</sup>If someone eats the bread and drinks the cup without recognizing the body, then he is judged guilty by eating and drinking. <sup>30</sup>That is why many in your group are sick and weak. And many have died. <sup>31</sup>But if we judged ourselves in the right way, then God would not judge us. <sup>32</sup>But when the Lord judges us, he punishes us to show us the right way. He does this so that we will not be destroyed along with the world.

<sup>33</sup>So my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for each other. <sup>34</sup>If anyone is too hungry, he should eat at home. Do this so that your meeting together will not bring God's judgment on you. I will tell you what to do about the other things when I come.

Gifts from the Holy Spirit

12 Now, brothers, I want you to understand about spiritual gifts. <sup>2</sup>You remember the lives you lived before you were believers. You let yourselves be influenced and led away to worship idols—things that have no life. <sup>3</sup>So I tell you that no one who is speaking with the help of God's Spirit says, "Jesus be cursed." And no one can say, "Jesus is Lord," without the help of the Holy Spirit. <sup>4</sup>

<sup>4</sup>There are different kinds of gifts; but they are all from the same Spirit. <sup>5</sup>There are different ways to serve; but all these ways are from the same Lord. <sup>6</sup>And there are different ways that God works in people; but all these ways are from the same God. God works in us all in everything we do. <sup>7</sup>Something from the Spirit can be seen in each person, to help everyone. <sup>8</sup>The Spirit gives one person the ability to speak with wisdom. And the same Spirit gives another the ability to speak with knowledge. <sup>9</sup>The same Spirit gives faith to one person. And that one Spirit gives another gifts of healing. <sup>10</sup>The Spirit gives to another person the power to do miracles, <sup>4</sup> to another the ability to prophesy. <sup>4</sup> And he gives to another the ability to know the difference between good and evil spirits. The Spirit gives one person the ability to speak in different kinds of languages and to another the ability to interpret those languages. <sup>11</sup>One Spirit, the same Spirit, does all these things. The Spirit decides what to give each person.

The Body of Christ Works Together

<sup>12</sup>A person's body is only one thing, but it has many parts. Yes, there are many parts to a body, but all those parts make only one body. Christ is like that too. <sup>13</sup>Some of us are Jews, and some of us are Greeks. Some of us are slaves, and some of us are free. But we were all baptized into one body through one Spirit. <sup>4</sup> And we were all made to share in the one Spirit.

<sup>14</sup>And a person's body has more than one part. It has many parts. <sup>15</sup>The foot might say, "I am not a hand. So I am not part of the body." But saying this would not stop the foot from being a part of the body. <sup>16</sup>The ear might say, "I am not an eye. So I am not part of the body." But saying this would not make the ear stop being a part of the body. <sup>17</sup>If the whole body were an eye, the body would not be able to hear. If the whole body were an ear, the body would not be able to smell anything. <sup>18-19</sup>If each part of the body were the same part, there would be no body. But truly God put the parts in the body as he wanted them. He made a place for each one of them. <sup>20</sup>And so there are many parts, but only one body.

<sup>21</sup>The eye cannot say to the hand, "I don't need you!" And the head cannot say to the foot, "I don't need you!" <sup>22</sup>No! Those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are really very important. <sup>23</sup>And the parts of the body that we think are not worth much are the parts that we give the most care to. And we give special care to the parts of the body that we want to hide. <sup>24</sup>The more beautiful parts of our body need no special care. But God put the body together and gave more honor to the parts that need it. <sup>25</sup>God did this so that our body would not be divided. God wanted the different parts to care the same for each other. <sup>26</sup>If one part of the body suffers, then all the other parts suffer with it. Or if one part of our body is honored, then all the other parts share its honor.

<sup>27</sup>All of you together are the body of Christ. Each one of you is a part of that body. <sup>28</sup>And in the church God has given a place first to apostles, <sup>29</sup>second to prophets, <sup>30</sup>and third to teachers. Then God has given a place to those who do miracles, <sup>31</sup>those who have gifts of healing, those who can help others, those who are able to lead, and those who can speak in different languages. <sup>32</sup>Not all are apostles. Not all are prophets. Not all are teachers. Not all do miracles. <sup>33</sup>Not all have gifts of healing. Not all speak in different languages. Not all interpret those languages. <sup>34</sup>But you should truly want to have the greater gifts.

Love Is the Greatest Gift

And now I will show you the best way of all.

13 I may speak in different languages of men or even angels. But if I do not have love, then I am only a noisy bell or a ringing cymbal. <sup>2</sup>I may have the gift of prophecy; <sup>3</sup>I may understand all the secret things of God and all knowledge; and I may have faith so great that I can move mountains. But even with all these things, if I do not have love, then I am nothing. <sup>4</sup>I may give everything I have to feed the poor. And I may even give my body as an offering to be burned. But I gain nothing by doing these things if I do not have love.

<sup>9</sup>Love never ends. There are gifts of prophecy, <sup>10</sup>but they will be ended. There are gifts of speaking in different languages, but those gifts will end. There is the gift of knowledge, but it will be ended. <sup>11</sup>These things will end, because this knowledge and these prophecies we have are not complete. <sup>12</sup>But when perfection comes, the things that are not complete will end. <sup>13</sup>When I was a child, I talked like a child; I thought like a child; I made plans like a child. When I became a man, I stopped those childish ways. <sup>14</sup>It is the same with us. Now we see as if we are looking into a dark mirror. But at that time, in the future, we shall see clearly. Now I know only a part. But at that time I will know fully, as God has known me. <sup>15</sup>So these three things continue forever: faith, hope and love. And the greatest of these is love.

Desire Spiritual Gifts

14 Love, then, is what you should try for. And you should truly want to have the spiritual gifts. And the gift you should want most is to be able to prophesy. <sup>2</sup>I will explain why. One who has the gift of speaking in a different language is not speaking to people. He is speaking to God. No one understands him—he is speaking secret things through the Spirit. <sup>3</sup>But one who prophesies is speaking to people. He gives people strength, encouragement, and comfort. <sup>4</sup>The one who speaks in a different language is helping only himself. But the one who prophesies is helping the whole church. <sup>5</sup>I would like all of you to have the gift of speaking in different kinds of languages. But more, I want you to prophesy. The person who prophesies is greater than the one who can only speak in different languages—unless someone is there who can explain what he says. Then the whole church can be helped.

<sup>6</sup>Brothers, will it help you if I come to you speaking in different languages? No! It will help you only if I bring you a new truth or some knowledge, or some prophecy, or some teaching. <sup>7</sup>It is the same as with non-living things that make sounds—like a flute or a harp. If different musical notes are not made clear, you will not know what song is being played. Each note must be played clearly for you to be able to understand the tune. <sup>8</sup>And in a war, if the trumpet does not sound clearly, the soldiers will not know it is time to prepare for fighting. <sup>9</sup>It is the same with you. The words you speak with your tongue must be clear. Unless you speak clearly, no one can understand what you are saying. You will be talking in the air! <sup>10</sup>It is true that there are many kinds of speech in the world. And they all have meaning. <sup>11</sup>So unless I understand the meaning of what someone says to me, I am a stranger to him, and he is a stranger to me. <sup>12</sup>It is the same with you. You want spiritual gifts very much. So try most to have the gifts that help the church grow stronger.

<sup>13</sup>The one who has the gift of speaking in a different language should pray that he can also interpret what he says. <sup>14</sup>If I pray in a different language, my spirit is praying, but my mind does nothing. <sup>15</sup>So what should I do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will also pray with my mind. I will sing with my spirit, but I will also sing with my mind. <sup>16</sup>You might be praising God with your spirit. But a person there without understanding cannot say “Amen”<sup>a</sup> to your prayer of thanks. He does not know what you are saying. <sup>17</sup>You may be thanking God in a good way, but the other person is not helped.

<sup>18</sup>I thank God that my gift of speaking in different kinds of languages is greater than any of yours. <sup>19</sup>But in the church meetings I would rather speak five words that I understand than thousands of words in a different language. I would rather speak with my understanding, so that I can teach others.

“I will use strange words and foreign languages to speak to these people.
But even then they will not listen.”

Isaiah 28:11-12

That is what the Lord says.

<sup>22</sup>So the gift of speaking in different kinds of languages is a proof for those who do not believe, not for those who believe. And prophecy is for people who believe, not for those who do not believe. <sup>23</sup>Suppose the whole church meets together and everyone speaks in different languages. If some people come in who are without understanding or do not believe, they will say you are crazy. <sup>24</sup>But suppose everyone is prophesying and someone comes in who does not believe or is without understanding. If everyone is prophesying, his sin will be shown to him, and he will be judged by all that he hears. <sup>25</sup>The secret things in his heart will be made known. So he will bow down and worship God. He will say, “Truly, God is with you.”

Meetings Should Help the Church

<sup>26</sup>So, brothers, what should you do? When you meet together, one person has a song. Another has a teaching. Another has a new truth from God. Another speaks in a different language, and another person interprets that language. The purpose of all these things should be to help the church grow strong. <sup>27</sup>When you meet together, if anyone speaks in a different language, then it should be only two, or not more than three, who speak. They should speak one after the other. And someone else should interpret what they say. <sup>28</sup>But if there is no interpreter, then anyone who speaks in a different language should be quiet in the church meeting. He should speak only to himself and to God.

<sup>29</sup>And only two or three prophets<sup>d</sup> should speak. The others should judge what they say. <sup>30</sup>And if a message from God comes to another person who is sitting, then the first speaker should stop. <sup>31</sup>You can all prophesy one after the other. In this way all the people can be taught and encouraged. <sup>32</sup>The spirits of prophets are under the control of the prophets themselves. <sup>33</sup>God is not a God of confusion but a God of peace.

This is true in all the churches of God's people. <sup>34</sup>Women should keep quiet in the church meetings. They are not allowed to speak. They must be under control. This is also what the law of Moses says. <sup>35</sup>If there is something the women want to know, they should ask their own husbands at home. It is shameful for a woman to speak in the church meeting. <sup>36</sup>Did God's teaching come from you? Or are you the only ones who have received that teaching?

<sup>37</sup>If anyone thinks that he is a prophet or that he has a spiritual gift, then he should understand that what I am writing to you is the Lord's command. <sup>38</sup>If that person does not know this, then he is not known by God.

<sup>39</sup>So my brothers, you should truly want to prophesy. And do not stop people from using the gift of speaking in different kinds of languages. <sup>40</sup>But let everything be done in a way that is right and orderly.

The Good News About Christ

15 Now, brothers, I want you to remember the Good News<sup>d</sup> I brought to you. You received this Good News, and you continue strong in it. <sup>2</sup>And you are saved by this Good News. But you must continue believing what I told you. If you do not, then you believed for nothing.

<sup>3</sup>I passed on to you what I received. And this was the most important: that Christ died for our sins, as the Scriptures<sup>d</sup> say; <sup>4</sup>that he was buried and was raised to life on the third day as the Scriptures say; <sup>5</sup>and that he showed himself to Peter and then to the twelve apostles.<sup>d</sup> <sup>6</sup>After that, Jesus showed himself to more than 500 of the believers at the same time. Most of them are still living today. But some have died. <sup>7</sup>Then Jesus showed himself to James and later to all the apostles. <sup>8</sup>Last of all he showed himself to me—as to a person not born at the normal time. <sup>9</sup>All the other apostles are greater than I am. This is because I persecuted the church of God. And this is why I am not even good enough to be called an apostle. <sup>10</sup>But God's grace has made me what I am. And his grace to me was not wasted. I worked harder than all the other apostles. (But I was not really the one working. It was God's grace that was with me.) <sup>11</sup>So then it is not important if I preached to you or if the other apostles preached to you. We all preach the same thing, and this is what you believed.

We Will Be Raised from Death

<sup>12</sup>It is preached that Christ was raised from death. So why do some of you say that people will not be raised from death? <sup>13</sup>If no one will ever be raised from death, then Christ was not raised from death. <sup>14</sup>And if Christ was not raised, then our preaching is worth nothing. And your faith is worth nothing. <sup>15</sup>And also, we will be guilty of lying about God. Because we have preached about him by saying that he raised Christ from death. And if people are not raised from death, then God never raised Christ from death. <sup>16</sup>If the dead are not raised, Christ has not been raised either. <sup>17</sup>And if Christ has not been raised, then your faith is for nothing; you are still guilty of your sins. <sup>18</sup>And also, those in Christ who have already died are lost. <sup>19</sup>If our hope in Christ is for this life only, we should be pitied more than anyone else in the world.

<sup>20</sup>But Christ has truly been raised from death—the first one and proof that those who are asleep in death will also be raised. <sup>21</sup>Death comes to everyone because of what one man did. But the rising from death also happens because of one man. <sup>22</sup>In Adam all of us die. In the same way, in Christ all of us will be made alive again. <sup>23</sup>But everyone will be raised to life in the right order. Christ was first to be raised. When Christ comes again, those who belong to him will be raised to life. <sup>24</sup>Then the end will come. Christ will destroy all rulers, authorities, and powers. And he will give the kingdom to God the Father. <sup>25</sup>Christ must rule until God puts all enemies under Christ's control. <sup>26</sup>The last enemy to be destroyed will be death. <sup>27</sup>The Scripture<sup>d</sup> says, "God put all things under his control."<sup>n</sup> When it says that "all things" are put under him, it is clear that this does not include God himself. God is the one putting everything under Christ's control. <sup>28</sup>After everything has been put under Christ, then the Son himself will be put under God. God is the One who put all things under Christ. And Christ will be put under God, so that God will be the complete ruler over everything.

<sup>29</sup>If the dead are never raised, then what will people do who are baptized for those who have died? If the dead are not raised at all, why are people baptized for them?

<sup>30</sup>And what about us? Why do we put ourselves in danger every hour? <sup>31</sup>I die every day. That is true, brothers, just as it is true that I brag about you in Christ Jesus our Lord. <sup>32</sup>If I fought wild animals in Ephesus only for human reasons, I have gained nothing. If the dead are not raised, then, "Let us eat and drink, because tomorrow we will die."<sup>n</sup>

<sup>33</sup>Do not be fooled: "Bad friends will ruin good habits."<sup>34</sup>Come back to your right way of thinking and stop sinning. I say this to shame you—some of you do not know God.

What Kind of Body Will We Have?

<sup>35</sup>But someone may ask, "How are the dead raised? What kind of body will they have?"

<sup>36</sup>Those are stupid questions. When you plant something, it must die in the ground before it can live and grow. <sup>37</sup>And when you plant it, what you plant does not have the same "body" that it will have later. What you plant is only a seed, maybe wheat or something else. <sup>38</sup>But God gives it a body that he has planned for it. And God gives each kind of seed its own body. <sup>39</sup>All things made of flesh are not the same kinds of flesh: People have one kind of flesh, animals have another kind, birds have another, and fish have another. <sup>40</sup>Also there are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies. But the beauty of the heavenly bodies is one kind. The beauty of the earthly bodies is another kind. <sup>41</sup>The sun has one kind of beauty. The moon has another beauty, and the stars have another. And each star is different in its beauty.

<sup>42</sup>It is the same with the dead who are raised to life. The body that is "planted" will ruin and decay. But that body is raised to a life that cannot be destroyed. <sup>43</sup>When the body is "planted," it is without honor. But it is raised in glory. When the body is "planted," it is weak. But when it is raised, it has power. <sup>44</sup>The body that is "planted" is a physical body. When it is raised, it is a spiritual body.

There is a physical body. And there is also a spiritual body. <sup>45</sup>It is written in the Scriptures:<sup>d</sup> "The first man became a living person."<sup>n</sup> But the last Adam became a spirit that gives life. <sup>46</sup>The spiritual man did not come first. It was the physical man who came first; then came the spiritual. <sup>47</sup>The first man came from the dust of the earth. The second man came from heaven. <sup>48</sup>People belong to the earth. They are like the first man of earth. But those people who belong to heaven are like the man of heaven. <sup>49</sup>We were made like the man of earth. So we will also be made like the man of heaven.

<sup>50</sup>I tell you this, brothers: Flesh and blood cannot have a part in the kingdom of God. A thing that will ruin cannot have a part in something that never ruins. <sup>51</sup>But listen, I tell you this secret: We will not all die, but we will all be changed. <sup>52</sup>It will only take a second. We will be changed as quickly as an eye blinks. This will happen when the last trumpet blows. The trumpet will blow and those who have died will be raised to live forever. And we will all be changed. <sup>53</sup>This body that will ruin must clothe itself with something that will never ruin. And this body that dies must clothe itself with something that will never die. <sup>54</sup>So this body that ruins will clothe itself with that which never ruins. And this body that dies will clothe itself with that which never dies. When this happens, then this Scripture will be made true:

<sup>55</sup>“Death, where is your victory?
Death, where is your power to hurt?”

Hosea 13:14

<sup>56</sup>Death’s power to hurt is sin. The power of sin is the law. <sup>57</sup>But we thank God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>58</sup>So my dear brothers, stand strong. Do not let anything change you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord. You know that your work in the Lord is never wasted.

The Gift for Other Believers

16 Now I will write about the collection of money for God’s people. Do the same thing that I told the Galatian churches to do: <sup>2</sup>On the first day of every week, each one of you should put aside as much money as you can from what you are blessed with. You should save it up, so that you will not have to collect money after I come. <sup>3</sup>When I arrive, I will send some men to take your gift to Jerusalem. These will be men who you all agree should go. I will send them with letters of introduction. <sup>4</sup>If it seems good for me to go also, these men will go along with me.

Paul’s Plans

<sup>5</sup>I plan to go through Macedonia. So I will come to you after I go through there. <sup>6</sup>Maybe I will stay with you for a time. I might even stay all winter. Then you can help me on my trip, wherever I go. <sup>7</sup>I do not want to come to see you now, because I would have to leave to go other places. I hope to stay a longer time with you if the Lord allows it. <sup>8</sup>But I will stay at Ephesus until Pentecost. <sup>9</sup>I will stay, because a good opportunity for a great and growing work has been given to me now. And there are many people working against me.

<sup>10</sup>Timothy might come to you. Try to make him feel comfortable with you. He is working for the Lord just as I am. <sup>11</sup>So none of you should refuse to accept Timothy. Help him on his trip in peace, so that he can come back to me. I am expecting him to come back with the brothers.

<sup>12</sup>Now about our brother Apollos: I strongly encouraged him to visit you with the other brothers. But he was sure that he did not want to go now. But when he has the opportunity, he will go to you.

Paul Ends His Letter

<sup>13</sup>Be careful. Continue strong in the faith. Have courage, and be strong. <sup>14</sup>Do everything in love.

<sup>15</sup>You know that the family of Stephanas were the first believers in Southern Greece. They have given themselves to the service of God’s people. I ask you, brothers, <sup>16</sup>to follow the leading of people like these and anyone else who works and serves with them.

<sup>17</sup>I am happy that Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus have come. You are not here, but they have filled your place. <sup>18</sup>They have given rest to my spirit and to yours. You should recognize the value of men like these.

<sup>19</sup>The churches in the country of Asia send greetings to you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you in the Lord. Also the church that meets in their house greets you. <sup>20</sup>All the brothers here send greetings. Give each other a holy kiss when you meet.

<sup>21</sup>I am Paul, and I am writing this greeting with my own hand.

<sup>22</sup>If anyone does not love the Lord, then let him be separated from God—lost forever!
Come, O Lord!

2 CORINTHIANS

Paul Answers Those Who Accuse Him

1 From Paul, an apostle<sup>d</sup> of Christ Jesus. I am an apostle because that is what God wanted.

Also from Timothy our brother in Christ.

To the church of God in Corinth, and to all of God's people in the whole country of Southern Greece:

<sup>2</sup>Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Paul Gives Thanks to God

<sup>3</sup>Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is the Father who is full of mercy. And he is the God of all comfort. <sup>4</sup>He comforts us every time we have trouble, so that we can comfort others when they have trouble. We can comfort them with the same comfort that God gives us. <sup>5</sup>We share in the many sufferings of Christ. In the same way, much comfort comes to us through Christ. <sup>6</sup>If we have troubles, it is for your comfort and salvation. If we have comfort, then you also have comfort. This helps you to accept patiently the same sufferings that we have. <sup>7</sup>Our hope for you is strong. We know that you share in our sufferings. So we know that you also share in the comfort we receive.

<sup>8</sup>Brothers, we want you to know about the trouble we suffered in the country of Asia. We had great burdens there that were greater than our own strength. We even gave up hope for life. <sup>9</sup>Truly, in our own hearts we believed that we would die. But this happened so that we would not trust in ourselves. It happened so that we would trust in God, who raises people from death. <sup>10</sup>God saved us from these great dangers of death. And he will continue to save us. We have put our hope in him, and he will save us again. <sup>11</sup>And you can help us with your prayers. Then many people will give thanks for us—that God blessed us because of their many prayers.

The Change in Paul's Plans

<sup>12</sup>This is what we are proud of, and I can say with all my heart that it is true: In all the things we have done in the world, we have done everything with an honest and pure heart from

God. And this is even more true in what we have done with you. We did this by God's grace, not by the kind of wisdom the world has. <sup>13</sup>For we write to you only what you can read and understand. And I hope that <sup>14</sup>as you have understood some things about us, you may come to know everything about us. Then you can be proud of us, as we will be proud of you on the day our Lord Jesus Christ comes again.

<sup>15</sup>I was very sure of all this. That is why I made plans to visit you first. Then you could be blessed twice. <sup>16</sup>I planned to visit you on my way to Macedonia. Then I planned to visit you again on my way back. I wanted to get help from you for my trip to Judea. <sup>17</sup>Do you think that I made these plans without really thinking? Or maybe you think I make plans as the world does, so that I say "Yes, yes," and at the same time "No, no."

<sup>18</sup>But if you can believe God, then you can believe that what we tell you is never both "Yes" and "No." <sup>19</sup>The Son of God, Jesus Christ, that Silas and Timothy and I preached to you, was not "Yes" and "No." In Christ it has always been "Yes." <sup>20</sup>The "Yes" to all of God's promises is in Christ. And that is why we say "Amen"<sup>a</sup> through Christ to the glory of God. <sup>21</sup>And God is the One who makes you and us strong in Christ. God made us his chosen people. <sup>22</sup>He put his mark on us to show that we are his. And he put his Spirit<sup>d</sup> in our hearts to be a guarantee for all he has promised.

<sup>23</sup>I tell you this, and I ask God to be my witness that this is true: The reason I did not come back to Corinth was that I did not want to punish or hurt you. <sup>24</sup>I do not mean that we are trying to control your faith. You are strong in faith. But we are workers with you for your own happiness.

2 So I decided that my next visit to you would not be another visit to make you sad. <sup>2</sup>If I make you sad, who will make me happy? Only you can make me happy—you whom I made sad. <sup>3</sup>I wrote you a letter for this reason: that when I came to you I would not be made sad by the people who should make me happy. I felt sure of all of you. I felt sure that you would share my joy. <sup>4</sup>When I wrote to you before, I was very troubled and unhappy in my heart. I wrote with many tears. I did not write to make you sad, but to let you know how much I love you.

Forgive the Sinner

<sup>5</sup>Someone there among you has caused sadness. He caused this not to me, but to all of you—I mean he caused sadness to all in some way. (I do not want to make it sound worse than it really is.) <sup>6</sup>The punishment that most of you gave him is enough for him. <sup>7</sup>But now you should forgive him and comfort him. This will keep him from having too much sadness and giving up completely. <sup>8</sup>So I beg you to show him that you love him. <sup>9</sup>This is why I wrote to you. I wanted to test you and see if you obey in everything. <sup>10</sup>If you forgive someone, I also forgive him. And what I have forgiven—if I had anything to forgive—I forgave it for you, and Christ was with me. <sup>11</sup>I did this so that Satan would not win anything from us. We know very well what Satan's plans are.

Paul's Concern in Troas

<sup>12</sup>I went to Troas to preach the Good News<sup>d</sup> of Christ. The Lord gave me a good opportunity there. <sup>13</sup>But I had no peace because I did not find my brother Titus there. So I said good-bye and went to Macedonia.

Victory Through Christ

<sup>14</sup>But thanks be to God, who always leads us in victory through Christ. God uses us to spread his knowledge everywhere like a sweet-smelling perfume. <sup>15</sup>Our offering to God is this: We are the sweet smell of Christ among those who are being saved and among those who are being lost. <sup>16</sup>To those who are lost, we are the smell of death that brings death. But to those who are being saved, we are the smell of life that brings life. So who is able to do this work? <sup>17</sup>We do not sell the word of God for a profit as many other people do. But in Christ we speak the truth before God. We speak as men sent from God.

Servants of the New Agreement

3 Are we starting to brag about ourselves again? Do we need letters of introduction to you or from you, like some other people? <sup>2</sup>You yourselves are our letter, written on our hearts. It is known and read by everyone. <sup>3</sup>You show that you are a letter from Christ that he sent through us. This letter is not written with ink, but with the Spirit<sup>a</sup> of the living God. It is not written on stone tablets.<sup>a</sup> It is written on human hearts.

<sup>4</sup>We can say this, because through Christ we feel sure before God. <sup>5</sup>I do not mean that we are able to say that we can do this work ourselves. It is God who makes us able to do all that we do. <sup>6</sup>God made us able to be servants of a new agreement from himself to his people. This new agreement is not a written law. It is of the Spirit. The written law brings death, but the Spirit gives life.

<sup>7</sup>The law that brought death was written in words on stone. It came with God's glory. Moses' face was so bright with glory that the people of Israel could not continue to look at his face. And that glory later disappeared. <sup>8</sup>So surely the new way that brings the Spirit has even more glory. <sup>9</sup>That law judged people guilty of sin, but it had glory. So surely the new way that makes people right with God has much greater glory. <sup>10</sup>That old law had glory. But it really loses its glory when it is compared to the much greater glory of this new way. <sup>11</sup>If that law which disappeared came with glory, then this new way which continues forever has much greater glory.

<sup>12</sup>We have this hope, so we are very brave. <sup>13</sup>We are not like Moses. He put a covering over his face so that the people of Israel would not see it. The glory was disappearing, and Moses did not want them to see it end. <sup>14</sup>But their minds were closed. Even today that same covering hides the meaning when they read the old agreement. That covering is taken away only through Christ. <sup>15</sup>But even today, when they read the law of Moses, there is a covering over their minds. <sup>16</sup>But when a person changes and follows the Lord, that covering is taken away. <sup>17</sup>The Lord is the Spirit. And where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. <sup>18</sup>Our faces, then, are not covered. We all show the Lord's glory, and we are being changed to be like him. This change in us brings more and more glory. And it comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.

Preaching the Good News

4 God, with his mercy, gave us this work to do. So we don't give up. <sup>2</sup>But we have turned away from secret and shameful ways. We use no trickery, and we do not change the teaching of God. We teach the truth plainly.

<sup>a</sup>stone tablets Meaning the law of Moses that was written on stone tablets (Exodus 24:12; 25:16).

This is how we show everyone who we are. And this is how they can know in their hearts what kind of people we are before God. <sup>3</sup>The Good News<sup>d</sup> that we preach may be hidden. But it is hidden only to those who are lost. <sup>4</sup>The devil who rules this world has blinded the minds of those who do not believe. They cannot see the light of the Good News—the Good News about the glory of Christ, who is exactly like God. <sup>5</sup>We do not preach about ourselves. But we preach that Jesus Christ is Lord; and we preach that we are your servants for Jesus. <sup>6</sup>God once said, “Let the light shine out of the darkness!” And this is the same God who made his light shine in our hearts. He gave us light by letting us know the glory of God that is in the face of Christ.

Spiritual Treasure in Clay Jars

<sup>7</sup>We have this treasure from God. But we are only like clay jars that hold the treasure. This shows that this great power is from God, not from us. <sup>8</sup>We have troubles all around us, but we are not defeated. We do not know what to do, but we do not give up. <sup>9</sup>We are persecuted, but God does not leave us. We are hurt sometimes, but we are not destroyed. <sup>10</sup>We carry the death of Jesus in our own bodies, so that the life of Jesus can also be seen in our bodies. <sup>11</sup>We are alive, but for Jesus we are always in danger of death. This is so that the life of Jesus can be seen in our bodies that die. <sup>12</sup>So death is working in us, but life is working in you. <sup>13</sup>It is written in the Scriptures,<sup>d</sup> “I believed, so I spoke.”<sup>a</sup> Our faith is like this, too. We believe, and so we speak. <sup>14</sup>God raised the Lord Jesus from death. And we know that God will also raise us with Jesus. God will bring us together with you, and we will stand before him. <sup>15</sup>All these things are for you. And so the grace of God is being given to more and more people. This will bring more and more thanks to God for his glory.

Living by Faith

<sup>16</sup>So we do not give up. Our physical body is becoming older and weaker, but our spirit inside us is made new every day. <sup>17</sup>We have small troubles for a while now, but they are helping us gain an eternal glory. That glory is much greater than the troubles. <sup>18</sup>So we set our eyes not on what we see but on what we cannot see. What we see will last only a short time. But what we cannot see will last forever.

5 We know that our body—the tent we live in here on earth—will be destroyed. But when that happens, God will have a house for us to live in. It will not be a house made by men. It will be a home in heaven that will last forever. <sup>2</sup>But now we are tired of this body. We want God to give us our heavenly home. <sup>3</sup>It will clothe us, and we will not be naked. <sup>4</sup>While we live in this body, we have burdens, and we complain. We do not want to be naked. We want to be clothed with our heavenly home. Then this body that dies will be fully covered with life. <sup>5</sup>This is what God made us for. And he has given us the Spirit<sup>d</sup> to be a guarantee for this new life.

<sup>6</sup>So we always have courage. We know that while we live in this body, we are away from the Lord. <sup>7</sup>We live by what we believe, not by what we can see. <sup>8</sup>So I say that we have courage. And we really want to be away from this body and be at home with the Lord. <sup>9</sup>Our only goal is to please God. We want to please him whether we live here or there. <sup>10</sup>For we must all stand before Christ to be judged. Each one will receive what he should get—good or bad—for the things he did when he lived in the earthly body.

Becoming Friends with God

<sup>11</sup>We know what it means to fear the Lord. So we try to help people accept the truth. God knows what we really are. And I hope that in your hearts you know, too. <sup>12</sup>We are not trying to prove ourselves to you again. But we are telling you about ourselves, so you will be proud of us. Then you will have an answer for those who are proud about things that can be seen. They do not care about what is in the heart. <sup>13</sup>If we are out of our minds, it is for God. If we have our right mind, then it is for you. <sup>14</sup>The love of Christ controls us. Because we know that One died for all. So all have died. <sup>15</sup>Christ died for all so that those who live would not continue to live for themselves. He died for them and was raised from death so that they would live for him.

<sup>16</sup>From this time on we do not think of anyone as the world does. It is true that in the past we thought of Christ as the world thinks. But we no longer think of him in that way. <sup>17</sup>If anyone belongs to Christ, then he is made new. The old things have gone; everything is made new! <sup>18</sup>All this is from God. Through Christ, God made peace between us and himself. And God gave us the work of bringing everyone into peace with him. <sup>19</sup>I mean that God was in Christ, making peace between the world and himself. In Christ, God did not hold the world guilty of its sins. And he gave us this message of peace. <sup>20</sup>So we have been sent to speak for Christ. It is as if God is calling to you through us. We speak for Christ when we beg you to be at peace with God. <sup>21</sup>Christ had no sin. But God made him become sin. God did this for us so that in Christ we could become right with God.

6 We are workers together with God. So we beg you: Do not let the grace that you received from God be for nothing. <sup>2</sup>God says, "I heard your prayers at the right time, and I gave you help on the day of salvation."

Isaiah 40:8

I tell you that the "right time" is now. The "day of salvation" is now.

<sup>3</sup>We do not want anyone to find anything wrong with our work. So we do nothing that will be a problem for anyone. <sup>4</sup>But in every way we show that we are servants of God: in accepting many hard things, in troubles, in difficulties, and in great problems. <sup>5</sup>We are beaten and thrown into prison. Men become upset and fight us. We work hard, and sometimes we get no sleep or food. <sup>6</sup>We show that we are servants of God by living a pure life, by our understanding, by our patience, and by our kindness. We show this by the Holy Spirit, <sup>a</sup> by true love, <sup>7</sup> by speaking the truth, and by God's power. We use our right living to defend ourselves against everything. <sup>8</sup>Some people honor us, but other people shame us. Some people say good things about us, but other people say bad things. Some people say we are liars, but we speak the truth. <sup>9</sup>We are not known, but we are well-known. We seem to be dying, but look—we continue to live. We are punished, but we are not killed. <sup>10</sup>We have much sadness, but we are always rejoicing. We are poor, but we are making many people rich in faith. We have nothing, but really we have everything.

<sup>11</sup>We have spoken freely to you in Corinth. We have opened our hearts to you. <sup>12</sup>Our feelings of love for you have not stopped. It is you that have stopped your feelings of love for us. <sup>13</sup>I speak to you as if you were my children. Do to us as we have done—open your hearts to us.

Warning About Non-Christians

<sup>14</sup>You are not the same as those who do not believe. So do not join yourselves to them. Good and bad do not belong together. Light and darkness cannot share together. <sup>15</sup>How can Christ and Belial, the devil, have any agreement? What can a believer have together with a non-believer? <sup>16</sup>The temple of God cannot have any agreement with idols. And we are the temple of the living God. As God said: "I will live with them and walk with them. And I will be their God. And they will be my people." <sup>a</sup>

<sup>17</sup>"Leave those people, and make yourselves pure, says the Lord. Touch nothing that is unclean, <sup>d</sup> and I will accept you." Isaiah 52:11; Ezekiel 20:34,41

<sup>18</sup>"I will be your father, and you will be my sons and daughters, says the Lord All-Powerful." 2 Samuel 7:14; 7:8

7 Dear friends, we have these promises from God. So we should make ourselves pure—free from anything that makes body or soul unclean. We should try to become perfect in the way we live, because we respect God.

Paul's Joy

<sup>2</sup>Open your hearts to us. We have not done wrong to anyone. We have not ruined the faith of any person, and we have cheated no one. <sup>3</sup>I do not say this to blame you. I told you before that we love you so much that we would live or die with you. <sup>4</sup>I feel very sure of you. I am very proud of you. You give me much comfort. And in all of our troubles I have great joy.

<sup>5</sup>When we came into Macedonia, we had no rest. We found trouble all around us. We had fighting on the outside and fear on the inside. <sup>6</sup>But God comforts those who are troubled. And God comforted us when Titus came. <sup>7</sup>We were comforted by his coming and also by the comfort that you gave him. Titus told us about your wish to see me. He told us that you are very sorry for what you did. And he told me about your great care for me. When I heard this, I was much happier.

<sup>8</sup>Even if the letter I wrote you made you sad, I am not sorry I wrote it. I know it made you sad, and I was sorry for that. But it made you sad only for a short time. <sup>9</sup>Now I am happy, but not because you were made sad. I am happy because your sorrow made you change your hearts. You became sad in the way God wanted you to. So you were not hurt by us in any way. <sup>10</sup>Being sorry in the way God wants makes a person change his heart and life. This leads to salvation, and we cannot be sorry for that. But the kind of sorrow the world has will bring death. <sup>11</sup>You had the kind of sorrow God wanted you to have. Now see what this sorrow has brought you: It has made you very serious. It made you want to prove that you were not wrong. It made you angry and afraid. It made you want to see me. It made you care. It made you want the right thing to be done. You proved that you were not guilty in any part of the problem. <sup>12</sup>I wrote that letter, but not because of the one who did the wrong. And it was not written because of the person who was hurt. But I wrote the letter so that you could see, before God, the great care that you have for us. <sup>13</sup>That is why we were comforted.

We were very comforted. And we were even happier to see that Titus was so happy. All of you made him feel much better. <sup>14</sup>I bragged to Titus about you. And you showed that I was right. Everything that we said to you was true. And you have proved that what we bragged about to Titus is true. <sup>15</sup>And his love for you is stronger when he remembers that you were all ready to obey. You welcomed him with respect and fear. <sup>16</sup>I am very happy that I can trust you fully.

Christian Giving

8 And now, brothers, we want you to know about the grace that God gave the churches in Macedonia. <sup>2</sup>They have been tested by great troubles. And they are very poor. But they gave much because of their great joy. <sup>3</sup>I can tell you that they gave as much as they were able. They gave even more than they could afford. No one told them to do it. <sup>4</sup>But they asked us again and again—they begged us to let them share in this service for God's people. <sup>5</sup>And they gave in a way that we did not expect: They first gave themselves to the Lord and to us. This is what God wants. <sup>6</sup>So we asked Titus to help you finish this special work of grace. He is the one who started this work. <sup>7</sup>You are rich in everything—in faith, in speaking, in knowledge, in truly wanting to help, and in the love you learned from us. And so we want you to be rich also in this gift of giving.

<sup>8</sup>I am not commanding you to give. But I want to see if your love is true love. I do this by showing you that others really want to help. <sup>9</sup>You know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. You know that Christ was rich, but for you he became poor. Christ did this so that by his being poor you might become rich.

<sup>10</sup>This is what I think you should do: Last year you were the first to want to give. And you were the first who gave. <sup>11</sup>So now finish the work that you started. Then your "doing" will be equal to your "wanting to do." Give from what you have. <sup>12</sup>If you want to give, your gift will be accepted. Your gift will be judged by what you have, not by what you do not have. <sup>13</sup>We do not want you to have troubles while other people are at ease. We want everything to be equal. <sup>14</sup>At this time you have plenty. What you have can help others who are in need. Then later, when they have plenty, they can help you when you are in need. Then all will be equal. <sup>15</sup>As it is written in the Scriptures,<sup>d</sup> "The person who gathered more did not have too much. The person who gathered less did not have too little."<sup>n</sup>

Titus and His Companions Help

<sup>16</sup>I thank God because he gave Titus the same love for you that I have. <sup>17</sup>Titus accepted what we asked him to do. He wanted very much to go to you. This was his own idea. <sup>18</sup>We are sending with him the brother who is praised by all the churches. This brother is praised because of his service in preaching the Good News.<sup>d</sup> <sup>19</sup>Also, this brother was chosen by the churches to go with us when we deliver this gift of money. We are doing this service to bring glory to the Lord and to show that we really want to help.

<sup>20</sup>We are being careful so that no one will criticize us about the way we are handling this large gift. <sup>21</sup>We are trying to do what is right. We want to do what the Lord accepts as right and also what people think is right.

<sup>22</sup>Also, we are sending with them our brother who is always ready to help. He has proved this to us in many ways. And he wants to help even more now because he has much faith in you.

<sup>23</sup>Now about Titus—he is my partner who is working with me to help you. And about the other brothers—they are sent from the churches, and they bring glory to Christ. <sup>24</sup>So show these men that you really have love. Show them why we are proud of you. Then all the churches can see it.

Help for Fellow Christians

9 I really do not need to write to you about this help for God's people. <sup>2</sup>I know that you want to help. I have been bragging about this to the people in Macedonia. I have told them that you in Southern Greece have been ready to give since last year. And your wanting to give has made most of them here ready to give also. <sup>3</sup>But I am sending the brothers to you. I do not want our bragging about you in this to be for nothing. I want you to be ready, as I said you would be. <sup>4</sup>If any of the people from Macedonia come with me and find that you are not ready, we will be ashamed. We will be ashamed that we were so sure of you. (And you will be ashamed, too!) <sup>5</sup>So I thought that I should ask these brothers to go to you before we come. They will finish getting in order the gift you promised. Then the gift will be ready when we come, and it will be a gift you wanted to give—not a gift that you hated to give.

<sup>6</sup>Remember this: The person who plants a little will have a small harvest. But the person who plants a lot will have a big harvest. <sup>7</sup>Each one should give, then, what he has decided in his heart to give. He should not be sad when he gives. And he should not give because he feels forced to give. God loves the person who gives happily. <sup>8</sup>And God can give you more blessings than you need. Then you will always have plenty of everything. You will have enough to give to every good work. <sup>9</sup>It is written in the Scriptures:<sup>d</sup>

“He gives freely to the poor.

The things he does are right and will continue forever.”

Psalms 112:9

<sup>10</sup>God is the One who gives seed to the farmer. And he gives bread for food. And God will give you all the seed you need and make it grow. He will make a great harvest from your goodness. <sup>11</sup>God will make you rich in every way so that you can always give freely. And your giving through us will cause many to give thanks to God. <sup>12</sup>This service that you do helps the needs of God’s people. It is also bringing more and more thanks to God. <sup>13</sup>This service you do is a proof of your faith. Many people will praise God because of it. They will praise God because you follow the Good News<sup>d</sup> of Christ—the gospel you say you believe. They will praise God because you freely share with them and with all others. <sup>14</sup>And when they pray, they will wish they could be with you. They will feel this because of the great grace that God has given you. <sup>15</sup>Thanks be to God for his gift that is too wonderful to explain.

Paul Defends His Ministry

10 I, Paul, am begging you with the gentleness and the kindness of Christ.

Some people say that I am easy on you when I am with you and strict when I am away. <sup>2</sup>They think that we live in a worldly way. I plan to be very strict against them when I come. I beg you that when I come I will not need to use that same strictness with you. <sup>3</sup>We do live in the world. But we do not fight in the same way that the world fights. <sup>4</sup>We fight with weapons that are different from those the world uses. Our weapons have power from God. These weapons can destroy the enemy’s strong places. We destroy men’s arguments. <sup>5</sup>And we destroy every proud thing that raises itself against the knowledge of God. We capture every thought and make it give up and obey Christ. <sup>6</sup>We are ready to punish anyone there who does not obey. But first we want you to obey fully.

<sup>7</sup>You must look at the facts before you. If anyone feels sure that he belongs to Christ, then he must remember that we belong to Christ just as he does. <sup>8</sup>It is true that we brag freely about the authority the Lord gave us. But he gave us this authority to strengthen you, not to hurt you. So I will not be ashamed of the bragging we do. <sup>9</sup>I don’t want you to think that I am trying to scare you with my letters. <sup>10</sup>Some people say, “Paul’s letters are powerful and sound important. But when he is with us, he is weak. And his speaking is nothing.” <sup>11</sup>They should know this: We are not there with you now, so we say these things in letters. But when we are there with you, we will show the same authority that we show in our letters.

<sup>12</sup>We do not dare to put ourselves in the same group with those who think that they are very important. We do not compare ourselves to them. They use themselves to measure themselves, and they judge themselves by what they themselves are. This shows that they know nothing. <sup>13</sup>But we will not brag about things outside the work that was given us to do. We will limit our bragging to the work that God gave us. And this work includes our work with you. <sup>14</sup>We are not bragging too much. We would be bragging too much if we had not already come to you. But we have come to you with the Good News<sup>d</sup> of Christ. <sup>15</sup>We limit our bragging to the work that is ours. We do not brag in the work other men have done. We hope that your faith will continue to grow. And we hope that you will help our work to grow much larger. <sup>16</sup>We want to tell the Good News in the areas beyond your city. We do not want to brag about work that has already been done in another man’s area. <sup>17</sup>But, “If a person brags, he should brag only about the Lord.”<sup>n</sup>

<sup>18</sup>It is not the one who says he is good who is accepted but the one that the Lord thinks is good.

Paul and the False Apostles

11 I wish you would be patient with me even when I am a little foolish. But you are already doing that. <sup>2</sup>I am jealous over you. And this jealousy comes from God. I promised to give you to Christ. He must be your only husband. I want to give you to Christ to be his pure bride. <sup>3</sup>But I am afraid that your minds will be led away from your true and pure following of Christ. This might happen just as Eve was tricked by the snake with his evil ways. <sup>4</sup>You are very patient with anyone who comes to you and preaches a different Jesus than the one we preached. You are very willing to accept a spirit or Good News that is different from the Spirit<sup>d</sup> and Good News<sup>d</sup> that you received from us.

<sup>5</sup>I do not think that those “great apostles” are any better than I am. <sup>6</sup>I may not be a trained speaker, but I do have knowledge. We have shown this to you clearly in every way.

<sup>7</sup>I preached God’s Good News to you without pay. I made myself unimportant to make you important. Do you think that was wrong? <sup>8</sup>I accepted pay from other churches. I took their money so that I could serve you. <sup>9</sup>If I needed something when I was with you, I did not trouble any of you. The brothers who came from Macedonia gave me all that I needed. I did not allow myself to depend on you in any way. And I will never depend on you. <sup>10</sup>No one in Southern Greece will stop me from bragging about that. I say this with the truth of Christ in me. <sup>11</sup>And why do I not depend on you? Do you think it is because I do not love you? No. God knows that I love you.

<sup>12</sup>And I will keep on doing what I am doing now. I will continue because I want to stop those people from having a reason to brag. They would like to say that the work they brag about is the same as ours. <sup>13</sup>Such men are not true apostles.<sup>d</sup> They are workers who lie. And they change themselves to look like apostles of Christ. <sup>14</sup>This does not surprise us. Even Satan changes himself to look like an angel of light.<sup>n</sup>
<sup>15</sup>So it does not surprise us if Satan’s servants also make themselves look like servants who work for what is right. But in the end they will be punished for the things they do.

Paul Tells About His Sufferings

<sup>16</sup>I tell you again: No one should think that I am a fool. But if you think that I am a fool, then accept me as you would accept a fool. Then I can brag a little, too. <sup>17</sup>I brag because I feel sure of myself. But I am not talking as the Lord would talk. I am bragging like a fool. <sup>18</sup>Many people are bragging about their lives in the world. So I will brag, too. <sup>19</sup>You are wise, so you will gladly be patient with fools! <sup>20</sup>You are even patient with someone who orders you around and uses you! You are patient with those who trick you, or think they are better than you, or hit you in the face! <sup>21</sup>It is shameful to me to say this, but we were too “weak” to do those things to you!

But if anyone else is brave enough to brag, then I also will be brave and brag. (I am talking like a fool.) <sup>22</sup>Are they Hebrews? <sup>n</sup> So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they from Abraham’s family? So am I. <sup>23</sup>Are they serving Christ? I am serving him more. (I am crazy to talk like this.) I have worked much harder than they. I have been in prison more often. I have been hurt more in beatings. I have been near death many times. <sup>24</sup>Five times the Jews have given me their punishment of 39 lashes with a whip. <sup>25</sup>Three different times I was beaten with rods. One time they tried to kill me with stones. Three times I was in ships that were wrecked, and one of those times I spent the night and the next day in the sea. <sup>26</sup>I have gone on many travels. And I have been in danger from rivers, from thieves, from my own people, the Jews, and from those who are not Jews. I have been in danger in cities, in places where no one lives, and on the sea. And I have been in danger with false brothers. <sup>27</sup>I have done hard and tiring work, and many times I did not sleep. I have been hungry and thirsty. Many times I have been without food. I have been cold and without clothes. <sup>28</sup>Besides all this, there is on me every day the load of my concern for all the churches. <sup>29</sup>I feel weak every time someone is weak. I feel upset every time someone is led into sin.

<sup>30</sup>If I must brag, I will brag about the things that show I am weak. <sup>31</sup>God knows that I am not lying. He is the God and Father of the Lord Jesus Christ, and he is to be praised forever.

<sup>32</sup>When I was in Damascus, the governor under King Aretas wanted to arrest me. So he put guards around the city. <sup>33</sup>But my friends put me in a basket. Then they put the basket through a hole in the wall and lowered me down. So I escaped from the governor.

A Special Blessing in Paul's Life

12 I must continue to brag. It will do no good, but I will talk now about visions and revelations<sup>a</sup> from the Lord. <sup>2</sup>I know a man in Christ who was taken up to the third heaven. This happened 14 years ago. I do not know whether the man was in his body or out of his body. But God knows. <sup>3-4</sup>And I know that this man was taken up to paradise.<sup>a</sup> I don't know if he was in his body or away from his body. But he heard things he is not able to explain. He heard things that no man is allowed to tell. <sup>5</sup>I will brag about a man like that. But I will not brag about myself, except about my weaknesses. <sup>6</sup>But if I wanted to brag about myself, I would not be a fool. I would not be a fool, because I would be telling the truth. But I will not brag about myself. I do not want people to think more of me than what they see me do or hear me say.

<sup>7</sup>But I must not become too proud of the wonderful things that were shown to me. So a painful problem<sup>a</sup> was given to me. This problem is a messenger from Satan. It is sent to beat me and keep me from being too proud. <sup>8</sup>I begged the Lord three times to take this problem away from me. <sup>9</sup>But the Lord said to me, "My grace is enough for you. When you are weak, then my power is made perfect in you." So I am very happy to brag about my weaknesses. Then Christ's power can live in me. <sup>10</sup>So I am happy when I have weaknesses, insults, hard times, sufferings, and all kinds of troubles. All these things are for Christ. And I am happy, because when I am weak, then I am truly strong.

Paul's Love for the Christians

<sup>11</sup>I have been talking like a fool. But you made me do it. You are the ones who should say good things about me. I am worth nothing, but those "great apostles"<sup>a</sup> are not worth any more than I am! <sup>12</sup>When I was with you, I did what proves that I am an apostle<sup>a</sup>—signs, wonders, and miracles.<sup>a</sup> And I did these things with much patience. <sup>13</sup>So you received everything that the other churches have received. Only one thing was different: I was not a burden to you. Forgive me for this!

<sup>14</sup>I am now ready to visit you the third time. And I will not be a burden to you. I want nothing from you, I only want you. Children should not have to save up to give to their parents. Parents should save to give to their children. <sup>15</sup>So I am happy to give everything I have for you. I will even give myself for you. If I love you more, will you love me less?

<sup>16</sup>It is clear that I was not a burden to you. But you think that I was tricky and used lies to catch you. <sup>17</sup>Did I cheat you by using any of the men I sent to you? No, you know I did not. <sup>18</sup>I asked Titus to go to you. And I sent our brother with him. Titus did not cheat you, did he? No, you know that Titus and I did the same thing and with the same spirit.

<sup>19</sup>Do you think that we have been defending ourselves to you all this time? We have been speaking in Christ and before God. You are our dear friends. And everything that we do is to make you stronger. <sup>20</sup>I do this because I am afraid that when I come, you will not be what I want you to be. And I am afraid that I will not be what you want me to be. I am afraid that among you there may be arguing, jealousy, anger, selfish fighting, evil talk, gossip, pride, and confusion. <sup>21</sup>I am afraid that when I come to you again, my God will make me ashamed before you. I may be saddened by many of those who have sinned. I may be saddened because they have not changed their hearts and have not turned away from their sexual sins and from the shameful things they have done.

Final Warnings and Greetings

13 I will come to you for the third time. And remember, "Every case must be proved by two or three witnesses."<sup>a</sup> <sup>2</sup>When I was with you the second time, I gave a warning to those who had sinned. Now I am away from you, and I give a warning to all the others. When I come to you again, I will not be easy with them. <sup>3</sup>You want proof that Christ is speaking through me. My proof is that he is not weak among you, but he is powerful. <sup>4</sup>It is true that he was weak when he was killed on the cross. But he lives now by God's power. It is true that we are weak in Christ. But for you we will be alive in Christ by God's power.

to see if you are living in the faith. You know that Christ Jesus is in you—unless you fail the test. <sup>6</sup>But I hope you will see that we ourselves have not failed the test. <sup>7</sup>We pray to God that you will not do anything wrong. It is not important to see that we have passed the test. But it is important that you do what is right, even if it seems that we have failed. <sup>8</sup>We cannot do anything against the truth, but only for the truth. <sup>9</sup>We are happy to be weak, if you are strong. And we pray that you will grow stronger and stronger. <sup>10</sup>I am writing this while I am away from you. I am writing so that when I come I will not have to be harsh in my use of authority. The Lord gave me this authority to use to make you stronger, not to destroy you.

<sup>11</sup>Now, brothers, I say good-bye. Try to be perfect. Do what I have asked you to do. Agree with each other, and live in peace. Then the God of love and peace will be with you.

<sup>12</sup>Give each other a holy kiss when you greet each other. <sup>13</sup>All of God's holy people send greetings to you.

<sup>14</sup>The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> be with you all.

GALATIANS

Christians Are Saved by Grace

1 From Paul, an apostle.<sup>a</sup> I was not chosen to be an apostle by men. I was not sent from men. It was Jesus Christ and God the Father who made me an apostle. God is the One who raised Jesus from death.

<sup>2</sup>This letter is also from all the brothers who are with me.

To the churches in Galatia.<sup>n</sup>

<sup>3</sup>I pray that God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ will be good to you and give you peace. <sup>4</sup>Jesus gave himself for our sins to free us from this evil world we live in. This is what God the Father wanted. <sup>5</sup>The glory belongs to God forever and ever. Amen.

The Only Good News

<sup>6</sup>A short time ago God called you to follow him. He called you by his grace that came through Christ. But now I am amazed at you! You are already turning away and believing something different than the Good News.<sup>a</sup> <sup>7</sup>Really, there is no other Good News. But some people are confusing you and want to change the Good News of Christ. <sup>8</sup>We preached to you the Good News. So if we ourselves, or even an angel from heaven, preach to you something different than the Good News, he should be condemned! <sup>9</sup>I said this before. Now I say it again: You have already accepted the Good News. If anyone tells you another way to be saved, he should be condemned!

<sup>10</sup>Do you think I am trying to make people accept me? No! God is the One I am trying to please. Am I trying to please men? If I wanted to please men, I would not be a servant of Christ.

Paul's Authority Is from God

<sup>11</sup>Brothers, I want you to know that the Good News<sup>a</sup> I preached to you was not made by men. <sup>12</sup>I did not get it from men, nor did any man teach it to me. Jesus Christ showed it to me.

<sup>13</sup>You have heard about my past life. I belonged to the Jewish religion. I hurt the church of God very much and tried to destroy it. <sup>14</sup>I was becoming a leader in the Jewish religion.

I did better than most other Jews of my age. I tried harder than anyone else to follow the old rules. These rules were the customs handed down by our ancestors.

<sup>15</sup>But God had special plans for me even before I was born. So he called me through his grace that I might <sup>16</sup>tell the Good News about his Son to the non-Jewish people. So God showed me about his Son. When God called me, I did not get advice or help from any man. <sup>17</sup>I did not go to Jerusalem to see those who were apostles<sup>a</sup> before I was. But, without waiting, I went away to Arabia and later went back to Damascus.

<sup>18</sup>After three years I went to Jerusalem to meet Peter and stayed with him for 15 days. <sup>19</sup>I met no other apostles, except James, the brother of the Lord. <sup>20</sup>God knows that these things I write are not lies. <sup>21</sup>Later, I went to the areas of Syria and Cilicia.

<sup>22</sup>In Judea the churches in Christ had never met me. <sup>23</sup>They had only heard this about me: "This man was trying to hurt us. But now he is preaching the same faith that he once tried to destroy."<sup>24</sup>And these believers praised God because of me.

Other Apostles Accepted Paul

2 After 14 years, I went to Jerusalem again, this time with Barnabas. I also took Titus with me. <sup>2</sup>I went because God showed me that I should go. I met with those men who were the leaders of the believers. When we were alone, I told them the Good News<sup>a</sup> that I preach to the non-Jewish people. I did not want my past work and the work I am now doing to be wasted. <sup>3</sup>Titus was with me. But Titus was not forced to be circumcised,<sup>a</sup> even though he was a Greek. <sup>4</sup>We talked about this problem because some false brothers had come into our group secretly. They came in like spies to find out about the freedom we have in Christ Jesus. They wanted to make us slaves. <sup>5</sup>But we did not agree with anything those false brothers wanted! We wanted the truth of the Good News to continue for you.

did not change the Good News that I preach. (It doesn't matter to me if they were "important" or not. To God all men are the same.)<sup>7</sup> But these leaders saw that God had given me special work, just as he had to Peter. God gave Peter the work of telling the Good News to the Jews. But God gave me the work of telling the Good News to the non-Jewish people.<sup>8</sup> God gave Peter the power to work as an apostle<sup>d</sup> for the Jewish people. But he also gave me the power to work as an apostle for those who are not Jews.<sup>9</sup> James, Peter, and John, who seemed to be the leaders, saw that God had given me this special grace. So they accepted Barnabas and me. They said, "Paul and Barnabas, we agree that you should go to the people who are not Jews. We will go to the Jews."<sup>10</sup> They asked us to do only one thing—to remember to help the poor. And this was something that I really wanted to do.

Paul Shows that Peter Was Wrong

<sup>11</sup>When Peter came to Antioch, I was against him because he was wrong.<sup>12</sup> This is what happened: When Peter first came to Antioch, he ate with the non-Jewish people. But then some Jewish men were sent from James. When they arrived, Peter stopped eating with the non-Jewish people and separated himself from them. He was afraid of the Jews who believe that all non-Jewish people must be circumcised.<sup>d</sup><sup>13</sup> So Peter was a hypocrite.<sup>d</sup> The other Jewish believers joined with him and were hypocrites, too. Even Barnabas was influenced by what these Jewish believers did.<sup>14</sup> I saw what they did. They were not following the truth of the Good News.<sup>d</sup> So I spoke to Peter in front of them all. I said: "Peter, you are a Jew, but you are not living like a Jew. You are living like the non-Jewish people. So why do you now try to force the non-Jewish people to live like Jews?"

<sup>15</sup>We were not born as non-Jewish "sinners," but we were born as Jews.<sup>16</sup> Yet we know that a person is not made right with God by following the law. No! It is trusting in Jesus Christ that makes a person right with God. So we, too, have put our faith in Christ Jesus, that we might be made right with God. And we are right with God because we trusted in Christ—not because we followed the law. For no one can be made right with God by following the law.

<sup>17</sup>We Jews came to Christ to be made right with God. So it is clear that we were sinners too. Does this mean that Christ makes us sinners? No!<sup>18</sup> But I would really be wrong to begin teaching again those things of the Law of Moses that I gave up.<sup>19</sup> I stopped living for the law. It was the law that put me to death. I died to the law so that I can now live for God. I was put to death on the cross with Christ.<sup>20</sup> I do not live anymore—it is Christ living in me. I still live in my body, but I live by faith in the Son of God. He loved me and gave himself to save me.<sup>21</sup> This gift is from God, and it is very important to me. If the law could make us right with God, then Christ did not have to die.

Blessing Comes Through Faith

3 You people in Galatia were told very clearly about the death of Jesus Christ on the cross. But you were very foolish. You let someone trick you.<sup>2</sup> Tell me this one thing: How did you receive the Holy Spirit?<sup>d</sup> Did you receive the Spirit by following the law? No! You received the Spirit because you heard the Good News<sup>d</sup> and believed it.<sup>3</sup> You began your life in Christ by the Spirit. Now do you try to continue it by your own power? That is foolish.<sup>4</sup> You have experienced many things. Were all those experiences wasted? I hope not!<sup>5</sup> Does God give you the Spirit because you follow the law? No! Does God work miracles<sup>d</sup> among you because you follow the law? No! God gives you his Spirit and works miracles among you because you heard the Good News and believed it.

clear that no one can be made right with God by the law. The Scriptures say, "He who is right with God by faith will live."<sup>12</sup>The law does not use faith. It says, "A person who does these things will live forever because of them."<sup>n</sup><sup>13</sup>So the law put a curse on us, but Christ took away that curse. He changed places with us and put himself under that curse. It is written in the Scriptures, "Everyone whose body is displayed on a tree<sup>n</sup> is cursed."<sup>14</sup>Christ did this so that God's blessing promised to Abraham might come to the non-Jews. This blessing comes through Jesus Christ. Jesus died so that we could have the Spirit that God promised and receive this promise by believing.

The Law and the Promise

<sup>15</sup>Brothers, let me give you an example: Think about an agreement that a person makes with another person. After that agreement is accepted by both people, no one can stop that agreement or add anything to it. <sup>16</sup>God made promises to Abraham and his descendant.<sup>d</sup> God did not say, "and to your descendants." That would mean many people. But God said, "and to your descendant." That means only one person; that person is Christ. <sup>17</sup>This is what I mean: God had an agreement with Abraham and promised to keep it. The law, which came 430 years later, cannot change God's promise to Abraham. <sup>18</sup>Can following the law give us what God promised? No! If this is so, it is not God's promise that brings us the blessings. Instead God freely gave his blessings to Abraham through the promise he had made.

<sup>19</sup>So what was the law for? The law was given to show the wrong things people do. It continued until the special descendant of Abraham came. God's promise was about this descendant. The law was given through angels who used Moses for a mediator<sup>n</sup> to give the law to men. <sup>20</sup>But a mediator is not needed when there is only one side. And God is only one.

The Purpose of the Law of Moses

<sup>21</sup>Does this mean that the law is against God's promises? Never! If there were a law that could give men life, then we could be made right by following that law. <sup>22</sup>But this is not true, because the Scriptures<sup>d</sup> showed that the whole world is bound by sin. This was so that the promise would be given through faith. And it is given to people who believe in Jesus Christ.

<sup>23</sup>Before this faith came, we were all held prisoners by the law. We had no freedom until God showed us the way of faith that was coming. <sup>24</sup>So the law was our master until Christ came. After Christ came, we could be made right with God through faith. <sup>25</sup>Now the way of faith has come, and we no longer live under the law.

<sup>26-27</sup>You were all baptized into Christ, and so you were all clothed with Christ. This shows that you are all children of God through faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>28</sup>Now, in Christ, there is no difference between Jew and Greek. There is no difference between slaves and free men. There is no difference between male and female. You are all the same in Christ Jesus. <sup>29</sup>You belong to Christ. So you are Abraham's descendants.<sup>d</sup> You get all of God's blessings because of the promise that God made to Abraham.

4 I want to tell you this: While the one who will inherit his father's property is still a child, he is no different from a slave. It does not matter that the child owns everything. <sup>2</sup>While he is a child, he must obey those who are chosen to care for him. But when the child reaches the age set by his father, he is free. <sup>3</sup>It is the same for us. We were once like children. We were slaves to the useless rules of this world. <sup>4</sup>But when the right time came, God sent his Son. His Son was born of a woman and lived under the law. <sup>5</sup>God did this so that he could buy freedom for those who were under the law. His purpose was to make us his children.

<sup>6</sup>And you are God's children. That is why God sent the Spirit of his Son into your hearts. The Spirit<sup>d</sup> cries out, "Father, dear Father."<sup>n</sup> <sup>7</sup>So now you are not a slave; you are God's child, and God will give you what he promised, because you are his child.

Paul's Love for the Christians

<sup>8</sup>In the past you did not know God. You were slaves to gods that were not real. <sup>9</sup>But now you know the true God. Really, it is God who knows you. So why do you turn back to those weak and useless rules you followed before? Do you want to be slaves to those things again? <sup>10</sup>You still follow teachings about special days, months, seasons, and years. <sup>11</sup>I am afraid for you. I fear that my work for you has been wasted.

<sup>12</sup>Brothers, I was like you; so I beg you to become like me. You were very good to me before. <sup>13</sup>You remember that I came to you the first time because I was sick. That was when I preached the Good News<sup>d</sup> to you. <sup>14</sup>Though my sickness was a trouble for you, you did not hate me or make me leave. But you welcomed me as an angel from God, as if I were Jesus Christ himself! <sup>15</sup>You were very happy then. Where is that joy now? I remember that you would have taken out your eyes and given them to me if that were possible. <sup>16</sup>Now am I your enemy because I tell you the truth?

<sup>17</sup>Those people<sup>n</sup> are working hard to persuade you. But this is not good for you. They want to persuade you to turn against us. They want you to follow only them. <sup>18</sup>It is good for people to show interest in you, but only if their purpose is good. This is always true. It is true when I am with you and when I am away. <sup>19</sup>My little children, again I feel pain for you as a mother feels when she gives birth. I will feel this until you truly become like Christ. <sup>20</sup>I wish I could be with you now. Then maybe I could change the way I am talking to you. Now I do not know what to do about you.

The Example of Hagar and Sarah

<sup>21</sup>Some of you people still want to be under the law of Moses. Tell me, do you know what the law says? <sup>22</sup>The Scriptures<sup>d</sup> say that Abraham had two sons. The mother of one son was a slave woman. The mother of the other son was a free woman. <sup>23</sup>Abraham's son from the slave woman was born in the normal human way. But the son from the free woman was born because of the promise God made to Abraham.

<sup>24</sup>This makes a picture for us. The two women are like the two agreements between God and men. One agreement is the law that God made on Mount Sinai.<sup>n</sup> The people who are under this agreement are like slaves. The mother named Hagar is like that agreement. <sup>25</sup>She is like Mount Sinai in Arabia and is a picture of the earthly Jewish city of Jerusalem. This city is a slave, and all its people, the Jews, are slaves to the law. <sup>26</sup>But the heavenly Jerusalem which is above is like the free woman. She is our mother. <sup>27</sup>It is written in the Scriptures:

"Be happy, Jerusalem.

You are like a woman who never gave birth to children.

Start singing and shout for joy.

You never felt the pain of giving birth to children.

But you will have more children than the woman who has a husband."

Isaiah 54:1

<sup>28</sup>My brothers, you are God's children because of his promise, as Isaac was then. <sup>29</sup>The son who was born in the normal way treated the other son badly. It is the same today. <sup>30</sup>But what does the Scripture say? "Throw out the slave woman and her son! The son of the free woman will receive everything his father has. But the son of the slave woman will receive nothing."<sup>n</sup> <sup>31</sup>So, my brothers, we are not children of the slave woman. We are children of the free woman.

Keep Your Freedom

5 We have freedom now because Christ made us free. So stand strong. Do not change and go back into the slavery of the law. <sup>2</sup>Listen! I am Paul. I tell you that if you go back to the law by being circumcised,<sup>d</sup> then Christ is no good for you. <sup>3</sup>Again, I warn every man: If you allow yourselves to be circumcised, then you must follow all the law. <sup>4</sup>If you try to be made right with God through the law, then your life with Christ is over—you have left God's grace. <sup>5</sup>But we hope to be made right with God through faith, and we wait for this hope anxiously with the Spirit's<sup>d</sup> help. <sup>6</sup>When we are in Christ Jesus, it is not important if we are circumcised or not. The important thing is faith—the kind of faith that works through love.

<sup>7</sup>You were running a good race. You were obeying the truth. Who stopped you from following the true way? <sup>8</sup>Whatever way he used did not come from the One who chose you. <sup>9</sup>Be careful! "Just a little yeast makes the whole batch of dough rise." <sup>10</sup>But I trust in the Lord that you will not believe those different ideas. Someone is confusing you with such ideas. And he will be punished, whoever he is.

<sup>11</sup>My brothers, I do not teach that a man must be circumcised. If I teach circumcision, then why am I still being treated badly? If I still taught circumcision, my preaching about the cross would not be a problem. <sup>12</sup>I wish the people who are bothering you would castrate<sup>n</sup> themselves!

<sup>13</sup>My brothers, God called you to be free. But do not use your freedom as an excuse to do the things that please your sinful self. Serve each other with love. <sup>14</sup>The whole law is made complete in this one command: "Love your neighbor as you love yourself."<sup>n</sup> <sup>15</sup>If you go on hurting each other and tearing each other apart, be careful! You will completely destroy each other.

The Spirit and Human Nature

<sup>16</sup>So I tell you: Live by following the Spirit.<sup>d</sup> Then you will not do what your sinful selves want. <sup>17</sup>Our sinful selves want what is against the Spirit. The Spirit wants what is against our sinful selves. The two are against each other. So you must not do just what you please. <sup>18</sup>But if you let the Spirit lead you, you are not under the law.

<sup>19</sup>The wrong things the sinful self does are clear: being sexually unfaithful, not being pure, taking part in sexual sins, <sup>20</sup>worshiping false gods, doing witchcraft,<sup>d</sup> hating, making trouble, being jealous, being angry, being selfish, making people angry with each other, causing divisions among people, <sup>21</sup>having envy, being drunk, having wild and wasteful parties, and doing other things like this. I warn you now as I warned you before: Those who do these things will not be in God's kingdom. <sup>22</sup>But the Spirit gives love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, <sup>23</sup>gentleness, self-control. There is no law that says these things are wrong. <sup>24</sup>Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified their own sinful selves. They have given up their old selfish feelings and the evil things they wanted to do. <sup>25</sup>We get our new life from the Spirit. So we should follow the Spirit. <sup>26</sup>We must not be proud. We must not make trouble with each other. And we must not be jealous of each other.

Help Each Other

6 Brothers, someone in your group might do something wrong. You who are spiritual should go to him and help make him right again. You should do this in a gentle way. But be careful! You might be tempted to sin, too. <sup>2</sup>Help each other with your troubles. When you do this, you truly obey the law of Christ. <sup>3</sup>If anyone thinks that he is important when he is really not important, he is only fooling himself. <sup>4</sup>He should not compare himself with others. Each person should judge his own actions. Then he can be proud for what he himself has done. <sup>5</sup>Each person must be responsible for himself.

<sup>6</sup>Anyone who is learning the teaching of God should share all the good things he has with his teacher.

Life Is like Planting a Field

<sup>7</sup>Do not be fooled: You cannot cheat God. A person harvests only what he plants. <sup>8</sup>If he plants to satisfy his sinful self, his sinful self will bring him eternal death. But if he plants to please the Spirit,<sup>d</sup> he will receive eternal life from the Spirit. <sup>9</sup>We must not become tired of doing good. We will receive our harvest of eternal life at the right time. We must not give up! <sup>10</sup>When we have the opportunity to help anyone, we should do it. But we should give special attention to those who are in the family of believers.

Paul Ends His Letter

<sup>11</sup>I am writing this myself. See what large letters I use. <sup>12</sup>Some men are trying to force you to be circumcised.<sup>d</sup> They do these things so that the Jews will accept them. They are afraid that they will be treated badly if they follow only the cross of Christ.<sup>n</sup> <sup>13</sup>Those who are circumcised do not obey the law themselves, but they want you to be circumcised. Then they can brag about what they forced you to do. <sup>14</sup>I hope I will never brag about things like that. The cross of our Lord Jesus Christ is my only reason for bragging. Through the cross of Jesus my world was crucified and I died to the world. <sup>15</sup>It is not important if a man is circumcised or not circumcised. The important thing is being the new people God has made. <sup>16</sup>Peace and mercy to those who follow this rule—to all of God's people.

<sup>17</sup>So do not give me any more trouble. I have scars on my body. These show<sup>a</sup> I belong to Christ Jesus.

<sup>18</sup>My brothers, I pray that the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ will be with your spirit. Amen.

<sup>a</sup>These show Many times Paul was beaten and whipped by people who were against him because he was teaching about Christ. The scars were from these beatings.

EPHESIANS

God Unites His People

1 From Paul, an apostle<sup>a</sup> of Christ Jesus. I am an apostle because that is what God wanted.

To God's holy people living in Ephesus, believers in Christ Jesus.

<sup>2</sup>Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Spiritual Blessings in Christ

<sup>3</sup>Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. In Christ, God has given us every spiritual blessing in heaven. <sup>4</sup>In Christ, he chose us before the world was made. In his love he chose us to be his holy people—people without blame before him. <sup>5</sup>And before the world was made, God decided to make us his own children through Jesus Christ. That was what he wanted and what pleased him. <sup>6</sup>This brings praise to God because of his wonderful grace. God gave that grace to us freely, in Christ, the One he loves. <sup>7</sup>In Christ we are set free by the blood of his death. And so we have forgiveness of sins because of God's rich grace. <sup>8</sup>God gave us that grace fully and freely. God, with full wisdom and understanding, <sup>9</sup>let us know his secret purpose. This was what God wanted, and he planned to do it through Christ. <sup>10</sup>His goal was to carry out his plan when the right time came. He planned that all things in heaven and on earth would be joined together in Christ as the head.

<sup>11</sup>In Christ we were chosen to be God's people. God had already chosen us to be his people, because that is what he wanted. And God is the One who makes everything agree with what he decides and wants. <sup>12</sup>We are the first people who hoped in Christ. And we were chosen so that we would bring praise to God's glory. <sup>13</sup>So it is with you. You heard the true teaching—the Good News<sup>a</sup> about your salvation. When you heard it, you believed in Christ. And in Christ, God put his special mark on you by giving you the Holy Spirit<sup>a</sup> that he had promised. <sup>14</sup>That Holy Spirit is the guarantee that we will get what God promised for his people. This will bring full freedom to the people who belong to God, to bring praise to God's glory.

Paul's Prayer

<sup>15-16</sup>That is why I always remember you in my prayers and always thank God for you. I have always done this since the time I heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all God's people. <sup>17</sup>I always pray to the God of our Lord Jesus Christ—to the glorious Father. I pray that he will give you a spirit that will make you wise in the knowledge of God—the knowledge that he has shown you. <sup>18</sup>I pray that you will have greater understanding in your heart. Then you will know the hope that God has chosen to give us. I pray that you will know that the blessings God has promised his holy people are rich and glorious. <sup>19</sup>And you will know that God's power is very great for us who believe. That power is the same as the great strength <sup>20</sup>God used to raise Christ from death and put him at his right side in heaven. <sup>21</sup>God made Christ more important than all rulers, authorities, powers, and kings. Christ is more important than anything in this world or in the next world. <sup>22</sup>God put everything under his power. And God made him the head over everything for the church. <sup>23</sup>The church is Christ's body. The church is filled with Christ, and Christ fills everything in every way.

We Now Have Life

2 In the past your spiritual lives were dead because of your sins and the things you did wrong against God. <sup>2</sup>Yes, in the past you lived the way the world lives. You followed the ruler of the evil powers that are above the earth. That same spirit is now working in those who refuse to obey God. <sup>3</sup>In the past all of us lived like them. We lived trying to please our sinful selves. We did all the things our bodies and minds wanted. We should have suffered God's anger because of the way we were. We were the same as all other people.

<sup>4</sup>But God's mercy is great, and he loved us very much. <sup>5</sup>We were spiritually dead because of the things we did wrong against God. But God gave us new life with Christ. You have been saved by God's grace. <sup>6</sup>And he raised us up with Christ and gave us a seat with him in the heavens. He did this for those of us who are in Christ Jesus. <sup>7</sup>He did this so that for all future time he could show the very great riches of his grace. He shows that grace by being kind to us in Christ Jesus. <sup>8</sup>I mean that you are saved by grace, and you got that grace by believing. You did not save yourselves. It was a gift from God. <sup>9</sup>You cannot brag that you are saved by the work you have done. <sup>10</sup>God has made us what we are. In Christ Jesus, God made us new people so that we would do good works. God had planned in advance those good works for us. He had planned for us to live our lives doing them.

One in Christ

<sup>11</sup>You were born non-Jews. You are the people the Jews call "uncircumcised."<sup>a</sup> Those who call you "uncircumcised" call themselves "circumcised."<sup>d</sup> (Their circumcision is only something they themselves do on their bodies.) <sup>12</sup>Remember that in the past you were without Christ. You were not citizens of Israel. And you had no part in the agreements<sup>a</sup> with the promise that God made to his people. You had no hope, and you did not know God. <sup>13</sup>Yes, at one time you were far away from God. But now in Christ Jesus you are brought near to God through the blood of Christ's death. <sup>14</sup>Because of Christ we now have peace. Christ made both Jews and non-Jews one people. They were separated as if there were a wall between them. But Christ broke down that wall of hate by giving his own body. <sup>15</sup>The Jewish law had many commands and rules. But Christ ended that law. Christ's purpose was to make the two groups of people become one new people in him. By doing this Christ would make peace. <sup>16</sup>Through the cross Christ ended the hatred between the two groups. And after the two groups became one body, Christ wanted to bring them both back to God. Christ did this with his death on the cross. <sup>17</sup>Christ came and preached peace to you non-Jews who were far away from God. And he preached peace to those Jews who were near to God. <sup>18</sup>Yes, through Christ we all have the right to come to the Father in one Spirit.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>19</sup>So now you non-Jews are not visitors or strangers. Now you are citizens together with God's holy people. You belong to God's family. <sup>20</sup>You believers are like a building that God owns. That building was built on the foundation of the apostles<sup>d</sup> and prophets.<sup>d</sup> Christ Jesus himself is the most important stone<sup>a</sup> in that building. <sup>21</sup>That whole building is joined together in Christ. And Christ makes it grow and become a holy temple in the Lord. <sup>22</sup>And in Christ you, too, are being built together with the Jews. You are being built into a place where God lives through the Spirit.

Paul's Work for the Non-Jews

3 So I, Paul, am a prisoner of Christ Jesus. I am a prisoner for you who are not Jews. <sup>2</sup>Surely you know that God gave me this work through his grace to help you. <sup>3</sup>God let me know his secret plan. He showed it to me. I have already written a little about this. <sup>4</sup>And if you read what I wrote, then you can see that I truly understand the secret truth about the Christ.<sup>d</sup> <sup>5</sup>People who lived in other times were not told that secret truth. But now, through the Spirit,<sup>d</sup> God has shown that secret truth to his holy apostles<sup>d</sup> and prophets.<sup>d</sup> <sup>6</sup>This is that secret truth: that the non-Jews will receive what God has for his people, just as the Jews will. The non-Jews are together with the Jews as part of the same body. And they share together in the promise that God made in Christ Jesus. The non-Jews have all of this because of the Good News.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>7</sup>By God's special gift of grace, I became a servant to tell that Good News. God gave me that grace through his power. <sup>8</sup>I am the least important of all God's people. But God gave me this gift—to tell the non-Jewish people the Good News about the riches of Christ. Those riches are too great to understand fully. <sup>9</sup>And God gave me the work of telling all people about the plan for God's secret truth. That secret truth has been hidden in God since the beginning of time. God is the One who created everything. <sup>10</sup>His purpose was that through the church all the rulers and powers in the heavenly world will now know God's wisdom, which has so many forms. <sup>11</sup>This agrees with the purpose God had since the beginning of time. And God carried out his plan through Christ Jesus our Lord. <sup>12</sup>In Christ we can come before God with freedom and without fear. We can do this through faith in Christ. <sup>13</sup>So I ask you not to become discouraged because of the sufferings I am having for you. My sufferings bring honor to you.

The Love of Christ

ery family in heaven and on earth gets its true name from him. <sup>16</sup>I ask the Father in his great glory to give you the power to be strong in spirit. He will give you that strength through his Spirit. <sup>17</sup>I pray that Christ will live in your hearts because of your faith. I pray that your life will be strong in love and be built on love. <sup>18</sup>And I pray that you and all God's holy people will have the power to understand the greatness of Christ's love. I pray that you can understand how wide and how long and how high and how deep that love is. <sup>19</sup>Christ's love is greater than any person can ever know. But I pray that you will be able to know that love. Then you can be filled with the fullness of God.

<sup>20</sup>With God's power working in us, God can do much, much more than anything we can ask or think of. <sup>21</sup>To him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus for all time, forever and ever. Amen.

The Unity of the Body

4 I am in prison because I belong to the Lord. God chose you to be his people. I tell you now to live the way God's people should live. <sup>2</sup>Always be humble and gentle. Be patient and accept each other with love. <sup>3</sup>You are joined together with peace through the Spirit. <sup>4</sup>Do all you can to continue together in this way. Let peace hold you together. <sup>4</sup>There is one body and one Spirit. And God called you to have one hope. <sup>5</sup>There is one Lord, one faith, and one baptism. <sup>6</sup>There is one God and Father of everything. He rules everything. He is everywhere and in everything.

<sup>7</sup>Christ gave each one of us a special gift. Each one received what Christ wanted to give him. <sup>8</sup>That is why it says in the Scriptures, <sup>d</sup>“When he went up to the heights, he led a parade of captives.
And he gave gifts to people.”

Psalm 68:18

<sup>9</sup>When it says, “He went up,” what does it mean? It means that he first came down to the earth. <sup>10</sup>So Jesus came down, and he is the same One who went up. He went up above all the sky. Christ did that to fill everything with himself. <sup>11</sup>And Christ gave gifts to men—he made some to be apostles, <sup>d</sup>some to be prophets, <sup>d</sup>some to go and tell the Good News, <sup>d</sup>and some to have the work of caring for and teaching God's people. <sup>12</sup>Christ gave those gifts to prepare God's holy people for the work of serving. He gave those gifts to make the body of Christ stronger. <sup>13</sup>This work must continue until we are all joined together in the same faith and in the same knowledge about the Son of God. We must become like a mature person—we must grow until we become like Christ and have all his perfection.

<sup>14</sup>Then we will no longer be babies. We will not be tossed about like a ship that the waves carry one way and then another. We will not be influenced by every new teaching we hear from men who are trying to fool us. Those men make plans and try any kind of trick to fool people into following the wrong path. <sup>15</sup>No! We will speak the truth with love. We will grow up in every way to be like Christ, who is the head. <sup>16</sup>The whole body depends on Christ. And all the parts of the body are joined and held together. Each part of the body does its own work. And this makes the whole body grow and be strong with love.

The Way You Should Live

<sup>17</sup>In the Lord's name, I tell you this. I warn you: Do not continue living like those who do not believe. Their thoughts are worth nothing. <sup>18</sup>They do not understand. They know nothing, because they refuse to listen. So they cannot have the life that God gives. <sup>19</sup>They have lost their feeling of shame. And they use their lives for doing evil. More and more they want to do all kinds of evil things. <sup>20</sup>But the things you learned in Christ were not like this. <sup>21</sup>I know that you heard about him, and you are in him; so you were taught the truth. Yes, the truth is in Jesus. <sup>22</sup>You were taught to leave your old self—to stop living the evil way you lived before. That old self becomes worse and worse because people are fooled by the evil things they want to do. <sup>23</sup>But you were taught to be made new in your hearts. <sup>24</sup>You were taught to become a new person. That new person is made to be like God—made to be truly good and holy.

<sup>25</sup>So you must stop telling lies. Tell each other the truth because we all belong to each other in the same body. <sup>a</sup> <sup>26</sup>When you are angry, do not sin. And do not go on being angry all day. <sup>27</sup>Do not give the devil a way to defeat you. <sup>28</sup>If a person is stealing, he must stop stealing and start working. He must use his hands for doing something good. Then he will have something to share with those who are poor.

<sup>29</sup>When you talk, do not say harmful things. But say what people need—words that will help others become stronger. Then what you say will help those who listen to you. <sup>30</sup>And do not make the Holy Spirit <sup>d</sup>sad. The Spirit is

God's proof that you belong to him. God gave you the Spirit to show that God will make you free when the time comes. <sup>31</sup>Do not be bitter or angry or mad. Never shout angrily or say things to hurt others. Never do anything evil. <sup>32</sup>Be kind and loving to each other. Forgive each other just as God forgave you in Christ.

Living in the Light

5 You are God's children whom he loves. So try to be like God. <sup>2</sup>Live a life of love. Love other people just as Christ loved us. Christ gave himself for us—he was a sweet-smelling offering and sacrifice to God.

<sup>3</sup>But there must be no sexual sin among you. There must not be any kind of evil or greed. Those things are not right for God's holy people. <sup>4</sup>Also, there must be no evil talk among you. You must not speak foolishly or tell evil jokes. These things are not right for you. But you should be giving thanks to God. <sup>5</sup>You can be sure of this: No one will have a place in the kingdom of Christ and of God if he does sexual sins, or does evil things, or is greedy. Anyone who is greedy is serving a false god.

<sup>6</sup>Do not let anyone fool you by telling you things that are not true. These things will bring God's anger on those who do not obey him. <sup>7</sup>So have no part with them. <sup>8</sup>In the past you were full of darkness, but now you are full of light in the Lord. So live like children who belong to the light. <sup>9</sup>Light brings every kind of goodness, right living, and truth. <sup>10</sup>Try to learn what pleases the Lord. <sup>11</sup>Do not do the things that people in darkness do. That brings nothing good. But do good things to show that the things done in darkness are wrong. <sup>12</sup>It is shameful even to talk about what those people do in secret. <sup>13</sup>But the light makes all things easy to see. <sup>14</sup>And everything that is made easy to see can become light. This is why it is said:

"Wake up, sleeper!

Rise from death,

and Christ will shine on you."

<sup>15</sup>So be very careful how you live. Do not live like those who are not wise. Live wisely. <sup>16</sup>I mean that you should use every chance you have for doing good, because these are evil times. <sup>17</sup>So do not be foolish with your lives. But learn what the Lord wants you to do. <sup>18</sup>Do not be drunk with wine. That will ruin you spiritually. But be filled with the Spirit. <sup>19</sup>Speak to each other with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs. Sing and make music in your hearts to the Lord. <sup>20</sup>Always give thanks to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Wives and Husbands

<sup>21</sup>Be willing to obey each other. Do this because you respect Christ.

<sup>22</sup>Wives, be under the authority of your husbands, as of the Lord. <sup>23</sup>The husband is the head of the wife, as Christ is the head of the church. The church is Christ's body—Christ is the Savior of the body. <sup>24</sup>The church is under the authority of Christ. So it is the same with you wives. You should be under the authority of your husbands in everything.

<sup>25</sup>Husbands, love your wives as Christ loved the church. Christ died for the church <sup>26</sup>to make it belong to God. Christ used the word to make the church clean by washing it with water. <sup>27</sup>Christ died so that he could give the church to himself like a bride in all her beauty. He died so that the church could be pure and without fault, with no evil or sin or any other wrong thing in it. <sup>28</sup>And husbands should love their wives in the same way. They should love their wives as they love their own bodies. The man who loves his wife loves himself. <sup>29</sup>No person ever hates his own body, but feeds and takes care of it. And that is what Christ does for the church, <sup>30</sup>because we are parts of his body. <sup>31</sup>The Scripture says, "So a man will leave his father and mother and be united with his wife. And the two people will become one body."<sup>a</sup> <sup>32</sup>That secret truth is very important—I am talking about Christ and the church. <sup>33</sup>But each one of you must love his wife as he loves himself. And a wife must respect her husband.

Children and Parents

6 Children, obey your parents the way the Lord wants. This is the right thing to do. <sup>2</sup>The command says, "Honor your father and mother."<sup>a</sup> This is the first command that has a promise with it. <sup>3</sup>The promise is: "Then everything will be well with you, and you will have a long life on the earth."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>4</sup>Fathers, do not make your children angry, but raise them with the training and teaching of the Lord.

Slaves and Masters

with fear and respect. And do that with a heart that is true, just as you obey Christ. <sup>6</sup>You must do more than obey your masters to please them only while they are watching you. You must obey them as you are obeying Christ. With all your heart you must do what God wants. <sup>7</sup>Do your work, and be happy to do it. Work as if you were serving the Lord, not as if you were serving only men. <sup>8</sup>Remember that the Lord will give a reward to everyone, slave or free, for doing good.

<sup>9</sup>Masters, in the same way, be good to your slaves. Do not say things to scare them. You know that the One who is your Master and their Master is in heaven. And that Master treats everyone alike.

Wear the Full Armor of God

<sup>10</sup>Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his great power. <sup>11</sup>Wear the full armor of God. Wear God's armor so that you can fight against the devil's evil tricks. <sup>12</sup>Our fight is not against people on earth. We are fighting against the rulers and authorities and the powers of this world's darkness. We are fighting against the spiritual powers of evil in the heavenly world. <sup>13</sup>That is why you need to get God's full armor. Then on the day of evil you will be able to stand strong. And when you have finished the whole fight, you will still be standing. <sup>14</sup>So stand strong, with the belt of truth tied around your waist. And on your chest wear the protection of right living. <sup>15</sup>And on your feet wear the Good News<sup>d</sup> of peace to help you stand strong. <sup>16</sup>And also use the shield of faith. With that you can stop all the burning arrows of the Evil One. <sup>17</sup>Accept God's salvation to be your helmet. And take the sword of the Spirit<sup>d</sup>—that sword is the teaching of God. <sup>18</sup>Pray in the Spirit at all times. Pray with all kinds of prayers, and ask for everything you need. To do this you must always be ready. Never give up. Always pray for all God's people.

<sup>19</sup>Also pray for me. Pray that when I speak, God will give me words so that I can tell the secret truth of the Good News without fear. <sup>20</sup>I have the work of speaking that Good News. I am doing that now, here in prison. Pray that when I preach the Good News I will speak without fear, as I should.

Final Greetings

<sup>21</sup>I am sending to you Tychicus, our brother whom we love. He is a faithful servant of the Lord's work. He will tell you everything that is happening with me. Then you will know how I am and what I am doing. <sup>22</sup>That is why I am sending him. I want you to know how we are. I am sending him to encourage you.

<sup>23</sup>Peace and love with faith to you from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>24</sup>God's grace to all of you who love our Lord Jesus Christ with love that never ends.

PHILIPPIANS

Serve Others with Joy

A

1 From Paul and Timothy, servants of Jesus Christ.

To all of God's holy people in Christ Jesus who live in Philippi. And to your elders<sup>d</sup> and deacons.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>2</sup>Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Paul's Prayer

<sup>3</sup>I thank God every time I remember you. <sup>4</sup>And I always pray for all of you with joy. <sup>5</sup>I thank God for the help you gave me while I preached the Good News.<sup>d</sup> You helped from the first day you believed until now. <sup>6</sup>God began doing a good work in you. And he will continue it until it is finished when Jesus Christ comes again. I am sure of that.

<sup>7</sup>And I know that I am right to think like this about all of you. I am sure because I have you in my heart. All of you share in God's grace with me. You share in God's grace with me while I am in prison, while I am defending the Good News, and while I am proving the truth of the Good News. <sup>8</sup>God knows that I want to see you very much. I love all of you with the love of Christ Jesus.

<sup>9</sup>This is my prayer for you: that your love will grow more and more; that you will have knowledge and understanding with your love; <sup>10</sup>that you will see the difference between good and bad and choose the good; that you will be pure and without wrong for the coming of Christ; <sup>11</sup>that you will do many good things with the help of Christ to bring glory and praise to God.

Paul's Troubles Help the Work

<sup>12</sup>Brothers, I want you to know that what has happened to me has helped to spread the Good News.<sup>d</sup> <sup>13</sup>I am in prison because I am a believer in Christ. All the palace guards and everyone else knows this. <sup>14</sup>I am still in prison, but most of the believers feel better about it now. And so they are much braver about telling the Good News about Christ.

<sup>15</sup>It is true that some preach about Christ because they are jealous and bitter. But others preach about Christ because they want to help. <sup>16</sup>They preach because they have love, and they know that God gave me the work of defending the Good News. <sup>17</sup>But others preach about Christ because they are selfish. Their reason for preaching is wrong. They want to make trouble for me in prison.

<sup>18</sup>But I do not care if they make trouble for me. The important thing is that they are preaching about Christ. They should do it for the right reasons. But I am happy even if they do it for wrong reasons. And I will continue to be happy. <sup>19</sup>You are praying for me, and the Spirit of Jesus Christ helps me. So I know that this trouble will bring my freedom. <sup>20</sup>The thing I want and hope for is that I will not fail Christ in anything. I hope that I will have the courage now, as always, to show the greatness of Christ in my life here on earth. I want to do that if I die or if I live. <sup>21</sup>To me the only important thing about living is Christ. And even death would be profit for me. <sup>22</sup>If I continue living in the body, I will be able to work for the Lord. But what should I choose—living or dying? I do not know. <sup>23</sup>It is hard to choose between the two. I want to leave this life and be with Christ. That is much better. <sup>24</sup>But you need me here in my body. <sup>25</sup>I know that you need me, and so I know that I will stay with you. I will help you grow and have joy in your faith. <sup>26</sup>You will be very happy in Christ Jesus when I am with you again.

<sup>27</sup>Be sure that you live in a way that brings honor to the Good News of Christ. Then whether I come and visit you or am away from you, I will hear good things about you. I will hear that you continue strong with one purpose and that you work together as a team for the faith of the Good News. <sup>28</sup>And you will not be afraid of those who are against you. All of these things are proof from God that you will be saved and that your enemies will be lost. <sup>29</sup>God gave you the honor both of believing in Christ and suffering for Christ. Both these things bring glory to Christ. <sup>30</sup>When I was with you, you saw the struggles I had. And you hear about the struggles I am having now. You yourselves are having the same kind of struggles.

2 Does your life in Christ give you strength? Does his love comfort you? Do we share together in the Spirit?<sup>d</sup> Do you have mercy and kindness? <sup>2</sup>If so, make me very happy by having the same thoughts, sharing the same love, and having one mind and purpose. <sup>3</sup>When you do things, do not let selfishness or pride be your guide. Be humble and give more honor to others than to yourselves. <sup>4</sup>Do not be interested only in your own life, but be interested in the lives of others.

Be Unselfish like Christ

<sup>5</sup>In your lives you must think and act like Christ Jesus.

<sup>6</sup>Christ himself was like God in everything.

He was equal with God.

But he did not think that being equal with God was something to be held on to.

<sup>7</sup>He gave up his place with God and made himself nothing.

He was born to be a man and became like a servant.

<sup>8</sup>And when he was living as a man, he humbled himself and was fully obedient to God.

He obeyed even when that caused his death—death on a cross.

<sup>9</sup>So God raised Christ to the highest place. God made the name of Christ greater than every other name.

<sup>10</sup>God wants every knee to bow to Jesus—everyone in heaven, on earth, and under the earth.

<sup>11</sup>Everyone will say, “Jesus Christ is Lord” and bring glory to God the Father.

Be the People God Wants You to Be

<sup>12</sup>My dear friends, you have always obeyed. You obeyed God when I was with you. It is even more important that you obey now while I am not with you. Keep on working to complete your salvation, and do it with fear and trembling. <sup>13</sup>Yes, God is working in you to help you want to do what pleases him. Then he gives you the power to do it.

<sup>14</sup>Do everything without complaining or arguing. <sup>15</sup>Then you will be innocent and without anything wrong in you. You will be God’s children without fault. But you are living with crooked and mean people all around you. Among them you shine like stars in the dark world. <sup>16</sup>You offer to them the teaching that gives life. So when Christ comes again, I can be happy because my work was not wasted. I ran in the race and won.

<sup>17</sup>Your faith makes you offer your lives as a sacrifice in serving God. Perhaps I will have to offer my own blood with your sacrifice. But if that happens, I will be happy and full of joy with all of you. <sup>18</sup>You also should be happy and full of joy with me.

Timothy and Epaphroditus

<sup>19</sup>I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon. I will be happy to learn how you are. <sup>20</sup>I have no other person like Timothy. He truly cares for you. <sup>21</sup>Other people are interested only in their own lives. They are not interested in the work of Christ Jesus. <sup>22</sup>You know the kind of person Timothy is. You know that he has served with me in telling the Good News,<sup>a</sup> as a son serves his father. <sup>23</sup>I plan to send him to you quickly when I know what will happen to me. <sup>24</sup>I am sure that the Lord will help me to come to you soon.

<sup>25</sup>Epaphroditus is my brother in Christ. He works and serves with me in the army of Christ. When I needed help, you sent him to me. I think now that I must send him back to you <sup>26</sup>because he wants very much to see all of you. He is worried because you heard that he was sick. <sup>27</sup>Yes, he was sick, and nearly died. But God helped him and me too, so that I would not have more sadness. <sup>28</sup>So I want very much to send him to you. When you see him, you can be happy. And I can stop worrying about you. <sup>29</sup>Welcome him in the Lord with much joy. Give honor to people like Epaphroditus. <sup>30</sup>He should be honored because he almost died for the work of Christ. He put his life in danger so that he could help me. This was help that you could not give me.

The Importance of Christ

3 My brothers, be full of joy in the Lord. It is no trouble for me to write the same things to you again, and it will help you to be more ready. <sup>2</sup>Be careful of those who do evil. They are like dogs. They demand to cut<sup>a</sup> the body. <sup>3</sup>But we are the ones who are truly circumcised.<sup>a</sup> We worship God through his Spirit.<sup>a</sup> We are proud to be in Christ Jesus. And we do not trust in ourselves or anything we can do. <sup>4</sup>Even if I am able to trust in myself, still I do not. If anyone thinks that he has a reason to trust in himself, he should know that I have greater reason for trusting in myself. <sup>5</sup>I was circumcised eight days after my birth. I am from the people of Israel and the tribe<sup>a</sup> of Benjamin. I am a Hebrew, and my parents were Hebrews. The law of Moses was very important to me. That is why I became a Pharisee.<sup>a</sup> <sup>6</sup>I was so enthusiastic that I tried to hurt the church. No one could find fault with the way I obeyed the law of Moses. <sup>7</sup>At one time all these things were important to me. But now I think those things are worth nothing because of Christ. <sup>8</sup>Not only those things, but I think that all things are worth nothing compared with the greatness of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. Because of Christ, I have lost all those things. And now I know that all those things are worthless trash. This allows me to have Christ <sup>9</sup>and to belong to him. Now that I belong to Christ, I am right with God and this being right does not come from my following the law. It comes from God through faith. God uses my faith in Christ to make me right with him. <sup>10</sup>All I want is to know Christ and the power of his rising from death. I want to share in Christ's sufferings and become like him in his death. <sup>11</sup>If I have those things, then I have hope that I myself will be raised from death.

Continuing Toward Our Goal

<sup>12</sup>I do not mean that I am already as God wants me to be. I have not yet reached that goal. But I continue trying to reach it and to make it mine. Christ wants me to do that. That is the reason Christ made me his. <sup>13</sup>Brothers, I know that I have not yet reached that goal. But there is one thing I always do: I forget the things that are past. I try as hard as I can to reach the goal that is before me. <sup>14</sup>I keep trying to reach the goal and get the prize. That prize is mine because God called me through Christ to the life above.

<sup>15</sup>All of us who have grown spiritually to be mature should think this way, too. And if there are things you do not agree with, God will make them clear to you. <sup>16</sup>But we should continue following the truth we already have.

<sup>17</sup>Brothers, all of you should try to follow my example and to copy those who live the way we showed you. <sup>18</sup>Many people live like enemies of the cross of Christ. I have often told you about them, and it makes me cry to tell you about them now. <sup>19</sup>The way they live is leading them to destruction. Instead of serving God, they do whatever their bodies want. They do shameful things, and they are proud of it. They think only about earthly things. <sup>20</sup>But our homeland is in heaven, and we are waiting for our Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, to come from heaven. <sup>21</sup>He will change our simple bodies and make them like his own glorious body. Christ can do this by his power. With that power he is able to rule all things.

What the Christians Are to Do

4 My dear brothers, I love you and want to see you. You bring me joy and make me proud of you. Continue following the Lord as I have told you.

<sup>21</sup>I ask Euodia and Syntyche to agree in the Lord. <sup>3</sup>And because you serve faithfully with me, my friend, I ask you to help these women to do this. They served with me in telling people the Good News. <sup>4</sup>They served together with Clement and others who worked with me. Their names are written in the book of life. <sup>n</sup>

<sup>4</sup>Be full of joy in the Lord always. I will say again, be full of joy.

<sup>5</sup>Let all men see that you are gentle and kind. The Lord is coming soon. <sup>6</sup>Do not worry about anything. But pray and ask God for everything you need. And when you pray, always give thanks. <sup>7</sup>And God's peace will keep your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. The peace that God gives is so great that we cannot understand it.

<sup>8</sup>Brothers, continue to think about the things that are good and worthy of praise. Think about the things that are true and honorable and right and pure and beautiful and respected. <sup>9</sup>And do what you learned and received from me. Do what I told you and what you saw me do. And the God who gives peace will be with you.

Paul Thanks the Christians

<sup>10</sup>I am very happy in the Lord that you have shown your care for me again. You continued to care about me, but there was no way for you to show it. <sup>11</sup>I am telling you this, but it is not because I need anything. I have learned to be satisfied with the things I have and with everything that happens. <sup>12</sup>I know how to live when I am poor. And I know how to live when I have plenty. I have learned the secret of being happy at any time in everything that happens. I have learned to be happy when I have enough to eat and when I do not have enough to eat. I have learned to be happy when I have all that I need and when I do not have the things I need. <sup>13</sup>I can do all things through Christ because he gives me strength.

<sup>14</sup>But it was good that you helped me when I needed help. <sup>15</sup>You people in Philippi remember when I first preached the Good News<sup>a</sup> there. When I left Macedonia, you were the only church that gave me help. <sup>16</sup>Several times you sent me things I needed when I was in <sup>a</sup>book of life God's book that has the names of all God's chosen people (Revelation 3:5; 21:27).

Thessalonica. <sup>17</sup>Really, it is not that I want to receive gifts from you. But I want you to have the good that comes from giving. <sup>18</sup>And now I have everything, and more. I have all I need because Epaphroditus brought your gift to me. Your gift is like a sweet-smelling sacrifice offered to God. God accepts that sacrifice, and it pleases him. <sup>19</sup>My God will use his wonderful riches in Christ Jesus to give you everything you need. <sup>20</sup>Glory to our God and Father forever and ever! Amen.

COLOSSIANS

Only Christ Can Save People

1

From Paul, an apostle<sup>d</sup> of Christ Jesus. I am an apostle because that is what God wanted.

Also from Timothy, our brother.

<sup>2</sup>To the holy and faithful brothers in Christ that live in Colosse. Grace and peace from God our Father.

<sup>3</sup>In our prayers for you we always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup>We thank God because we have heard about the faith you have in Christ Jesus and the love you have for all of God's people. <sup>5</sup>You have this faith and love because of your hope, and what you hope for is saved for you in heaven. You learned about this hope when you heard the true teaching, the Good News<sup>d</sup> <sup>6</sup>that was told to you. Everywhere in the world that Good News is bringing blessings and is growing. This has happened with you, too, since you heard the Good News and understood the truth about the grace of God. <sup>7</sup>You learned about God's grace from Epaphras, whom we love. Epaphras works together with us and is a faithful servant of Christ for us. <sup>8</sup>He also told us about the love you have from the Holy Spirit.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>9</sup>Since the day we heard this about you, we have continued praying for you. We ask God that you will know fully what God wants. We pray that you will also have great wisdom and understanding in spiritual things. <sup>10</sup>Then you will live the kind of life that honors and pleases the Lord in every way. You will produce fruit in every good work and grow in the knowledge of God. <sup>11</sup>Then God will strengthen you with his own great power. And you will not give up when troubles come, but you will be patient. <sup>12</sup>Then you will joyfully give thanks to the Father. He has made you able to have all that he has prepared for his people who live in the light. <sup>13</sup>God made us free from the power of darkness, and he brought us into the kingdom of his dear Son. <sup>14</sup>The Son paid for our sins, and in him we have forgiveness.

The Importance of Christ

<sup>15</sup>No one has seen God, but Jesus is exactly like him. Christ ranks higher than all the things that have been made. <sup>16</sup>Through his power all things were made—things in heaven and on earth, things seen and unseen, all powers, authorities, lords, and rulers. All things were made through Christ and for Christ. <sup>17</sup>Christ was there before anything was made. And all things continue because of him. <sup>18</sup>He is the head of the body. (The body is the church.) Everything comes from him. And he is the first one who was raised from death. So in all things Jesus is most important. <sup>19</sup>God was pleased for all of himself to live in Christ. <sup>20</sup>And through Christ, God decided to bring all things back to himself again—things on earth and things in heaven. God made peace by using the blood of Christ's death on the cross.

<sup>21</sup>At one time you were separated from God. You were God's enemies in your minds because the evil deeds you did were against God. <sup>22</sup>But now Christ has made you God's friends again. He did this by his death while he was in the body, that he might bring you into God's presence. He brings you before God as people who are holy, with no wrong in you, and with nothing that God can judge you guilty of. <sup>23</sup>And Christ will do this if you continue to believe in the Good News<sup>d</sup> you heard. You must continue strong and sure in your faith. You must not be moved away from the hope that Good News gave you. That same Good News has been told to everyone in the world. I, Paul, help in preaching that Good News.

Paul's Work for the Church

<sup>24</sup>I am happy in my sufferings for you. There are many things that Christ must still suffer through his body, the church. I am accepting my part of these things that must be suffered. I accept these sufferings in my body. I suffer for his body, the church. <sup>25</sup>I became a servant of the church because God gave me a special work to do that helps you. My work is to tell fully the teaching of God. <sup>26</sup>This teaching is the secret truth that was hidden since the beginning of time. It was hidden from everyone, but now it is made known to God's holy people. <sup>27</sup>God decided to let his people know this rich and glorious truth which he has for all people. This truth is Christ himself, who is in you. He is our only hope for glory. <sup>28</sup>So we continue to preach Christ to all men. We use all wisdom to warn and to teach everyone. We are trying to bring each one into God's presence as a mature person in Christ. <sup>29</sup>To do this, I work and struggle, using Christ's great strength that works so powerfully in me.

2 I want you to know that I am trying very hard to help you. And I am trying to help those in Laodicea and others who have never seen me. <sup>21</sup>I want them to be strengthened and joined together with love. I want them to be rich in the strong belief that comes from understanding. I mean I want you to know fully God's secret truth. That truth is Christ himself. <sup>3</sup>And in him all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are safely kept.

<sup>4</sup>I say this so that no one can fool you by arguments that seem good, but are false. <sup>5</sup>I am not there with you, but my heart is with you. I am happy to see your good lives and your strong faith in Christ.

Continue to Live in Christ

<sup>6</sup>As you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so continue to live in him. <sup>7</sup>Keep your roots deep in him and have your lives built on him. Be strong in the faith, just as you were taught. And always be thankful.

<sup>8</sup>Be sure that no one leads you away with false ideas and words that mean nothing. Those ideas come from men. They are the worthless ideas of this world. They are not from Christ. <sup>9</sup>All of God lives in Christ fully (even when Christ was on earth). <sup>10</sup>And in him you have a full and true life. He is ruler over all rulers and powers.

<sup>11</sup>In Christ you had a different kind of circumcision. <sup>4</sup>That circumcision was not done by hands. I mean, you were made free from the power of your sinful self. That is the kind of circumcision Christ does. <sup>12</sup>When you were baptized, you were buried with Christ and you were raised up with Christ because of your faith in God's power. That power was shown when he raised Christ from death. <sup>13</sup>You were spiritually dead because of your sins and because you were not free from the power of your sinful self. But God made you alive with Christ. And God forgave all our sins. <sup>14</sup>We owed a debt because we broke God's laws. That debt listed all the rules we failed to follow. But God forgave us that debt. He took away that debt and nailed it to the cross. <sup>15</sup>God defeated the spiritual rulers and powers. With the cross God won the victory and defeated them. He showed the world that they were powerless.

"These . . . angry Some Greek copies add: "against the people who do not obey God."

Don't Follow People's Rules

<sup>16</sup>So do not let anyone make rules for you about eating and drinking or about a religious feast, a New Moon<sup>d</sup> Festival, or a Sabbath<sup>d</sup> day. <sup>17</sup>In the past, these things were like a shadow of what was to come. But the new things that were coming are found in Christ. <sup>18</sup>Some enjoy acting as if they were humble and love to worship angels. They are always talking about the visions they have seen. Do not let them tell you that you are wrong. They are full of foolish pride because of their human way of thinking. <sup>19</sup>They do not keep themselves under the control of Christ, the head. The whole body depends on Christ. Because of him all the parts of the body care for each other and help each other. This strengthens the body and holds it together. And so the body grows in the way God wants.

<sup>20</sup>You died with Christ and were made free from the worthless rules of the world. So why do you act as if you still belong to this world? I mean, why do you follow rules like these: <sup>21</sup>"Don't eat this," "Don't taste that," "Don't touch that thing"? <sup>22</sup>These rules are talking about earthly things that are gone as soon as they are used. They are only man-made commands and teachings. <sup>23</sup>These rules seem to be wise. But they are only part of a man-made religion. They make people pretend not to be proud and make them punish their bodies. But they do not really control the evil desires of the sinful self.

Your New Life in Christ

3 You were raised from death with Christ. So aim at what is in heaven, where Christ is sitting at the right hand of God. <sup>2</sup>Think only about the things in heaven, not the things on earth. <sup>3</sup>Your old sinful self has died, and your new life is kept with Christ in God. <sup>4</sup>Christ is your life. When he comes again, you will share in his glory.

<sup>8</sup>But now put these things out of your life: anger, bad temper, doing or saying things to hurt others, and using evil words when you talk. <sup>9</sup>Do not lie to each other. You have left your old sinful life and the things you did before. <sup>10</sup>You have begun to live the new life. In your new life you are being made new. You are becoming like the One who made you. This new life brings you the true knowledge of God. <sup>11</sup>In the new life there is no difference between Greeks and Jews. There is no difference between those who are circumcised<sup>d</sup> and those who are not circumcised, or people that are foreigners, or Scythians.<sup>e</sup> There is no difference between slaves and free people. But Christ is in all believers. And Christ is all that is important.

<sup>12</sup>God has chosen you and made you his holy people. He loves you. So always do these things: Show mercy to others; be kind, humble, gentle, and patient. <sup>13</sup>Do not be angry with each other, but forgive each other. If someone does wrong to you, then forgive him. Forgive each other because the Lord forgave you. <sup>14</sup>Do all these things; but most important, love each other. Love is what holds you all together in perfect unity. <sup>15</sup>Let the peace that Christ gives control your thinking. You were all called together in one body<sup>a</sup> to have peace. Always be thankful. <sup>16</sup>Let the teaching of Christ live in you richly. Use all wisdom to teach and strengthen each other. Sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with thankfulness in your hearts to God. <sup>17</sup>Everything you say and everything you do should all be done for Jesus your Lord. And in all you do, give thanks to God the Father through Jesus.

Your New Life with Other People

<sup>21</sup>Fathers, do not nag your children. If you are too hard to please, they may want to stop trying.

<sup>22</sup>Slaves, obey your masters in all things. Do not obey just when they are watching you, to gain their favor. But serve them honestly, because you respect the Lord. <sup>23</sup>In all the work you are doing, work the best you can. Work as if you were working for the Lord, not for men.

<sup>24</sup>Remember that you will receive your reward from the Lord, which he promised to his people. You are serving the Lord Christ. <sup>25</sup>But remember that anyone who does wrong will be punished for that wrong. And the Lord treats everyone the same.

4 Masters, give the things that are good and fair to your slaves. Remember that you have a Master in heaven.

What the Christians Are to Do

<sup>2</sup>Continue praying and keep alert. And when you pray, always thank God. <sup>3</sup>Also pray for us. Pray that God will give us an opportunity to tell people his message. Pray that we can preach the secret truth that God has made known about Christ. I am in prison because I preach this truth. <sup>4</sup>Pray that I can speak in a way that will make it clear as I should.

<sup>5</sup>Be wise in the way you act with people who are not believers. Use your time in the best way you can. <sup>6</sup>When you talk, you should always be kind and wise. Then you will be able to answer everyone in the way you should.

News About the People with Paul

<sup>7</sup>Tychicus is my dear brother in Christ. He is a faithful minister and servant with me in the Lord. He will tell you all the things that are happening to me. <sup>8</sup>That is why I am sending him. I want you to know how we are. I am sending him to encourage you. <sup>9</sup>I send him with Onesimus. Onesimus is a faithful and dear brother in Christ. He is one of your group. They will tell you all that has happened here.

<sup>10</sup>Aristarchus greets you. He is a prisoner with me. And Mark, the cousin of Barnabas, also greets you. (I have already told you what to do about Mark. If he comes, welcome him.)

<sup>11</sup>Jesus, who is called Justus, also greets you. These are the only Jewish believers who work with me for the kingdom of God. They have been a comfort to me.

<sup>12</sup>Epaphras also greets you. He is a servant of Jesus Christ. And he is from your group. He always prays for you. He prays that you will grow to be spiritually mature and have everything that God wants for you. <sup>13</sup>I know that he has worked hard for you and the people in Laodicea and in Hierapolis. <sup>14</sup>Demas and our dear friend Luke, the doctor, greet you.

<sup>15</sup>Greet the brothers in Laodicea. And greet Nympha and the church that meets in her house. <sup>16</sup>After this letter is read to you, be sure that it is also read to the church in Laodicea.

<sup>a</sup>body The spiritual body of Christ, meaning the church or his people.

And you read the letter that I wrote to Laodicea. <sup>17</sup>Tell Archippus, "Be sure to do the work the Lord gave you."

<sup>18</sup>I, Paul, greet you and write this with my own hand. Remember me in prison. God's grace be with you.

1 THESSALONIANS

Paul Encourages New Christians

1 From Paul, Silas, and Timothy.
To the church in Thessalonica, the church in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. May God's grace and peace be yours.

The Faith of the Thessalonians

<sup>2</sup>We always remember you when we pray and thank God for all of you. <sup>3</sup>When we pray to God our Father, we always thank him for the things you have done because of your faith. And we thank him for the work you have done because of your love. And we thank him that you continue to be strong because of your hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>4</sup>Brothers, God loves you. And we know that he has chosen you to be his. <sup>5</sup>We brought the Good News<sup>d</sup> to you. But we did not use only words. We brought the Good News with power, with the Holy Spirit,<sup>d</sup> and with sure knowledge that it is true. Also you know how we lived when we were with you. We lived that way to help you. <sup>6</sup>And you became like us and like the Lord. You suffered much, but still you accepted the teaching with the joy that comes from the Holy Spirit. <sup>7</sup>So you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and Southern Greece. <sup>8</sup>The Lord's teaching spread from you in Macedonia and Southern Greece. And your faith in God has become known everywhere. So we do not need to say anything about your faith. <sup>9</sup>People everywhere are telling about the good way you accepted us when we were there with you. They tell about how you stopped worshiping idols and changed to serving the living and true God. <sup>10</sup>And you changed to wait for God's Son to come from heaven. God raised that Son from death. He is Jesus, who saves us from God's angry judgment that is sure to come.

Paul's Work in Thessalonica

2 Brothers, you know that our visit to you was not a failure. <sup>2</sup>Before we came to you, we suffered in Philippi. People there insulted us. You know about that. And when we came to you, many people were against us. But our God helped us to be brave and to tell you his Good News.<sup>d</sup> <sup>3</sup>Our message was a message to encourage you. We were not trying to lie. We had no evil plan. We were not trying to trick you. <sup>4</sup>But we speak the Good News because God tested us and trusted us to do it. When we speak, we are not trying to please men. But we are trying to please God, who tests our hearts. <sup>5</sup>You know that we never tried to influence you by saying nice things about you. We were not trying to get your money. We had no selfishness to hide from you. God knows that this is true. <sup>6</sup>We were not looking for praise from you or anyone else. We are apostles<sup>d</sup> of Christ. When we were with you, we could have used our authority to make you do things.

<sup>7</sup>But we were very gentle with you. We were like a mother caring for her little children. <sup>8</sup>Because we loved you, we were happy to share God's Good News with you. But not only that, we were also happy to share even our own lives with you. <sup>9</sup>Brothers, I know that you remember how hard we worked. We worked night and day so that we would not burden any of you while we preached God's Good News to you.

<sup>10</sup>When we were with you, we lived in a holy and right way, without fault. You know that this is true, and God knows that this is true. <sup>11</sup>You know that we treated each of you as a father treats his own children. <sup>12</sup>We strengthened you, we comforted you, and we told you to live good lives for God. It is God who calls you to his glorious kingdom.

<sup>13</sup>Also, we always thank God because of the way you accepted his message. You heard his message from us, and you accepted it as the word of God, not the words of men. And it really is God's message. And that message works in you who believe. <sup>14</sup>Brothers, you have been like God's churches in Christ that are in Judea. <sup>15</sup>God's people suffered bad things from the other Jews there. And you suffered the same bad things from the people of your own country. <sup>16</sup>Those Jews killed both the Lord Jesus and the prophets.<sup>d</sup> And they forced us to leave that country. They do not please God. They are against all people. <sup>17</sup>They try to stop us from teaching the non-Jews so that they may be saved. But those Jews are adding more and more sins to the sins they already have. The anger of God has come to them at last.

Paul Wants to Visit Them Again

<sup>17</sup>Brothers, we were separated from you for a short time, but our thoughts were still with you. We wanted very much to see you, and tried very hard to do so. <sup>18</sup>I, Paul, tried to come many times, but Satan stopped us. <sup>19</sup>For you are our hope, our joy, and the crown we will be proud of when our Lord Jesus Christ comes. <sup>20</sup>Truly you are our glory and our joy.

3 We could not come to you, but it was very hard to wait any longer. So we decided to stay in Athens alone <sup>2</sup>and send Timothy to you. Timothy is our brother, who works with us for God. He helps us tell people the Good News<sup>d</sup> about Christ. We sent Timothy to strengthen and comfort you in your faith. <sup>3</sup>We sent him so that none of you would be upset by these troubles we have now. You yourselves know that we must have these troubles. <sup>4</sup>Even when we were with you, we told you that we all would have to suffer. And you know that it has happened the way we said. <sup>5</sup>This is why I sent Timothy to you, so that I could know about your faith. I sent him when I could not wait any longer. I was afraid that the devil had tempted you, and then our hard work would have been wasted.

<sup>6</sup>But Timothy now has come back to us from you and has brought us good news about your faith and love. He told us that you always remember us in a good way. He told us that you want to see us just as much as we want to see you. <sup>7</sup>So, brothers, we are comforted about you, because of your faith. We have much trouble and suffering, but still we are comforted. <sup>8</sup>For our life is really full if you stand strong in the Lord. <sup>9</sup>We have so much joy before our God because of you, and we thank him for you. But we cannot thank him enough for all the joy we feel. <sup>10</sup>And we continue praying with all our heart for you night and day. We pray that we can see you again and give you all the things you need to make your faith strong.

<sup>11</sup>We pray that our God and Father and our Lord Jesus will prepare the way for us to come to you. <sup>12</sup>We pray that the Lord will make your love grow more and more for each other and for all people. We pray that you will love others as we love you and <sup>13</sup>that your hearts will be made strong. Then you will be holy and without fault before our God and Father when our Lord Jesus comes with all his holy people.

A Life that Pleases God

4 Brothers, now I have some other things to tell you. We taught you how to live in a way that will please God. And you are living that way. Now we ask you and encourage you in the Lord Jesus to live that way more and more. <sup>2</sup>You know what we told you to do by the authority of the Lord Jesus. <sup>3</sup>God wants you to be holy and to stay away from sexual sins. <sup>4</sup>He wants each one of you to learn how to take a wife<sup>n</sup> in a way that is holy and honorable. <sup>5</sup>Don't use your body for sexual sin. The people who do not know God use their bodies for that. <sup>6</sup>So do not wrong your brother or cheat him in this way. The Lord will punish people who do those things. We have already told you and warned you about that. <sup>7</sup>God called us to be holy and does not want us to live in sin. <sup>8</sup>So the person who refuses to obey this teaching is refusing to obey God, not man. And God is the One who gives us his Holy Spirit.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>9</sup>We do not need to write to you about having love for your brothers and sisters in Christ. God has already taught you to love each other. <sup>10</sup>And truly you do love the brothers in all of Macedonia. Brothers, now we encourage you to love them more and more.

<sup>11</sup>Do all you can to live a peaceful life. Take care of your own business. Do your own work. We have already told you to do these things. <sup>12</sup>If you do, then people who are not believers will respect you. And you will not have to depend on others for what you need.

The Lord's Coming

<sup>13</sup>Brothers, we want you to know about those who have died. We do not want you to be sad as others who have no hope. <sup>14</sup>We believe that Jesus died and that he rose again. So because of Jesus, God will bring together with Jesus those who have died. <sup>15</sup>What we tell you now is the Lord's own message. We who are living now may still be living when the Lord comes again. We who are living at that time will be with the Lord, but not before those who have already died. <sup>16</sup>The Lord himself will come down from heaven. There will be a loud command with the voice of the archangel<sup>n</sup> and with the trumpet call of God. And those who have died and were in Christ will rise first.

<sup>17</sup>After that, those who are still alive at that time will be gathered up with them. We will be taken up in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And we will be with the Lord forever. <sup>18</sup>So comfort each other with these words.

Be Ready for the Lord's Coming

S Now, brothers, we do not need to write to you about times and dates. <sup>2</sup>You know very well that the day the Lord comes again will be a surprise like a thief that comes in the night. <sup>3</sup>People will say, "We have peace and we are safe." At that time they will be destroyed quickly, as pains come quickly to a woman having a baby. And those people will not escape. <sup>4</sup>But you, brothers, are not living in darkness. And so that day will not surprise you like a thief. <sup>5</sup>You are all people who belong to the light. You belong to the day. We do not belong to the night or to darkness. <sup>6</sup>So we should not be like other people. We should not be sleeping, but we should be awake and have self-control. <sup>7</sup>Those who sleep, sleep at night. Those who get drunk, get drunk at night. <sup>8</sup>But we belong to the day; so we should control ourselves. We should wear faith and love to protect us. And the hope of salvation should be our helmet. <sup>9</sup>God did not choose us to suffer his anger, but to have salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>10</sup>Jesus died for us so that we can live together with him. It is not important if we are alive or dead when Jesus comes. <sup>11</sup>So comfort each other and give each other strength, just as you are doing now.

Final Instructions and Greetings

<sup>12</sup>Now, brothers, we ask you to respect those people who work hard with you, who lead you in the Lord and teach you. <sup>13</sup>Respect them with a very special love because of the work they do with you.

Live in peace with each other. <sup>14</sup>We ask you, brothers, to warn those who do not work. Encourage the people who are afraid. Help those who are weak. Be patient with every person. <sup>15</sup>Be sure that no one pays back wrong for wrong. But always try to do what is good for each other and for all people.

<sup>23</sup>We pray that God himself, the God of peace, will make you pure, belonging only to him. We pray that your whole self—spirit, soul, and body—will be kept safe and be without wrong when our Lord Jesus Christ comes. <sup>24</sup>The One who calls you will do that for you. You can trust him.

<sup>25</sup>Brothers, please pray for us.

<sup>26</sup>Give all the brothers a holy kiss when you meet. <sup>27</sup>I tell you by the authority of the Lord to read this letter to all the brothers.

The Problems of New Christians

A

1 From Paul, Silas, and Timothy.

To the church in Thessalonica in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>2</sup>Grace and peace to you from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Paul Talks About God's Judgment

<sup>3</sup>We must always thank God for you. And we should do this because it is right. It is right because your faith is growing more and more. And the love that every one of you has for each other is also growing. <sup>4</sup>So we brag about you to the other churches of God. We tell them about the way you continue to be strong and have faith. You are being treated badly and are suffering many troubles, but you continue with strength and faith.

<sup>5</sup>This is proof that God is right in his judgment. God wants you to be worthy of his kingdom. Your suffering is for that kingdom. <sup>6</sup>And God will do what is right. He will give trouble to those who trouble you. <sup>7</sup>And he will give peace to you people who are troubled and to us also. God will give us this help when the Lord Jesus is shown to us from heaven with his powerful angels. <sup>8</sup>He will come from heaven with burning fire to punish those who do not know God. He will punish those who do not obey the Good News<sup>d</sup> of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup>Those people will be punished with a destruction that continues forever. They will not be allowed to be with the Lord, and they will be kept away from his great power. <sup>10</sup>This will happen on the day when the Lord Jesus comes to receive glory with his holy people. And all the people who have believed will be amazed at Jesus. You will be in that group of believers because you believed what we told you.

<sup>11</sup>That is why we always pray for you. We ask our God to help you live the good way that he called you to live. The goodness you have makes you want to do good, and the faith you have makes you work. We pray that with his power God will help you do these things more and more. <sup>12</sup>We pray all this so that the name of our Lord Jesus Christ can have glory in you. And you can have glory in him. That glory comes from the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Evil Things Will Happen

2 Brothers, we have something to say about the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. We want to talk to you about that time when we will meet together with him. <sup>2</sup>Do not become easily upset in your thinking or afraid if you hear that the day of the Lord has already come. Someone may say this in a prophecy<sup>d</sup> or in a message. Or you may read it in a letter that someone tells you came from us. <sup>3</sup>Do not let any person fool you in any way. That day of the Lord will not come until the turning away from God happens. And that day will not come until the Man of Evil appears. He belongs to hell. <sup>4</sup>He is against anything called God or anything that people worship. And the Man of Evil puts himself above anything called God or anything that people worship. And that Man of Evil even goes into God's Temple<sup>d</sup> and sits there. Then he says that he is God.

<sup>5</sup>I told you when I was with you that all this would happen. Do you not remember? <sup>6</sup>And you know what is stopping that Man of Evil now. He is being stopped now so that he will appear at the right time. <sup>7</sup>The secret power of evil is already working in the world now. But there is one who is stopping that power. And he will continue to stop it until he is taken out of the way. <sup>8</sup>Then that Man of Evil will appear. And the Lord Jesus will kill him with the breath that comes from his mouth and will destroy him with the glory of his coming. <sup>9</sup>The Man of Evil will come by the power of Satan. He will have great power, and he will do many different false miracles,<sup>d</sup> signs, and wonders. <sup>10</sup>He will use every kind of evil to trick those who are lost. They are lost because they refused to love the truth. (If they loved the truth, they would be saved.) <sup>11</sup>But they refused to love the truth; so God sends them something powerful that leads them away from the truth. He sends them that power so they will believe something that is not true. <sup>12</sup>So all those who do not believe the truth will be judged guilty. They did not believe the truth, and they enjoyed doing evil.

You Are Chosen for Salvation

<sup>13</sup>Brothers, the Lord loves you. God chose you from the beginning to be saved. So we must always thank God for you. You are saved by the Spirit<sup>a</sup> that makes you holy and by your faith in the truth. <sup>14</sup>God used the Good News<sup>d</sup> that we preached to call you to be saved. He called you so that you can share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>15</sup>So, brothers, stand strong and continue to believe the teachings we gave you. We taught you those things in our speaking and in our letter to you.

<sup>16,17</sup>We pray that the Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father will comfort you and strengthen you in every good thing you do and say. God loved us. Through his grace he gave us a good hope and comfort that continues forever.

Pray for Us

3 And now, brothers, pray for us. Pray that the Lord's teaching will continue to spread quickly. And pray that people will give honor to that teaching, just as happened with you. <sup>2</sup>And pray that we will be protected from bad and evil people. (Not all people believe in the Lord.)

<sup>3</sup>But the Lord is faithful. He will give you strength and protect you from the Evil One. <sup>4</sup>The Lord makes us feel sure that you are doing the things we told you. And we know that you will continue to do those things. <sup>5</sup>We pray that the Lord will lead your hearts into God's love and Christ's patience.

The Duty to Work

<sup>6</sup>Brothers, by the authority of our Lord Jesus Christ we command you to stay away from any believer who refuses to work. People who refuse to work are not following the teaching that we gave them. <sup>7</sup>You yourselves know that you should live as we live. We were not lazy when we were with you. <sup>8</sup>And when we ate another person's food, we always paid for it. We worked and worked so that we would not be a trouble to any of you. We worked night and day. <sup>9</sup>We had the right to ask you to help us. But we worked to take care of ourselves so that we would be an example for you to follow. <sup>10</sup>When we were with you, we gave you this rule: "If anyone will not work, he will not eat."

<sup>11</sup>We hear that some people in your group refuse to work. They do nothing. And they busy themselves in other people's lives. <sup>12</sup>We command those people to work quietly and earn their own food. In the Lord Jesus Christ we beg them to do this. <sup>13</sup>Brothers, never become tired of doing good.

<sup>14</sup>If anyone does not obey what we tell you in this letter, then remember who he is. Do not associate with him. Then maybe he will feel ashamed. <sup>15</sup>But do not treat him as an enemy. Warn him as a brother.

Final Words

<sup>16</sup>We pray that the Lord of peace will give you peace at all times and in every way. May the Lord be with all of you.

<sup>17</sup>I am Paul, and I end this letter now in my own handwriting. All my letters have this to show they are from me. This is the way I write.

1 TIMOTHY

Advice to a Young Preacher

1 From Paul, an apostle<sup>d</sup> of Christ Jesus, by the command of God our Savior and Christ Jesus our hope.

<sup>2</sup>To Timothy, a true son to me because you believe.

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Warning Against False Teaching

<sup>3</sup>I want you to stay in Ephesus. I asked you to do that when I went into Macedonia. Some people there in Ephesus are teaching false things. Stay there so that you can command them to stop. <sup>4</sup>Tell them not to spend their time on stories that are not true and on long lists of names in family histories. These things only bring arguments; they do not help God's work. God's work is done by faith. <sup>5</sup>The purpose of this command is for people to have love. To have this love they must have a pure heart, they must do what they know is right, and they must have true faith. <sup>6</sup>Some people have wandered away from these things. They talk about things that are worth nothing. <sup>7</sup>They want to be teachers of the law, but they do not know what they are talking about. They do not even understand what they say they are sure about.

<sup>8</sup>We know that the law is good if a man uses it right. <sup>9</sup>We also know that the law is not made for good men. The law is made for people who are against the law and for those who refuse to follow the law. It is for people who are against God and are sinful, who are not holy and have no religion, who kill their fathers and mothers, who murder, <sup>10</sup>who take part in sexual sins, men who have sexual relations with other men, those who sell slaves, who tell lies, who speak falsely, and who do anything against the true teaching of God. <sup>11</sup>That teaching is part of the Good News<sup>d</sup> that God gave me to tell. That glorious Good News is from the blessed God.

Thanks for God's Mercy

<sup>12</sup>I thank Christ Jesus our Lord because he trusted me and gave me this work of serving him. And he gives me strength. <sup>13</sup>In the past I spoke against Christ and persecuted him and did all kinds of things to hurt him. But God showed mercy to me because I did not know what I was doing. I did those things when I did not believe. <sup>14</sup>But the grace of our Lord was fully given to me. And with that grace came the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

<sup>15</sup>What I say is true, and you should fully accept it: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. And I am the worst of those sinners. <sup>16</sup>But I was given mercy. I was given mercy so that in me Christ Jesus could show that he has patience without limit. And he showed his patience with me, the worst of all sinners. Christ wanted me to be an example for those who would believe in him and have life forever. <sup>17</sup>Honor and glory to the King that rules forever! He cannot be destroyed and cannot be seen. Honor and glory forever and ever to the only God. Amen.

<sup>18</sup>Timothy, you are like a son to me. I am giving you a command that agrees with the prophecies<sup>d</sup> that were given about you in the past. I tell you this so that you can follow those prophecies and fight the good fight of faith. <sup>19</sup>Continue to have faith and do what you know is right. Some people have not done this. Their faith has been destroyed. <sup>20</sup>Hymenaeus and Alexander are men who have done that. I have given them to Satan so that they will learn not to speak against God.

Some Rules for Men and Women

2 First, I tell you to pray for all people. Ask God for the things people need, and be thankful to him. <sup>2</sup>You should pray for kings and for all who have authority. Pray for the leaders so that we can have quiet and peaceful lives—lives full of worship and respect for God. <sup>3</sup>This is good, and it pleases God our Savior. <sup>4</sup>God wants all people to be saved. And he wants everyone to know the truth. <sup>5</sup>There is only one God. And there is only one way that people can reach God. That way is through Jesus Christ, who is also a man. <sup>6</sup>Jesus gave himself to pay for the sins of all people. Jesus is proof that God wants all people to be saved. And that proof came at the right time. <sup>7</sup>That is why I was chosen to tell the Good News<sup>d</sup> and was chosen to be an apostle. <sup>d</sup>(I am telling the truth. I am not lying.) I was chosen to teach the non-Jewish people to believe and to know the truth.

<sup>8</sup>I want men everywhere to pray. These men who lift up their hands in prayer must be holy. They must not be men who become angry and have arguments.

<sup>9</sup>I also want women to wear clothes that are right for them. They should dress with respect and right thinking. They should not use fancy braided hair or gold or pearls or expensive clothes to make themselves beautiful. <sup>10</sup>But they should make themselves beautiful by doing good deeds. Women who say they worship God should make themselves beautiful in that way.

<sup>11</sup>A woman should learn by listening quietly and being fully ready to obey. <sup>12</sup>I do not allow a woman to teach a man or to have authority over a man. She must remain silent. <sup>13</sup>For Adam was made first; Eve was made later. <sup>14</sup>Also, Adam was not the one who was tricked by the devil. It was the woman who was tricked and became a sinner. <sup>15</sup>But women will be saved through having children. They will be saved if they continue in faith, love, holiness, and self-control.

Leaders in the Church

3 What I say is true: If anyone wants to become an elder,<sup>a</sup> he is wanting a good work. <sup>2</sup>An elder must be so good that people cannot rightly criticize him. He must have only one wife. He must have self-control and be wise. He must be respected by other people and must be ready to help people by accepting them into his home. He must be a good teacher. <sup>3</sup>He must not drink too much wine, and he must not be a man who likes to fight. He must be gentle and peaceful. He must not love money. <sup>4</sup>He must be a good leader of his own family so that his children obey him with full respect. <sup>5</sup>(If a man does not know how to be a leader over his own family, he will not be able to take care of God's church.) <sup>6</sup>But an elder must not be a new believer. A new believer might be too proud of himself. Then he would be judged guilty for his pride just as the devil was. <sup>7</sup>An elder must also have the respect of people who are not in the church. Then he will not be criticized by others and caught in the devil's trap.

Helpers in the Church

<sup>8</sup>In the same way, deacons<sup>d</sup> must be men that people can respect. They must not say things they do not mean. They must not use their time drinking too much wine, and they must not be men who are always trying to get rich by cheating others. <sup>9</sup>They must follow the faith that God made known to us and always do what they know is right. <sup>10</sup>You should test those men first. If you find nothing wrong in them, then they can serve as deacons. <sup>11</sup>In the same way, the women<sup>a</sup> must have the respect of other people. They must not be women who repeat evil gossip about other people. They must have self-control and be women who can be trusted in everything. <sup>12</sup>Deacons must have only one wife. They must be good leaders of their children and their own families. <sup>13</sup>Those who serve well as deacons are making an honorable place for themselves. And they will feel very sure of their faith in Christ Jesus.

The Secret of Our Life

<sup>14</sup>I hope I can come to you soon. But I am writing these things to you now. <sup>15</sup>Then, even if I cannot come soon, you will know about the things that people must do in the family of God. That family is the church of the living God, the support and foundation of the truth. <sup>16</sup>Without doubt, the secret of our life of worship is great:

He was shown to us in a human body, proved right by the Spirit,<sup>d</sup>
 and seen by angels.

He was preached to the nations, believed in by the world,
 and taken to heaven in glory.

A Warning About False Teachers

Be A Good Servant of Christ

<sup>6</sup>Tell these things to the brothers. This will show that you are a good servant of Christ Jesus. You will show that you are made strong by the words of faith and good teaching that you have been following. <sup>7</sup>People tell silly stories that do not agree with God's truth. Do not follow what those stories teach. But teach yourself only to serve God. <sup>8</sup>Training your body helps you in some ways, but serving God helps you in every way. Serving God brings you blessings in this life and in the future life, too. <sup>9</sup>What I say is true, and you should fully accept it. <sup>10</sup>For this is why we work and struggle: We hope in the living God. He is the Savior of all people. And in a very special way, he is the Savior of all who believe in him.

<sup>11</sup>Command and teach these things. <sup>12</sup>You are young, but do not let anyone treat you as if you were not important. Be an example to show the believers how they should live. Show them with your words, with the way you live, with your love, with your faith, and with your pure life. <sup>13</sup>Continue to read the Scriptures<sup>d</sup> to the people, strengthen them, and teach them. Do these things until I come. <sup>14</sup>Remember to use the gift that you have. That gift was given to you through a prophecy<sup>d</sup> when the group of elders<sup>d</sup> laid their hands on<sup>a</sup> you. <sup>15</sup>Continue to do those things. Give your life to doing them. Then everyone can see that your work is progressing. <sup>16</sup>Be careful in your life and in your teaching. Continue to live and teach rightly. Then you will save yourself and those people who listen to you.

Rules for Living with Others

5 Do not speak angrily to an older man, but talk to him as if he were your father. Treat younger men like brothers. <sup>2</sup>Treat older women like mothers, and younger women like sisters. Always treat them in a pure way.

<sup>3</sup>Take care of widows who are all alone. <sup>4</sup>But if a widow has children or grandchildren, the first thing they need to learn is to do their duty to their own family. When they do this, they will be repaying their parents or grandparents. That pleases God. <sup>5</sup>If a widow is all alone and without help, then she puts her hope in God and prays night and day for God's help. <sup>6</sup>But the widow who uses her life to please herself is really dead while she is still living. <sup>7</sup>Tell the believers there to do these things so that no one can say they are doing wrong. <sup>8</sup>A believer should take care of his own relatives, especially his own family. If he does not do that, he has turned against the faith. He is worse than a person who does not believe in God.

<sup>9</sup>To be on your list of widows, a woman must be 60 years old or older. She must have been faithful to her husband. <sup>10</sup>She must be known as a woman who has done good works. By this, I mean good works such as raising her children, accepting visitors in her home, washing the feet of God's people, helping those in trouble, and using her life to do all kinds of good deeds.

<sup>11</sup>But do not put younger widows on that list. After they give themselves to Christ, they are often pulled away from him by their physical needs. And then they want to marry again.

<sup>12</sup>And they will be judged for not doing what they first promised to do. <sup>13</sup>Also, those younger widows begin to waste their time going from house to house. They begin to gossip and busy themselves with other people's lives. They say things that they should not say. <sup>14</sup>So I want the younger widows to marry, have children, and take care of their homes. If they do this, then no enemy will have any reason to criticize them. <sup>15</sup>But some of the younger widows have already turned away to follow Satan.

<sup>16</sup>If any woman who is a believer has widows in her family, then she should care for them herself. The church should not have to care for them. Then the church will be able to care for the widows who have no living family.

<sup>19</sup>Do not listen to someone who accuses an elder, unless there are two or three other persons who say he did wrong. <sup>20</sup>Tell those who keep on sinning that they are wrong. Do this in front of the whole church so that the others will have a warning.

on anyone for the Lord's service. Do not share in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure.

<sup>23</sup>Timothy, you stop drinking only water and drink a little wine. This will help your stomach, and you will not be sick so often.

<sup>24</sup>The sins of some people are easy to see even before they are judged. But the sins of others are seen only later. <sup>25</sup>So also good deeds are easy to see. But even when they are not easy to see, they cannot stay hidden.

6 All who are slaves should show full respect to their masters. Then no one will speak against God's name and our teaching. <sup>2</sup>Some slaves have masters who are believers. This means they are all brothers. But the slaves should not show their masters any less respect. They should serve their masters even better, because they are helping believers they love.

False Teaching and True Riches

You must teach and preach these things. <sup>3</sup>If anyone has a different teaching, he does not accept the true teaching of our Lord Jesus Christ. And that teaching shows him the true way to serve God. <sup>4</sup>The person who teaches falsely is full of pride and understands nothing. He is sick with a love for arguing and fighting about words. And that brings jealousy, making trouble, insults, and evil mistrust. <sup>5</sup>And that also brings arguments from men who have evil minds. They have lost the truth. They think that serving God is a way to get rich.

<sup>6</sup>It is true that serving God makes a person very rich, if he is satisfied with what he has. <sup>7</sup>When we came into the world, we brought nothing. And when we die, we can take nothing out. <sup>8</sup>So, if we have food and clothes, we will be satisfied with that. <sup>9</sup>Those who want to become rich bring temptation to themselves. They are caught in a trap. They begin to want many foolish things that will hurt them, things that ruin and destroy people. <sup>10</sup>The love of money causes all kinds of evil. Some people have left the true faith because they want to get more and more money. But they have caused themselves much sorrow.

Some Things to Remember

<sup>11</sup>But you are a man of God. So you should stay away from all those things. Try to live in the right way, serve God, have faith, love, patience, and gentleness. <sup>12</sup>Keeping your faith is like running a race. Try as hard as you can to win. Be sure you receive the life that continues forever. You were called to have that life. And you confessed the great truth about Christ in a way that many people heard. <sup>13</sup>Before God and Christ Jesus I give you a command. Christ Jesus confessed that same great truth when he stood before Pontius Pilate. And God gives life to everything. Now I tell you: <sup>14</sup>Do the things you were commanded to do. Do them without wrong or blame until the time when our Lord Jesus Christ comes again. <sup>15</sup>God will make that happen at the right time. He is the blessed and only Ruler. He is the King of all kings and the Lord of all lords. <sup>16</sup>God is the only One who never dies. He lives in light so bright that men cannot go near it. No one has ever seen God, or can see him. May honor and power belong to God forever. Amen.

<sup>17</sup>Give this command to those who are rich with things of this world. Tell them not to be proud. Tell them to hope in God, not their money. Money cannot be trusted, but God takes care of us richly. He gives us everything to enjoy. <sup>18</sup>Tell the rich people to do good and to be rich in doing good deeds. Tell them to be happy to give and ready to share. <sup>19</sup>By doing that, they will be saving a treasure for themselves in heaven. That treasure will be a strong foundation. Their future life can be built on that treasure. Then they will be able to have the life that is true life.

<sup>20</sup>Timothy, God has trusted you with many things. Keep those things safe. Stay away from people who say foolish things that are not from God. Stay away from those who argue against the truth. They use something they call "knowledge," but it is really not knowledge. <sup>21</sup>They say that they have that "knowledge," but they have left the true faith.

God's grace be with you.

<sup>7</sup>lay your hands on A sign of giving authority or power to another person.

2 TIMOTHY

Paul Encourages Timothy

1 From Paul, an apostle<sup>a</sup> of Christ Jesus by the will of God. God sent me to tell about the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus.

<sup>2</sup>To Timothy, a dear son to me. Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Encouragement for Timothy

<sup>3</sup>I always remember you in my prayers, day and night. And I thank God for you in these prayers. He is the God my ancestors served. And I serve him, doing what I know is right. <sup>4</sup>I remember that you cried for me. And I want very much to see you so that I can be filled with joy. <sup>5</sup>I remember your true faith. That kind of faith first belonged to your grandmother Lois and to your mother Eunice. And I know that you now have that same faith. <sup>6</sup>That is why I remind you to use the gift God gave you. God gave you that gift when I laid my hands on<sup>n</sup> you. Now let it grow, as a small flame grows into a fire. <sup>7</sup>God did not give us a spirit that makes us afraid. He gave us a spirit of power and love and self-control.

<sup>8</sup>So do not be ashamed to tell people about our Lord Jesus. And do not be ashamed of me. I am in prison for the Lord. But suffer with me for the Good News.<sup>d</sup> God gives us the strength to do that. <sup>9</sup>God saved us and made us his holy people. That was not because of anything we did ourselves but because of what he wanted and because of his grace. That grace was given to us through Christ Jesus before time began. <sup>10</sup>It was not shown to us until our Savior Christ Jesus came. Jesus destroyed death. And through the Good News, he showed us the way to have life that cannot be destroyed. <sup>11</sup>I was chosen to tell that Good News and to be an apostle<sup>d</sup> and a teacher. <sup>12</sup>And I suffer now because I tell the Good News. But I am not ashamed. I know Jesus, the One I have believed in. And I am sure that he is able to protect what he has trusted me with until that Day.<sup>n</sup> <sup>13</sup>Follow the true teachings you heard from me. Follow them as an example of the faith and love we have in Christ Jesus. <sup>14</sup>Protect the truth that you were given. Protect it with the help of the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> who lives in us.

<sup>15</sup>You know that everyone in the country of Asia has left me, even Phygelus and Hermogenes. <sup>16</sup>I pray that the Lord will show mercy to the family of Onesiphorus. He has often helped me and was not ashamed that I was in prison. <sup>17</sup>When he came to Rome, he looked for me until he found me. <sup>18</sup>I pray that the Lord will allow Onesiphorus to have mercy from the Lord on that Day. You know how many ways Onesiphorus helped me in Ephesus.

A Loyal Soldier of Christ Jesus

2 Timothy, you are like a son to me. Be strong in the grace that we have in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup>You and many others have heard what I have taught. You should teach the same thing to some people you can trust. Then they will be able to teach it to others. <sup>3</sup>Share in the troubles that we have. Accept them like a true soldier of Christ Jesus. <sup>4</sup>A soldier wants to please his commanding officer, so he does not waste his time doing the things that most people do. <sup>5</sup>If an athlete is running a race, he must obey all the rules in order to win. <sup>6</sup>The farmer who works hard should be the first person to get some of the food that he grew. <sup>7</sup>Think about these things that I am saying. The Lord will give you the ability to understand all these things.

<sup>8</sup>Remember Jesus Christ. He is from the family of David. After Jesus died, he was raised from death. This is the Good News<sup>d</sup> that I preach, <sup>9</sup>and I am suffering because of that Good News. I am even bound with chains like a criminal. But God's teaching is not in chains. <sup>10</sup>So I patiently accept all these troubles. I do this so that those whom God has chosen can have the salvation that is in Christ Jesus. With that salvation comes glory that never ends.

If we died with him,
then we will also live with him.

<sup>12</sup>If we accept suffering, then we will also rule with him.

If we refuse to accept him,

<sup>a</sup>aid . . . on A sign to show that Paul had power from God to give Timothy a special blessing.

<sup>n</sup>Day The day Christ will come to judge all people and take his people to live with him.

then he will refuse to accept us.

<sup>13</sup>If we are not faithful, he will still be faithful, because he cannot be false to himself.

A Worker Pleasing to God

<sup>14</sup>Continue teaching these things. And warn people before God not to argue about words. Arguing about words does not help anyone, and it ruins those who listen. <sup>15</sup>Do the best you can to be the kind of person that God will accept, and give yourself to him. Be a worker who is not ashamed of his work—a worker who uses the true teaching in the right way. <sup>16</sup>Stay away from those who talk about useless worldly things. That kind of talk will lead a person more and more away from God. <sup>17</sup>Their evil teaching will spread like a sickness inside the body. Hymenaeus and Philetus are men like that. <sup>18</sup>They have left the true teaching. They say that the rising from death of all men has already taken place. And those two men are destroying the faith of some people. <sup>19</sup>But God's strong foundation continues to stand. These words are written on that foundation: "The Lord knows those who belong to him."<sup>n</sup> And also these words are written on that foundation, "Everyone who says that he believes in the Lord must stop doing wrong."

<sup>20</sup>In a large house there are things made of gold and silver. But also there are things made of wood and clay. Some things are used for special purposes, and others are made for ordinary jobs. <sup>21</sup>If anyone makes himself clean<sup>d</sup> from evil things, he will be used for special purposes. He will be made holy, and the Master can use him. He will be ready to do any good work.

<sup>22</sup>Stay away from the evil things young people love to do. Try hard to live right and to have faith, love, and peace. Work for these things together with those who have pure hearts and who trust in the Lord. <sup>23</sup>Stay away from foolish and stupid arguments. You know that such arguments grow into bigger arguments. <sup>24</sup>And a servant of the Lord must not quarrel! He must be kind to everyone. He must be a good teacher. He must be patient. <sup>25</sup>The Lord's servant must gently teach those who do not agree with him. Maybe God will let them change their hearts so that they can accept the truth. <sup>26</sup>The devil has trapped them and causes them to do what he wants. But maybe they can wake up and free themselves from the devil's trap.

The Last Days

3 Remember this! There will be many troubles in the last days. <sup>2</sup>In those times people will love only themselves and money. They will brag and be proud. They will say evil things against others. They will not obey their parents. People will not be thankful or be the kind of people God wants. <sup>3</sup>They will not have love for others. They will refuse to forgive others and will speak bad things. They will not control themselves. They will be cruel and will hate what is good. <sup>4</sup>In the last days, people will turn against their friends. They will do foolish things without thinking. They will be conceited and proud. They will love pleasure. They will not love God. <sup>5</sup>They will continue to act as if they serve God, but they will not really serve God. Stay away from those people. <sup>6</sup>Some of them go into homes and get control of weak women who are full of sin. They are led to sin by the many evil desires they have. <sup>7</sup>Those women always try to learn new teachings, but they are never able to understand the truth fully. <sup>8</sup>Just as Jannes and Jambres were against Moses, these people are against the truth. They are people whose thinking has been confused. They have failed in trying to follow the faith. <sup>9</sup>But they will not be successful in what they do. Everyone will see that they are foolish. That is what happened to Jannes and Jambres.

Obey the Teachings

<sup>10</sup>But you know all about me. You know what I teach and the way I live. You know my goal in life. You know my faith, my patience, and my love. You know that I never stop trying. <sup>11</sup>You know how I have been hurt and have suffered. You know all that happened to me in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. You know the hurts I suffered in those places. But the Lord saved me from all those troubles. <sup>12</sup>Everyone who wants to live the way God wants, in Christ Jesus, will be hurt. <sup>13</sup>People who are evil and cheat other people will go from bad to worse. They will fool others, but they will also be fooling themselves.

showing people what is wrong in their lives. It is useful for correcting faults and teaching how to live right. <sup>17</sup>Using the Scriptures, the person who serves God will be ready and will have everything he needs to do every good work.

4 Before God and Jesus Christ I give you a command. Christ Jesus is the One who will judge all who are living and all who have died. Jesus has a kingdom, and he is coming again. So I give you this command: <sup>2</sup>Preach the Good News.<sup>d</sup> Be ready at all times. Tell people what they need to do, tell them when they are wrong, and encourage them. Do these things with great patience and careful teaching. <sup>3</sup>The time will come when people will not listen to the true teaching. They will find more and more teachers who are pleasing to them, teachers who say the things they want to hear. <sup>4</sup>They will stop listening to the truth. They will begin to follow the teaching in false stories. <sup>5</sup>But you should control yourself at all times. When troubles come, accept them. Do the work of telling the Good News. Do all the duties of a servant of God.

<sup>6</sup>My life is being given as an offering to God. The time has come for me to leave this life. <sup>7</sup>I have fought the good fight. I have finished the race. I have kept the faith. <sup>8</sup>Now, a crown is waiting for me. I will get that crown for being right with God. The Lord is the judge who judges rightly, and he will give me the crown on that Day.<sup>a</sup> He will give that crown not only to me but to all those who have waited with love for him to come again.

Personal Words

<sup>9</sup>Do your best to come to me as soon as you can. <sup>10</sup>Demas loved this world too much. He left me and went to Thessalonica. Crescens went to Galatia. And Titus went to Dalmatia.

<sup>11</sup>Luke is the only one still with me. Get Mark and bring him with you when you come. He can help me in my work here. <sup>12</sup>I sent Tychicus to Ephesus.

<sup>13</sup>When I was in Troas, I left my coat there with Carpus. So when you come, bring it to me. Also, bring my books, particularly the ones written on parchment.<sup>n</sup>

<sup>14</sup>Alexander the metalworker did many harmful things against me. The Lord will punish him for the things he did. <sup>15</sup>You should be careful that he does not hurt you too. He fought strongly against our teaching.

<sup>16</sup>The first time I defended myself, no one helped me. Everyone left me. I pray that God will forgive them. <sup>17</sup>But the Lord stayed with me. He gave me strength so that I could fully tell the Good News<sup>d</sup> to the non-Jews. The Lord wanted all the non-Jews to hear it. So I was saved from the lion's mouth. <sup>18</sup>The Lord will save me when anyone tries to hurt me. The Lord will bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. Glory forever and ever be the Lord's. Amen.

Final Greetings

Eubulus sends greetings to you. Also Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers in Christ greet you.

<sup>a</sup>Day The day Christ will come to judge all people and take his people to live with him.

<sup>n</sup>parchment Something like paper made from the skins of sheep and used for writing on.

TITUS

Paul Instructs Titus

1 From Paul, a servant of God and an apostle<sup>a</sup> of Jesus Christ. I was sent to help the faith of God's chosen people. I was sent to help them to know the truth. And that truth shows people how to serve God. <sup>2</sup>That faith and that knowledge come from our hope for life forever. God promised that life to us before time began, and God does not lie. <sup>3</sup>At the right time God let the world know about that life through preaching. He trusted me with that work, and I preached because God our Savior commanded me to.

<sup>4</sup>To Titus. You are like a true son to me in the faith we share.

Grace and peace to you from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

Titus' Work in Crete

<sup>5</sup>I left you in Crete so that you could finish doing the things that still needed to be done. I left you there also so that you could choose men to be elders<sup>a</sup> in every town. <sup>6</sup>To be an elder, a man must not be guilty of doing wrong. He must have only one wife. His children must be believers. They must not be known as children who are wild and who do not obey. <sup>7</sup>An elder has the job of taking care of God's work. So he must not be guilty of doing wrong. He must not be a man who is proud and selfish or who becomes angry quickly. He must not drink too much wine. He must not be a person who likes to fight. And he must not be a person who always tries to get rich by cheating people. <sup>8</sup>An elder must be ready to help others by accepting them into his home. He must love what is good. He must be wise. He must live right. He must be holy. And he must be able to control himself. <sup>9</sup>An elder must faithfully follow the truth just as we teach it. He must be able to help people by using true and right teaching. And he must be able to show those who are against the true teaching that they are wrong.

<sup>10</sup>There are many people who refuse to obey—people who talk about worthless things and lead others into the wrong way. I am talking mostly about those who say that all non-Jews must be circumcised.<sup>a</sup> <sup>11</sup>These people must be stopped from talking. They are destroying whole families by teaching things that they should not teach. They teach them only to cheat people and make money. <sup>12</sup>Even one of their own prophets from Crete said, "Cretan people are always liars. They are evil animals and lazy people who do nothing but eat." <sup>13</sup>The words that prophet said are true. So tell those people that they are wrong. You must be strict with them. Then they will become strong in the faith <sup>14</sup>and stop accepting Jewish stories. And they will stop following the commands of others who do not accept the truth. <sup>15</sup>To those who are pure, all things are pure. But to those who are full of sin and do not believe, nothing is pure. The thinking of those people has become evil and their knowledge of what is right has been ruined. <sup>16</sup>They say they know God, but the evil things they do show that they do not accept God. They are terrible people, they refuse to obey, and they are useless for doing anything good.

Following the True Teaching

2 You must tell everyone what they must do to follow the true teaching. <sup>2</sup>Teach older men to have self-control, to be serious, and to be wise. They should be strong in faith, strong in love, and strong in patience.

<sup>3</sup>Also, teach older women to be holy in the way they live. Teach them not to speak against others or have the habit of drinking too much wine. They should teach what is good. <sup>4</sup>In that way they can teach younger women to love their husbands and children. <sup>5</sup>They can teach younger women to be wise and pure, to take care of their homes, to be kind, and to obey their husbands. Then no one will be able to criticize the teaching God gave us.

<sup>6</sup>In the same way, tell young men to be wise. <sup>7</sup>You should do good deeds to be an example in every way for young men. When you teach, be honest and serious. <sup>8</sup>And when you speak, speak the truth so that you cannot be criticized. Then anyone who is against you will be ashamed because there is nothing bad that he can say against us.

<sup>9</sup>And tell slaves to obey their masters at all times. They should try to please them and not argue with them. <sup>10</sup>They should not steal from them. And they should show their masters that they can be trusted. Slaves should do these things so that in everything they do, they will show that the teaching of God our Savior is good.

<sup>11</sup>That is the way we should live, because God's grace has come. That grace can save every person. <sup>12</sup>It teaches us not to live against God and not to do the evil things the world wants to do. That grace teaches us to live on earth now in a wise and right way—a way that shows that we serve God. <sup>13</sup>We should live like that while we are waiting for the coming of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ. He is our great hope, and he will come with glory. <sup>14</sup>He gave himself for us; he died to free us from all evil. He died to make us pure people who belong only to him—people who are always wanting to do good things.

<sup>15</sup>Tell everyone these things. You have full authority. So use that authority to strengthen the people and tell them what they should do. And do not let anyone treat you as if you were not important.

The Right Way to Live

3 Remind the believers to do these things: to be under the authority of rulers and government leaders, to obey them and be ready to do good, <sup>2</sup>to speak no evil about anyone, to live in peace with all, to be gentle and polite to all people.

<sup>3</sup>In the past we were foolish people, too. We did not obey, we were wrong, and we were slaves to many things our bodies wanted and enjoyed. We lived doing evil and being jealous. People hated us and we hated each other. <sup>4</sup>But then the kindness and love of God our Savior was shown. <sup>5</sup>He saved us because of his mercy, not because of good deeds we did to be right with God. He saved us through the washing that made us new people. He saved us by making us new through the Holy Spirit. <sup>6</sup>God poured out to us that Holy Spirit fully through Jesus Christ our Savior. <sup>7</sup>We were made right with God by His grace. And God gave us the Spirit so that we could receive the life that never ends. That is what we hope for.

<sup>8</sup>This teaching is true. And I want you to be sure that the people understand these things. Then those who believe in God will be careful to use their lives for doing good. These things are good and will help all people.

<sup>9</sup>Stay away from those who have foolish arguments, who talk about useless family histories, who make trouble and fight about what the law of Moses teaches. Those things are worth nothing and will not help anyone. <sup>10</sup>If someone causes arguments, then give him a warning. If he continues to cause arguments, warn him again. If he still continues causing arguments, then do not be around him. <sup>11</sup>You know that such a person is evil and sinful. His sins prove that he is wrong.

Some Things to Remember

<sup>12</sup>I will send Artemas and Tychicus to you. When I send them, try hard to come to me at Nicopolis. I have decided to stay there this winter. <sup>13</sup>Zenas the lawyer and Apollos will be traveling from there. Do all that you can to help them on their way. Be sure that they have everything they need. <sup>14</sup>Our people must learn to use their lives for doing good deeds. They should do good to those in need. Then our people will not have useless lives.

<sup>15</sup>All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the faith.

Grace be with you all.

PHILEMON

A Slave Becomes a Christian

To Philemon, our dear friend and worker with us; <sup>2</sup>to Apphia, our sister; to Archippus, a worker with us; and to the church that meets in your home.

<sup>3</sup>Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philemon's Love and Faith

<sup>4</sup>I remember you in my prayers. And I always thank my God for you. <sup>5</sup>I hear about the love you have for all God's holy people and the faith you have in the Lord Jesus. <sup>6</sup>I pray that the faith you share will make you understand every blessing that we have in Christ. <sup>7</sup>My brother, you have shown love to God's people. You have made them feel happy. This has given me great joy and comfort.

Accept Onesimus as a Brother

<sup>8</sup>There is something that you should do. And because of your love in Christ, I feel free to order you to do it. <sup>9</sup>But because I love you, I am asking you instead. I, Paul, am an old man now, and a prisoner for Christ Jesus. <sup>10</sup>I am asking you a favor for my son Onesimus. He became my son while I was in prison. <sup>11</sup>In the past he was useless to you. But now he has become useful for both you and me.

<sup>12</sup>I am sending him back to you, and with him I am sending my own heart. <sup>13</sup>I wanted to keep him with me to help me while I am in prison for the Good News. <sup>4</sup>By helping me he would be serving you. <sup>14</sup>But I did not want to do anything without asking you first. Then any favor you do for me will be because you want to do it, not because I forced you to do it.

<sup>15</sup>Onesimus was separated from you for a short time. Maybe that happened so that you could have him back forever— <sup>16</sup>not to be a slave, but better than a slave, to be a loved brother. I love him very much. But you will love him even more. You will love him as a man and as a brother in the Lord.

<sup>17</sup>If you think of me as your friend, then accept Onesimus back. Welcome him as you would welcome me. <sup>18</sup>If Onesimus has done anything wrong to you, charge that to me. If he owes you anything, charge that to me. <sup>19</sup>I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand. I will pay back anything Onesimus owes. And I will say nothing about what you owe me for your own life. <sup>20</sup>So, my brother, I ask that you do this for me in the Lord. Comfort my heart in Christ. <sup>21</sup>I write this letter, knowing that you will do what I ask you and even more.

<sup>22</sup>Also, please prepare a room for me to stay in. I hope that God will answer your prayers and I will be able to come to you.

Final Greetings

<sup>23</sup>Epaphras is a prisoner with me for Christ Jesus. He sends greetings to you. <sup>24</sup>And also Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke send greetings. They are workers together with me.

HEBREWS

A Better Life Through Christ

God Spoke Through His Son

1 In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets.<sup>4</sup> He spoke to them many times and in many different ways. <sup>2</sup>And now in these last days God has spoken to us through his Son. God has chosen his Son to own all things. And he made the world through the Son. <sup>3</sup>The Son reflects the glory of God. He is an exact copy of God's nature. He holds everything together with his powerful word. The Son made people clean from their sins. Then he sat down at the right side of God, the Great One in heaven. <sup>4</sup>The Son became much greater than the angels. And God gave him a name that is much greater than theirs.

<sup>5</sup>This is because God never said to any of the angels,

"You are my Son.

Today I have become your Father." Psalm 2:7
Nor did God say of any angel,

"I will be his Father, and he will be my Son." 2 Samuel 7:14

<sup>6</sup>And when God brings his firstborn Son into the world, he says,

"Let all God's angels worship him." <sup>a</sup>

Psalm 97:7

<sup>7</sup>This is what God said about the angels:

"God makes his angels become like winds.
He makes his servants become like flames of fire." Psalm 104:4

<sup>8</sup>But God said this about his Son:

"God, your throne will last forever and ever.

You will rule your kingdom with fairness.

<sup>9</sup>You love what is right and hate evil.

So God has chosen you to rule those with you.

Your God has given you much joy." <sup>a</sup>

Psalm 45:6-7

<sup>10</sup>God also says,

"Lord, in the beginning you made the earth.

And your hands made the skies.

<sup>11</sup>They will be destroyed, but you will remain.

They will all wear out like clothes.

<sup>12</sup>You will fold them like a coat.

And, like clothes, you will change them.

But you never change.

And your life will never end." Psalm 102:25-27

<sup>13</sup>And God never said this to an angel:

"Sit by me at my right side until I put your enemies under your control." <sup>a</sup> Psalm 110:1

<sup>14</sup>All the angels are spirits who serve God and are sent to help those who will receive salvation.

Our Salvation Is Great

2 So we must be more careful to follow what we were taught. Then we will not be pulled away from the truth. <sup>2</sup>The teaching that God spoke through angels was shown to be true. And anyone who did not follow it or obey it received the punishment he earned. <sup>3</sup>The salvation that was given to us is very great. So surely we also will be punished if we live as if this salvation were not important. It was the Lord himself who first told about this salvation.
And those who heard him proved to us that this salvation is true. <sup>4</sup>God also proved it by using wonders, great signs, and many kinds of miracles. <sup>4</sup> And he proved it by giving people gifts through the Holy Spirit, <sup>4</sup> just as he wanted.

Christ Became like Men

<sup>5</sup>God did not choose angels to be the rulers of the new world that was coming. It is that future world we have been talking about. <sup>6</sup>It is written somewhere in the Scriptures, <sup>4</sup>

"Why is man important to you?

Why do you take care of the son of man? <sup>a</sup>

<sup>7</sup>For a short time you made him lower than the angels.

But you crowned him with glory and honor.

<sup>8</sup> You put all things under his control." <sup>a</sup>

Psalm 8:4-6

<sup>a</sup>"Let . . . him." These words are found in Deuteronomy 32:43 in the Septuagint, the Greek version of the Old Testament, and in a Hebrew copy among the Dead Sea Scrolls.

<sup>a</sup>until . . . control Literally, "until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."

<sup>a</sup>son of man This can mean any, but the name "Son of Man" is often used to mean Jesus. When Jesus became a man, he showed what God planned for all people to be.

If God put everything under his control, there was nothing left that he did not rule. But we do not yet see him ruling over everything. <sup>9</sup>But we see Jesus! For a short time he was made lower than the angels. But now we see him wearing a crown of glory and honor because he suffered and died. Because of God's grace, he died for everyone.

<sup>10</sup>God is the One who made all things. And all things are for his glory. God wanted to have many sons share his glory. So God made perfect the One who leads people to salvation. He made Jesus a perfect Savior through Jesus' suffering.

<sup>11</sup>Jesus, who makes people holy, and those who are made holy are from the same family. So he is not ashamed to call them his brothers.

<sup>12</sup>He says,

"Then, I will tell my fellow Israelites about you.

I will praise you when your people meet to worship you." Psalm 22:22

<sup>13</sup>He also says,

"I will trust in God."

Isaiah 8:17

And he also says,

"I am here. And with me are the children that God has given me." Isaiah 8:18

<sup>14</sup>These children are people with physical bodies. So Jesus himself became like them and had the same experiences they have. He did this so that, by dying, he could destroy the one who has the power of death. That one is the devil. <sup>15</sup>Jesus became like men and died so that he could free them. They were like slaves all their lives because of their fear of death. <sup>16</sup>Clearly, it is not angels that Jesus helps, but the people who are from Abraham. <sup>17</sup>For this reason Jesus had to be made like his brothers in every way. He became like men so that he could be their merciful and faithful high priest in service to God. Then Jesus could bring forgiveness for their sins. <sup>18</sup>And now he can help those who are tempted. He is able to help because he himself suffered and was tempted.

Jesus Is Greater than Moses

3 So all of you, holy brothers, should think about Jesus. You were all called by God. God sent Jesus to us, and he is the high priest of our faith. <sup>2</sup>And Jesus was faithful to God as Moses was. Moses did everything God wanted him to do in God's family. <sup>3</sup>A man who is the head of a family receives more honor than others in the family. It is the same with Jesus. Jesus should have more honor than Moses. <sup>4</sup>Every family has its head, but God is the head of everything. <sup>5</sup>Moses was faithful in God's family as a servant. He told what God would say in the future. <sup>6</sup>But Christ is faithful as a Son who is the head of God's family. And we are God's family if we hold on to our faith and are proud of the great hope we have.

We Must Continue to Follow God

<sup>7</sup>So it is as the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> says:

"Today listen to what he says.

<sup>8</sup> Do not be stubborn as in the past when you turned against God.

There you tested God in the desert.

<sup>9</sup> For 40 years in the desert your ancestors saw the things I did.

But they tested me and my patience.

<sup>10</sup>I was angry with them.

I said, 'They are not loyal to me.

They have not understood my ways.'

<sup>11</sup>So I was angry and made a promise.

'They will never enter my land of rest.' <sup>n</sup>

Psalm 95:7-11

<sup>12</sup>So brothers, be careful that none of you has an evil, unbelieving heart. This will stop you from following the living God. <sup>13</sup>But encourage each other every day. Do this while it is "today." <sup>n</sup> Help each other so that none of you will become hardened because of sin and its tricks. <sup>14</sup>We all share in Christ. This is true if we keep till the end the sure faith we had in the beginning. <sup>15</sup>This is what the Scripture<sup>d</sup> says:

"Today listen to what he says.

Do not be stubborn as in the past when you turned against God."

Psalm 95:7-8

<sup>16</sup>Who heard God's voice and was against him? It was all those people Moses led out of Egypt.

<sup>17</sup>And whom was God angry with for 40 years? He was angry with those who sinned, who died in the desert. <sup>18</sup>And whom was God talking to when he promised that they would never enter and have his rest? He was talking to those who did not obey him. <sup>19</sup>So we see that they were not allowed to enter and have God's rest because they did not believe.

4 Now God has left us that promise that we may enter and have his rest. Let us be very careful, then, so that none of you will fail to get that rest. <sup>2</sup>The Good News<sup>d</sup> was preached to us just as it was to them. But the teaching they heard did not help them. They heard it but did not accept it with faith. <sup>3</sup>We who have believed are able to enter and have God's rest. As God has said,

"So I was angry and made a promise.

"They will never enter my land of rest.'" Psalm 95:11

But God's work was finished from the time he made the world. <sup>4</sup>Somewhere in the Scriptures<sup>d</sup> he talked about the seventh day of the week: "And on the seventh day God rested from all his work."<sup>n</sup> <sup>5</sup>And again in the Scripture God said, "They will never enter my land of rest."

<sup>6</sup>It is still true that some people will enter and have God's rest. But those who first heard the way to be saved did not enter. They did not enter because they did not obey. <sup>7</sup>So God planned another day, called "today." He spoke about that day through David a long time later. It is the same Scripture used before:

"Today listen to what he says.

Do not be stubborn."

Psalm 95:7-8

<sup>8</sup>We know that Joshua<sup>a</sup> did not lead the people into that rest. We know this because God spoke later about another day. <sup>9</sup>This shows that the seventh-day rest<sup>n</sup> for God's people is still coming. <sup>10</sup>For anyone who enters and has God's rest will rest from his work as God did. <sup>11</sup>So let us try as hard as we can to enter God's rest. We must try hard so that no one will be lost by following the example of those who refused to obey.

<sup>12</sup>God's word is alive and working. It is sharper than a sword sharpened on both sides. It cuts all the way into us, where the soul and the spirit are joined. It cuts to the center of our joints and our bones. And God's word judges the thoughts and feelings in our hearts. <sup>13</sup>Nothing in all the world can be hidden from God. Everything is clear and lies open before him. And to him we must explain the way we have lived.

Jesus Is Our High Priest

<sup>14</sup>We have a great high priest who has gone into heaven. He is Jesus the Son of God. So let us hold on to the faith we have. <sup>15</sup>For our high priest is able to understand our weaknesses. When he lived on earth, he was tempted in every way that we are, but he did not sin. <sup>16</sup>Let us, then, feel free to come before God's throne. Here there is grace. And we can receive mercy and grace to help us when we need it.

5 Every high priest is chosen from among men. He is given the work of going before God for them. He must offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. <sup>2</sup>He himself is weak. So he is able to be gentle with those who do not understand and who are doing wrong things. <sup>3</sup>Because he is weak the high priest must offer sacrifices for his own sins. And then he offers sacrifices for the sins of the people.

<sup>4</sup>To be a high priest is an honor. But no one chooses himself for this work. He must be called by God as Aaron<sup>n</sup> was. <sup>5</sup>So also Christ did not choose himself to have the honor of being a high priest. But God chose him. God said to him,

"You are my Son;

today I have become your Father." Psalm 2:7

<sup>6</sup>And in another Scripture<sup>d</sup> God says,

"You are a priest forever,

a priest like Melchizedek."<sup>n</sup> Psalm 110:4

<sup>7</sup>While Jesus lived on earth, he prayed to God and asked God for help. He prayed with loud cries and tears to the One who could save him from death. And his prayer was heard because he left it all up to God. <sup>8</sup>Even though Jesus was the Son of God, he learned to obey by what he suffered. <sup>9</sup>And he became our perfect high priest. He gives eternal salvation to all who obey him. <sup>10</sup>And God made Jesus high priest, a priest like Melchizedek.

Warning Against Falling Away

<sup>11</sup>We have much to say about this. But it is hard to explain because you are so slow to understand. <sup>12</sup>You have had enough time so that by now you should be teachers. But you need someone to teach you again the first lessons of God's message. You still need the teaching that is like milk. You are not ready for solid food. <sup>13</sup>Anyone who lives on milk is still a baby. He knows nothing about right teaching. <sup>14</sup>But solid food is for those who are grown up. They have practiced in order to know the difference between good and evil.

6 So let us go on to grown-up teaching. Let us not go back over the beginning lessons we learned about Christ. We should not start over again with teaching about turning from acts that lead to death and about believing in God. <sup>2</sup>We should not return to the teaching of baptisms, <sup>a</sup> of laying on of hands, <sup>a</sup> of the raising of the dead and eternal judgment. <sup>3</sup>And we will go on to grown-up teaching if God allows.

<sup>4</sup>Some people cannot be brought back again to a changed life. They were once in God's light. They enjoyed heaven's gift, and they shared in the Holy Spirit. <sup>d</sup> <sup>5</sup>They found out how good God's word is, and they received the powers of his new world. <sup>6</sup>And then they fell away from Christ! It is not possible to keep on bringing them back to a changed life again. For they are nailing the Son of God to a cross again and are shaming him in front of others.

<sup>7</sup>Some people are like land that gets plenty of rain. The land produces a good crop for those who work it, and it receives God's blessings. <sup>8</sup>Other people are like land that grows thorns and weeds and is worthless. It is in danger of being cursed by God. It will be destroyed by fire.

<sup>9</sup>Dear friends, we are saying this to you. But we really expect better things from you that will lead to your salvation. <sup>10</sup>God is fair. He will not forget the work you did and the love you showed for him by helping his people. And he will remember that you are still helping them. <sup>11</sup>We want each of you to go on with the same hard work all your lives. Then you will surely get what you hope for. <sup>12</sup>We do not want you to become lazy. Be like those who have faith and patience. They will receive what God has promised.

<sup>13</sup>God made a promise to Abraham. And as there is no one greater than God, he used himself when he swore to Abraham. <sup>14</sup>He said, "I will surely bless you and give you many descendants."<sup>a</sup> <sup>15</sup>Abraham waited patiently for this to happen. And he received what God promised.

<sup>16</sup>People always use the name of someone greater than themselves when they swear. The oath proves that what they say is true. And this ends all arguing about what they say. <sup>17</sup>God wanted to prove that his promise was true. He wanted to prove this to those who would get what he promised. He wanted them to understand clearly that his purposes never change. So God proved his promise by also making an oath. <sup>18</sup>These two things cannot change. God cannot lie when he makes a promise, and he cannot lie when he makes an oath. These things encourage us who came to God for safety. They give us strength to hold on to the hope we have been given. <sup>19</sup>We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, sure and strong. It enters behind the curtain in the Most Holy Place in heaven. <sup>20</sup>Jesus has gone in there ahead of us and for us. He has become the high priest forever, a priest like Melchizedek. <sup>a</sup>

The Priest Melchizedek

7 Melchizedek <sup>a</sup> was the king of Salem and a priest for the Most High God. He met Abraham when Abraham was coming back after defeating the kings. When they met, Melchizedek blessed Abraham. <sup>2</sup>And Abraham gave Melchizedek a tenth of everything he had brought back from the battle. First, Melchizedek's name means "king of goodness." Also, he is king of Salem, which means "king of peace." <sup>3</sup>No one knows who Melchizedek's father or mother was. <sup>a</sup> No one knows where he came from. And no one knows when he was born or when he died. Melchizedek is like the Son of God; he continues being a priest forever.

<sup>4</sup>You can see that Melchizedek was very great. Abraham, the great father, gave Melchizedek a tenth of everything that Abraham won in battle. <sup>5</sup>Now the law says that those in the tribe <sup>d</sup> of Levi who become priests must get a tenth from the people. The priests collect it from their own people, even though the priests and the people are both from the family of Abraham. <sup>6</sup>Melchizedek was not from the tribe of Levi. But he got a tenth from Abraham. And he blessed Abraham, the man who had God's promises. <sup>7</sup>And everyone knows that the more important person blesses the less important person. <sup>8</sup>Those priests get a tenth, but they are only men who live and then die. But Melchizedek, who got a tenth from Abraham, continues living, as the Scripture <sup>d</sup> says. <sup>9</sup>It is Levi who gets a tenth from the people. But we might even say that when Abraham paid Melchizedek a tenth, then Levi also paid it. <sup>10</sup>Levi was not yet born. But Levi was in the body of his ancestor Abraham when Melchizedek met Abraham.

<sup>a</sup>baptisms The word here may refer to Christian baptism, or it may refer to the Jewish ceremonial washings.

<sup>a</sup>laying . . . hands Putting the hands on people showed that they were being given some special work or some spiritual gift or blessing.

<sup>11</sup>The people were given the law<sup>a</sup> based on a system of priests from the tribe of Levi. But they could not be made spiritually perfect through that system of priests. So there was a need for another priest to come. I mean a priest like Melchizedek, not Aaron. <sup>12</sup>And when a different kind of priest comes, the law must be changed, too. <sup>13</sup>We are saying these things about Christ. He belonged to a different tribe. No one from that tribe ever served as a priest at the altar. <sup>14</sup>It is clear that our Lord came from the tribe of Judah. And Moses said nothing about priests belonging to that tribe.

Jesus Is like Melchizedek

“You are a priest forever,
a priest like Melchizedek.”<sup>n</sup>

<sup>18</sup>The old rule is now set aside because it was weak and useless. <sup>19</sup>The law of Moses could not make anything perfect. But now a better hope has been given to us. And with this hope we can come near to God.

<sup>20</sup>Also, it is important that God made an oath when he made Jesus high priest. When the others became priests, there was no oath. <sup>21</sup>But Christ became a priest with God’s oath. God said:

“The Lord has made a promise and will not change his mind.
“You are a priest forever.””

Psalm 110:4

<sup>22</sup>So this means that Jesus is the guarantee of a better agreement<sup>a</sup> from God to his people.

<sup>23</sup>Also, when one of the other priests died, he could not continue being a priest. So there were many priests. <sup>24</sup>But Jesus lives forever. He will never stop serving as priest. <sup>25</sup>So he is always able to save those who come to God through him. He can do this, because he always lives, ready to help those who come before God.

<sup>26</sup>So Jesus is the kind of high priest that we need. He is holy; he has no sin in him. He is pure and not influenced by sinners. And he is raised above the heavens. <sup>27</sup>He is not like the other priests. They had to offer sacrifices every day, first for their own sins, and then for the sins of the people. But Christ does not need to do that. He offered his sacrifice only once and for all time. Christ offered himself! <sup>28</sup>The law chooses high priests who are men with all their weaknesses. But the word of God’s oath came later than the law. It made God’s Son to be the high priest. And that Son has been made perfect forever.

Jesus Is Our High Priest

8 Here is the point of what we are saying: We do have a high priest who sits on the right side of God’s throne in heaven. <sup>2</sup>Our high priest serves in the Most Holy Place. He serves in the true place of worship that was made by God, not by men.

<sup>3</sup>Every high priest has the work of offering gifts and sacrifices to God. So our high priest must also offer something to God. <sup>4</sup>If our high priest were now living on earth, he would not be a priest. I say this because there are already priests here who follow the law by offering gifts to God. <sup>5</sup>The work that they do as priests is only a dim copy of what is in heaven. For when Moses was ready to build the Holy Tent,<sup>d</sup> God warned him: “Be very careful to make everything by the plan I showed you on the mountain.”<sup>n</sup> <sup>6</sup>But the priestly work that has been given to Jesus is much greater than the work that was given to the other priests. In the same way, the new agreement that Jesus brought from God to his people is much greater than the old one. And the new agreement is based on promises of better things.

<sup>7</sup>If there was nothing wrong with the first agreement,<sup>a</sup> there would be no need for a second agreement. <sup>8</sup>But God found something wrong with his people. He says:

“The time is coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new agreement.

It will be with the people of Israel and the people of Judah.

<sup>9</sup>It will not be like the agreement
I made with their ancestors.

That was when I took them by the hand to bring them out of Egypt.

But they broke that agreement, and I turned away from them, says the Lord.

<sup>10</sup>In the future I will make this agreement with the people of Israel, says the Lord.

I will put my teachings in their minds.
And I will write them on their hearts.
I will be their God,
and they will be my people.

<sup>11</sup>People will no longer have to teach their neighbors and relatives to know the Lord.

This is because all will know me, from the least to the most important.

<sup>12</sup>I will forgive them for the wicked things they did.

I will not remember their sins anymore.”

Jeremiah 31:31-34

<sup>13</sup>God called this a new agreement, so he has made the first agreement old. And anything that is old and worn out is ready to disappear.

Worship Under the Old Agreement

9 The first agreement<sup>a</sup> had rules for worship. And it had a man-made place for worship. <sup>2</sup>The Holy Tent<sup>d</sup> was set up for this. The first area in the Tent was called the Holy Place. In it were the lamp and the table with the bread that was made holy for God. <sup>3</sup>Behind the second curtain was a room called the Most Holy Place. <sup>4</sup>In it was a golden altar for burning incense.<sup>d</sup> Also there was the Ark<sup>d</sup> that held the old agreement. The Ark was covered with gold. Inside this Ark was a golden jar of manna<sup>d</sup> and Aaron's rod—the rod that once grew leaves. Also in it were the stone tablets of the old agreement. <sup>5</sup>Above the Ark were the creatures with wings that showed God's glory. The wings of the creatures reached over the lid. But we cannot tell everything about these things now.

<sup>6</sup>Everything in the Tent was made ready in this way. Then the priests went into the first room every day to do their worship. <sup>7</sup>But only the high priest could go into the second room, and he did that only once a year. He could never enter the inner room without taking blood with him. He offered that blood to God for himself and for the people's sins. These were sins people did without knowing that they were sinning. <sup>8</sup>The Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> uses this to show that the way into the Most Holy Place was not open. This was while the system of the old Holy Tent was still being used. <sup>9</sup>This is an example for the present time. It shows that the gifts and sacrifices offered cannot make the worshiper perfect in his heart. <sup>10</sup>These gifts and sacrifices were only about food and drink and special washings. They were rules for the body, to be followed until the time of God's new way.

Worship Under the New Agreement

<sup>11</sup>But Christ has come as the high priest of the good things we now have. The tent he entered is greater and more perfect. It is not made by men. It does not belong to this world. <sup>12</sup>Christ entered the Most Holy Place only once—and for all time. He did not take with him the blood of goats and calves. His sacrifice was his own blood. He entered the Most Holy Place and set us free from sin forever. <sup>13</sup>The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a cow are sprinkled on the people who are unclean<sup>d</sup> and this makes their bodies clean again.

<sup>14</sup>How much more is done by the blood of Christ. He offered himself through the eternal Spirit<sup>n</sup> as a perfect sacrifice to God. His blood will make our hearts clean from useless acts. We are made pure so that we may serve the living God.

<sup>15</sup>So Christ brings a new agreement from God to his people. Those who are called by God can now receive the blessings that God has promised. These blessings will last forever. They can have those things because Christ died so that the people who lived under the first agreement could be set free from sin.

<sup>16</sup>When there is a will,<sup>n</sup> it must be proven that the man who wrote that will is dead. <sup>17</sup>A will means nothing while the man is alive. It can be used only after he dies. <sup>18</sup>This is why even the first agreement could not begin without blood to show death. <sup>19</sup>First, Moses told all the people every command in the law. Next he took the blood of calves and mixed it with water. Then he used red wool and a branch of the hyssop plant to sprinkle the blood and water on the book of the law and on all the people. <sup>20</sup>He said, “This is the blood which begins the agreement that God commanded you to obey.”<sup>n</sup> <sup>21</sup>In the same way, Moses sprinkled the blood on the Holy Tent<sup>d</sup> and over all the things used in worship. <sup>22</sup>The law says that almost everything must be made clean by blood. And sins cannot be forgiven without blood to show death.

Christ's Death Takes Away Sins

<sup>23</sup>So the copies of the real things in heaven had to be made clean<sup>d</sup> by animal sacrifices. But the real things in heaven need much better sacrifices. <sup>24</sup>For Christ did not go into the Most Holy Place made by men. It is only a copy of the real one. He went into heaven itself. He is there now before God to help us. <sup>25</sup>The high priest enters the Most Holy Place once every year. He takes with him blood that is not his own blood. But Christ did not go into heaven to offer himself many times. <sup>26</sup>Then he would have had to suffer many times since the world was made. But Christ came only once and for all time. He came at just the right time to take away all sin by sacrificing himself. <sup>27</sup>Everyone must die once. After a person dies, he is judged. <sup>28</sup>So Christ was offered as a sacrifice one time to take away the sins of many people. And he will come a second time, but not to offer himself for sin. He will come again to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

10 The law is only an unclear picture of the good things coming in the future. It is not a perfect picture of the real things. The people under the law offered the same sacrifices every year. These sacrifices can never make perfect those who come near to worship God. <sup>2</sup>If the law could make them perfect, the sacrifices would have already stopped. The worshipers would be made clean, and they would no longer feel guilty for their sins. <sup>3</sup>These sacrifices remind them of their sins every year, <sup>4</sup>because it is not possible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

<sup>5</sup>So when Christ came into the world, he said:

“You do not want sacrifices and offerings.

But you have prepared a body for me.

<sup>6</sup>You do not ask for burnt offerings and offerings to take away sins.

<sup>7</sup>Then I said, ‘Look, I have come.

It is written about me in the book.

My God, I have come to do what you want.’”

Psalm 40:6-8

<sup>8</sup>In this Scripture<sup>d</sup> he first said, “You do not want sacrifices and offerings. You do not ask for burnt offerings and offerings to take away sins.” (These are all sacrifices that the law commands.) <sup>9</sup>Then he said, “Here I am. I have come to do what you want.” So God ends the first system of sacrifices so that he can set up the new system. <sup>10</sup>Jesus Christ did what God wanted him to do. And because of this, we are made holy through the sacrifice of his body. Christ made this sacrifice only once, and for all time.

<sup>11</sup>Every day the priests stand and do their religious service. Again and again they offer the same sacrifices. But those sacrifices can never take away sins. <sup>12</sup>But Christ offered one sacrifice for sins, and it is good forever. Then he sat down at the right side of God. <sup>13</sup>And now Christ waits there for his enemies to be put under his power. <sup>14</sup>With one sacrifice he made perfect forever those who are being made holy.

<sup>16</sup>“In the future I will make this agreement<sup>n</sup> with the people of Israel, says the Lord.

I will put my teachings in their hearts.

And I will write them on their minds.”

Jeremiah 31:33

<sup>17</sup>Then he says:

“Their sins and the evil things they do—

I will not remember anymore.”

Jeremiah 31:34

<sup>18</sup>And when these have been forgiven, there is no more need for a sacrifice for sins.

Continue to Trust God

<sup>19</sup>So, brothers, we are completely free to enter the Most Holy Place. We can do this without fear because of the blood of Jesus' death. <sup>20</sup>We can enter through a new way that Jesus opened for us. It is a living way. It leads through the curtain—Christ's body. <sup>21</sup>And we have a great priest over God's house. <sup>22</sup>So let us come near to God with a sincere heart and a sure faith. We have been cleansed and made free from feelings of guilt. And our bodies have been washed with pure water. <sup>23</sup>Let us hold firmly to the hope that we have confessed. We can trust God to do what he promised.

<sup>24</sup>Let us think about each other and help each other to show love and do good deeds.

<sup>25</sup>You should not stay away from the church meetings, as some are doing. But you should meet together and encourage each other. Do this even more as you see the Day<sup>n</sup> coming.

<sup>26</sup>If we decide to go on sinning after we have learned the truth, there is no longer any sacrifice for sins. <sup>27</sup>There is nothing but fear in waiting for the judgment and the angry fire that will destroy all those who live against God. <sup>28</sup>Any person who refused to obey the law of Moses was found guilty from the proof given by two or three witnesses. He was put to death without mercy. <sup>29</sup>So what do you think should be done to a person who does not respect the Son of God? He looks at the blood of the agreement, the blood that made him holy, as no different from other men's blood. He insults the Spirit<sup>d</sup> of God's grace. Surely he should have a much worse punishment. <sup>30</sup>We know that God said, "I will punish those who do wrong. I will repay them."<sup>e</sup> And he also said, "The Lord will judge his people."<sup>f</sup> <sup>31</sup>It is a terrible thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

<sup>n</sup>agreement God gives a contract or agreement to his people. For the Jews, this agreement was the law of Moses. But now God has given a better agreement to his people through Christ.

<sup>n</sup>Day The day Christ will come to judge all people and take his people to live with him.

<sup>32</sup>Remember those days in the past when you first learned the truth. You had a hard struggle with many sufferings, but you continued strong. <sup>33</sup>Sometimes you were hurt and persecuted before crowds of people. And sometimes you shared with those who were being treated that way. <sup>34</sup>You helped the prisoners. And you even had joy when all that you owned was taken from you. You were joyful because you knew that you had something better and more lasting.

<sup>35</sup>So do not lose the courage that you had in the past. It has a great reward. <sup>36</sup>You must hold on, so you can do what God wants and receive what he has promised. <sup>37</sup>For in a very short time,

"The One who is coming will come.
He will not be late.

<sup>38</sup>The person who is right with me will have life because of his faith.

But if he turns back with fear,

I will not be pleased with him."<sup>g</sup> Habakkuk 2:3-4

<sup>39</sup>But we are not those who turn back and are lost. We are people who have faith and are saved.

What Is Faith?

11 Faith means being sure of the things we hope for. And faith means knowing that something is real even if we do not see it. <sup>2</sup>People who lived in the past became famous because of faith.

<sup>3</sup>It is by faith we understand that the whole world was made by God's command. This means that what we see was made by something that cannot be seen.

<sup>4</sup>It was by faith that Abel offered God a better sacrifice than Cain did. God said he was pleased with the gifts Abel offered. So God called Abel a good man because of his faith. Abel died, but through his faith he is still speaking.

<sup>5</sup>It was by faith that Enoch was taken to heaven. He never died. He could not be found, because God had taken him away. Before he was taken, the Scripture<sup>d</sup> says that he was a man who truly pleased God. <sup>6</sup>Without faith no one can please God. Anyone who comes to God must believe that he is real and that he rewards those who truly want to find him.

<sup>7</sup>It was by faith Noah heard God's warnings about things that he could not yet see. He obeyed God and built a large boat to save his family. By his faith, Noah showed that the world was wrong. And he became one of those who are made right with God through faith.

<sup>8</sup>It was by faith Abraham obeyed God's call to go to another place that God promised to give him. He left his own country, not knowing where he was to go. <sup>9</sup>It was by faith that he lived in the country God promised to give him. He lived there like a visitor who did not belong. He lived in tents with Isaac and Jacob, who had received that same promise from God. <sup>10</sup>Abraham was waiting for the city<sup>a</sup> that has real foundations—the city planned and built by God.

<sup>11</sup>He was too old to have children, and Sarah was not able to have children. It was by faith that Abraham was made able to become a father. Abraham trusted God to do what he had promised. <sup>12</sup>This man was so old that he was almost dead. But from him came as many descendants as there are stars in the sky. They are as many as the grains of sand on the seashore that cannot be counted.

<sup>13</sup>All these great men died in faith. They did not get the things that God promised his people. But they saw them coming far in the future and were glad. They said that they were like visitors and strangers on earth. <sup>14</sup>When people say such things, then they show that they are looking for a country that will be their own country. <sup>15</sup>If they had been thinking about that country they had left, they could have gone back. <sup>16</sup>But those men were waiting for a better country—a heavenly country. So God is not ashamed to be called their God. For he has prepared a city for them.

<sup>c</sup>"City" The spiritual "city" where God's people live with him. Also called "the heavenly Jerusalem." (See Hebrews 12:22.)

<sup>17</sup>It was by faith that Abraham offered his son Isaac as a sacrifice. God made the promises to Abraham. But God tested him. And Abraham was ready to offer his own son as a sacrifice. <sup>18</sup>God had said, "The descendants I promised you will be from Isaac." <sup>19</sup>Abraham believed that God could raise the dead. And really, it was as if Abraham got Isaac back from death.

<sup>20</sup>It was by faith that Isaac blessed the future of Jacob and Esau. <sup>21</sup>It was by faith that Jacob blessed each one of Joseph's sons. He did this while he was dying. Then he worshiped as he leaned on the top of his walking stick.

<sup>22</sup>It was by faith that Joseph spoke about the Israelites leaving Egypt while he was dying. He told them what to do with his body.

<sup>23</sup>It was by faith that Moses' parents hid him for three months after he was born. They saw that Moses was a beautiful baby. And they were not afraid to disobey the king's order.

<sup>24</sup>It was by faith that Moses, when he grew up, refused to be called the son of the king of Egypt's daughter. <sup>25</sup>He chose to suffer with God's people instead of enjoying sin for a short time. <sup>26</sup>He thought that it was better to suffer for the Christ<sup>d</sup> than to have all the treasures of Egypt. He was looking only for God's reward. <sup>27</sup>It was by faith that Moses left Egypt. He was not afraid of the king's anger. Moses continued strong as if he could see the God that no one can see. <sup>28</sup>It was by faith that Moses prepared the Passover<sup>d</sup> and spread the blood on the doors. It was spread so that the one who brings death would not kill the firstborn<sup>d</sup> sons of Israel.

<sup>29</sup>It was by faith that the people crossed the Red Sea as if it were dry land. The Egyptians also tried to do it, but they were drowned.

<sup>30</sup>It was by faith that the walls of Jericho fell. They fell after the people had marched around the walls of Jericho for seven days.

mies. <sup>35</sup>Women received their dead relatives raised back to life. Others were tortured and refused to accept their freedom. They did this so that they could be raised from death to a better life. <sup>36</sup>Some were laughed at and beaten. Others were tied and put into prison. <sup>37</sup>They were killed with stones and they were cut in half. They were killed with swords. Some wore the skins of sheep and goats. They were poor, abused, and treated badly. <sup>38</sup>The world was not good enough for them! They wandered in deserts and mountains, living in caves and holes in the earth.

<sup>39</sup>All these people are known for their faith. But none of them received what God had promised. <sup>40</sup>God planned to give us something better. Then they would be made perfect, but only together with us.

Follow Jesus' Example

12 So we have many people of faith around us. Their lives tell us what faith means. So let us run the race that is before us and never give up. We should remove from our lives anything that would get in the way. And we should remove the sin that so easily catches us. <sup>2</sup>Let us look only to Jesus. He is the one who began our faith, and he makes our faith perfect. Jesus suffered death on the cross. But he accepted the shame of the cross as if it were nothing. He did this because of the joy that God put before him. And now he is sitting at the right side of God's throne. <sup>3</sup>Think about Jesus. He held on patiently while sinful men were doing evil things against him. Look at Jesus' example so that you will not get tired and stop trying.

God Is like a Father

<sup>4</sup>You are struggling against sin, but your struggles have not yet caused you to be killed. <sup>5</sup>You have forgotten his encouraging words for his sons:

"My son, don't think the Lord's discipline of you is worth nothing.

And don't stop trying when the Lord corrects you.

<sup>6</sup>The Lord corrects those he loves.

And he punishes everyone he accepts as his child."

Proverbs 3:11-12

<sup>7</sup>So accept your sufferings as if they were a father's punishment. God does these things to you as a father punishing his sons. All sons are punished by their fathers. <sup>8</sup>If you are never punished (and every son must be punished), you are not true children and not really sons. <sup>9</sup>We have all had fathers here on earth who punished us. And we respected our fathers. So it is even more important that we accept punishment from the Father of our spirits. If we do this, we will have life. <sup>10</sup>Our fathers on earth punished us for a short time. They punished us the way they thought was best. But God punishes us to help us, so that we can become holy as he is. <sup>11</sup>We do not enjoy punishment. Being punished is painful. But later, after we have learned from being punished, we have peace, because we start living in the right way.

Be Careful How You Live

<sup>12</sup>You have become weak. So make yourselves strong again. <sup>13</sup>Live in the right way so that you will be saved and your weakness will not cause you to be lost.

<sup>14</sup>Try to live in peace with all people. And try to live lives free from sin. If anyone's life is not holy, he will never see the Lord. <sup>15</sup>Be careful that no one fails to get God's grace. Be careful that no one becomes like a bitter weed growing among you. A person like that can ruin all of you. <sup>16</sup>Be careful that no one takes part in sexual sin. And be careful that no person is like Esau and never thinks about God. Esau was the oldest son, and he would have received everything from his father. But Esau sold all that for a single meal. <sup>17</sup>You remember that after Esau did this, he wanted to get his father's blessing. He wanted this blessing so much that he cried. But his father refused to give him the blessing, because Esau could find no way to change what he had done.

<sup>18</sup>You have not come to a mountain that can be touched and that is burning with fire. You have not come to darkness, sadness and storms. <sup>19</sup>You have not come to the noise of a trumpet or to the sound of a voice. When the people of Israel heard the voice, they begged not to have to hear another word. <sup>20</sup>They did not want to hear the command: "If anything, even an animal, touches the mountain, it must be put to death with stones." <sup>21</sup>What they saw was so terrible that Moses said, "I am shaking with fear." <sup>a</sup>

<sup>22</sup>But you have not come to that kind of place. The new place you have come to is

Mount Zion. <sup>a</sup> You have come to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem. You have come to thousands of angels gathered together with joy. <sup>23</sup>You have come to the meeting of God's firstborn <sup>a</sup> children. Their names are written in heaven. You have come to God, the judge of all people. And you have come to the spirits of good people who have been made perfect. <sup>24</sup>You have come to Jesus, the One who brought the new agreement from God to his people. You have come to the sprinkled blood <sup>a</sup> that has a better message than the blood of Abel. <sup>a</sup>

<sup>25</sup>So be careful and do not refuse to listen when God speaks. They refused to listen to him when he warned them on earth. And they did not escape. Now God is warning us from heaven. So it will be worse for us if we refuse to listen to him. <sup>26</sup>When he spoke before, his voice shook the earth. But now he has promised, "Once again I will shake not only the earth but also the heavens." <sup>27</sup>The words "once again" clearly show us that everything that was made will be destroyed. These are the things that can be shaken. And only the things that cannot be shaken will remain.

<sup>28</sup>So let us be thankful because we have a kingdom that cannot be shaken. We should worship God in a way that pleases him. So let us worship him with respect and fear, <sup>29</sup>because our God is like a fire that burns things up.

13 Keep on loving each other as brothers in Christ. <sup>2</sup>Remember to welcome strangers into your homes. Some people have done this and have welcomed angels without knowing it. <sup>3</sup>Do not forget those who are in prison. Remember them as if you were in prison with them. Remember those who are suffering as if you were suffering with them.

<sup>4</sup>Marriage should be honored by everyone. Husband and wife should keep their marriage pure. God will judge guilty those who take part in sexual sins. <sup>5</sup>Keep your lives free from the love of money. And be satisfied with what you have. God has said,

"I will never leave you;
I will never forget you."

Deuteronomy 31:6

<sup>a</sup>firstborn The first son born in a Jewish family was given the most important place in the family and received special blessings. All of God's children are like that.

"I will not be afraid because the Lord is my helper.

People can't do anything to me." Psalm 118:6

<sup>7</sup>Remember your leaders. They taught God's message to you. Remember how they lived and died, and copy their faith. <sup>8</sup>Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

<sup>9</sup>Do not let all kinds of strange teachings lead you into the wrong way. Your hearts should be strengthened by God's grace, not by obeying rules about foods. Obeying such rules does not help anyone.

<sup>10</sup>We have a sacrifice. But the priests who serve in the Holy Tent<sup>d</sup> cannot eat from it.

<sup>11</sup>The high priest carries the blood of animals into the Most Holy Place. There he offers this blood for sins. But the bodies of the animals are burned outside the camp. <sup>12</sup>So Jesus also suffered outside the city. He died to make his people holy with his own blood. <sup>13</sup>So let us go to Jesus outside the camp. We should accept the same shame that Jesus had.

<sup>14</sup>Here on earth we do not have a city that lasts forever. But we are looking for the city that we will have in the future. <sup>15</sup>So through Jesus let us always offer our sacrifice to God. This sacrifice is our praise, coming from lips that speak his name. <sup>16</sup>Do not forget to do good to others. And share with them what you have. These are the sacrifices that please God.

<sup>17</sup>Obey your leaders and be under their authority. These men are watching you because they are responsible for your souls. Obey them so that they will do this work with joy, not sadness. It will not help you to make their work hard.

<sup>18</sup>Continue praying for us. We feel sure about what we are doing, because we always want to do the right thing. <sup>19</sup>And I beg you to pray that God will send me back to you soon.

<sup>20-21</sup>I pray that the God of peace will give you every good thing you need so that you can do what he wants. God is the One who raised from death our Lord Jesus, the Great Shepherd of the sheep. God raised him because of the blood of his death. His blood began the agreement that God made with his people. And this agreement is eternal. I pray that God, through Christ, will do in us what pleases him. And to Jesus Christ be glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>22</sup>My brothers, I beg you to listen patiently to this message I have written to encourage you. This letter is not very long. <sup>23</sup>I want you to know that our brother Timothy has been let out of prison. If he arrives soon, we will both come to see you.

<sup>24</sup>Greet all your leaders and all of God's people. Those from Italy send greetings to you.

<sup>25</sup>God's grace be with you all.

JAMES

How to Live As a Christian

1 From James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ. To all of God's people who are scattered everywhere in the world: Greetings.

Faith and Wisdom

<sup>2</sup>My brothers, you will have many kinds of troubles. But when these things happen, you should be very happy. <sup>3</sup>You know that these things are testing your faith. And this will give you patience. <sup>4</sup>Let your patience show itself perfectly in what you do. Then you will be perfect and complete. You will have everything you need. <sup>5</sup>But if any of you needs wisdom, you should ask God for it. God is generous. He enjoys giving to all people, so God will give you wisdom. <sup>6</sup>But when you ask God, you must believe. Do not doubt God. Anyone who doubts is like a wave in the sea. The wind blows the wave up and down. <sup>7</sup>He who doubts is thinking two different things at the same time. He cannot decide about anything he does. A person like that should not think that he will receive anything from the Lord.

True Riches

<sup>8</sup>If a believer is poor, he should be proud because God has made him spiritually rich. <sup>9</sup>If he is rich, he should be proud because God has shown him that he is spiritually poor. The rich person will die like a wild flower in the grass. <sup>10</sup>The sun rises and becomes hotter and hotter. The heat makes the plants very dry, and the flower falls off. The flower was beautiful, but now it is dead. It is the same with a rich person. While he is still taking care of his business, he will die.

Temptation Is Not from God

<sup>12</sup>When a person is tempted and still continues strong, he should be happy. After he has proved his faith, God will reward him with life forever. God promised this to all people who love him. <sup>13</sup>When someone is being tempted, he should not say, "God is tempting me." Evil cannot tempt God, and God himself does not tempt anyone. <sup>14</sup>It is the evil that a person wants that tempts him. His own evil desire leads him away and holds him. <sup>15</sup>This desire causes sin. Then the sin grows and brings death.

<sup>16</sup>My dear brothers, do not be fooled about this. <sup>17</sup>Every good action and every perfect gift is from God. These good gifts come down from the Creator of the sun, moon, and stars. God does not change like their shifting shadows. <sup>18</sup>God decided to give us life through the word of truth. He wanted us to be the most important of all the things he made.

Listening and Obeying

<sup>19</sup>My dear brothers, always be willing to listen and slow to speak. Do not become angry easily. <sup>20</sup>Anger will not help you live a good life as God wants. <sup>21</sup>So put out of your life every evil thing and every kind of wrong you do. Don't be proud but accept God's teaching that is planted in your hearts. This teaching can save your souls.

The True Way to Worship God

<sup>26</sup>A person might think he is religious. But if he says things he should not say, then he is just fooling himself. His "religion" is worth nothing. <sup>27</sup>Religion that God accepts is this: caring for orphans or widows who need help; and keeping yourself free from the world's evil influence. This is the kind of religion that God accepts as pure and good.

Love All People

2 My dear brothers, you are believers in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ. So never think that some people are more important than others. <sup>2</sup>Suppose someone comes into your church meeting wearing very nice clothes and a gold ring. At the same time a poor man comes in wearing old, dirty clothes. <sup>3</sup>You show special attention to the one wearing nice clothes. You say, "Please, sit here in this good seat." But you say to the poor man, "Stand over there," or "Sit on the floor by my feet!" <sup>4</sup>What are you doing? You are making some people more important than others. With evil thoughts you are deciding which person is better.

<sup>5</sup>Listen, my dear brothers! God chose the poor in the world to be rich with faith. He chose them to receive the kingdom God promised to people who love him. <sup>6</sup>But you show no respect to the poor man. And you know that it is the rich who are always trying to control your lives. And they are the ones who take you to court. <sup>7</sup>They are the ones who say bad things against Jesus, who owns you.

<sup>8</sup>This royal law is found in the Scriptures:<sup>d</sup> "Love your neighbor as you love yourself." <sup>a</sup> If you obey this law, then you are doing right. <sup>9</sup>But if you are treating one person as if he were more important than another, then you are sinning. That royal law proves that you are guilty of breaking God's law. <sup>10</sup>A person might follow all of God's law. But if he fails to obey even one command, he is guilty of breaking all the commands in that law. <sup>11</sup>God said, "You must not be guilty of adultery."<sup>d</sup> <sup>a</sup> The same God also said, "You must not murder anyone."<sup>a</sup> <sup>n</sup> So if you do not take part in adultery, but you murder someone, then you are guilty of breaking all of God's law. <sup>12</sup>You will be judged by the law that makes people free. You should remember this in everything you say and do. <sup>13</sup>Yes, you must show mercy to others, or God will not show mercy to you when he judges you. But the person who shows mercy can stand without fear when he is judged.

Faith and Good Works

<sup>14</sup>My brothers, if someone says he has faith, but does nothing, his faith is worth nothing. Can faith like that save him? <sup>15</sup>A brother or sister in Christ might need clothes or might need food. <sup>16</sup>And you say to him, "God be with you! I hope you stay warm and get plenty to eat." You say this, but you do not give that person the things he needs. Unless you help him, your words are worth nothing. <sup>17</sup>It is the same with faith. If faith does nothing, then that faith is dead, because it is alone.

<sup>18</sup>Someone might say, "You have faith, but I do things. Show me your faith! Your faith does nothing. I will show you my faith by the things I do." <sup>19</sup>You believe there is one God. Good! But the demons<sup>d</sup> believe that, too! And they shake with fear.

<sup>20</sup>You foolish person! Must you be shown that faith that does nothing is worth nothing? <sup>21</sup>Abraham is our father. He was made right with God by the things he did. He offered his son Isaac to God on the altar. <sup>22</sup>So you see that Abraham's faith and the things he did worked together. His faith was made perfect by what he did. <sup>23</sup>This shows the full meaning of the Scripture<sup>d</sup> that says: "Abraham believed God, and God accepted Abraham's faith, and that faith made him right with God."<sup>a</sup> <sup>n</sup> And Abraham was called "God's friend."<sup>a</sup> <sup>24</sup>So you see that a person is made right with God by the things he does. He cannot be made right by faith only.

<sup>25</sup>Another example is Rahab, who was a prostitute.<sup>d</sup> But she was made right with God by something she did: She welcomed the spies into her home and helped them escape by a different road.

<sup>26</sup>A person's body that does not have a spirit is dead. It is the same with faith. Faith that does nothing is dead!

Controlling the Things We Say

3 My brothers, not many of you should become teachers. You know that we who teach will be judged more strictly than others. <sup>2</sup>We all make many mistakes. If there were a person who never said anything wrong, he would be perfect. He would be able to control his whole body, too. <sup>3</sup>We put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us. We can control their whole bodies. <sup>4</sup>It is the same with ships. A ship is very big, and it is pushed by strong winds. But a very small rudder controls that big ship. The pilot makes the ship go wherever he wants. <sup>5</sup>It is the same with the tongue. It is a small part of the body, but it brags about doing great things.

A big forest fire can be started with only a little flame. <sup>6</sup>And the tongue is like a fire. It is a whole world of evil among the parts of our bodies. The tongue spreads its evil through the whole body. It starts a fire that influences all of life. The tongue gets this fire from hell. <sup>7</sup>People

can tame every kind of wild animal, bird, reptile, and fish, and they have tamed them. <sup>8</sup>But no one can tame the tongue. It is wild and evil. It is full of poison that can kill. <sup>9</sup>We use our tongues to praise our Lord and Father, but then we curse people. And God made them like himself. <sup>10</sup>Praises and curses come from the same mouth! My brothers, this should not happen. <sup>11</sup>Do good and bad water flow from the same spring? <sup>12</sup>My brothers, can a fig tree make olives? Can a grapevine make figs? No! And a well full of salty water cannot give good water.

True Wisdom

<sup>13</sup>Is there anyone among you who is truly wise and understanding? Then he should show his wisdom by living right. He should do good things without being proud. A wise person does not brag. <sup>14</sup>But if you are selfish and have bitter jealousy in your hearts, you have no reason to brag. Your bragging is a lie that hides the truth. <sup>15</sup>That kind of "wisdom" does not come from God. That "wisdom" comes from the world. It is not spiritual. It is from the devil. <sup>16</sup>Where there is jealousy and selfishness, there will be confusion and every kind of evil. <sup>17</sup>But the wisdom that comes from God is like this: First, it is pure. Then it is also peaceful, gentle, and easy to please. This wisdom is always ready to help those who are troubled and to do good for others. This wisdom is always fair and honest. <sup>18</sup>When people work for peace in a peaceful way, they receive the good result of their right-living.

Give Yourselves to God

4 Do you know where your fights and arguments come from? They come from the selfish desires that make war inside you. <sup>2</sup>You want things, but you do not have them. So you are ready to kill and are jealous of other people. But you still cannot get what you want. So you argue and fight. You do not get what you want because you do not ask God. <sup>3</sup>Or when you ask, you do not receive because the reason you ask is wrong. You want things only so that you can use them for your own pleasures.

<sup>4</sup>So, you people are not loyal to God! You should know that loving the world is the same as hating God. So if a person wants to be a friend of the world, he makes himself God's enemy. <sup>5</sup>Do you think the Scripture<sup>d</sup> means nothing? It says, "The Spirit<sup>d</sup> that God made to live in us wants us for himself alone."<sup>a</sup> <sup>6</sup>But God gives us even more grace, as the Scripture says;

"God is against the proud,
but he gives grace to the humble."

Proverbs 3:34

<sup>7</sup>So give yourselves to God. Stand against the devil, and the devil will run away from you. <sup>8</sup>Come near to God, and God will come near to you. You are sinners. So clean sin out of your lives. You are trying to follow God and the world at the same time. Make your thinking pure. <sup>9</sup>Be sad, cry, and weep! Change your laughter into crying. Change your joy into sadness. <sup>10</sup>Don't be too proud before the Lord, and he will make you great.

You Are Not the Judge

<sup>11</sup>Brothers, do not say bad things about each other. If you say bad things about your brother in Christ or judge him, then you are saying bad things about the law he follows. You are also judging the law he follows. And when you are judging the law, you are not a follower of the law. You have become a judge! <sup>12</sup>God is the only One who makes laws, and he is the only Judge. He is the only One who can save and destroy. So it is not right for you to judge your neighbor.

Let God Plan Your Life

<sup>13</sup>Some of you say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to some city. We will stay there a year, do business, and make money." <sup>14</sup>But you do not know what will happen tomorrow! Your life is like a mist. You can see it for a short time, but then it goes away. <sup>15</sup>So you should say, "If the Lord wants, we will live and do this or that." <sup>16</sup>But now you are proud and you brag. All of this bragging is wrong. <sup>17</sup>And when a person knows the right thing to do, but does not do it, then he is sinning.

A Warning to the Rich

5 You rich people, listen! Cry and be very sad because of the trouble that will come to you. <sup>2</sup>Your riches will rot, and your clothes will be eaten by moths. <sup>3</sup>Your gold and silver will rust, and rust will be a proof that you were wrong. It will eat your bodies like fire. You saved your treasure for the last days. <sup>4</sup>Men worked in your fields, but you did not pay them. They harvested your crops and are crying out against you. Now the Lord of heaven's armies has heard their cries. <sup>5</sup>Your life on earth was full of rich living. You pleased yourselves with everything you wanted. You made yourselves fat, like an animal ready to be killed. <sup>6</sup>You showed no mercy to the innocent man. You murdered him. He cannot stand against you.

Be Patient

<sup>7</sup>Brothers, be patient until the Lord comes again. A farmer is patient. He waits for his valuable crop to grow from the earth. He waits patiently for it to receive the first rain and the last rain. <sup>8</sup>You, too, must be patient. Do not give up hope. The Lord is coming soon. <sup>9</sup>Brothers, do not complain against each other. If you do not stop complaining, you will be judged guilty. And the Judge is ready to come! <sup>10</sup>Brothers, follow the example of the prophets<sup>d</sup> who spoke for the Lord. They suffered many hard things, but they were patient. <sup>11</sup>We say they are happy because they were able to do this. You have heard about Job's patience. You know that after all his trouble, the Lord helped him. This shows that the Lord is full of mercy and is kind.

Be Careful What You Say

<sup>12</sup>My brothers, it is very important that you not use an oath when you make a promise. Don't use the name of heaven, earth, or anything else to prove what you say. When you mean yes, say only "yes." When you mean no, say only "no." Do this so that you will not be judged guilty.

The Power of Prayer

<sup>13</sup>If one of you is having troubles, he should pray. If one of you is happy, he should sing praises. <sup>14</sup>If one of you is sick, he should call the church's elders.<sup>d</sup> The elders should pour oil on him<sup>n</sup> in the name of the Lord and pray for him. <sup>15</sup>And the prayer that is said with faith will make the sick person well. The Lord will heal him. And if he has sinned, God will forgive him. <sup>16</sup>Confess your sins to each other and pray for each other. Do this so that God can heal you. When a good man prays, great things happen. <sup>17</sup>Elijah was a man just like us. He prayed that it would not rain. And it did not rain on the land for three and a half years! <sup>18</sup>Then Elijah prayed again. And the rain came down from the sky, and the land grew crops again.

Saving a Soul

<sup>19</sup>My brothers, one of you may wander away from the truth. And someone may help him come back. <sup>20</sup>Remember this: Anyone who brings a sinner back from the wrong way will save that sinner's soul from death. By doing this, that person will cause many sins to be forgiven.

<sup>n</sup>pour oil on him Oil was used like medicine, so that is probably how the believers used it.

1 PETER

Encouragement for Suffering Christians

1 From Peter, an apostle<sup>d</sup> of Jesus Christ. To God's chosen people who are away from their homes. You are scattered all around the countries of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia. <sup>2</sup>God planned long ago to choose you by making you his holy people. Making you holy is the Spirit's<sup>d</sup> work. God wanted you to obey him and to be made clean by the blood of the death of Jesus Christ. Grace and peace be yours more and more.

We Have a Living Hope

<sup>3</sup>Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. God has great mercy, and because of his mercy he gave us a new life. He gave us a living hope because Jesus Christ rose from death. <sup>4</sup>Now we hope for the blessings God has for his children. These blessings are kept for you in heaven. They cannot be destroyed or be spoiled or lose their beauty. <sup>5</sup>God's power protects you through your faith, and it keeps you safe until your salvation comes. That salvation is ready to be given to you at the end of time. <sup>6</sup>This makes you very happy. But now for a short time different kinds of troubles may make you sad. <sup>7</sup>These troubles come to prove that your faith is pure. This purity of faith is worth more than gold. Gold can be proved to be pure by fire, but gold will ruin. But the purity of your faith will bring you praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ comes again. <sup>8</sup>You have not seen Christ, but still you love him. You cannot see him now, but you believe in him. You are filled with a joy that cannot be explained. And that joy is full of glory. <sup>9</sup>Your faith has a goal, to save your souls. And you are receiving that goal—your salvation.

<sup>10</sup>The prophets<sup>d</sup> searched carefully and tried to learn about this salvation. They spoke about the grace that was coming to you. <sup>11</sup>The Spirit<sup>d</sup> of Christ was in the prophets. And the Spirit was telling about the sufferings that would happen to Christ and about the glory that would come after those sufferings. The prophets tried to learn about what the Spirit was showing them. They tried to learn when those things would happen and what the world would be like at that time. <sup>12</sup>It was shown to them that their service was not for themselves. It was for you. They were serving you when they told about the truths you have now heard. The men who preached the Good News<sup>d</sup> to you told you those things. They did it with the help of the Holy Spirit that was sent from heaven. These are truths that even the angels want very much to know about.

A Call to Holy Living

<sup>13</sup>So prepare your minds for service and have self-control. All your hope should be for the gift of grace that will be yours when Jesus Christ comes again. <sup>14</sup>In the past you did not understand, so you did the evil things you wanted. But now you are children of God who obey. So do not live as you lived in the past. <sup>15</sup>But be holy in all that you do, just as God is holy. God is the One who called you. <sup>16</sup>It is written in the Scriptures:<sup>d</sup> "You must be holy, because I am holy."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>17</sup>You pray to God and call him Father. And this Father judges each man's work equally. So while you are here on earth, you should live with respect for God. <sup>18</sup>You know that in the past you were living in a worthless way. You got that way of living from the people who lived before you. But you were saved from that useless life. You were bought, but not with something that ruins like gold or silver. <sup>19</sup>You were bought with the precious blood of the death of Christ, who was like a pure and perfect lamb. <sup>20</sup>Christ was chosen before the world was made. But he was shown to the world in these last times for you. <sup>21</sup>You believe in God through Christ. God raised Christ from death and gave him glory. So your faith and your hope are in God.

<sup>22</sup>Now you have made yourselves pure by obeying the truth. Now you can have true love for your brothers. So love each other deeply with all your heart. <sup>23</sup>You have been born again. This new life did not come from something that dies, but from something that cannot die. You were born again through God's living message that continues forever. <sup>24</sup>The Scripture says,

"All people are like the grass.

<sup>a</sup>"You must be . . . holy." Quotation from Leviticus 11:45; 19:2; 20:7.

And all their strength is like the flowers of the field.

The grass dies and the flowers fall.
<sup>25</sup>But the word of the Lord will live forever.”

Isaiah 40:6-8

And this is the word that was preached to you.

Jesus Is the Living Stone

2 So then, get rid of all evil and all lying. Do not be a hypocrite.<sup>a</sup> Do not be jealous or speak evil of others. Put all these things out of your life. <sup>2</sup>As newborn babies want milk, you should want the pure and simple teaching. By it you can grow up and be saved. <sup>3</sup>For you have already examined and seen how good the Lord is.

<sup>4</sup>The Lord Jesus is the “stone”<sup>n</sup> that lives. The people of the world did not want this stone. But he was the stone God chose. To God he was worth much. So come to him. <sup>5</sup>You also are like living stones. Let yourselves be used to build a spiritual temple—to be holy priests who offer spiritual sacrifices to God. He will accept those sacrifices through Jesus Christ.

“I will put a stone in the ground in Jerusalem.

Everything will be built on this important and precious rock.

Anyone who trusts in him will never be disappointed.”

Isaiah 28:16

<sup>7</sup>This stone is worth much to you who believe. But to the people who do not believe, he is “the stone that the builders did not want.

It has become the cornerstone.”<sup>d</sup>

Psalms 118:22

<sup>8</sup>To people who do not believe, he is “a stone that causes people to stumble.

It is a rock that makes them fall.”

Isaiah 8:14

They stumble because they do not obey what God says. This is what God planned to happen to them.

<sup>9</sup>But you are chosen people. You are the King’s priests. You are a holy nation. You are a nation that belongs to God alone. God chose you to tell about the wonderful things he has done. He called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. <sup>10</sup>At one time you were not God’s people. But now you are his people. In the past you had never received mercy. But now you have received God’s mercy.

Live for God

<sup>11</sup>Dear friends, you are like visitors and strangers in this world. So I beg you to stay away from the evil things your bodies want to do. These things fight against your soul. <sup>12</sup>People who do not believe are living all around you. They might say that you are doing wrong. So live good lives. Then they will see the good things you do, and they will give glory to God on the day when Christ comes again.

Obey Every Human Authority

<sup>13</sup>Obey the people who have authority in this world. Do this for the Lord. Obey the king, who is the highest authority. <sup>14</sup>And obey the leaders who are sent by the king. They are sent to punish those who do wrong and to praise those who do right. <sup>15</sup>So when you do good, you stop foolish people from saying stupid things about you. This is what God wants. <sup>16</sup>Live as free men. But do not use your freedom as an excuse to do evil. Live as servants of God. <sup>17</sup>Show respect for all people. Love the brothers and sisters of God’s family. Respect God. Honor the king.

Follow Christ’s Example

<sup>18</sup>Slaves, accept the authority of your masters. Do this with all respect. You should obey masters who are good and kind, and you should obey masters who are bad. <sup>19</sup>A person might have to suffer even when he has done nothing wrong. But if he thinks of God and bears the pain, this pleases God. <sup>20</sup>If you are punished for doing wrong, there is no reason to praise you for bearing punishment. But if you suffer for doing good, and you are patient, then that pleases God. <sup>21</sup>That is what you were called to do. Christ suffered for you. He gave you an example to follow. So you should do as he did.

Isaiah 53:9

<sup>23</sup>People insulted Christ, but he did not insult them in return. Christ suffered, but he did not threaten. He let God take care of him. God is the One who judges rightly. <sup>24</sup>Christ carried our sins in his body on the cross. He did this so that we would stop living for sin and start living for what is right. And we are healed because of his wounds. <sup>25</sup>You were like sheep that went the wrong way. But now you have come back to the Shepherd and Protector of your souls.

Wives and Husbands

3 In the same way, you wives should accept the authority of your husbands. Then, if some husbands have not obeyed God’s teaching, they will be persuaded to believe. You will not need to say a word to them. They will be persuaded by the way their wives live. <sup>2</sup>Your husbands will see the pure lives that you live with your respect for God. <sup>3</sup>It is not fancy hair, gold jewelry, or fine clothes that should make you beautiful. <sup>4</sup>No, your beauty should come from within you—the beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit. This beauty will never disappear, and it is worth very much to God. <sup>5</sup>It was the same with the holy women who lived long ago and followed God. They made themselves beautiful in this way. They accepted the authority of their husbands. <sup>6</sup>Sarah obeyed Abraham, her husband, and called him her master. And you women are true children of Sarah if you always do what is right and are not afraid.

<sup>7</sup>In the same way, you husbands should live with your wives in an understanding way. You should show respect to them. They are weaker than you. But God gives them the same blessing that he gives you—the grace that gives true life. Do this so that nothing will stop your prayers.

Suffering for Doing Right

<sup>8</sup>Finally, all of you should live together in peace. Try to understand each other. Love each other as brothers. Be kind and humble. <sup>9</sup>Do not do wrong to a person to pay him back for doing wrong to you. Or do not insult someone to pay him back for insulting you. But ask God to bless that person. Do this, because you yourselves were called to receive a blessing. <sup>10</sup>The Scripture<sup>d</sup> says,

“A person must do these things to enjoy life and have many, happy days.
He must not say evil things.

He must not tell lies.

<sup>11</sup>He must stop doing evil and do good.

He must look for peace and work for it.

He listens to their prayers.

But the Lord is against those who do evil.”

Psalm 34:12-16

<sup>13</sup>If you are always trying to do good, no one can really hurt you. <sup>14</sup>But you may suffer for doing right. Even if that happens, you are blessed.

“Don’t be afraid of the things they fear.

Do not dread those things.

<sup>15</sup>But respect Christ as the holy Lord in your hearts.”

Isaiah 8:12-13

Always be ready to answer everyone who asks you to explain about the hope you have. <sup>16</sup>But answer in a gentle way and with respect. Always feel that you are doing right. Then, those who speak evil of your good life in Christ will be made ashamed. <sup>17</sup>It is better to suffer for doing good than for doing wrong. Yes, it is better, if that is what God wants. <sup>18</sup>Christ himself died for you. And that one death paid for your sins. He was not guilty, but he died for those who are guilty. He did this to bring you all to God. His body was killed, but he was made alive in the spirit. <sup>19</sup>And in the spirit he went and preached to the spirits in prison. <sup>20</sup>These were the spirits who refused to obey God long ago in the time of Noah. God was waiting patiently for them while Noah was building the boat. Only a few people—eight in all—were saved by water. <sup>21</sup>That water is like baptism that now saves you—not the washing of dirt from the body, but the promise made to God from a good heart. And this is because Jesus Christ was raised from death. <sup>22</sup>Now Jesus has gone into heaven and is at God’s right side. He rules over angels, authorities, and powers.

Change Your Lives

4 Christ suffered while he was in his body. So you should strengthen yourselves with the same way of thinking Christ had. The person who has suffered in his body is finished with sin. <sup>2</sup>Strengthen yourselves so that you will live your lives here on earth doing what God wants, not doing the evil things that people want. <sup>3</sup>In the past you wasted too much time doing what the non-believers like to do. You were guilty of sexual sins and had evil desires. You were getting drunk, you had wild and drunken parties, and you did wrong by worshiping idols. <sup>4</sup>Non-believers think it is strange that you do not do the many wild and wasteful things that they do. And so they insult you. <sup>5</sup>But they will have to explain about what they have done. They must explain to God who is ready to judge the living and the dead. <sup>6</sup>The Good News<sup>d</sup> was preached to those who are now dead. By their dying, they were judged like all men. But the Good News was preached to them so that they could live in the spirit as God lives.

Use God’s Gifts Wisely

<sup>7</sup>The time is near when all things will end. So keep your minds clear, and control yourselves. Then you will be able to pray. <sup>8</sup>Most importantly, love each other deeply. Love has a way of not looking at others’ sins. <sup>9</sup>Open your homes to each other, without complaining. <sup>10</sup>Each of you received a spiritual gift. God has shown you his grace in giving you different gifts. And you are like servants who are responsible for using God's gifts. So be good servants and use your gifts to serve each other. <sup>11</sup>Anyone who speaks should speak words from God. The person who serves should serve with the strength that God gives. You should do these things so that in everything God will be praised through Jesus Christ. Power and glory belong to him forever and ever. Amen.

Suffering as a Christian

<sup>12</sup>My friends, do not be surprised at the painful things you are now suffering. These things are testing your faith. So do not think that something strange is happening to you. <sup>13</sup>But you should be happy that you are sharing in Christ's sufferings. You will be happy and full of joy when Christ comes again in glory. <sup>14</sup>When people insult you because you follow Christ, then you are blessed. You are blessed because the glorious Spirit,<sup>d</sup> the Spirit of God, is with you. <sup>15</sup>Do not suffer for murder, theft, or any other crime, nor because you trouble other people. <sup>16</sup>But if you suffer because you are a Christian, then do not be ashamed. You should praise God because you wear that name. <sup>17</sup>It is time for judgment to begin, and it will begin with God's family. If that judging begins with us, what will happen to those people who do not obey the Good News<sup>d</sup> of God? <sup>18</sup>"It is very hard for a good person to be saved.

Then the wicked person and the sinner will surely be lost!"<sup>n</sup>

<sup>19</sup>So then those who suffer as God wants them to should trust their souls to him. God is the One who made them, and they can trust him. So they should continue to do what is right.

The Flock of God

5 Now I have something to say to the elders<sup>d</sup> in your group. I am also an elder. I myself have seen Christ's sufferings. And I will share in the glory that will be shown to us. I beg you to <sup>2</sup>take care of God's flock, his people, that you are responsible for. Watch over it because you want to, not because you are forced to do it. That is how God wants it. Do it because you are happy to serve, not because you want money. <sup>3</sup>Do not be like a ruler over people you are responsible for. Be good examples to them. <sup>4</sup>Then when Christ, the Head Shepherd, comes, you will get a crown. This crown will be glorious, and it will never lose its beauty.

<sup>5</sup>In the same way, younger men should be willing to be under older men. And all of you should be very humble with each other.

"God is against the proud,
but he gives grace to the humble."

Proverbs 3:34

<sup>6</sup>So be humble under God's powerful hand. Then he will lift you up when the right time comes. <sup>7</sup>Give all your worries to him, because he cares for you.

<sup>8</sup>Control yourselves and be careful! The devil is your enemy. And he goes around like a roaring lion looking for someone to eat. <sup>9</sup>Refuse to give in to the devil. Stand strong in your faith. You know that your Christian brothers and sisters all over the world are having the same sufferings you have.

<sup>10</sup>Yes, you will suffer for a short time. But after that, God will make everything right. He will make you strong. He will support you and keep you from falling. He is the God who gives all grace. He called you to share in his glory in Christ. That glory will continue forever. <sup>11</sup>All power is his forever and ever. Amen.

Final Greetings

<sup>12</sup>I wrote this short letter with the help of Silas. I know that he is a faithful brother in Christ. I wrote to comfort and encourage you. I wanted to tell you that this is the true grace of God. Stand strong in that grace.

<sup>13</sup>The church in Babylon sends you greetings. They were chosen the same as you. Mark, my son in Christ, also greets you. <sup>14</sup>Give each other a kiss of Christian love when you meet.

Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

2 PETER

Correcting False Teachings

1 From Simon Peter, a servant and apostle<sup>d</sup> of Jesus Christ.

To you who have received a faith as valuable as ours. You received that faith because our God and Savior Jesus Christ is fair and does what is right.

<sup>2</sup>Grace and peace be given to you more and more. You will have grace and peace because you truly know God and Jesus our Lord.

God Has Given Us Blessings

<sup>3</sup>Jesus has the power of God. His power has given us everything we need to live and to serve God. We have these things because we know him. Jesus called us by his glory and goodness. <sup>4</sup>Through his glory and goodness, he gave us the very great and rich gifts he promised us. With those gifts you can share in being like God. And so the world will not ruin you with its evil desires.

<sup>5</sup>Because you have these blessings, you should try as much as you can to add these things to your lives: to your faith, add goodness; and to your goodness, add knowledge; <sup>6</sup>and to your knowledge, add self-control; and to your self-control, add the ability to hold on; and to your ability to hold on, add service for God; <sup>7</sup>and to your service for God, add kindness for your brothers and sisters in Christ; and to this kindness, add love. <sup>8</sup>If all these things are in you and are growing, they will help you never to be useless. They will help your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ make your lives better. <sup>9</sup>But if anyone does not have these things, he cannot see clearly. He is blind. He has forgotten that he was made clean from his past sins.

<sup>10</sup>My brothers, God called you and chose you to be his. Try hard to show that you really are God's chosen people. If you do all these things, you will never fall. <sup>11</sup>And you will be given a very great welcome into the kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. That kingdom continues forever.

<sup>12</sup>You know these things, and you are very strong in the truth. But I will always help you to remember these things. <sup>13</sup>I think it is right for me to help you remember while I am still living here on earth. <sup>14</sup>I know that I must soon leave this body. Our Lord Jesus Christ has shown me that. <sup>15</sup>I will try the best I can to help you remember these things always. I want you to be able to remember them even after I am gone.

We Saw Christ's Glory

<sup>16</sup>We have told you about the powerful coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. What we told you were not just smart stories that someone invented. But we saw the greatness of Jesus with our own eyes. <sup>17</sup>Jesus heard the voice of God, the Greatest Glory. That was when Jesus received honor and glory from God the Father. The voice said, "This is my Son, and I love him. I am very pleased with him." <sup>18</sup>We heard that voice. It came from heaven while we were with Jesus on the holy mountain.

<sup>19</sup>This makes us more sure about the message the prophets<sup>d</sup> gave. And it is good for you to follow closely what they said. Their message is like a light shining in a dark place. That light shines until the day begins and the morning star rises in your hearts. <sup>20</sup>Most of all, you must understand this: No prophecy in the Scriptures<sup>d</sup> ever comes from the prophet's own interpretation. <sup>21</sup>No prophecy ever came from what a man wanted to say. But men led by the Holy Spirit<sup>d</sup> spoke words from God.

False Teachers

2 There used to be false prophets<sup>d</sup> among God's people, just as there are now. And you will have some false teachers in your group. They will secretly teach things that are wrong—teachings that will cause people to be lost. They will even refuse to accept the Master, Jesus, who bought their freedom. And so they will quickly destroy themselves. <sup>2</sup>Many will follow their evil ways and say evil things about the Way of truth. <sup>3</sup>Those false teachers only want your money. So they will use you by telling you what is not true. But God has already judged them guilty. And they will not escape the One who will destroy them.

<sup>4</sup>When angels sinned, God did not let them go free without punishment. God sent them to hell and put them in caves of darkness. They are being held there to be judged. <sup>5</sup>And God punished the evil people who lived long ago. He brought a flood to the world that was full of people who were against him. But God saved Noah and seven other people with him. Noah was a man who preached about being right with God. <sup>6</sup>And God also punished the evil cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. <sup>a</sup> He burned those cities until there was nothing left but ashes. He made those cities an example to show what will happen to those who are against God. <sup>7</sup>But God saved Lot from those cities. Lot, a good man, was troubled because of the dirty lives of evil people. <sup>8</sup>(Lot was a good man, but he lived with evil people every day. His good heart was hurt by the evil things that he saw and heard.) <sup>9</sup>And so the Lord knows how to save those who serve him. He will save them when troubles come. And the Lord will hold evil people and punish them, while waiting for the Judgment Day. <sup>10</sup>That punishment is especially for those who live by doing the evil things their sinful selves want, and for those who hate the Lord's authority.

These false teachers do anything they want and brag about it. They are not afraid to say bad things about the glorious angels. <sup>11</sup>The angels are much stronger and more powerful than false teachers. But even the angels do not accuse them with insults before the Lord. <sup>12</sup>But these men say bad things about what they do not understand. They are like animals that act without thinking. These animals are born to be caught and killed. And, like wild animals, these false teachers will be destroyed. <sup>13</sup>They have caused many people to suffer; so they themselves will suffer. That is their pay for what they have done. They take pleasure in doing evil things openly. So they are like dirty spots and stains among you. They bring shame to you in the meals that you eat together. <sup>14</sup>Every time they look at a woman they want her. Their desire for sin is never satisfied. They lead weak people into the trap of sin. They have taught their hearts to be selfish. God will punish them. <sup>15</sup>These false teachers left the right road and lost their way. They followed the way that Balaam went. Balaam was the son of Beor, who loved being paid for doing wrong. <sup>16</sup>But a donkey told Balaam that he was sinning. And the donkey is an animal that cannot talk. But the donkey spoke with a man's voice and stopped the prophet's crazy thinking.

<sup>17</sup>Those false teachers are like rivers that have no water. They are like clouds blown by a storm. A place in the blackest darkness has been kept for them. <sup>18</sup>They brag with words that mean nothing. By their evil desires they lead people into the trap of sin. They lead away people who are just beginning to escape from other people who live in error. <sup>19</sup>They promise them freedom, but they themselves are not free. They are slaves of things that will be destroyed. For a person is a slave of anything that controls him. <sup>20</sup>They were made free from the evil in the world by knowing our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. But if they return to evil things and those things control them, then it is worse for them than it was before. <sup>21</sup>Yes, it would be better for them to have never known the right way. That would be better than to know the right way and then to turn away from the holy teaching that was given to them. <sup>22</sup>What they did is like this true saying: "A dog eats what it throws up." <sup>a</sup> And, "After a pig is washed, it goes back and rolls in the mud."

Jesus Will Come Again

3 My friends, this is the second letter I have written to you. I wrote both letters to you to help your honest minds remember something. <sup>2</sup>I want you to remember the words that the holy prophets<sup>d</sup> spoke in the past. And remember the command that our Lord and Savior gave us through your apostles. <sup>3</sup>It is important for you to understand what will happen in the last days. People will laugh at you. They will live doing the evil things they want to do. <sup>4</sup>They will say, "Jesus promised to come again. Where is he? Our fathers have died. But the world continues the way it has been since it was made." <sup>5</sup>But they do not want to remember what happened long ago. God spoke and made heaven and earth. He made the earth from water and with water. <sup>6</sup>Then the world was flooded and destroyed with water. <sup>7</sup>And that same word of God is keeping heaven and earth that we have now. They are being kept to be destroyed by fire. They are being kept for the Judgment Day and the destruction of all who are against God.

<sup>8</sup>But do not forget this one thing, dear friends: To the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years is as one day. <sup>9</sup>The Lord is not slow in doing what he promised—the way some people understand slowness. But God is being patient with you. He does not want anyone to be lost. He wants everyone to change his heart and life.

<sup>10</sup>But the day the Lord comes again will be a surprise, like a thief. The skies will disappear with a loud noise. Everything in the skies will be destroyed by fire. And the earth and everything in it will be burned up.<sup>a</sup> <sup>11</sup>In that way everything will be destroyed. So what kind of people should you be? You should live holy lives and serve God. <sup>12</sup>You should wait for the day of God and look forward to its coming. When that day comes, the skies will be destroyed with fire, and everything in the skies will melt with heat. <sup>13</sup>But God made a promise to us. And we are waiting for what he promised—a new heaven and a new earth where goodness lives.

<sup>14</sup>Dear friends, we are waiting for this to happen. So try as hard as you can to be without sin and without fault. Try to be at peace with God. <sup>15</sup>Remember that we are saved because our Lord is patient. Our dear brother Paul told you the same thing when he wrote to you with the wisdom that God gave him. <sup>16</sup>Paul writes about this in all his letters. Sometimes there are things in Paul's letters that are hard to understand. And some people explain these things falsely. They are ignorant and weak in faith. They also falsely explain the other Scriptures.<sup>d</sup> But they are destroying themselves by doing that.

<sup>17</sup>Dear friends, you already know about this. So be careful. Do not let those evil people lead you away by the wrong they do. Be careful so that you will not fall from your strong faith. <sup>18</sup>But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Glory be to him now and forever! Amen.

1 JOHN

Love One Another

1

1 We write you now about something that has always existed.

We have heard.

We have seen with our own eyes.

We have watched,

and we have touched with our hands.

We write to you about the Word<sup>a</sup> that gives life. <sup>2</sup>He who gives life was shown to us. We saw him, and we can give proof about it. And now we tell you that he has life that continues forever. The one who gives this life was with God the Father. God showed him to us. <sup>3</sup>Now we tell you what we have seen and heard because we want you to have fellowship with us. The fellowship we share together is with God the Father and his Son, Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup>We write this to you so that you can be full of joy with us.

God Forgives Our Sins

<sup>5</sup>Here is the message we have heard from God and now tell to you: God is light,<sup>a</sup> and in him there is no darkness at all. <sup>6</sup>So if we say that we have fellowship with God, but we continue living in darkness, then we are liars. We do not follow the truth. <sup>7</sup>God is in the light. We should live in the light, too. If we live in the light, we share fellowship with each other. And when we live in the light, the blood of the death of Jesus, God's Son, is making us clean from every sin.

<sup>8</sup>If we say that we have no sin, we are fooling ourselves, and the truth is not in us. <sup>9</sup>But if we confess our sins, he will forgive our sins. We can trust God. He does what is right. He will make us clean from all the wrongs we have done. <sup>10</sup>If we say that we have not sinned, then we make God a liar. We do not accept God's true teaching.

Jesus Is Our Helper

2 My dear children, I write this letter to you so that you will not sin. But if anyone does sin, we have Jesus Christ to help us. He is the Righteous One. He defends us before God the Father. <sup>2</sup>Jesus is the way our sins are taken away. And Jesus is the way that all people can have their sins taken away, too.

<sup>3</sup>If we obey what God has told us to do, then we are sure that we truly know God. <sup>4</sup>If someone says, "I know God!" but does not obey God's commands, then he is a liar. The truth is not in him. <sup>5</sup>But if someone obeys God's teaching, then God's love has truly arrived at its goal in him. This is how we know that we are following God: <sup>6</sup>Whoever says that God lives in him must live as Jesus lived.

The Command to Love Others

<sup>7</sup>My dear friends, I am not writing a new command to you. It is the same command you have had since the beginning. It is the teaching you have already heard. <sup>8</sup>But I am writing a new command to you. This command is true; you can see its truth in Jesus and in yourselves. The darkness is passing away, and the true light is already shining.

<sup>9</sup>Someone says, "I am in the light."<sup>a</sup> But if he hates his brother, he is still in the darkness. <sup>10</sup>Whoever loves his brother lives in the light, and there is nothing in him that will cause him to do wrong. <sup>11</sup>But whoever hates his brother is in darkness. He lives in darkness and does not know where he is going. The darkness has made him blind.

<sup>12</sup>I write to you, dear children, because your sins are forgiven through Christ.

<sup>13</sup>I write to you, fathers, because you know the One who existed from the beginning.

I write to you, young men, because you have defeated the Evil One.

I write to you, fathers, because you know the One who existed from the beginning.

I write to you, young men, because you are strong; the word of God lives in you, and you have defeated the Evil One.

<sup>a</sup>Word The Greek word is "logos," meaning any kind of communication. It could be translated "message." Here, it means Christ. Christ was the way God told people about himself.

<sup>a</sup>light This word is used to show what God is like. It means goodness or truth.

<sup>15</sup>Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. <sup>16</sup>These are the evil things in the world: wanting things to please our sinful selves, wanting the sinful things we see, being too proud of the things we have. But none of those things comes from the Father. All of them come from the world. <sup>17</sup>The world is passing away. And everything that people want in the world is passing away. But the person who does what God wants lives forever.

Reject the Enemies of Christ

<sup>18</sup>My dear children, the end is near! You have heard that the Enemy of Christ<sup>a</sup> is coming. And now many enemies of Christ are already here. So we know that the end is near. <sup>19</sup>Those enemies of Christ were in our group. But they left us. They did not really belong with us. If they were really part of our group, then they would have stayed with us. But they left. This shows that none of them really belonged with us.

<sup>20</sup>You have the gift<sup>a</sup> that the Holy One gave you. So you all know the truth. <sup>21</sup>Why do I write to you? Do I write because you do not know the truth? No, I write this letter because you do know the truth. And you know that no lie comes from the truth.

<sup>22</sup>So who is the liar? It is the person who says Jesus is not the Christ. A person who says Jesus is not the Christ is the enemy of Christ. He does not believe in the Father or in his Son. <sup>23</sup>If anyone does not believe in the Son, he does not have the Father. But whoever accepts the Son has the Father, too.

<sup>24</sup>Be sure that you continue to follow the teaching that you heard from the beginning. If you continue in that teaching, you will stay in the Son and in the Father. <sup>25</sup>And this is what the Son promised to us—life forever.

<sup>26</sup>I am writing this letter about those people who are trying to lead you the wrong way. <sup>27</sup>Christ gave you a special gift. You still have this gift in you. So you do not need any other teacher. The gift he gave you teaches you about everything. This gift is true, not false. So continue to live in Christ, as his gift taught you.

<sup>28</sup>Yes, my dear children, live in him. If we do this, we can be without fear on the day when Christ comes back. We will not need to hide and be ashamed when he comes. <sup>29</sup>You know that Christ is righteous. So you know that all who do what is right are God's children.

We Are God's Children

3 The Father has loved us so much! He loved us so much that we are called children of God. And we really are his children. But the people in the world do not understand that we are God's children, because they have not known him. <sup>2</sup>Dear friends, now we are children of God. We have not yet been shown what we will be in the future. But we know that when Christ comes again, we will be like him. We will see him as he really is. <sup>3</sup>Christ is pure. And every person who has this hope in Christ keeps himself pure like Christ.

<sup>4</sup>When a person sins, he breaks God's law. Yes, sinning is the same as living against God's law. <sup>5</sup>You know that Christ came to take away sins. There is no sin in Christ. <sup>6</sup>So the person who lives in Christ does not go on sinning. If he goes on sinning, he has never really understood Christ and has never known him.

<sup>7</sup>Dear children, do not let any person lead you the wrong way. Christ is righteous. To be like Christ, a person must do what is right. <sup>8</sup>The devil has been sinning since the beginning. Anyone who continues to sin belongs to the devil. The Son of God came for this purpose: to destroy the devil's work.

<sup>9</sup>When God makes someone his child, that person does not go on sinning. The new life God gave that person stays in him. So he is not able to go on sinning, because he has become a child of God. <sup>10</sup>So we can see who God's children are and who the devil's children are. Those who do not do what is right are not children of God. And anyone who does not love his brother is not a child of God.

We Must Love Each Other

<sup>11</sup>This is the teaching you have heard from the beginning: We must love each other. <sup>12</sup>Do not be like Cain who belonged to the Evil One. Cain killed his brother. He killed his brother because the things Cain did were evil, and the things his brother did were good.

<sup>13</sup>Brothers, do not be surprised when the people of this world hate you. <sup>14</sup>We know that we have left death and have come into life. We know this because we love our brothers in Christ. Whoever does not love is still in death. <sup>15</sup>Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer.<sup>n</sup> And you know that no murderer has eternal life in him. <sup>16</sup>This is how we know what real love is: Jesus gave his life for us. So we should give our lives for our brothers. <sup>17</sup>Suppose a believer is rich enough to have all that he needs. He sees his brother in Christ who is poor and does not have what he needs. What if the believer does not help the poor brother? Then the believer does not have God's love in his heart. <sup>18</sup>My children, our love should not be only words and talk. Our love must be true love. And we should show that love by what we do.

<sup>19-20</sup>This is the way we know that we belong to the way of truth. When our hearts make us feel guilty, we can still have peace before God. God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything.

<sup>21</sup>My dear friends, if we do not feel that we are doing wrong, we can be without fear when we come to God. <sup>22</sup>And God gives us the things we ask for. We receive these things because we obey God's commands, and we do what pleases him. <sup>23</sup>This is what God commands: that we believe in his Son, Jesus Christ, and that we love each other, just as he commanded. <sup>24</sup>The person who obeys God's commands lives in God. And God lives in him. How do we know that God lives in us? We know because of the Spirit<sup>d</sup> whom God gave us.

Warning Against False Teachers

4 My dear friends, many false prophets<sup>d</sup> are in the world now. So do not believe every spirit. But test the spirits to see if they are from God. <sup>2</sup>This is how you can know God's Spirit:<sup>d</sup> One spirit says, "I believe that Jesus is the Christ who came to earth and became a man." That Spirit is from God. <sup>3</sup>Another spirit refuses to say this about Jesus. That spirit is not from God but is the spirit of the Enemy of Christ. You have heard that the Enemy of Christ is coming. And now he is already in the world.

<sup>4</sup>My dear children, you belong to God. So you have defeated them because God's Spirit, who is in you, is greater than the devil, who is in the world. <sup>5</sup>And they belong to the world. What they say is from the world, and the world listens to them. <sup>6</sup>But we are from God, and those who know God listen to us. But those who are not from God do not listen to us. That is how we know the Spirit that is true and the spirit that is false.

<sup>d</sup>Everyone . . . murderer. If a person hates his brother in Christ, then in his mind he has killed his brother. Jesus taught about this sin to his followers (Matthew 5:21-26).

Love Comes from God

<sup>7</sup>Dear friends, we should love each other, because love comes from God. The person who loves has become God's child and knows God. <sup>8</sup>Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love. <sup>9</sup>This is how God showed his love to us: He sent his only Son into the world to give us life through him. <sup>10</sup>True love is God's love for us, not our love for God. God sent his Son to be the way to take away our sins.

<sup>11</sup>That is how much God loved us, dear friends! So we also must love each other. <sup>12</sup>No one has ever seen God. But if we love each other, God lives in us. If we love each other, God's love has reached its goal. It is made perfect in us.

<sup>13</sup>We know that we live in God and God lives in us. We know this because God gave us his Spirit.<sup>d</sup> <sup>14</sup>We have seen that the Father sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. That is what we teach. <sup>15</sup>If someone says, "I believe that Jesus is the Son of God," then God lives in him. And he lives in God. <sup>16</sup>And so we know the love that God has for us, and we trust that love.

God is love. Whoever lives in love lives in God, and God lives in him. <sup>17</sup>If God's love is made perfect in us, then we can be without fear on the day God judges us. We will be without fear, because in this world we are like him. <sup>18</sup>Where God's love is, there is no fear, because God's perfect love takes away fear. It is punishment that makes a person fear. So love is not made perfect in the person who has fear.

<sup>19</sup>We love because God first loved us. <sup>20</sup>If someone says, "I love God," but hates his brother, he is a liar. He can see his brother, but he hates him. So he cannot love God, whom he has never seen. <sup>21</sup>And God gave us this command: Whoever loves God must also love his brother.

Faith in the Son of God

5 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ<sup>d</sup> is God's child. The person who loves the Father also loves the Father's children. <sup>2</sup>How do we know that we love God's children? We know because we love God and we obey his commands. <sup>3</sup>Loving God means obeying his commands. And God's commands are not too hard for us. <sup>4</sup>Everyone who is a child of God has the power to win against the world. <sup>5</sup>It is our faith that wins the victory against the world. So the one who wins against the world is the person who believes that Jesus is the Son of God.

<sup>6</sup>Jesus Christ is the One who came with water<sup>a</sup> and with blood.<sup>b</sup> He did not come by water only. He came by both water and blood. And the Spirit<sup>d</sup> says that this is true. The Spirit is the truth. <sup>7</sup>So there are three witnesses that tell us about Jesus: <sup>8</sup>the Spirit, the water, and the blood. These three witnesses agree. <sup>9</sup>We believe people when they say something is true. But what God says is more important. And he has told us the truth about his own Son. <sup>10</sup>Anyone who believes in the Son of God has the truth that God told us. Anyone who does not believe makes God a liar. He does not believe what God told us about his Son. <sup>11</sup>This is what God told us: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. <sup>12</sup>Whoever has the Son has life. But the person who does not have the Son of God does not have life.

We Have Eternal Life Now

<sup>13</sup>I write this letter to you who believe in the Son of God. I write so that you will know that you have eternal life now. <sup>14</sup>We can come to God with no doubts. This means that when we ask God for things (and those things agree with what God wants for us), then God cares about what we say. <sup>15</sup>God listens to us every time we ask him. So we know that he gives us the things that we ask from him.

<sup>16</sup>Suppose someone sees his brother in Christ sinning (sin that does not lead to eternal death). That person should pray for his brother who is sinning. Then God will give the brother life. I am talking about people whose sin does not lead to eternal death. There is sin that leads to death. I do not mean that a person should pray about that sin. <sup>17</sup>Doing wrong is always sin. But there is sin that does not lead to eternal death.

<sup>18</sup>We know that anyone who is God's child does not continue to sin. The Son of God keeps him safe, and the Evil One cannot hurt him. <sup>19</sup>We know that we belong to God. But the Evil One controls the whole world. <sup>20</sup>And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding. Now we can know God, the One who is true. And our lives are in that true God and in his Son, Jesus Christ. He is the true God, and he is eternal life. <sup>21</sup>So, dear children, keep yourselves away from false gods.

2 JOHN

Do Not Help False Teachers

To the chosen lady<sup>a</sup> and to her children: I love all of you in the truth. <sup>b</sup>Also, all those who know the truth love you. <sup>2</sup>We love you because of the truth—the truth that lives in us and will be with us forever.

<sup>3</sup>Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us from God the Father and from his Son, Jesus Christ. And may we have these blessings in truth and love.

<sup>4</sup>I was very happy to learn about some of your children. I am happy that they are following the way of truth, as the Father commanded us. <sup>5</sup>And now, dear lady, I tell you: We should all love each other. This is not a new command. It is the same command we have had from the beginning. <sup>6</sup>And loving means living the way he commanded us to live. And God's command is this: that you live a life of love. You have heard this command from the beginning.

<sup>7</sup>Many false teachers are in the world now. They refuse to say that Jesus Christ came to earth and became a man. Anyone who refuses to say this is a false teacher and an enemy of Christ. <sup>8</sup>Be careful! Do not lose the reward that you have worked for. Be careful, so that you will receive your full reward.

<sup>9</sup>A person must continue to follow only the teaching of Christ. If he goes beyond Christ's teaching, then he does not have God. But if he continues following the teaching of Christ, then he has both the Father and the Son. <sup>10</sup>If someone comes to you, but does not bring this teaching, then do not accept him into your house. Do not welcome him. <sup>11</sup>If you accept him, you are helping him with his evil work.

<sup>12</sup>I have much to say to you, but I do not want to use paper and ink. Instead, I hope to come visit you. Then we can be together and talk. That will make us very happy. <sup>13</sup>The children of your chosen sister<sup>a</sup> send you their love.

<sup>a</sup>Elder This is probably John the apostle. "Elder" means an older man. It can also mean a special leader in the church (as in Titus 1:5).

<sup>a</sup>lady This might mean a woman. Or, in this letter, it might mean a church. If it is a church, then "her children" would be the people of the church.

<sup>a</sup>truth The truth or "Good News" about Jesus Christ that joins all believers together.

<sup>a</sup>sister Sister of the "lady" in verse 1. This might be another woman or another church.

3 JOHN

Help Christians Who Teach Truth

<sup>1</sup>From the Elder. <sup>n</sup>

To my dear friend Gaius whom I love in the truth: <sup>n</sup>

<sup>2</sup>My dear friend, I know your soul is doing well. I pray that you are doing fine in every way and that your health is good. <sup>3</sup>Some brothers in Christ came and told me about the truth in your life. They said that you are following the way of truth. This made me very happy. <sup>4</sup>It always gives me the greatest joy when I hear that my children are following the way of truth.

<sup>5</sup>My dear friend, it is good that you continue to help the brothers. You are helping those that you do not even know! <sup>6</sup>These brothers told the church about the love you have. Please help them to continue their trip. Help them in a way that will please God. <sup>7</sup>They started out on their trip to serve Christ. They did not accept any help from those who are not believers. <sup>8</sup>So we should help these brothers. And when we do, we share in their work for the truth.

<sup>9</sup>I wrote a letter to the church. But Diotre-phes will not listen to what we say. He always wants to be their leader. <sup>10</sup>When I come, I will talk about what Diotrophes is doing. He lies and says evil things about us. But that is not all he does. He refuses to help those who are working to serve Christ. He also stops those who want to help the brothers and puts them out of the church.

<sup>11</sup>My dear friend, do not follow what is bad; follow what is good. He who does what is good is from God. But he who does evil has never known God.

<sup>12</sup>Everyone says good things about Demetrius. And the truth agrees with what they say. Also, we say good about him. And you know that what we say is true.

<sup>13</sup>I have many things I want to tell you, but I do not want to use pen and ink. <sup>14</sup>I hope to visit you soon. Then we can be together and talk. <sup>15</sup>Peace to you. The friends here with me send their love. Please give our love to each one of the friends there.

<sup>n</sup>Elder This is probably John the apostle. "Elder" means an older man. It can also mean a special leader in the church (as Titus 1:5).

<sup>n</sup>truth The truth or "Good News" about Jesus Christ that joins all believers together.

JUDE

Warnings About False Teachers

To all who have been called by God. God the Father loves you, and you have been kept safe in Jesus Christ.

God Will Punish Sinners

<sup>3</sup>Dear friends, I wanted very much to write to you about the salvation we all share together. But I felt the need to write to you about something else: I want to encourage you to fight hard for the faith that God gave his holy people. God gave this faith once, and it is good for all time. <sup>4</sup>Some people have secretly entered your group. They have already been judged guilty for the things they are doing. Long ago the prophets<sup>d</sup> wrote about these people. They are against God. They have used the grace of our God in the wrong way—to do sinful things. They refuse to accept Jesus Christ, our only Master and Lord.

<sup>5</sup>I want to remind you of some things that you already know: Remember that the Lord saved his people by bringing them out of the land of Egypt. But later the Lord destroyed all those who did not believe. <sup>6</sup>And remember the angels who had power but did not keep it. They left their own home. So the Lord has kept these angels in darkness. They are bound with everlasting chains, to be judged on the great day. <sup>7</sup>Also remember the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah<sup>a</sup> and the other towns around them. They acted as the angels who did not obey God. Their towns were full of sexual sin and men having sexual relations with men. They suffer the punishment of eternal fire, as an example for all to see.

<sup>8</sup>It is the same with these people who have entered your group. They are guided by dreams. They make themselves dirty with sin. They reject God's authority and say bad things against the glorious angels. <sup>9</sup>Not even the archangel<sup>a</sup> Michael did this. He argued with the devil about who would have the body of Moses. Michael did not dare to accuse the devil with insults. He said, "The Lord punish you."<sup>10</sup>But these people say bad things about what they do not understand. They do understand some things. But they understand them not by thinking, but by feeling, the way dumb animals understand things. And these are the very things that destroy them. <sup>11</sup>It will be bad for them. They have followed the way that Cain went. To make money, they have given themselves to doing the wrong that Balaam did. They have fought against God as Korah did. And like Korah, they will be destroyed. <sup>12</sup>They are like dirty spots in the special meals you share together. They eat with you and have no fear. They take care of only themselves. They are clouds without rain. The wind blows them around. They are trees that have no fruit when it is time and are pulled out of the ground. So they are dead two times. <sup>13</sup>They are like wild waves in the sea. These people do shameful things in the same way waves make foam. They are like stars that wander in the sky. A place in the blackest darkness has been kept for them forever.

<sup>14</sup>Enoch, the seventh descendant<sup>d</sup> from Adam, said this about these people: "Look, the Lord is coming with thousands and thousands of his holy angels. <sup>15</sup>The Lord will judge every person. He is coming to judge everyone and to punish all who are against God. He will punish them for all the evil they have done against him. And he will punish the sinners who are against God. He will punish them for all the evil things they have said against him."

<sup>16</sup>These people always complain and blame others. They always do the evil things they want to do. They brag about themselves. The only reason they say good things about other people is to get what they want.

A Warning and Things to Do

<sup>17</sup>Dear friends, remember what the apostles<sup>d</sup> of our Lord Jesus Christ said before. <sup>18</sup>They said to you, "In the last times there will be people who laugh about God. They will do only what they want to do—things that are against God.”

<sup>a</sup>Sodom and Gomorrah Two cities God destroyed because they were so evil.

<sup>a</sup>archangel The leader among God's angels or messengers.

<sup>19</sup>These are the people who divide you. They do only what their sinful selves want. They do not have the Spirit.<sup>4</sup> mercy mixed with fear to others. Hate even their clothes which are dirty from sin.

Praise God

<sup>24</sup>God is strong and can help you not to fall. He can bring you before his glory without any wrong in you and give you great joy. <sup>25</sup>He is the only God. He is the One who saves us. To him be glory, greatness, power, and authority through Jesus Christ our Lord for all time past, now, and forever. Amen.

REVELATION

Christ Will Win Over Evil

John Tells About This Book

1 This is the revelation <sup>a</sup> of Jesus Christ. God gave this revelation to Jesus, to show his servants what must soon happen. And Jesus sent his angel to show it to his servant John. <sup>2</sup>John has told everything that he has seen. It is the truth that Jesus Christ told him; it is the message from God. <sup>3</sup>The one who reads the words of God's message is happy. And the people who hear this message and do what is written in it are happy. The time is near when all of this will happen.

Jesus' Message to the Churches

To the seven churches in the country of Asia:

Grace and peace to you from the One who is and was and is coming, and from the seven spirits before his throne, <sup>5</sup>and from Jesus Christ. Jesus is the faithful witness. He is first among those raised from death. He is the ruler of the kings of the earth.

He is the One who loves us. And he is the One who made us free from our sins with the blood of his death. <sup>6</sup>He made us to be a kingdom of priests who serve God his Father. To Jesus Christ be glory and power forever and ever! Amen.

<sup>7</sup>Look, Jesus is coming with the clouds! Everyone will see him, even those who stabbed him. And all peoples of the earth will cry loudly because of him. Yes, this will happen! Amen.

<sup>8</sup>The Lord God says, "I am the Alpha and the Omega. <sup>a</sup>I am the One who is and was and is coming. I am the All-Powerful."

<sup>9</sup>I am John, and I am your brother in Christ. We are together in Jesus, and we share in these things: in suffering, in the kingdom, and in patience. I was on the island of Patmos <sup>a</sup> because I had preached God's message and the truth about Jesus. <sup>10</sup>On the Lord's day the Spirit <sup>d</sup> took control of me. I heard a loud voice behind me that sounded like a trumpet. <sup>11</sup>The voice said, "Write what you see and send that book to the seven churches: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea."

<sup>12</sup>I turned to see who was talking to me. When I turned, I saw seven golden lampstands. <sup>13</sup>I saw someone among the lampstands who was "like a Son of Man." <sup>n</sup> He was dressed in a long robe. He had a gold band around his chest. <sup>14</sup>His head and hair were white like wool, as white as snow. His eyes were like flames of fire. <sup>15</sup>His feet were like bronze that glows hot in a furnace. His voice was like the noise of flooding water. <sup>16</sup>He held seven stars in his right hand. A sharp two-edged sword came out of his mouth. He looked like the sun shining at its brightest time.

<sup>17</sup>When I saw him, I fell down at his feet like a dead man. He put his right hand on me and said, "Do not be afraid! I am the First and the Last. <sup>18</sup>I am the One who lives. I was dead, but look: I am alive forever and ever! And I hold the keys of death and where the dead are. <sup>19</sup>So write the things you see, what is now and what will happen later. <sup>20</sup>Here is the hidden meaning of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand and the seven golden lampstands that you saw: The seven lampstands are the seven churches. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches.

To the Church in Ephesus

2 "Write this to the angel of the church in Ephesus:

"The One who holds the seven stars in his right hand and walks among the seven golden lampstands says this to you. <sup>2</sup>I know what you do. You work hard, and you never give up. I know that you do not accept evil people. You have tested those who say that they are apostles <sup>d</sup> but really are not. You found that they are liars. <sup>3</sup>You continue to serve me. You have suffered troubles for my name, and you have not given up.

<sup>n</sup>"like . . . Man" "Son of Man" is a name Jesus called himself. It showed he was God's Son, but he was also a man. See dictionary.

ber where you were before you fell. Change your hearts and do what you did at first. If you do not change, I will come to you. I will take away your lampstand from its place. <sup>6</sup>But there is something you do that is right: You hate what the Nicolaitans <sup>a</sup> do, as much as I.

<sup>7</sup>“Every person who has ears should listen to what the Spirit <sup>d</sup> says to the churches. To him who wins the victory I will give the right to eat the fruit from the tree of life. This tree is in the garden of God.

To the Church in Smyrna

“The One who is the First and the Last says this to you. He is the One who died and came to life again. <sup>9</sup>I know your troubles. I know that you are poor, but really you are rich! I know the bad things that some people say about you. They say they are Jews, but they are not true Jews. They are a synagogue <sup>d</sup> that belongs to Satan. <sup>10</sup>Do not be afraid of what will happen to you. I tell you, the devil will put some of you in prison to test you. You will suffer for ten days. But be faithful, even if you have to die. If you are faithful, I will give you the crown of life.

<sup>11</sup>“Everyone who has ears should listen to what the Spirit <sup>d</sup> says to the churches. He who wins the victory will not be hurt by the second death.

To the Church in Pergamum

“The One who has the sharp two-edged sword says this to you. <sup>13</sup>I know where you live. You live where Satan has his throne. But you are true to me. You did not refuse to tell about your faith in me even during the time of Antipas. Antipas was my faithful witness who was killed in your city. Your city is where Satan lives.

<sup>14</sup>“But I have a few things against you: You have some there who follow the teaching of Balaam. Balaam taught Balak how to cause the people of Israel to sin. They sinned by eating food offered to idols and by taking part in sexual sins. <sup>15</sup>You also have some who follow the teaching of the Nicolaitans. <sup>a</sup> <sup>16</sup>So change your hearts and lives! If you do not, I will come to you quickly and fight against them with the sword that comes out of my mouth.

“I will give the hidden manna <sup>d</sup> to everyone who wins the victory. I will also give him a white stone with a new name written on it. No one knows this new name except the one who receives it.

To the Church in Thyatira

“The Son of God is saying these things. He is the One who has eyes that blaze like fire and feet like shining bronze. He says this to you: <sup>19</sup>I know what you do. I know about your love, your faith, your service, and your patience. I know that you are doing more now than you did at first. <sup>20</sup>But I have this against you: You let that woman Jezebel do what she wants. She says that she is a prophetess. <sup>d</sup> But she is leading my people away with her teaching. Jezebel leads them to take part in sexual sins and to eat food that is offered to idols. <sup>21</sup>I have given her time to change her heart and turn away from her sin. But she does not want to change. <sup>22</sup>And so I will throw her on a bed of suffering. And all those who take part in adultery <sup>d</sup> with her will suffer greatly. I will do this now if they do not turn away from the wrongs she does. <sup>23</sup>I will also kill her followers. Then all the churches will know that I am the One who knows what people feel and think. And I will repay each of you for what you have done.

<sup>24</sup>“But others of you in Thyatira have not followed her teaching. You have not learned what some call Satan’s deep secrets. This is what I say to you: I will not put any other load on you. <sup>25</sup>Only continue the way you are until I come.

<sup>26</sup>“I will give power to everyone who wins the victory and continues to the end to do what I want. I will give him power over the nations:

<sup>27</sup>You will make them obey you by punishing them with an iron rod. You will break them into pieces like pottery.’

Psalm 2:9

<sup>28</sup>This is the same power I received from my Father. I will also give him the morning star. <sup>29</sup>Everyone who has ears should listen to what the Spirit <sup>d</sup> says to the churches.

To the Church in Sardis

3 “Write this to the angel of the church in Sardis:

<sup>a</sup>Nicolaitans This is the name of a religious group that followed false beliefs and ideas.

"The One who has the seven spirits and the seven stars says this to you. I know what you do. People say that you are alive, but really you are dead. <sup>2</sup>Wake up! Make yourselves stronger while you still have something left and before it dies completely. I have found that what you are doing is not good enough for my God. <sup>3</sup>So do not forget what you have received and heard. Obey it. Change your hearts and lives! You must wake up, or I will come to you and surprise you like a thief. And you will not know when I will come. <sup>4</sup>But you have a few there in Sardis who have kept themselves clean. They will walk with me. They will wear white clothes, because they are worthy. <sup>5</sup>He who wins the victory will be dressed in white clothes like them. I will not take away his name from the book of life. I will say that he belongs to me before my Father and before his angels. <sup>6</sup>Everyone who has ears should listen to what the Spirit<sup>d</sup> says to the churches.

To the Church in Philadelphia

"The One who is holy and true says this to you. He holds the key of David. When he opens something, it cannot be closed. And when he closes something, it cannot be opened. <sup>8</sup>I know what you do. I have put an open door before you, and no one can close it. I know that you have a little strength. But you have followed my teaching. And you were not afraid to speak my name. <sup>9</sup>Listen! There is a synagogue<sup>e</sup> that belongs to Satan. Those in this synagogue say they are Jews, but they are liars. They are not true Jews. I will make them come before you and bow at your feet. They will know that I have loved you. <sup>10</sup>You have followed my teaching about not giving up. So I will keep you from the time of trouble that will come to the whole world. This trouble will test those who live on earth.

<sup>11</sup>"I am coming soon. Continue the way you are now. Then no one will take away your crown. <sup>12</sup>I will make the one who wins the victory a pillar in the temple of my God. He will never have to leave it. I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God. This city is the new Jerusalem. <sup>n</sup> It comes down out of heaven from my God. I will also write on him my new name. <sup>13</sup>Every person who has ears should listen to what the Spirit<sup>d</sup> says to the churches.

To the Church in Laodicea

"The Amen<sup>n</sup> is the One who is the faithful and true witness. He is the ruler of all that God has made. He says this to you: <sup>15</sup>I know what you do. You are not hot or cold. I wish that you were hot or cold! <sup>16</sup>But you are only warm—not hot, not cold. So I am ready to spit you out of my mouth. <sup>17</sup>You say you are rich. You think you have become wealthy and do not need anything. But you do not know that you are really miserable, pitiful, poor, blind, and naked. <sup>18</sup>I advise you to buy gold from me—gold made pure in fire. Then you can be truly rich. Buy from me clothes that are white. Then you can cover your shameful nakedness. Buy from me medicine to put on your eyes. Then you can truly see.

<sup>19</sup>"I correct and punish those whom I love. So be eager to do right. Change your hearts and lives. <sup>20</sup>Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with him. And he will eat with me.

<sup>21</sup>"He who wins the victory will sit with me on my throne. It was the same with me. I won the victory and sat down with my Father on his throne. <sup>22</sup>Everyone who has ears should listen to what the Spirit<sup>d</sup> says to the churches."

John Sees Heaven

4 After this I looked, and there before me was an open door in heaven. And I heard the same voice that spoke to me before. It was the voice that sounded like a trumpet. The voice said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must happen after this." <sup>2</sup>Then the Spirit<sup>d</sup> took control of me. There before me was a throne in heaven. Someone was sitting on the throne. <sup>3</sup>The One who sat on the throne looked like precious stones, like jasper and carnelian. All around the throne was a rainbow the color of an emerald. <sup>4</sup>Around the throne there were 24 other thrones. There were 24 elders<sup>n</sup> sitting on the 24 thrones. The elders were dressed in white, and they had golden crowns on their heads. <sup>5</sup>Lightning flashes and noises of thunder came from the throne. Before the throne there were seven lamps burning.

These lamps are the seven spirits of God. <sup>6</sup>Also before the throne there was something that looked like a sea of glass. It was clear like crystal.

Around the throne, on each side, there were four living things. These living things had eyes all over them, in front and in back. <sup>7</sup>The first living thing was like a lion. The second was like a calf. The third had a face like a man. The fourth was like a flying eagle. <sup>8</sup>Each of these four living things had six wings. The living things were covered all over with eyes, inside and out. Day and night they never stop saying: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God All-Powerful.

He was, he is, and he is coming."

<sup>9</sup>These living things give glory and honor and thanks to the One who sits on the throne. He is the One who lives forever and ever. And every time the living things do this, <sup>10</sup>the 24 elders bow down before the One who sits on the throne. The elders worship him who lives forever and ever. They put their crowns down before the throne and say:

<sup>11</sup>"Our Lord and God! You are worthy to receive glory and honor and power.

You made all things.

Everything existed and was made because you wanted it."

5 Then I saw a scroll in the right hand of the One sitting on the throne. The scroll had writing on both sides. It was kept closed with seven seals. <sup>2</sup>And I saw a powerful angel. He called in a loud voice, "Who is worthy to break the seals and open the scroll?" <sup>3</sup>But there was no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth who could open the scroll or look inside it. <sup>4</sup>I cried and cried because there was no one who was worthy to open the scroll or look inside. <sup>5</sup>But one of the elders said to me, "Do not cry! The Lion<sup>a</sup> from the tribe<sup>d</sup> of Judah has won the victory. He is David's descendant. <sup>6</sup>He is able to open the scroll and its seven seals."

<sup>7</sup>Then I saw a Lamb standing in the center of the throne with the four living things around it. The elders were also around the Lamb. The Lamb looked as if he had been killed. He had seven horns and seven eyes. These are the seven spirits of God that were sent into all the world. <sup>7</sup>The Lamb came and took the scroll from the right hand of the One sitting on the throne. <sup>8</sup>After he took the scroll, the four living things and the 24 elders bowed down before the Lamb. Each one of them had a harp. Also, they were holding golden bowls full of incense. <sup>4</sup>These bowls of incense are the prayers of God's holy people. <sup>9</sup>And they all sang a new song to the Lamb:

"You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals, because you were killed; and with the blood of your death you bought men for God from every tribe, language, people, and nation.

<sup>10</sup>You made them to be a kingdom of priests for our God.

And they will rule on the earth."

<sup>11</sup>Then I looked, and I heard the voices of many angels. The angels were around the throne, the four living things, and the elders. There were thousands and thousands of angels—there were 10,000 times 10,000. <sup>12</sup>The angels said in a loud voice:

"The Lamb who was killed is worthy to receive power, wealth, wisdom and strength, honor, glory, and praise!"

<sup>13</sup>Then I heard every living thing in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea. I heard every thing in all these places, saying:

"All praise and honor and glory and power forever and ever to the One who sits on the throne and to the Lamb!"

<sup>14</sup>The four living things said, "Amen!" And the elders bowed down and worshiped.

6 Then I watched while the Lamb opened the first of the seven seals. I heard one of the four living things speak with a voice like thunder. It said, "Come!" <sup>2</sup>I looked and there before me was a white horse. The rider on the horse held a bow, and he was given a crown. And he rode out, defeating the enemy. He rode out to win the victory.

<sup>3</sup>The Lamb opened the second seal. Then I heard the second living thing say, "Come!" <sup>4</sup>Then another horse came out. This was a red horse. Its rider was given power to take away peace from the earth. He was given power to make people kill each other. And he was given a big sword.

<sup>5</sup>The Lamb opened the third seal. Then I heard the third living thing say, "Come!" I looked, and there before me was a black horse. Its rider held a pair of scales in his hand. <sup>6</sup>Then I heard something that sounded like a voice. It came from where the four living things were. The voice said, "A quart of wheat for a day's pay. And three quarts of barley for a day's pay. And do not damage the olive oil and wine!"

<sup>7</sup>The Lamb opened the fourth seal. Then I heard the voice of the fourth living thing say, "Come!" <sup>8</sup>I looked, and there before me was a pale horse. Its rider was named death. Hades <sup>9</sup>was following close behind him. They were given power over a fourth of the earth. They were given power to kill people by war, by starving them, by disease, and by the wild animals of the earth.

<sup>9</sup>The Lamb opened the fifth seal. Then I saw some souls under the altar. They were the souls of those who had been killed because they were faithful to God's message and to the truth they had received. <sup>10</sup>These souls shouted in a loud voice, "Holy and true Lord, how long until you judge the people of the earth and punish them for killing us?" <sup>11</sup>Then each one of these souls was given a white robe. They were told to wait a short time longer. There were still some of their brothers in the service of Christ who must be killed as they were. They were told to wait until all of this killing was finished.

<sup>12</sup>Then I watched while the Lamb opened the sixth seal. There was a great earthquake. The sun became black like rough black cloth. The full moon became red like blood. <sup>13</sup>The stars in the sky fell to the earth like figs falling from a fig tree when the wind blows. <sup>14</sup>The sky disappeared. It was rolled up like a scroll. And every mountain and island was moved from its place.

<sup>15</sup>Then all people hid in caves and behind the rocks on the mountains. There were the kings of the earth, the rulers, the generals, the rich people and the powerful people. Everyone, slave and free, hid himself. <sup>16</sup>They called to the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us. Hide us from the face of the One who sits on the throne. Hide us from the anger of the Lamb!" <sup>17</sup>The great day for their anger has come. Who can stand against it?"

The 144,000 People of Israel

7 After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth. The angels were holding the four winds of the earth. They were stopping the wind from blowing on the land or on the sea or on any tree. <sup>2</sup>Then I saw another angel coming from the east. This angel had the seal of the living God. He called out in a loud voice to the four angels. These were the four angels that God had given power to harm the earth and the sea. He said to the four angels, <sup>3</sup>"Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees before we put the sign on the people who serve our God. We must put the sign on their foreheads." <sup>4</sup>Then I heard how many people were marked with the sign. There were 144,000. They were from every tribe <sup>d</sup>of the people of Israel.

<sup>5</sup>From the tribe of Judah 12,000 were marked with the sign, from the tribe of Reuben 12,000, from the tribe of Gad 12,000,

<sup>6</sup>from the tribe of Asher 12,000, from the tribe of Naphtali 12,000, from the tribe of Manasseh 12,000,

<sup>7</sup>from the tribe of Simeon 12,000, from the tribe of Levi 12,000, from the tribe of Issachar 12,000,

<sup>8</sup>from the tribe of Zebulun 12,000, from the tribe of Joseph 12,000, from the tribe of Benjamin 12,000.

The Great Crowd Worships God

<sup>9</sup>Then I looked, and there was a great number of people. There were so many people that no one could count them. They were from every nation, tribe, <sup>d</sup>people, and language of the earth. They were all standing before the throne and before the Lamb. They wore white robes and had palm branches in their hands. <sup>10</sup>They were shouting in a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb." <sup>11</sup>The elders <sup>a</sup>and the four living things were there. All the angels were standing around them and the throne. The angels bowed down on their faces before the throne and worshiped God. <sup>12</sup>They were saying, "Amen! Praise, glory, wisdom, thanks, honor, power, and strength belong to our God forever and ever. Amen!"

<sup>13</sup>Then one of the elders asked me, "Who are these people in white robes? Where did they come from?"

<sup>14</sup>I answered, "You know who they are, sir."

And the elder said, "These are the people who have come out of the great suffering. They have washed their robes <sup>a</sup>with the blood of the Lamb. Now they are clean and white." <sup>15</sup>And they are before the throne of God. They worship God day and night in his temple. And the One who sits on the throne will protect them.

<sup>a</sup>washed their robes This means they believed in Jesus so that their sins could be forgiven by Christ's blood.

<sup>16</sup>Those people will never be hungry again. They will never be thirsty again. The sun will not hurt them. No heat will burn them. <sup>17</sup>For the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd. He will lead them to springs of water that give life. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

The Seventh Seal

8 The Lamb opened the seventh seal. Then there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. <sup>2</sup>And I saw the seven angels who stand before God. They were given seven trumpets.

<sup>3</sup>Another angel came and stood at the altar. I his angel had a golden pan for incense. <sup>4</sup>The angel was given much incense to offer with the prayers of all God's holy people. The angel put this offering on the golden altar before the throne. <sup>4</sup>The smoke from the incense went up from the angel's hand to God. It went up with the prayers of God's people. <sup>5</sup>Then the angel filled the incense pan with fire from the altar and threw it on the earth. There were flashes of lightning, thunder and loud noises, and an earthquake.

The Seven Angels and Trumpets

<sup>6</sup>Then the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared to blow them.

<sup>7</sup>The first angel blew his trumpet. Then hail and fire mixed with blood was poured down on the earth. And a third of the earth and all the green grass and a third of the trees were burned up.

<sup>8</sup>The second angel blew his trumpet. Then something that looked like a big mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea. And a third of the sea became blood. <sup>9</sup>And a third of the living things in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

<sup>10</sup>The third angel blew his trumpet. Then a large star, burning like a torch, fell from the sky. It fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. <sup>11</sup>The name of the star is Wormwood. <sup>11</sup>And a third of all the water became bitter. Many people died from drinking the water that was bitter.

<sup>12</sup>The fourth angel blew his trumpet. Then a third of the sun and a third of the moon and a third of the stars were hit. So a third of them became dark. A third of the day was without light.

<sup>13</sup>While I watched, I heard an eagle that was flying high in the air. The eagle said with a loud voice, "Trouble! Trouble! Trouble for those who live on the earth! The trouble will begin with the sounds of the trumpets that the other three angels are about to blow."

9 Then the fifth angel blew his trumpet. And I saw a star fall from the sky to the earth. The star was given the key to the deep hole that leads down to the bottomless pit. <sup>2</sup>Then it opened the bottomless pit. Smoke came up from the hole like smoke from a big furnace. The sun and sky became dark because of the smoke from the hole. <sup>3</sup>Then locusts<sup>4</sup> came down to the earth out of the smoke. They were given the power to sting like scorpions. <sup>4</sup>They were told not to harm the grass on the earth or any plant or tree. They could harm only the people who did not have the sign of God on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup>These locusts were given the power to cause pain to the people for five months. But they were not given the power to kill anyone. And the pain they felt was like the pain that a scorpion gives when it stings a person. <sup>6</sup>During those days people will look for a way to die, but they will not find it. They will want to die, but death will run away from them.

<sup>7</sup>The locusts looked like horses prepared for battle. On their heads they wore things that looked like crowns of gold. Their faces looked like human faces. <sup>8</sup>Their hair was like women's hair, and their teeth were like lions' teeth. <sup>9</sup>Their chests looked like iron breastplates. The sound their wings made was like the noise of many horses and chariots hurrying into battle. <sup>10</sup>The locusts had tails with stingers like scorpions. The power they had to hurt people for five months was in their tails. <sup>11</sup>The locusts had a king who was the angel of the bottomless pit. His name in the Hebrew language is Abaddon. In the Greek language his name is Apollyon.<sup>11</sup>

<sup>12</sup>The first great trouble is past. There are still two other great troubles that will come.

horses were in their army. There were 200,000,000.

<sup>17</sup>In my vision I saw the horses and their riders. They looked like this: They had breastplates that were fiery red, dark blue, and yellow like sulfur. The heads of the horses looked like heads of lions. The horses had fire, smoke, and sulfur coming out of their mouths. <sup>18</sup>A third of all the people on earth were killed by these three terrible things coming out of the horses' mouths: the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur. <sup>19</sup>The horses' power was in their mouths and also in their tails. Their tails were like snakes that have heads to bite and hurt people.

<sup>20</sup>The other people on the earth were not killed by these terrible things. But they still did not change their hearts and turn away from what they had made with their own hands. They did not stop worshiping demons<sup>d</sup> and idols made of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood—things that cannot see or hear or walk. <sup>21</sup>These people did not change their hearts and turn away from murder or evil magic, from their sexual sins or stealing.

The Angel and the Little Scroll

10 Then I saw another powerful angel coming down from heaven. He was dressed in a cloud and had a rainbow around his head. His face was like the sun, and his legs were like poles of fire. <sup>2</sup>The angel was holding a small scroll open in his hand. He put his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land. <sup>3</sup>He shouted loudly like the roaring of a lion. When he shouted, the voices of seven thunders spoke. <sup>4</sup>The seven thunders spoke, and I started to write. But then I heard a voice from heaven. The voice said, "Do not write what the seven thunders said. Keep these things secret."

<sup>5</sup>Then the angel I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand to heaven. <sup>6</sup>He made a promise by the power of the One who lives forever and ever. He is the One who made the skies and all that is in them. He made the earth and all that is in it, and he made the sea and all that is in it. The angel said, "There will be no more waiting!" <sup>7</sup>In the days when the seventh angel is ready to blow his trumpet, God's secret plan will be finished. This plan is the Good News<sup>d</sup> God told to his servants, the prophets."<sup>d</sup>

<sup>8</sup>Then I heard the same voice from heaven again. The voice said to me, "Go and take the open scroll that is in the angel's hand. This is the angel that is standing on the sea and on the land."

<sup>9</sup>So I went to the angel and asked him to give me the little scroll. He said to me, "Take the scroll and eat it. It will be sour in your stomach. But in your mouth it will be sweet as honey." <sup>10</sup>So I took the little scroll from the angel's hand and I ate it. In my mouth it tasted sweet as honey. But after I ate it, it was sour in my stomach. <sup>11</sup>Then I was told, "You must prophesy<sup>d</sup> again about many peoples, nations, languages, and kings."

The Two Witnesses

11 Then I was given a measuring stick like a rod. I was told, "Go and measure the temple<sup>a</sup> of God and the altar, and count the number of people worshiping there. <sup>2</sup>But do not measure the yard outside the temple. Leave it alone. It has been given to the people who are not Jews. They will walk on the holy city for 42 months. <sup>3</sup>And I will give power to my two witnesses to prophesy<sup>d</sup> for 1,260 days. They will be dressed in rough cloth to show how sad they are."

<sup>4</sup>These two witnesses are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth. <sup>5</sup>If anyone tries to hurt the witnesses, fire comes from their mouths and kills their enemies. Anyone who tries to hurt them will die like this. <sup>6</sup>These witnesses have the power to stop the sky from raining during the time they are prophesying. They have power to make the waters become blood. They have power to send every kind of trouble to the earth. They can do this as many times as they want.

<sup>7</sup>When the two witnesses have finished telling their message, the beast will fight against them. This is the beast that comes up from the bottomless pit. He will defeat them and kill them. <sup>8</sup>The bodies of the two witnesses will lie in the street of the great city. This city is named Sodom<sup>a</sup> and Egypt. These names for the city have a special meaning. It is the city where the Lord was killed. <sup>9</sup>Men from every race of people, tribe,<sup>d</sup> language, and nation will look at the bodies of the two witnesses for three and a half days. They will refuse to bury them. <sup>10</sup>People who live on the earth will be happy because these two are dead. They will have parties and send each other gifts. They will do these things because these two prophets brought much suffering to those who live on the earth.

<sup>a</sup>Sodom City that God destroyed because the people were so evil.

<sup>11</sup>But after three and a half days, God put the breath of life into the two prophets again. They stood on their feet. Everyone who saw them was filled with fear. <sup>12</sup>Then the two prophets heard a loud voice from heaven say, "Come up here!" And they went up into heaven in a cloud. Their enemies watched them go.

<sup>13</sup>At that same time there was a great earthquake. A tenth of the city was destroyed. And 7,000 people were killed in the earthquake. Those who did not die were very afraid. They gave glory to the God of heaven.

The Seventh Trumpet

<sup>15</sup>Then the seventh angel blew his trumpet. And there were loud voices in heaven. The voices said:

"The power to rule the world now belongs to our Lord and his Christ.<sup>d</sup> And he will rule forever and ever."

<sup>16</sup>Then the 24 elders<sup>a</sup> bowed down on their faces and worshiped God. These are the elders who sit on their thrones before God. <sup>17</sup>They said:

"We give thanks to you, Lord God All-Powerful.

You are the One who is and who was. We thank you because you have used your great power and have begun to rule!

<sup>18</sup>The people of the world were angry; but now is the time for your anger. Now is the time for the dead to be judged.

It is time to reward your servants the prophets<sup>d</sup> and to reward your holy people, all who respect you, great and small.

It is time to destroy those who destroy the earth!"

<sup>19</sup>Then God's temple<sup>a</sup> in heaven was opened. The Ark<sup>d</sup> that holds the agreement that God gave to his people could be seen in his temple. Then there were flashes of lightning, noises, thunder, an earthquake, and a great hailstorm.

<sup>d</sup>temple God's house—the place where God's people worship and serve him. John sees the heavenly temple pictured to be like the Temple of God's people in the Old Testament.

The Woman and the Dragon

12 And then a great wonder appeared in heaven: There was a woman who was clothed with the sun. The moon was under her feet. She had a crown of 12 stars on her head.

<sup>3</sup>Then another wonder appeared in heaven: There was a giant red dragon. He had seven heads with seven crowns on each head. He also had ten horns. <sup>4</sup>The dragon's tail swept a third of the stars out of the sky and threw them down to the earth. The dragon stood in front of the woman who was ready to give birth to a baby. He wanted to eat the woman's baby as soon as it was born. <sup>5</sup>The woman gave birth to a son. He will rule all the nations with an iron scepter.<sup>d</sup> But her child was taken up to God and to his throne. <sup>6</sup>The woman ran away into the desert to a place God prepared for her. There she would be taken care of for 1,260 days.

"The salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ<sup>d</sup> have now come.

They have come because the accuser of our brothers has been thrown out.

He accused our brothers day and night before our God.

<sup>11</sup>And our brothers defeated him by the blood of the Lamb's death and by the truth they preached.

They did not love their lives so much that they were afraid of death.

<sup>12</sup>So be happy, you heavens and all who live there!

But it will be terrible for the earth and the sea, because the devil has come down to you! He is filled with anger.

He knows that he does not have much time."

<sup>13</sup>The dragon saw that he had been thrown down to the earth. So he hunted down the woman who had given birth to the son. <sup>14</sup>But the woman was given the two wings of a great eagle. Then she could fly to the place that was prepared for her in the desert. There she would be taken care of for three and a half years. There she would be away from the snake. <sup>15</sup>Then the snake poured water out of its mouth like a river. He poured the water toward the woman, so that the flood would carry her away. <sup>16</sup>But the earth helped her. The earth opened its mouth and swallowed the river that came from the mouth of the dragon. <sup>17</sup>Then the dragon was very angry at the woman. He went off to make war against all her other children. Her children are those who obey God's commands and have the truth that Jesus taught.

The Two Beasts

13 Then I saw a beast coming up out of the sea. It had ten horns and seven heads. There was a crown on each horn. A name against God was written on each head. <sup>2</sup>This beast looked like a leopard, with feet like a bear's feet. He had a mouth like a lion's mouth. The dragon gave the beast all of his power and his throne and great authority. <sup>3</sup>One of the heads of the beast looked as if it had been wounded and killed. But this death wound was healed. The whole world was amazed and followed the beast. <sup>4</sup>People worshiped the dragon because he had given his power to the beast. And they also worshiped the beast. They asked, "Who is as powerful as the beast? Who can make war against him?"

<sup>5</sup>The beast was allowed to say proud words and words against God. He was allowed to use his power for 42 months. <sup>6</sup>He used his mouth to speak against God. He spoke against God's name, against the place where God lives, and against all those who live in heaven. <sup>7</sup>He was given power to make war against God's holy people and to defeat them. He was given power over every tribe,<sup>4</sup> people, language, and nation. <sup>8</sup>All who live on earth will worship the beast. These are all the people since the beginning of the world whose names are not written in the Lamb's book of life. The Lamb is the One who was killed.

<sup>9</sup>If anyone has ears, he should listen:

<sup>10</sup>If anyone is to be a prisoner, then he will be a prisoner.

If anyone is to be killed with the sword, then he will be killed with the sword.

This means that God's holy people must have patience and faith.

<sup>11</sup>Then I saw another beast coming up out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, but he talked like a dragon. <sup>12</sup>This beast stands before the first beast and uses the same power that the first beast has. He uses this power to make everyone living on earth worship the first beast. The first beast was the one that had the death wound that was healed. <sup>13</sup>The second one does great miracles.<sup>a</sup> He even makes fire come down from heaven to earth while people are watching. <sup>14</sup>This second beast fools those who live on earth. He fools them by the miracles he has been given the power to do. He does these miracles to serve the first beast. The second beast ordered people to make an idol to honor the first beast. This was the one that was wounded by the sword but did not die. <sup>15</sup>The second beast was given power to give life to the idol of the first one. Then the idol could speak and order all who did not worship it to be killed. <sup>16</sup>The second animal also forced all people, small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to have a mark on their right hand or on their forehead. <sup>17</sup>No one could buy or sell without this mark. This mark is the name of the beast or the number of his name. <sup>18</sup>Whoever has understanding can find the meaning of the number. This requires wisdom. This number is the number of a man. His number is 666.

The Song of the Saved

14 Then I looked, and there before me was the Lamb. He was standing on Mount Zion.<sup>a</sup> There were 144,000 people with him. They all had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads. <sup>2</sup>And I heard a sound from heaven like the noise of flooding water and like the sound of loud thunder. The sound I heard was like people playing harps. <sup>3</sup>And they sang a new song before the throne and before the four living things and the elders.<sup>a</sup> The only ones who could learn the new song were the 144,000 who had been saved from the earth. No one else could learn the song. <sup>4</sup>These 144,000 are the ones who did not do sinful things with women. They kept themselves pure. They follow the Lamb every place he goes. These 144,000 were saved from among the people of the earth. They are the first people to be offered to God and the Lamb. <sup>5</sup>They were not guilty of telling lies. They are without fault.

The Three Angels

<sup>6</sup>Then I saw another angel flying high in the air. The angel had the eternal Good News<sup>d</sup> to preach to those who live on earth—to every nation, tribe, <sup>d</sup>language, and people. <sup>7</sup>The angel said in a loud voice, “Fear God and give him praise. The time has come for God to judge all people. Worship God. He made the heavens, the earth, the sea, and the springs of water.”

<sup>8</sup>Then the second angel followed the first angel and said, “She is destroyed! The great city of Babylon is destroyed! She made all the nations drink the wine of her adultery<sup>d</sup> and of God’s anger.”

<sup>9</sup>A third angel followed the first two angels. This third angel said in a loud voice: “It will be bad for the person who worships the beast and his idol and gets the beast’s mark on the forehead or on the hand. <sup>10</sup>He will drink the wine of God’s anger. This wine is prepared with all its strength in the cup of God’s anger. He will be put in pain with burning sulfur before the holy angels and the Lamb. <sup>11</sup>And the smoke from their burning pain will rise forever and ever. There will be no rest, day or night, for those who worship the beast and his idol or who get the mark of his name.” <sup>12</sup>This means that God’s holy people must be patient. They must obey God’s commands and keep their faith in Jesus.

<sup>13</sup>Then I heard a voice from heaven. It said, “Write this: From now on, the dead who were in the Lord when they died are happy.”

The Spirit<sup>d</sup> says, “Yes, that is true. They will rest from their hard work. The reward of all they have done stays with them.”

The Earth Is Harvested

<sup>14</sup>I looked and there before me was a white cloud. Sitting on the white cloud was One who looked like a Son of Man.<sup>a</sup> He had a gold crown on his head and a sharp sickle<sup>a</sup> in his hand. <sup>15</sup>Then another angel came out of the temple. This angel called to the One who was sitting on the cloud, “Take your sickle and gather from the earth. The time to harvest has come. The fruit of the earth is ripe.” <sup>16</sup>So the

One that was sitting on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth. And the earth was harvested.

<sup>17</sup>Then another angel came out of the temple in heaven. This angel also had a sharp sickle. <sup>18</sup>And then another angel came from the altar. This angel has power over the fire. This angel called to the angel with the sharp sickle. He said, “Take your sharp sickle and gather the bunches of grapes from the earth’s vine. The earth’s grapes are ripe.” <sup>19</sup>The angel swung his sickle over the earth. He gathered the earth’s grapes and threw them into the great winepress<sup>d</sup> of God’s anger. <sup>20</sup>The grapes were crushed in the winepress outside the city. And blood flowed out of the winepress. It rose as high as the heads of the horses for a distance of 200 miles.

The Last Troubles

15 Then I saw another wonder in heaven. It was great and amazing. There were seven angels bringing seven troubles. These are the last troubles, because after these troubles God’s anger is finished.

<sup>21</sup>I saw what looked like a sea of glass mixed with fire. All of those who had won the victory over the beast and his idol and over the number of his name were standing by the sea. They had harps that God had given them. <sup>3</sup>They sang the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb:

“You do great and wonderful things,
Lord God, the God of heaven’s armies.

Amos 3:13

Everything the Lord does is right and true,

Psalm 145:17

King of the nations.

<sup>4</sup>Everyone will respect you, Lord.

Jeremiah 10:7

They will honor you.

Only you are holy.

All people will come and worship you.

Psalm 86:9,10

This is because he is a faithful God who does no wrong.

He is right and fair.”

Deuteronomy 32:4

<sup>5</sup>After this I saw the temple (the Tent<sup>d</sup> of the Agreement) in heaven. The temple was opened. <sup>6</sup>And the seven angels bringing the seven troubles came out of the temple. They were dressed in clean, shining linen. They wore golden bands tied around their chests. <sup>7</sup>Then one of the four living things gave seven golden bowls to the seven angels. The bowls were filled with the anger of God, who lives forever and ever. <sup>7</sup>The temple was filled with smoke from the glory and the power of God. No one could enter the temple until the seven troubles of the seven angels were finished.

The Bowls of God's Anger

16 Then I heard a loud voice from the temple. The voice said to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the seven bowls of God's anger on the earth."

<sup>2</sup>The first angel left. He poured out his bowl on the land. Then ugly and painful sores came upon all those who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped his idol.

<sup>3</sup>The second angel poured out his bowl on the sea. Then the sea became blood like that of a dead man. Every living thing in the sea died.

<sup>4</sup>The third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and the springs of water. And they became blood. <sup>5</sup>Then I heard the angel of the waters say to God:

"Holy One, you are the One who is and who was.

You are right to decide to punish these evil people.

<sup>6</sup>They have spilled the blood of your holy people and your prophets.<sup>d</sup>

Now you have given them blood to drink as they deserve."

"Yes, Lord God All-Powerful, the way you punish evil people is right and fair."

<sup>8</sup>The fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun. The sun was given power to burn the people with fire. <sup>9</sup>They were burned by the great heat, and they cursed the name of God. God is the One who had control over these troubles. But the people refused to change their hearts and lives and give glory to God.

<sup>10</sup>The fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast. And darkness covered the beast's kingdom. People bit their tongues because of the pain. <sup>11</sup>They cursed the God of heaven because of their pain and the sores they had. But they refused to change their hearts and turn away from the evil things they did.

<sup>12</sup>The sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates. The water in the river was dried up. This prepared the way for the kings from the east to come. <sup>13</sup>Then I saw three evil spirits that looked like frogs. They came out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.<sup>d</sup> <sup>14</sup>These evil spirits are the spirits of demons.<sup>d</sup> They have power to do miracles.<sup>d</sup> They go out to the kings of the whole world. They go out to gather the kings for battle on the great day of God All-Powerful.

<sup>15</sup>"Listen! I will come as a thief comes! Happy is the person who stays awake and keeps his clothes with him. Then he will not have to go without clothes and be ashamed because he is naked."

<sup>16</sup>Then the evil spirits gathered the kings together to the place that is called Armageddon<sup>n</sup> in the Hebrew language.

<sup>17</sup>The seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air. Then a loud voice came out of the temple from the throne. The voice said, "It is finished!" <sup>18</sup>Then there were flashes of lightning, noises, thunder, and a big earthquake. This was the worst earthquake that has ever happened since people have been on earth. <sup>19</sup>The great city split into three parts. The cities of the nations were destroyed. And God did not forget to punish Babylon the Great. He gave that city the cup filled with the wine of his terrible anger. <sup>20</sup>Every island disappeared, and there were no more mountains. <sup>21</sup>Giant hailstones fell on people from the sky. The hailstones weighed about 100 pounds each. People cursed God because of the hail. This trouble was a terrible thing.

The Woman on the Animal

17 One of the seven angels came and spoke to me. This was one of the angels that had the seven bowls. He said, "Come, and I will show you the punishment that will be given to the famous prostitute.<sup>d</sup> She is the one sitting over many waters. <sup>2</sup>The kings of the earth sinned sexually with her. And the people of the earth became drunk from the wine of her sexual sin."

<sup>3</sup>Then the angel carried me away by the Spirit<sup>d</sup> to the desert. There I saw a woman sitting on a red beast. He was covered with names against God written on him. He had seven heads and ten horns. <sup>4</sup>The woman was dressed in purple and red. She was shining with the gold, jewels, and pearls she was wearing. She had a golden cup in her hand. This cup was filled with evil things and the uncleanness of her sexual sin. <sup>5</sup>She had a title written on her forehead. This title has a hidden meaning. This is what was written:

THE GREAT BABYLON
MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES
AND THE EVIL THINGS OF THE EARTH

<sup>9</sup>I saw that the woman was drunk. She was drunk with the blood of God's holy people. She was drunk with the blood of those who were killed because of their faith in Jesus.

When I saw the woman, I was fully amazed. <sup>7</sup>Then the angel said to me, "Why are you amazed? I will tell you the hidden meaning of this woman and the beast she rides—the one with seven heads and ten horns. <sup>8</sup>The beast that you saw was once alive. He is not alive now. But he will be alive and come up out of the bottomless pit and go away to be destroyed. The people who live on earth will be amazed when they see the beast. They will be amazed because he was once alive, is not alive now, but will come again. These are the people whose names have never been written in the book of life since the beginning of the world.

<sup>9</sup>"You need a wise mind to understand this. The seven heads on the beast are the seven hills where the woman sits. They are also seven kings. <sup>10</sup>Five of the kings have already died. One of the kings lives now. And the last king is coming. When he comes, he will stay only a short time. <sup>11</sup>The beast that was once alive but is not alive now is an eighth king. This eighth king also belongs to the first seven kings. And he will go away to be destroyed.

<sup>12</sup>"The ten horns you saw are ten kings. These ten kings have not yet begun to rule. But they will receive power to rule with the beast for one hour. <sup>13</sup>All ten of these kings have the same purpose. And they will give their power and authority to the beast. <sup>14</sup>They will make war against the Lamb. But the Lamb will defeat them, because he is Lord of lords and King of kings. He will defeat them with his chosen and faithful followers—the people that he has called."

<sup>15</sup>Then the angel said to me, "You saw the water where the prostitute sits. These waters are the many peoples, the different races, nations, and languages. <sup>16</sup>The beast and the ten horns you saw will hate the prostitute. They will take everything she has and leave her naked. They will eat her body and burn her with fire. <sup>17</sup>God made the ten horns want to carry out his purpose: They agreed to give the beast their power to rule. They will rule until what God has said is completed. <sup>18</sup>The woman you saw is the great city that rules over the kings of the earth."

Babylon Is Destroyed

18 Then I saw another angel coming down from heaven. This angel had great power. The angel's glory made the earth bright. <sup>2</sup>The angel shouted in a powerful voice:

"The great city of Babylon is destroyed!

She has become a home for demons.<sup>4</sup>

She has become a city for every evil spirit, a city for every unclean<sup>d</sup> and hated bird.

<sup>3</sup>All the peoples of the earth have drunk the strong wine of her sexual sin.

The kings of the earth have sinned sexually with her, and the businessmen of the world have grown rich from the great wealth of her luxury."

<sup>4</sup>Then I heard another voice from heaven say:

"Come out of that city, my people, so that you will not share in her sins.

Then you will not receive the terrible things that will happen to her.

<sup>5</sup>The city's sins are piled up as high as the sky.

God has not forgotten the wrongs she has done.

<sup>6</sup>Give that city the same as she gave to others.

Pay her back twice as much as she did.

Prepare wine for her that is twice as strong as the wine she prepared for others.

<sup>7</sup>She gave herself much glory and rich living.

Give her that much suffering and sadness.

She says to herself, 'I am a queen sitting on my throne.

I am not a widow; I will never be sad.'

<sup>8</sup>So these terrible things will come to her in one day:

death, crying, and great hunger.

She will be destroyed by fire, because the Lord God who judges her is powerful."

<sup>9</sup>The kings of the earth who sinned sexually with her and shared her wealth will see the smoke from her burning. Then they will cry and weep because of her death. <sup>10</sup>They will be afraid of her suffering and stand far away. They will say:

"Terrible! How terrible, great city, powerful city of Babylon!

Your punishment has come in one hour!"

<sup>11</sup>And the businessmen of the earth will cry and weep for her. They will be sad because now there is no one to buy the things they sell.

<sup>12</sup>They sell gold, silver, jewels, pearls, fine linen cloth, purple cloth, silk, and red cloth. They sell all kinds of citron wood and all kinds of things made from ivory, expensive wood, bronze, iron, and marble. <sup>13</sup>They also sell cinnamon, spice, incense, <sup>d</sup>myrrh, <sup>d</sup>frankincense, <sup>d</sup>wine, and olive oil; fine flour, wheat, cattle, sheep, horses, and carriages. They sell the bodies and souls of men.

"Babylon, the good things you wanted are gone from you.

All your rich and fancy things have disappeared.

You will never have them again."

<sup>15</sup>The businessmen will be afraid of her suffering and stand far away from her. These are the men who became rich from selling those things to her. The men will cry and be sad. <sup>16</sup>They will say:

"Terrible! How terrible for the great city!

She was dressed in fine linen, purple and red cloth.

She was shining with gold, jewels, and pearls!

Every sea captain, all those who travel on ships, the sailors, and all the people who earn money from the sea stood far away from Babylon. <sup>18</sup>They saw the smoke from her burning. They said loudly, "There was never a city like this great city!" <sup>19</sup>They threw dust on their heads and cried to show how sad they were. They said:

"Terrible! How terrible for the great city!

All the people who had ships on the sea became rich because of her wealth!

But she has been destroyed in one hour!

<sup>20</sup>Be happy because of this, heaven!

Be happy, God's holy people and apostles<sup>d</sup> and prophets!<sup>d</sup>

God has punished her because of what she did to you."

<sup>21</sup>Then a powerful angel picked up a stone like a large stone for grinding grain. The angel threw the stone into the sea and said:

"That is how the great city of Babylon will be thrown down.

The city will never be found again.

<sup>22</sup>The music of people playing harps and other instruments, flutes and trumpets, will never be heard in you again.

No workman doing any job will ever be found in you again.

The sound of grinding grain will never be heard in you again.

<sup>23</sup>The light of a lamp will never shine in you again.

The voices of a bridegroom and bride will never be heard in you again.

Your businessmen were the world's great men.

All the nations were tricked by your magic.

<sup>24</sup>She is guilty of the death of the prophets and God's holy people and of all who have been killed on earth."

People in Heaven Praise God

19 After this I heard what sounded like a great many people in heaven. They were saying:

"Hallelujah!<sup>a</sup>

Salvation, glory, and power belong to our God.

<sup>2</sup> His judgments are true and right.

Our God has punished the prostitute.<sup>d</sup>

She is the one who made the earth evil with her sexual sin.

God has punished the prostitute to pay her for the death of his servants."

<sup>3</sup>Again they said:

She is burning, and her smoke will rise forever and ever."

<sup>4</sup>Then the 24 elders<sup>a</sup> and the four living things bowed down. They worshiped God, who sits on the throne. They said:

"Amen, Hallelujah!"

<sup>5</sup>Then a voice came from the throne:

"Praise our God, all you who serve him!

Praise our God, all you who honor him, both small and great!"

<sup>6</sup>Then I heard what sounded like a great many people. It sounded like the noise of flooding water and like loud thunder. The people were saying:

"Hallelujah!

Our Lord God rules. He is the All-Powerful.

<sup>7</sup>Let us rejoice and be happy and give God glory!

Give God glory, because the wedding of the Lamb has come.

And the Lamb's bride has made herself ready.

<sup>8</sup>Fine linen was given to the bride for her to wear.

The linen was bright and clean."

(The fine linen means the good things done by God's holy people.)

<sup>9</sup>Then the angel said to me, "Write this: Those who are invited to the wedding meal of the Lamb are happy!" Then the angel said, "These are the true words of God."

<sup>10</sup>Then I bowed down at the angel's feet to worship him. But he said to me, "Do not worship me! I am a servant like you and your brothers who have the truth of Jesus. Worship God! Because the truth about Jesus is the spirit that gives all prophecy."<sup>d</sup>

The Rider on the White Horse

<sup>11</sup>Then I saw heaven open. There before me was a white horse. The rider on the horse is called Faithful and True. He is right when he judges and makes war. <sup>12</sup>His eyes are like burning fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has a name written on him, but he is the only one who knows the name. No other person knows the name. <sup>13</sup>He is dressed in a robe dipped in blood. His name is the Word of God. <sup>14</sup>The armies of heaven were following him on white horses. They were dressed in fine linen, white and clean. <sup>15</sup>A sharp sword comes out of the rider's mouth. He will use this sword to defeat the nations. He will rule them with a scepter<sup>d</sup> of iron. He will crush out the wine in the winepress<sup>d</sup> of the terrible anger of God All-Powerful. <sup>16</sup>On his robe and on his leg was written this name: "KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS."

<sup>17</sup>Then I saw an angel standing in the sun. The angel called with a loud voice to all the birds flying in the sky, "Come together for the great feast of God. <sup>18</sup>Come together so that you can eat the bodies of kings and generals and famous men. Come to eat the bodies of the horses and their riders and the bodies of all people—free, slave, small, and great."

<sup>19</sup>Then I saw the beast and the kings of the earth. Their armies were gathered together to make war against the rider on the horse and his army. <sup>20</sup>But the beast was captured and with him the false prophet.<sup>d</sup> This false prophet was the one who did the miracles<sup>d</sup> for the beast. The false prophet had used these miracles to trick those who had the mark of the beast and worshiped his idol. The false prophet and the beast were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. <sup>21</sup>Their armies were killed with the sword that came out of the mouth of the rider on the horse. All the birds ate the bodies until they were full.

The 1,000 Years

20 I saw an angel coming down from heaven. He had the key to the bottomless pit. He also held a large chain in his hand. <sup>2</sup>The angel grabbed the dragon, that old snake who is the devil. The angel tied him up for 1,000 years. <sup>3</sup>Then he threw him into the bottomless pit and closed it and locked it over him. The angel did this so that he could not trick the people of the earth anymore until the 1,000 years were ended. After 1,000 years he must be set free for a short time.

<sup>4</sup>Then I saw some thrones and people sitting on them. They had been given the power to judge. And I saw the souls of those who had been killed because they were faithful to the truth of Jesus and the message from God. They had not worshiped the beast or his idol. They had not received the mark of the beast on their foreheads or on their hands. They came back to life and ruled with Christ for 1,000 years. <sup>5</sup>(The others that were dead did not live again until the 1,000 years were ended.) This is the first raising of the dead. <sup>6</sup>Blessed and holy are those who share in this first raising of the dead. The second death has no power over them. They will be priests for God and for Christ. They will rule with him for 1,000 years.

<sup>7</sup>When the 1,000 years are over, Satan will be set free from his prison. <sup>8</sup>He will go out to trick the nations in all the earth—Gog and Magog. Satan will gather them for battle. There will be so many people that they will be like sand on the seashore. <sup>9</sup>And Satan's army marched across the earth and gathered around the camp of God's people and the city that God loves. But fire came down from heaven and burned them up. <sup>10</sup>And Satan, who tricked them, was thrown into the lake of burning sulfur with the beast and the false prophet.<sup>d</sup> There they will be punished day and night forever and ever.

People of the World Are Judged

<sup>11</sup>Then I saw a great white throne and the One who was sitting on it. Earth and sky ran away from him and disappeared. <sup>12</sup>And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne. And the book of life was opened. There were also other books opened. The dead were judged by what they had done, which was written in the books. <sup>13</sup>The sea gave up the dead who were in it. Death and Hades<sup>a</sup> gave up the dead who were in them. Each person was judged by what he had done. <sup>14</sup>And Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This lake of fire is the second death. <sup>15</sup>And if anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

The New Jerusalem

21 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth. The first heaven and the first earth had disappeared. Now there was no sea. <sup>2</sup>And I saw the holy city coming down out of heaven from God. This holy city is the new Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup>It was prepared like a bride dressed for her husband. <sup>3</sup>I heard a loud voice from the throne. The voice said, "Now God's home is with men. He will live with them, and they will be his people. God himself will be with them and will be their God. <sup>4</sup>He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death, sadness, crying, or pain. All the old ways are gone."

<sup>5</sup>The One who was sitting on the throne said, "Look! I am making everything new!" Then he said, "Write this, because these words are true and can be trusted."

<sup>6</sup>The One on the throne said to me: "It is finished! I am the Alpha and the Omega, <sup>a</sup> the Beginning and the End. I will give free water from the spring of the water of life to anyone who is thirsty. <sup>7</sup>Anyone who wins the victory will receive this. And I will be his God, and he will be my son. <sup>8</sup>But those who are cowards, who refuse to believe, who do evil things, who kill, who sin sexually, who do evil magic, who worship idols, and who tell lies—all these will have a place in the lake of burning sulfur. This is the second death."

<sup>9</sup>One of the seven angels came to me. This was one of the angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last troubles. He said, "Come with me. I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb." <sup>10</sup>The angel carried me away by the Spirit<sup>d</sup> to a very large and high mountain. He showed me the holy city, Jerusalem. It was coming down out of heaven from God. <sup>11</sup>It was shining with the glory of God. It was shining bright like a very expensive jewel, like a jasper. It was clear as crystal. <sup>12</sup>The city had a great high wall with 12 gates. There were 12 angels at the gates. On each gate was written the name of 1 of the 12 tribes<sup>d</sup> of Israel. <sup>13</sup>There were three gates on the east, three on the north, three on the south, and three on the west. <sup>14</sup>The walls of the city were built on 12 foundation stones. On the stones were written the names of the 12 apostles<sup>d</sup> of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup>The angel who talked with me had a measuring rod made of gold. He had this rod to measure the city, its gates, and its wall. <sup>16</sup>The city was built in a square. Its length was equal to its width. The angel measured the city with the rod. The city was 12,000 stadia<sup>a</sup> long, 12,000 stadia wide, and 12,000 stadia high. <sup>17</sup>The angel also measured the wall. It was 144 cubits<sup>a</sup> high, by man's measurement. That was the measurement the angel was using. <sup>18</sup>The wall was made of jasper. The city was made of pure gold, as pure as glass. <sup>19</sup>The foundation stones of the city walls had every kind of jewel in them. The first cornerstone was jasper, the second was sapphire, the third was chalcedony, the fourth was emerald, <sup>20</sup>the fifth was onyx, the sixth was carnelian, the seventh was chrysolite, the eighth was beryl, the ninth was topaz, the tenth was chrysoptase, the eleventh was jacinth, and the twelfth was amethyst. <sup>21</sup>The 12 gates were 12 pearls. Each gate was made from a single pearl. The street of the city was made of pure gold. The gold was clear as glass.

<sup>22</sup>I did not see a temple in the city. The Lord God All-Powerful and the Lamb are the city's temple. <sup>23</sup>The city does not need the sun or the moon to shine on it. The glory of God is its light, and the Lamb is the city's lamp. <sup>24</sup>By its light the people of the world will walk. The kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. <sup>25</sup>The city's gates will never be shut on any day, because there is no night there. <sup>26</sup>The greatness and the honor of the nations will be brought into it. <sup>27</sup>Nothing unclean<sup>d</sup> will ever enter the city. No one who does shameful things or tells lies will ever go into it. Only those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life will enter the city.

22 Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life. The river was shining like crystal. It flows from the throne of God and of the Lamb <sup>2</sup>down the middle of the street of the city. The tree of life was on each side of the river. It produces fruit 12 times a year, once each month. The leaves of the tree are for the

<sup>c</sup>Alpha and the Omega The first and last letters in the Greek alphabet. This means "the beginning and the end."

<sup>d</sup>stadia One stadion was a distance of about 200 yards. It was one-eighth of a Roman mile.

<sup>e</sup>cubits A cubit is about half a yard, the length from the elbow to the tip of the little finger.

healing of all people. <sup>3</sup>Nothing that God judges guilty will be in that city. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be there. And God's servants will worship him. <sup>4</sup>They will see his face, and his name will be written on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup>There will never be night again. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun. The Lord God will give them light. And they will rule like kings forever and ever.

<sup>6</sup>The angel said to me, "These words are true and can be trusted. The Lord is the God of the spirits of the prophets." <sup>7</sup>He sent his angel to show his servants the things that must happen soon."

<sup>7</sup>"Listen! I am coming soon! He who obeys the words of prophecy in this book will be happy."

<sup>8</sup>I am John. I am the one who heard and saw these things. When I heard and saw them, I bowed down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed these things to me. <sup>9</sup>But the angel said to me, "Do not worship me! I am a servant like you and your brothers the prophets. I am a servant like all those who obey the words in this book. Worship God!"

<sup>10</sup>Then the angel told me, "Do not keep secret the words of prophecy in this book. The time is near for all this to happen. <sup>11</sup>Whoever is doing evil, let him continue to do evil. Whoever is unclean, let him continue to be unclean. Whoever is doing right, let him continue to do right. Whoever is holy, let him continue to be holy."

<sup>12</sup>"Listen! I am coming soon! I will bring rewards with me. I will repay each one for what he has done. <sup>13</sup>I am the Alpha and the Omega, <sup>14</sup>the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

<sup>14</sup>"Those who wash their robes" will be blessed. They will have the right to eat the fruit from the tree of life. They may go through the gates into the city. <sup>15</sup>Outside the city are the evil people, those who do evil magic, who sin sexually, who murder, who worship idols, and who love lies and tell lies.

<sup>16</sup>"I, Jesus, have sent my angel to tell you these things for the churches. I am the descendant<sup>d</sup> from the family of David. I am the bright morning star."

<sup>17</sup>The Spirit<sup>d</sup> and the bride say, "Come!" Everyone who hears this should also say, "Come!" If anyone is thirsty, let him come; whoever wishes it may have the water of life as a free gift.

<sup>18</sup>I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone adds anything to these words, God will give him the troubles written about in this book. <sup>19</sup>And if anyone takes away from the words of this book of prophecy, God will take away his share of the tree of life and of the holy city, which are written about in this book.

<sup>20</sup>Jesus is the One who says that these things are true. Now he says, "Yes, I am coming soon."

Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

<sup>b</sup>wash their robes This means they believed in Jesus so that their sins could be forgiven by Christ's blood.
